LucarioTheSkeleton / SkeleHearts (Often goes by Luca) is an NSFW Furry artist who prides himself in his “Shortstack” (A fetish involving short heights, large breasts, and hips). Luca has a repeated pattern of concerning behaviors interacting with others and often leverages anything he has against people. Luca primarily has a fictional species called “Skelecarios” (A mix between Skeletons and Lucarios from Pokemon) that encompass a large majority of his OCs and has actively encouraged people in the past to make their own Skelecario characters which he has reclaimed. Luca will usually reclaim characters of people he has interacted with / has done art trades with, so be warned.

A key trait about Luca to note is putting himself / his interests before others. Primarily, this can be seen with his Original Characters. Multiple accounts from people who interacted with him can recall similar stories of always being manipulated in some form so Luca can add more art of his OCs to his Toyhouse. He prioritizes OCs over actual people.

If you see Luca asking for art trades or if he requests to commission you. Do not answer. This is covered in the Character “Reclaiming” section. Luca will commission art of the minor’s old sona designs and use them for porn.

This document is made expressly to recount several instances that led up to the creation of the new server and some of the wicked things Luca has done in the past, though its use will change as the document develops. It was not created to present any biased opinions of him as a means of relieving frustration, but to give fair warning and reasons as to why he should not be made friends with as well as to expose everything he’d attempted to keep secret from people, including his friends. This document will receive more updates as time passes and information becomes more organized.

Previous callouts were made as well about LucarioTheSkeleton

- 1nkPuddles on Toyhouse made a callout in 2024
- The DiamondStorm made a video about Luca in 2022
- Dia has made another video as well as 2019 that still has points relevant to his day.

Luca has not changed since then. He’s only gotten worse by being more open about his depraved interests.

In addition to this. Luca has been banned from the following websites:

- Artfight
- Sketchers United (SFW / NSFW) (Multiple Times for SFW)
- Newgrounds (?)

Things to Note

“Eras”

Luca has detailed his online footprint as “Eras” (Similar to how Chris-Chan’s activities are documented.) Links to wayback archives to these “Eras” that Luca has written himself to best describe themself will be put here.

For simplicity’s sake, most of what has been included in the document takes place within the highlighted period—mostly ~2018 - 2024. However, there is a screenshot, such as during the Manipulation section, that dates back to approximately 2019, as indicated by the Sony Sketch icon in the drawing. There are drawings from Sock as well that date back to around the Amino era, only further solidifying the fact that this has been a repeated pattern of behavior from a younger age.

Incident #1 - 10/14/2024, 10:46 AM EST

It began with the current outburst of Pokemon leaks that have been flooding Twitter recently, some of which being related to the lore of the games and others being written stories in the style of old-fashioned mythology. Luca was talking about the lore aspect first since he hadn't read the stories and then made it sexual as he imagined all of the legendary Pokemon having sex with Mew. "Also this means all the legendaries we've seen probably fucked Mew at some point in their past which makes me giggle."

Both Casey and Parsnip were made uncomfortable by that but didn't immediately speak out on it. They later made their misery known after Nokan sent a link. What was linked in specifically was a posted fan theory that came as a result of the cut myths that GameFreak wrote, with the post suggesting a theory of N the character potentially being half-human and half-Zoroark. Luca was interested in it and began to talk about how cool he thought it was, but when Casey saw his expressed interest, she quickly started trying to shut it down because she mistook it for another of his moments where he makes conversations sexual. A fight broke out between the three. Luca let his emotions influence his judgment and immediately kicked the two from the server along with Nokya, who was poking fun at the argument they were having. These two screenshots are evidence of all of them being kicked:

> @NokanNook (^- ·· -^) I guess the mew spawning all other pokemon thing is either retconned or not canon to the games

ThighHearts 10/14/2024 12:45 PM
I suspect it to be like a semi-retcon

Like what I imagine is that a portion of Pokemon come from their respective legendary parents

But Mew is like the genesis

That birthed 99.9% of normal mons

Basically the Virgin Mary of pokemon

So Mew birthed all of the normies basically is what i'm assuming

Which would mean Mew is an aspect of Dialga, since it only gave birth to Pokemon and not humans (who are aspects of Palkia)

In turn I would expect most humanoid Pokemon to be more aligned to Palkia than Dialga

❤️ 🙏 😢

> ThighHearts But Mew is like the genesis

ThighHearts 10/14/2024 12:52 PM
To expand on this a little what I suspect happened specifically is that the respective legendaries & pseudo legendaries were created, and Mew was probably birthed very early and it had a hand in birthing most if not all other non-legendaries.

Since this lore and most mythological multiple-gods beliefs involve alot of birthing and children I think this unironically means Mew fucked all of the legendaries and all of the different Pokemon came to be due to Mew and it's many partners (edited)

Mew probably provided most of the common traits we see in alot of pokemon, and the different legendaries provided the more fantastical traits like typings and powers.

And since obviously most pseudo-legendaries from that time have likely died out, that means their descendants probably mingled with Mews offspring leading to pseudo-legendaries who now also share Mew's DNA

So at the current point in the timeline I suspect that all non-legendaries have traces of Mew DNA inside them

So actually I suppose it's not a retcon, afterall Mew being the originator of all Pokemon is just a theory made by pokemon scientists (edited)

They wouldn't have the same context for the world's creation that we now do

After that, Nokan, Guy, Frog, Casey, Parsnip, and Zorm made a group chat together to discuss what Luca had done, and with the conversation, the realization that all of his unhealthy habits confirmed suspicions that Luca was a toxic person became clear. Everyone in the group chat together decided to make a server to distance themselves from him temporarily and further vent to each other about him. A few minutes later, he felt the need to look for support and reached out to Frog, Nokan, and Guy, though instead of speaking with them at the same time, he messaged them all separately- one after the next. The following screenshots serve as evidence of him doing so:

Hey frog are you available for support? i'm sort of in dire need of it rn i really need to talk to a friend

I eat computer mice Today at 8:25 PM
Hey not at the moment. I've seen and read everything going on in the server and while I care very deeply about you in the way that you've been someone in my life during my roughest moments, the path you've taken has sicken me to my core in the harshest way I can say.

I have been there for you, Guy has been there for you, and I can name others who all hold your hand and help you when you're in a dire need but yet when it came to my own trauma you costly brushed it off as just relationship issues or haven't even checked up on me.

