

Salina Education Foundation Teacher Scholarships

Lenkiewicz Teacher Scholarship

This scholarship honors Len Lenkiewicz, a man who viewed teaching as a way to share his love of history with middle school students. He taught in USD 305 for 20 years. He enjoyed bringing history alive through his lectures and never forgot the name or face of a former student.

The Lenkiewicz Teacher Scholarship was established to assist USD 305 teachers wishing to pursue graduate degrees or further their education. One $500 scholarship may be awarded each calendar year on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis. All applicants must have taught in Salina Public Schools for a minimum of three years and must be working toward a graduate degree or completing a continuing education course. Applicants must demonstrate persistence, good character, and commitment to the field of education.

Eligibility: One $500 scholarship may be awarded each calendar year on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis. All applicants must have taught in Salina Public Schools for a minimum of three years and must be working toward a graduate degree or completing a continuing education course.

A selection committee consisting of one representative of the Lenkiewicz family, the Executive Director of the Salina Education Foundation, and the USD 305 Executive Director of School Improvement will select scholarship recipients and notify SEF.
