

What is Neon Mooncake and how does it work?

This is a fanwork week focused on modern danmei titles, where everyone is welcome to create fanworks based on a series of prompts.

During the prompt nomination period, everyone can nominate prompts in three categories through a Google Form. Next, a poll will be created for everyone to vote for prompts they most want to see. Through that, three prompts will be picked for each day of the week.

Here's a look at the schedule:

August 17-23 - Prompt Nomination

August 24-30 - Voting Period

September 1 - Prompts Finalized

September 2 - October 6 - Creation Period

How are the works posted?

Works can be posted on platforms Bluesky, Twitter and AO3.

What series, pairings and themes are allowed?

Any modern series is allowed. This also includes futuristic sci-fi (e.g. The Defectives) and novels set in the Republic of China/Minguo-era (e.g. Winter Begonia). This also includes novels that are set in both the ancient period and modern era, such as Guardian and Panguan.

All pairings are welcomed! This includes side pairings, wlw pairings and platonic/familial pairings.

Any theme (including dead dove) is also allowed as long as it's tagged.

I have another question!