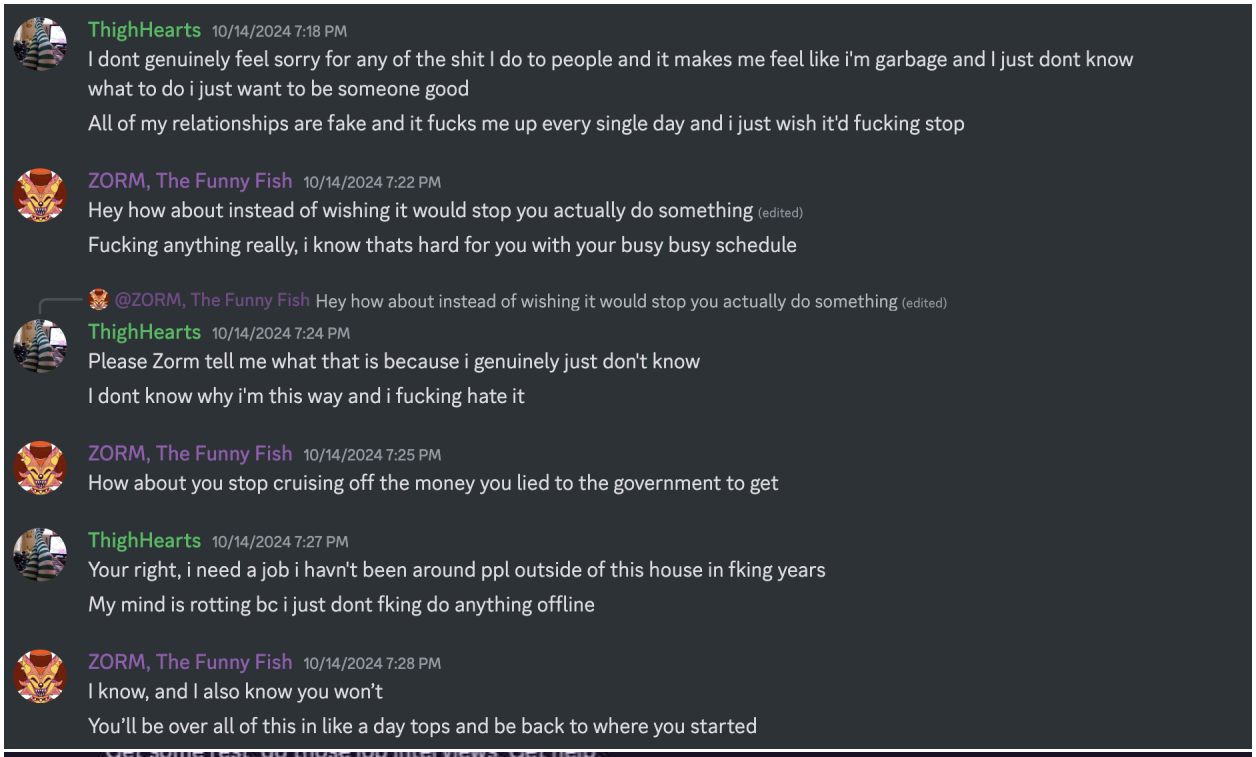

I was in a hurricane and had no power for 5 days and I had strangers worry about me first before anything; and I only see messages in here for when you want something from me. Or if I owe you something.

I'm saying this as tough love, and i'm saying this because I want you to actually get better. I'm not gonna be a shoulder for another narcissist in my life after the last one also spit me out when he was done using me. Is that how you think of me and your friends? If not, get better.

I'm here for you, im rooting for you, but I am not your safety blanket. You were cruel to people today and finding out about the Zorm thing sickens me more because it proves you've been cruel before as well.

adding this again because I know big messages scare you
I am not cutting you off, but I am extremely upset with you and your actions right now and I need to see change before I can continue supporting you dude.

Get some rest, do those job interviews. Get help.

I'm sorry man, this one you're gonna have to do on your own. At the very least, I can tell you how I feel.

I feel like despite everything that I've done for you, I feel like you haven't given your part fully, and that really hurts. Not to mention that you've already asked Frog and Nokan before myself, and that shows that both you're going down a list of people, and second that I'm not considered the first person you talk to considering how much I've done for you, all the way back from the first server. That shows that its insincere for the most part. I'm not angry at you, nor do I want to stop being your friend, but it shows that this relationship is one sided, and I'm disappointed about it.

Im sorry man, but no means no, best to suck it up and be mature about everything that has happened.

Incident #2 - 10/14/2024, 6:02 PM EST

The next incident occurred only a few hours after the first. While everyone in the group chat was speaking about how they believed that Luca's DID alter was fake, Zorm came up in the conversation. Prior to the incidents, Luca had at one point complained about Zorm behind his back through his alter along with Nokan and Guy. Angered by this, Zorm began to read through his alter-centric thread. After having read everything that involved him, he immediately began confronting Luca about it. The following screenshots are a few notable moments from their altercation:

ThighHearts 10/14/2024 6:47 PM
Yeah i'll concede it's hard as fuck for me to do that lmao

Idk Zorm sometimes I just think your a complete prick but at the same time I still like hanging out with you, I geniunely cant explain it myself

ZORM, The Funny Fish 10/14/2024 6:48 PM
I absolutely am, but I find it incredibly inappropriate that you decided to do that in a public place and to people I considered my friends

During this time, a new server had already been created by the group, and from that point they had begun to use it as the main server. After some more shared dialogue, it was unanimously agreed that Luca had to be cut off from the rest of the group, primarily so that nobody would have to interact with someone they abhorred ever again.

Incident #3 - 10/16/2024, 8:35 AM EST

The last incident, which made everyone involved want to sever any ties with him almost entirely, takes place two days after the first two. That morning, Luca sent Guy a message accompanied by a video. In this video, Luca speaks on how laments how his life has turned out and reasons as to why he has ultimately decided to commit suicide by ingesting the medications contained in two bottles, one of aspirin and the other of melatonin. With how heavy the subject matter is, the video will not be available within this document, however, if it is desired the video can be provided. Evidence of his message and video can be seen in the screenshot below:

The first two incidents had already been enough to persuade everyone involved to remove Luca, but after seeing the video they all became deeply irate. The server viewed this video sent to Guy as nothing more than a desperate attempt to emotionally manipulate him and hopefully sway him to stay. Although it didn't convince Guy, he still sought help from Cap, a friend of Frog's, to call the police and send them to Luca's house to make sure he would be safe.

Disclaimer

While we believe that the information we bring forth is valid criticism against Luca, we do not condone the harassment against him via death threats, intentionally getting information out of him, or other methods of causing him distress. Everything provided here is to not only provide evidence of Luca's wrongdoings, but also to provide evidence to Luca himself that he needs to get help.

His Relationship with Sock (2020)

