🐾 WATCH D.O.G.S. at Kimberlin Academy for Excellence

Dads of Great Students

Calling all Kimberlin Dads, Grandfathers, Uncles, and Father Figures!
Step into your child's world and make a lasting impact—join the WATCH D.O.G.S. program today!

👀 What is WATCH D.O.G.S.?

WATCH D.O.G.S. (Dads of Great Students) is a volunteer program designed to bring positive male role models into our school community. By volunteering your time during the school day, you help create a safe, supportive, and engaging environment for all students.

🛠️ What Do WATCH D.O.G.S. Do?

As a WATCH D.O.G., you'll spend a day (or more!) supporting students and staff by:

- 🚗 Morning Arrival Support – Greeting students, opening car doors, and starting the day with a smile
- 🏃 PE Class Assistance – Helping coaches and encouraging active participation
- 🏫 Campus Support
  - Hallway and exterior patrols
  - Recess and lunch supervision
- 📦 Office & Teacher Assistance
  - Assembling materials (laminating, hole punching, document prep)
  - Delivering items to classrooms
  - Setting up furniture, bulletin boards, and displays
- 🎯 General Support – Helping wherever staff needs an extra set of hands!

⭐ Why Volunteer?

Make a Difference

- Provide meaningful support so teachers and staff can focus on educating our kids
- Contribute to a safer, more positive school environment

Be Present

- Enjoy lunch with your child
- Experience a “day in the life” of your student
- Build connections with students, staff, and other families

Get Involved

- Participate in special events like:
  - 📚 Read Across America Week
  - 🎡 School fairs, carnivals, and fundraisers
  - 🏅 Field Day and other extracurricular activities

💪 Who Can Join?

Fathers, stepfathers, grandfathers, uncles, guardians, and father figures—all are welcome!