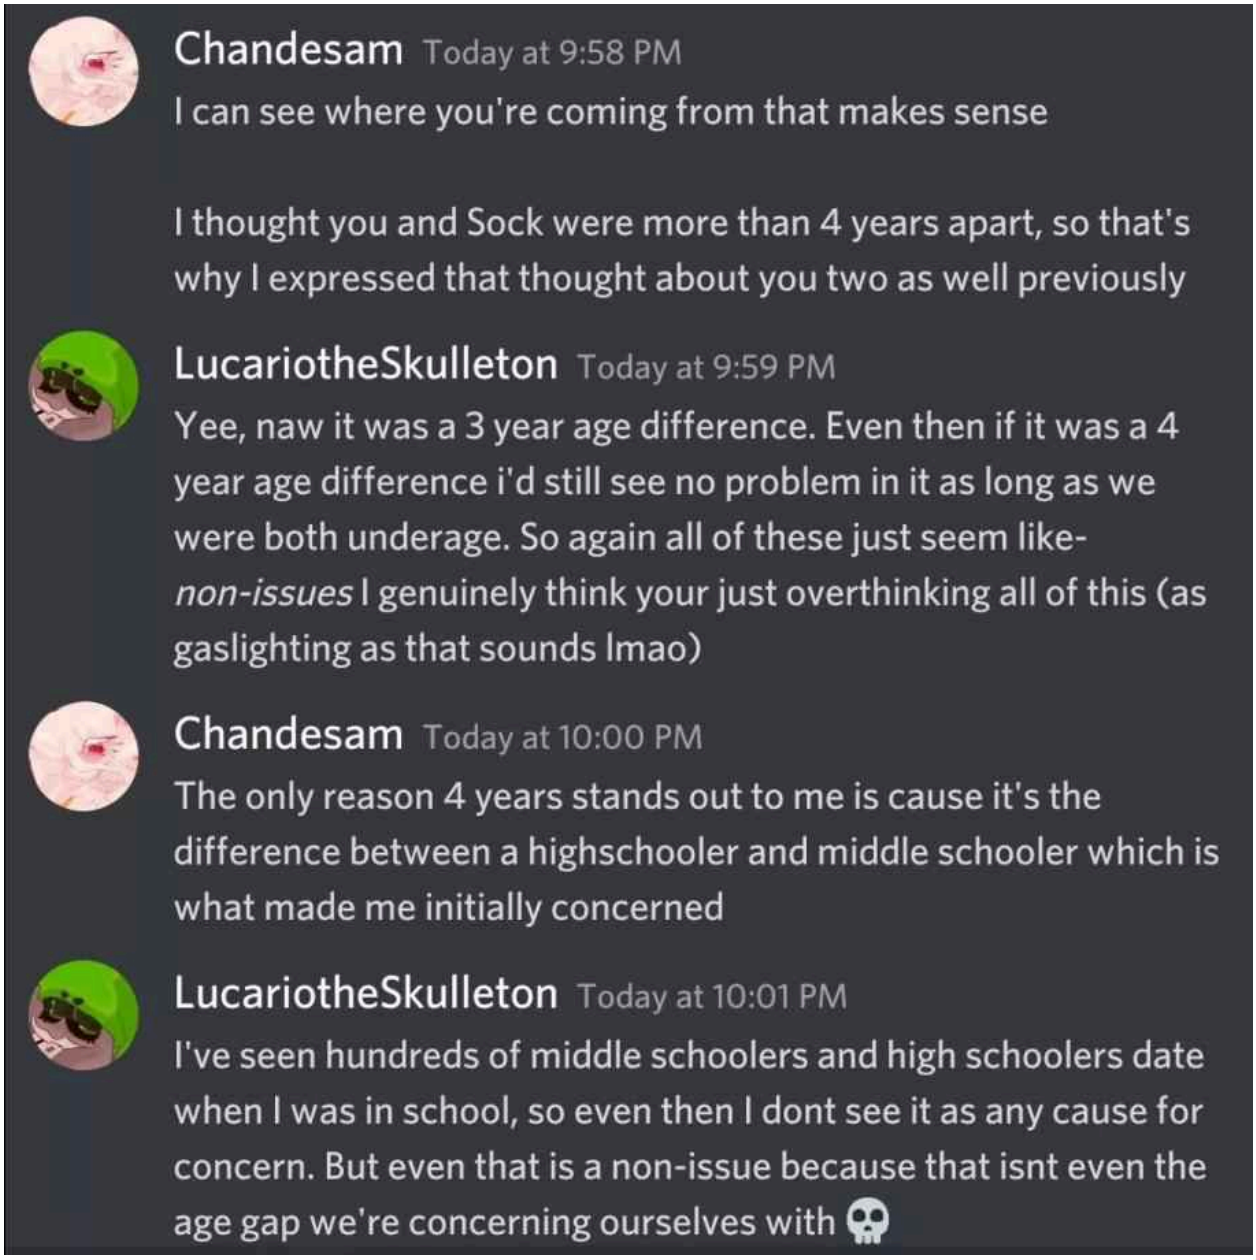

Luca was in a relationship at age 17 with a minor (13) named Sock. While Luca will often use his age to pardon his actions, this still does not negate the fact that he had actively exposed a 13-year-old to NSFW content and sexualized them in such a fashion that the content to this day is available on websites such as R34 and preserved in Sketcher's United.

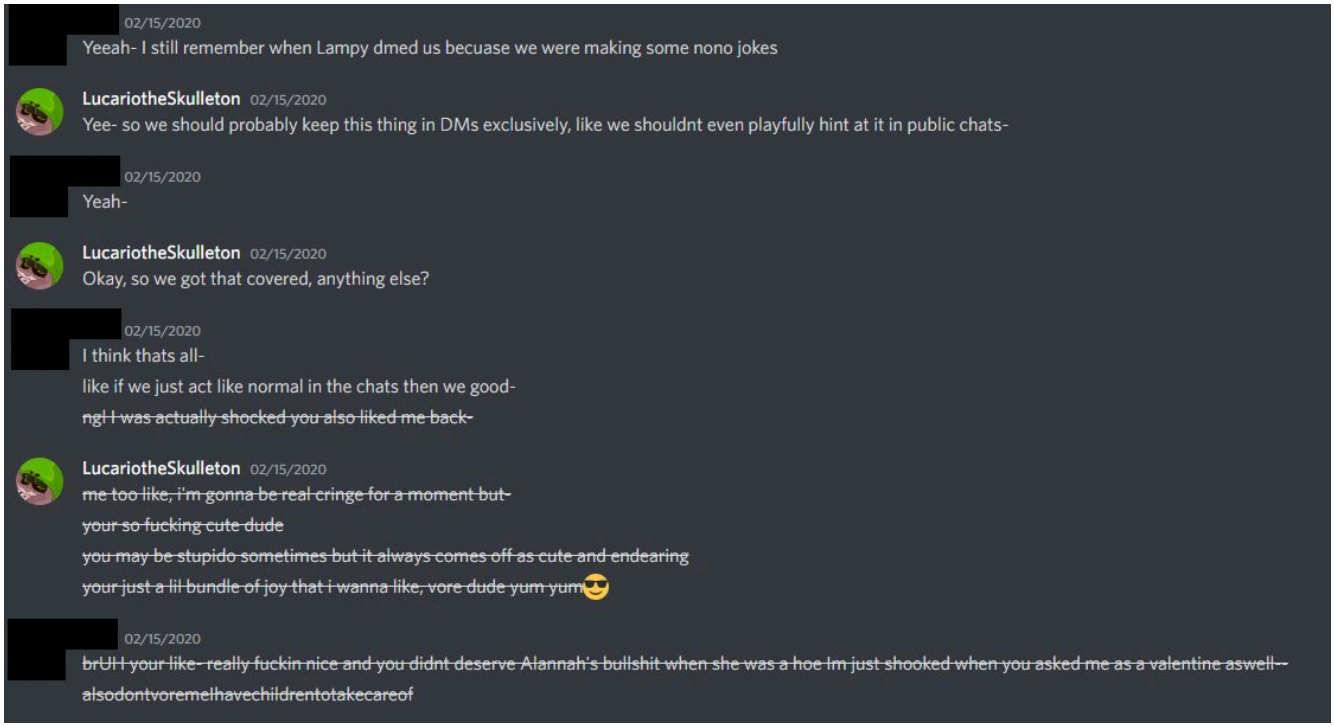

When confronted about the relationship involving Sock, Luca chooses to brush it off (in his words, "Gaslight," making it obvious he knows what he's doing). Luca has a repeated pattern of gaslighting and making things seem like “nonissues.” This is a common thing for Luca whenever he is confronted with problematic behaviors.

He has made a point in these screenshots with Sock to keep their relationship “secret” while continuously mentioning the age gap between them. This didn’t stop him however from continuously sexualizing a 13-year-old Sock. He actively went out of his way to hide and gaslight people who questioned if something was going on between them (Something was in fact going on.)

Note: Lampy mentioned in the screenshots is Chandesam.

LucariotheSkulleton 02/15/2020
i just-
Ngl brother i've been feeling some really not okay things latley 😳

[redacted] 02/15/2020
Like what? If you need to vent you can vent to me if you want 😳

LucariotheSkulleton 02/15/2020
Well, i really like you, but y'know the elephant in the room is-
Well the age gap-- like when we take that into account all of this becomes preeeeety creepish. (edited)

[redacted] 02/15/2020
sadly yeah-wait homie is that a no homo "like" you or- 😳

LucariotheSkulleton 02/15/2020
yeah thats a homo like my dude- not that it matters really cuz yeah, the age gap introduces some problems-

[redacted] 02/15/2020
Like alot-

LucariotheSkulleton 02/15/2020
Like i know for a fact i wouldnt try any shit, like i'm a weirdo not a monster. XD Like i would literally never ask for nudes or any of that gross degenerate shit, but even without all of that its still weird and wrong-
So like idek how to handle these feelings rn-also uh, pls dont tell anyone in the server about this their probably gonna really misinterpret it

[redacted] 02/15/2020
at least its not like what 7??
so its not as horrible-

LucariotheSkulleton 02/15/2020
Yeah, i honestly thought it would be like 5 or 6-
So... where does this put us?

[redacted] 02/15/2020
less tangled-maybe half way through?

LucariotheSkulleton 02/15/2020
I suppose-

[redacted] 02/15/2020
so now that the age gap is kinda fixed I suppose? whats left in this tanlge stringed mess?
I think we pretty much got the big prob out the way so thats good

LucariotheSkulleton 02/15/2020
Yee, really good-
But if we do get together i dont think we should make it public y'know? Like people may get concerned or weirded out- Lampy actually had a talk with me when we started shipping Phylia and IRL because she was concerned something else was going on-
Like even though we wont be doing anything gross or weird people wont think about that when they hear, they'll just assume the worst-

Here Luca suggests a "break" to his and Sock's relationship, citing that his reason why is that he does not want to be seen as a predator despite at this point dating someone with a 4-year age gap separating each other.

[redacted] Hey luca, can we take our relationship on a break if it's ok?

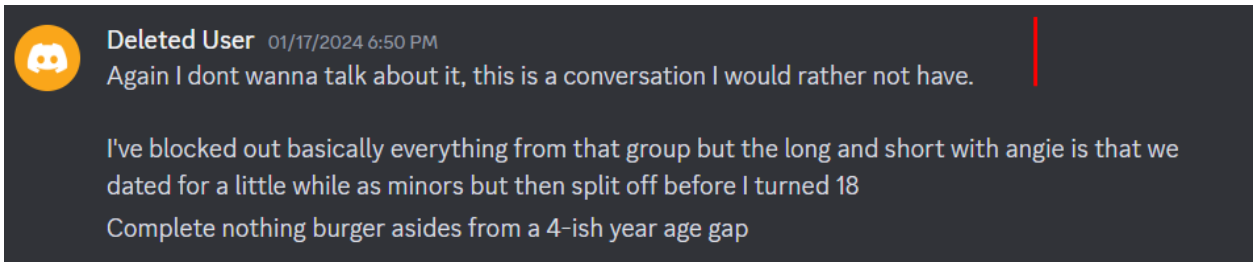

I'm not in the best state of mind rn, I feel like fucking shit being around people and I dont wanna accidentally hurt you or anyone else

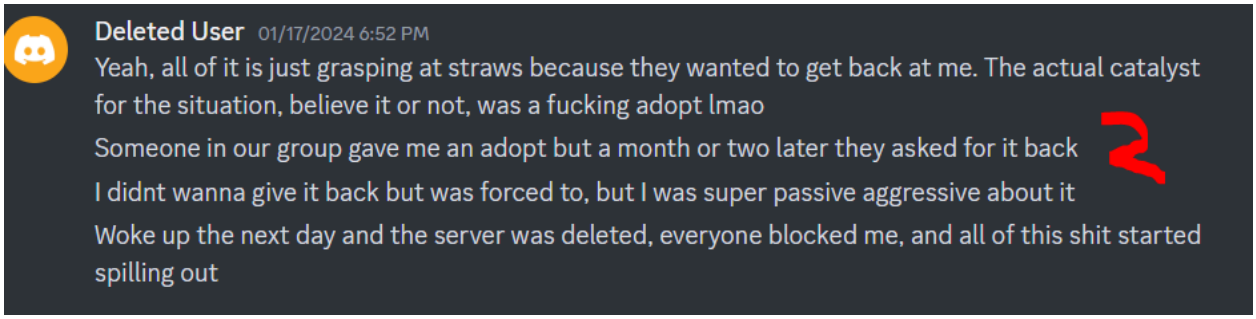

You did nothing wrong I swear it's just my mindset going negative as fuck rn,, Ilysm I dont wanna risk putting my negative mindset on you
You dont deserve that your a wonderful person
I wanted to tell you that for a while but I felt like I was gonna hurt you some way or another I'm sorry for being late,

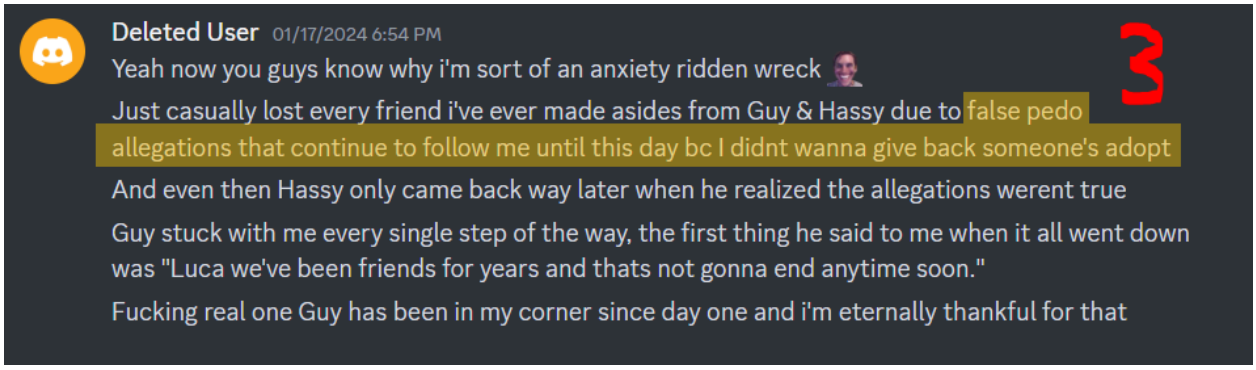

LucariotheSkulleton 01/05/2021
Oh thats 100% okay sock, I was actually gonna suggest a break at some point too, y'know cuz i'm turning 18 and all this month. The age gap is only gonna become a bigger issue and i thought it would be a good move to slow things down.
Nah of course you wouldnt hurt me

Claiming Sock's Sona and OCs (2021 - Current)

Even in 2020, Luca has continued to mention Sock's persona "Angie" and "reclaimed" different versions of it (Ex.: Mii! Angie) He has continued to talk about Sock even years after the fact. Along with this, he has also stolen several characters from Sock.

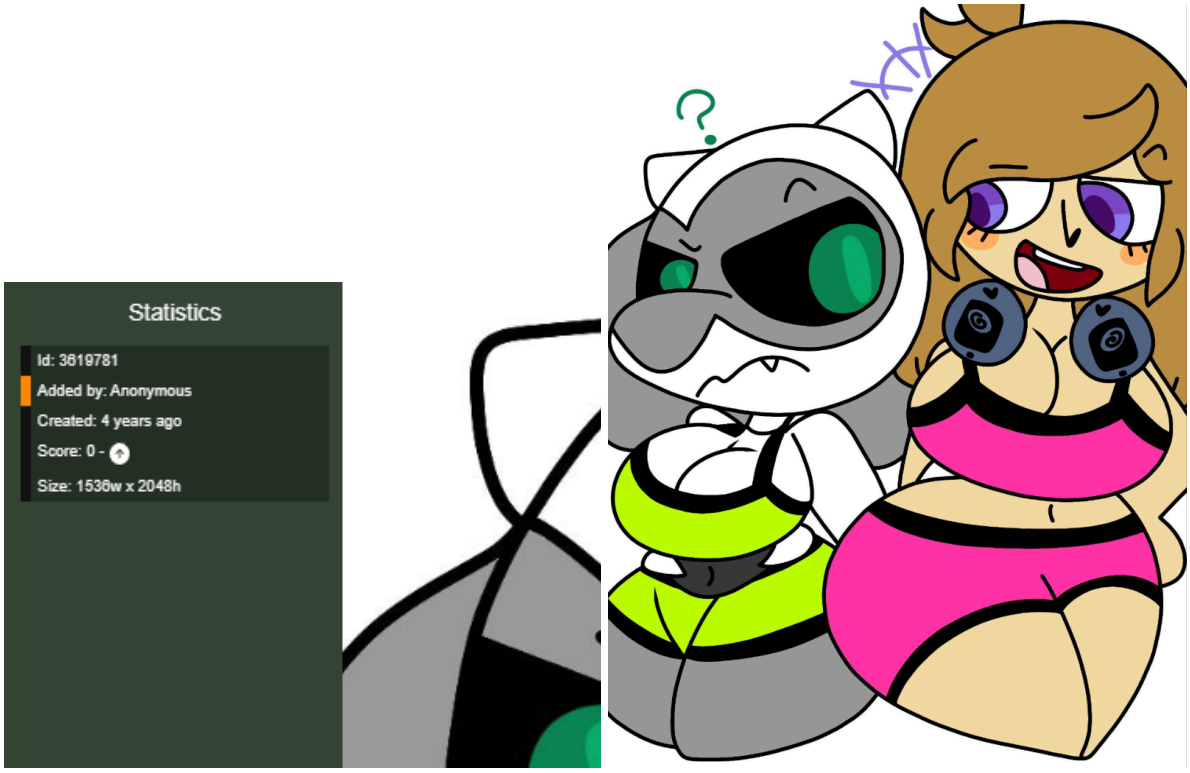

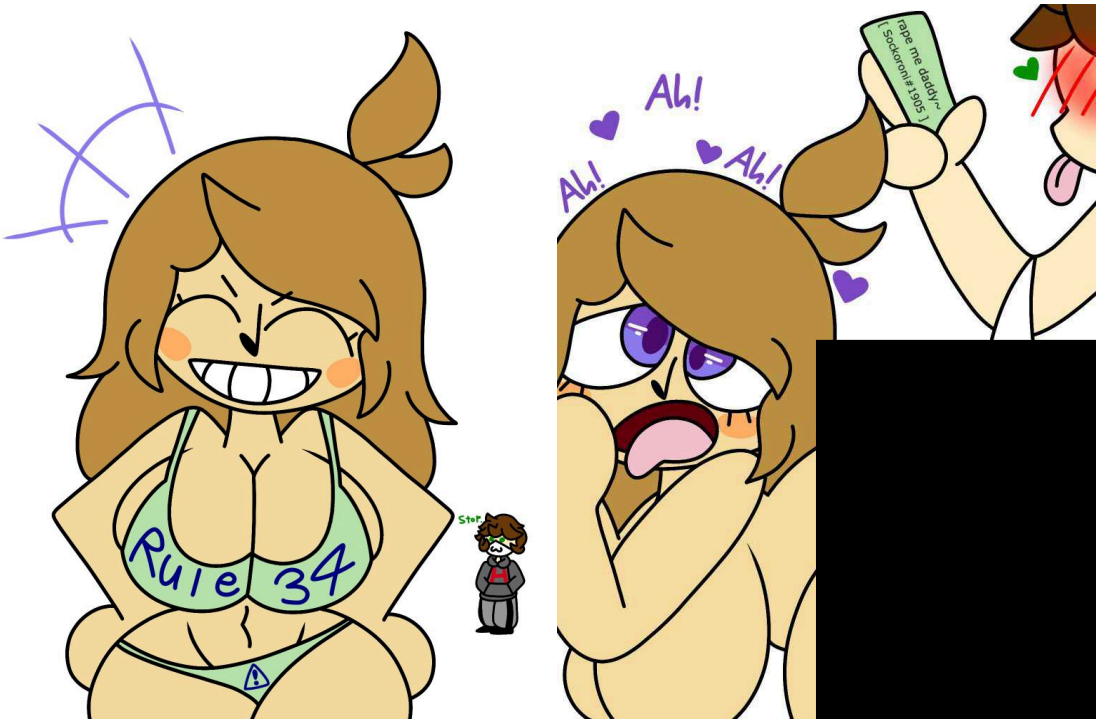

Context: Luca believes this happened with the first Discord when it was instead people discovering what he had done (Grooming Sock and drawing both Incest and Zoophilic art).

Below are a select few images displaying all the sexually explicit content he's made of Sock's old sonas along with the OCs he's stolen from them. To find more evidence of this, refer to Image Compilation > Grooming > Claiming Sock's Sona and OCs:

In the screenshot below, art depicting one of Sock's old personas can be seen being sexualized again. The point of interest in the screenshot, however, is the comment with the censored handle which says "Sockii." While not confirmed for certain, it is inferred that both Sock and their at the time nickname might have given Luca inspiration to create his character Socki, who is also drawn in a lot of his NSFW art.

Below is pornographic art, both AI-generated and hand-made, of a minor's old persona along with their dead name, which Luca has made and continues to use.

Sock eventually confronted Luca about him stealing their old persona. In response to this, Luca swiftly took down his post not too long after, although still continued to use the design and name.

“Minor Art Machines” and Drawing NSFW of Minors (2020-Current)

Luca even past the age of 18 interacted with minors despite producing NSFW content. He has made mentions in the past of how he loves fanart. For example, Luca will often beg for fanart, as seen below:

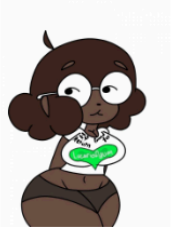

Around 2020-2022, Luca had a habit of keeping track of everyone he drew porn of by marking their personas with paint or shirts that read either, “If found, return to Lucariofyum”, “Property of Lucariofyum”, or simply “Lucariofyum”. We have provided both evidence of when he first began this trend of his and also a list of the people he’s done this to along with their approximate ages at the time.

The relationship he shared with these minors was one of give and take. He would beg and then receive art of their short-stack fetish characters, that art including porn, and in return he would do the same. For example, the first two images below are of Luca's pet fish Kipper, with Sock having drawn both images. Along with this are more images of art made by minors for Luca.

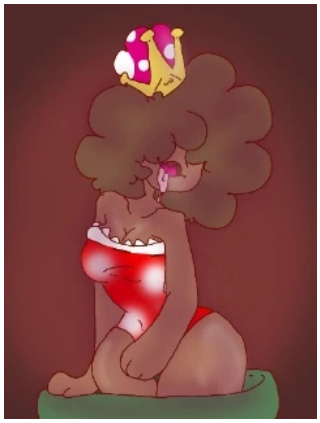

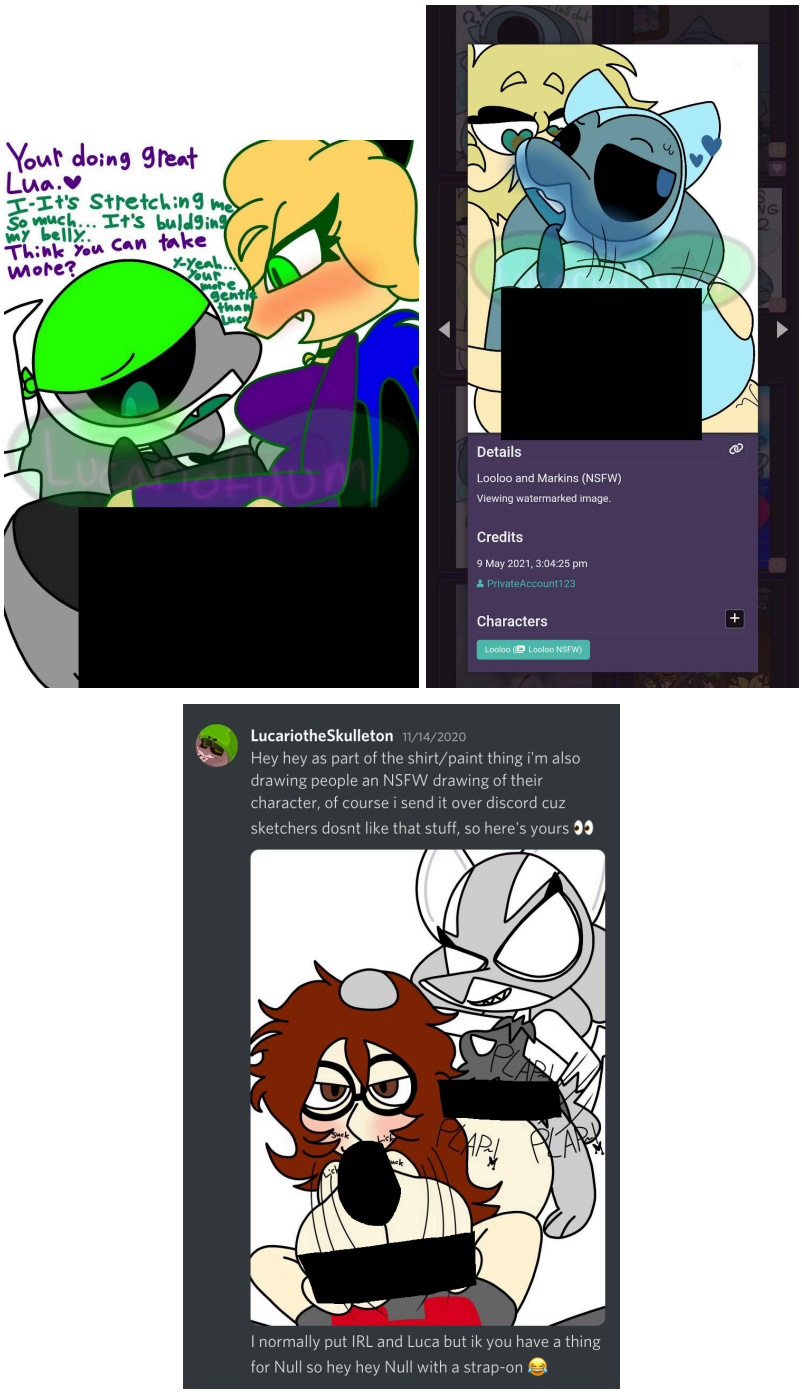

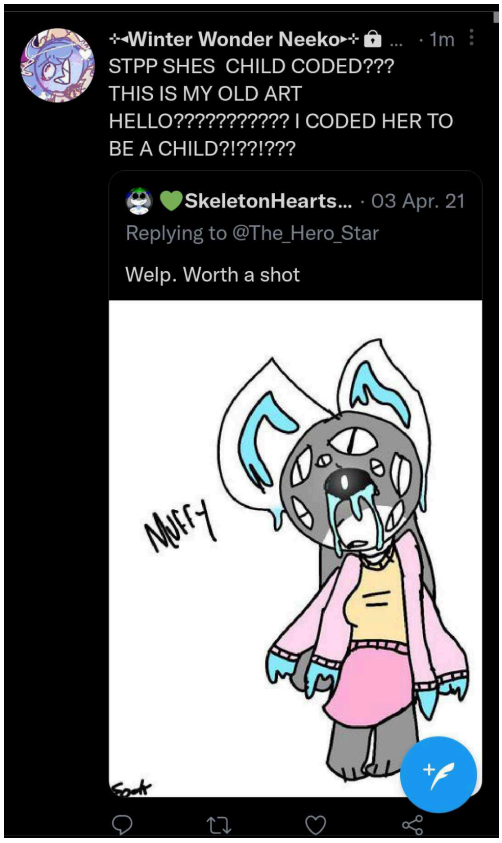

Below this are pieces that Luca himself has made of minors, oftentimes depicting them partaking in sexual intercourse. To view more evidence of this, refer to Image Compilation > Grooming > “Minor Art Machines” and Drawing NSFW of Minors:

To this day, Luca continues to use these personas depicting people who were children at the time and the characters they had created back then, even when he no longer has contact with them. Below is an example of Luca sexualizing somebody's older art by applying his short-stack fetish to the character and their reaction:

Sexualizing Minors

Luca has openly posted NSFW content involving Kris from Deltarune and fantasizes about it according to them.

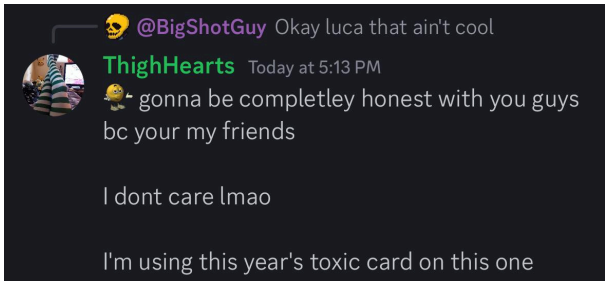

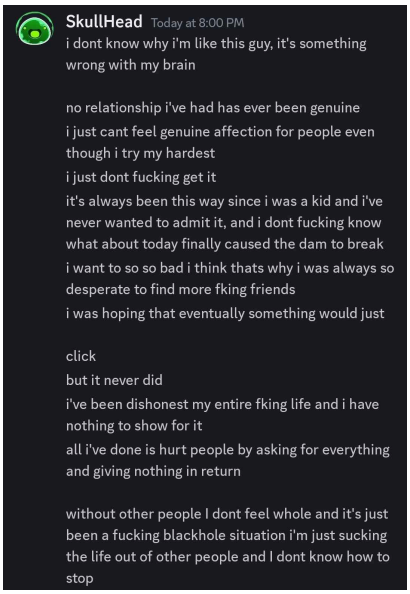

Disclaimer

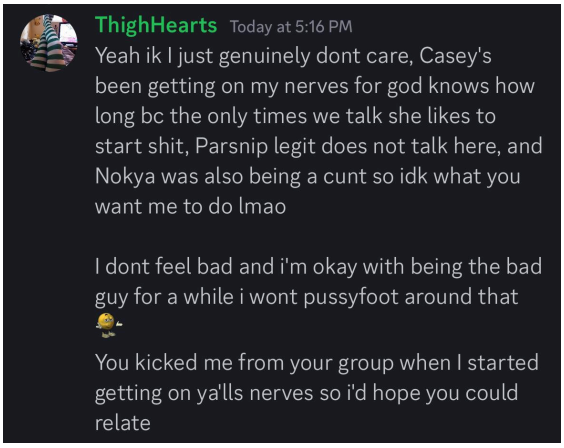

While we believe that the information we bring forth is valid criticism against Luca, we do not condone the harassment against him via death threats, intentionally getting information out of him, or other methods of causing him distress. Everything provided here is to not only provide evidence of Luca's wrongdoings, but also to provide evidence to Luca himself that he needs to get help.

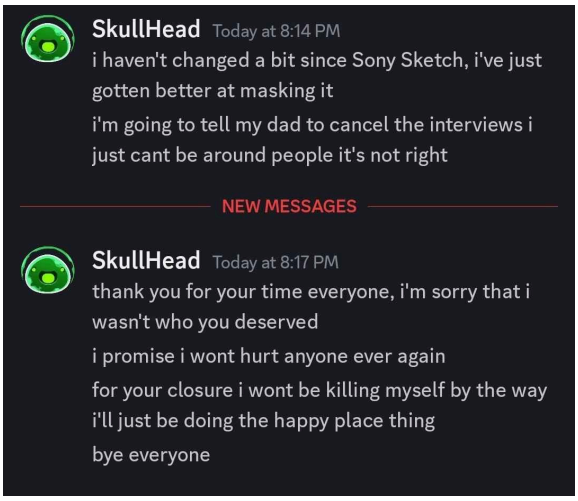

Abusive Behavior

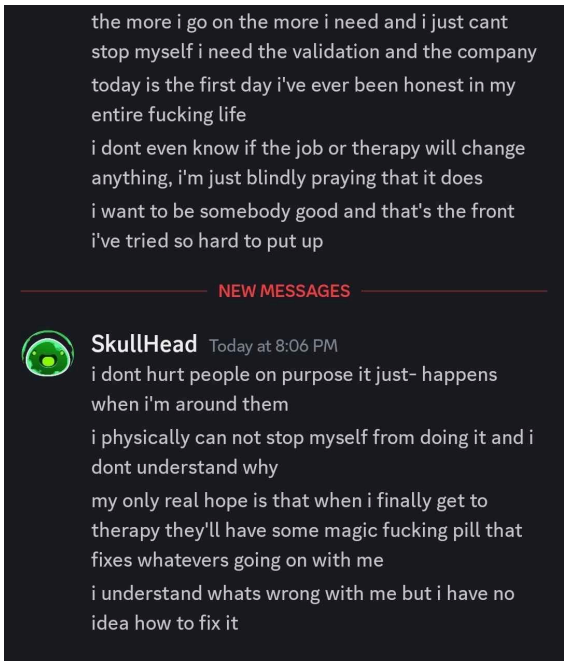

The screenshots below have already been included in the Incidents Leading Up section, but have also been included here to emphasize an abusive pattern of behavior.

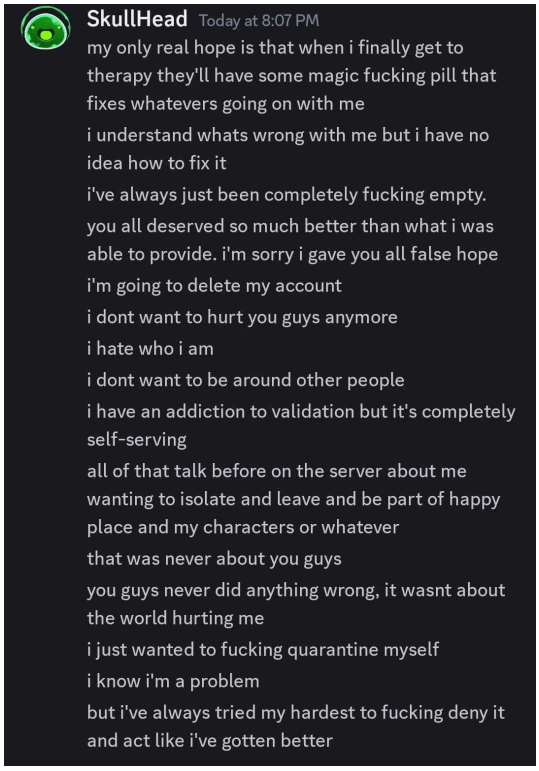

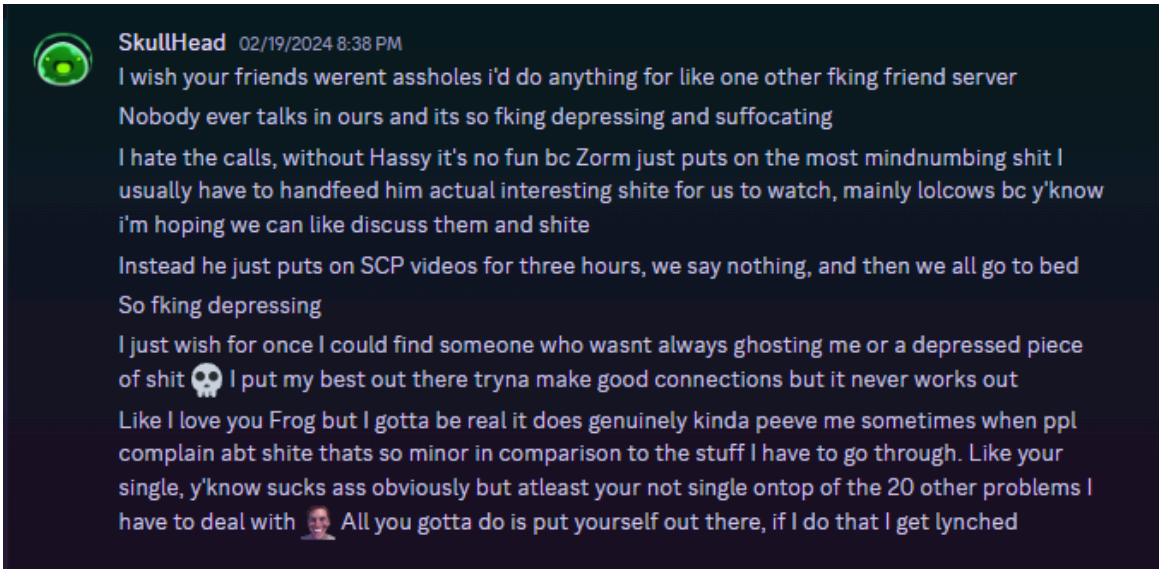

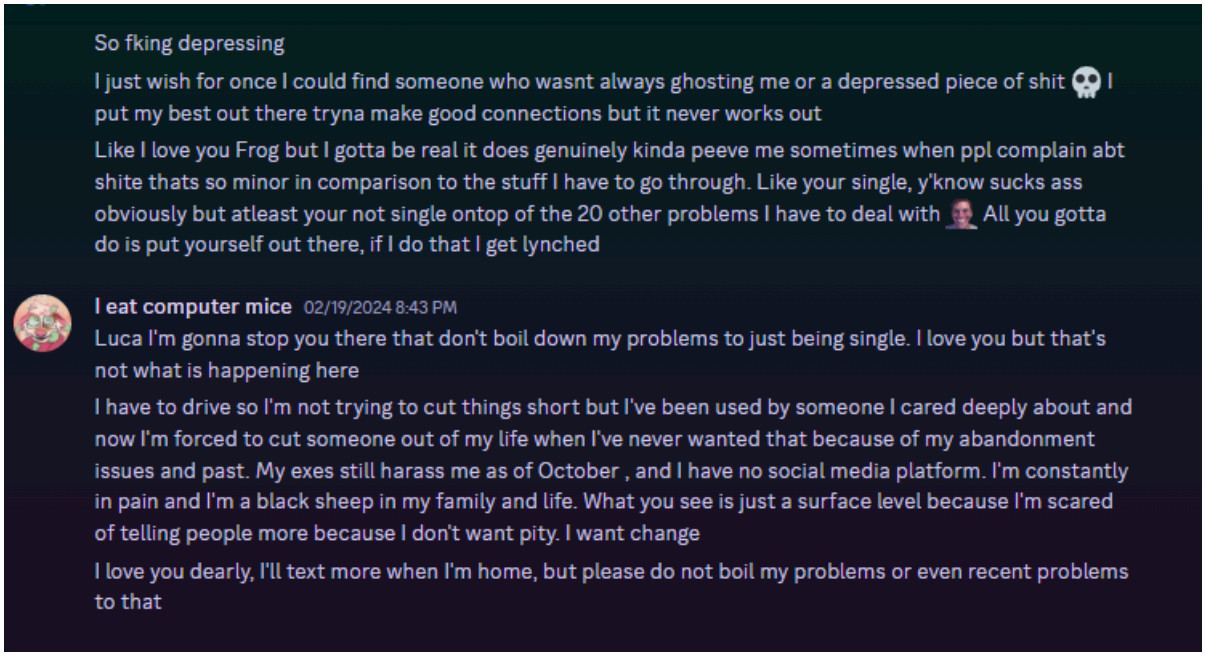

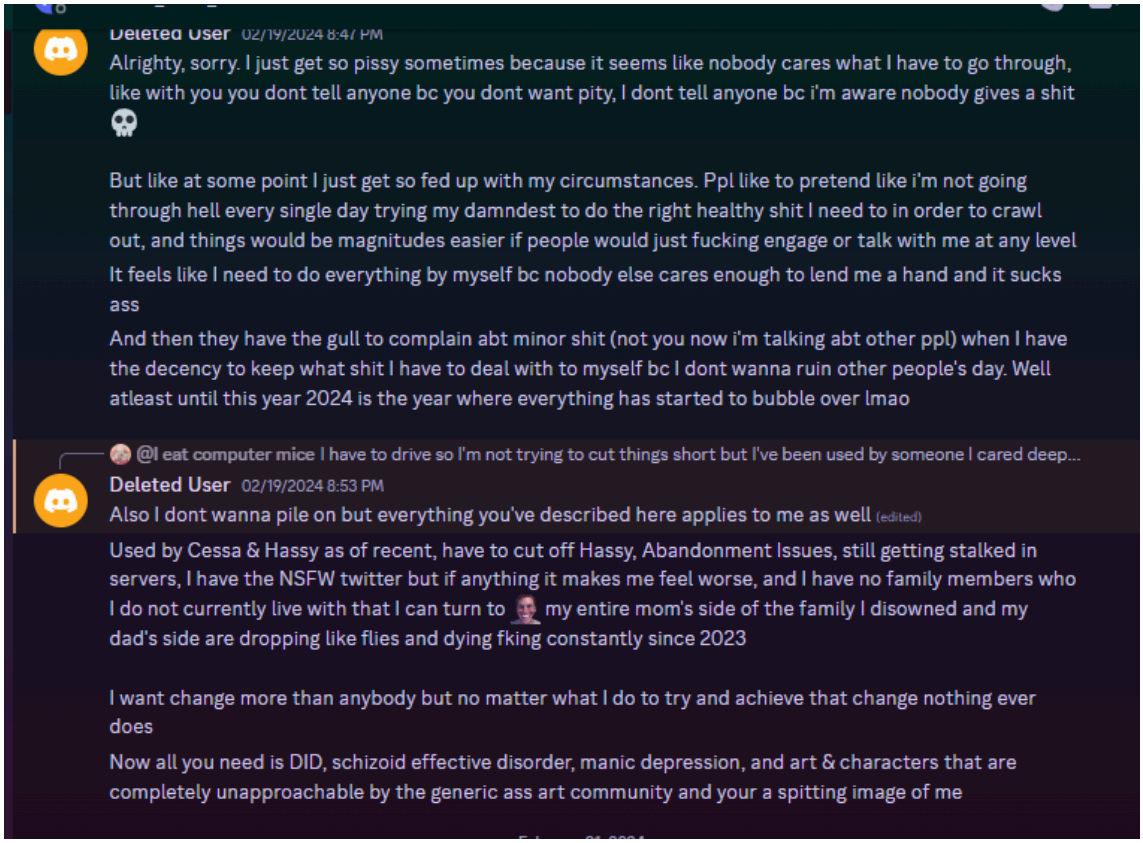

In the screenshots below, Luca is minimizing Frog's struggles by saying: "Like your single, y'know sucks ass obviously but at least your not single on top of 20 other problems I have to deal with." Minimization is a classic manipulation tactic.

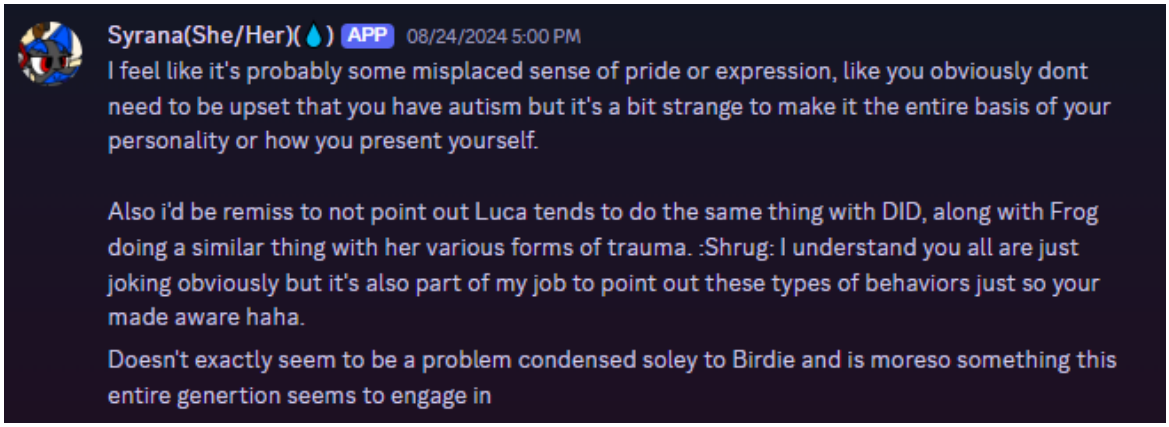

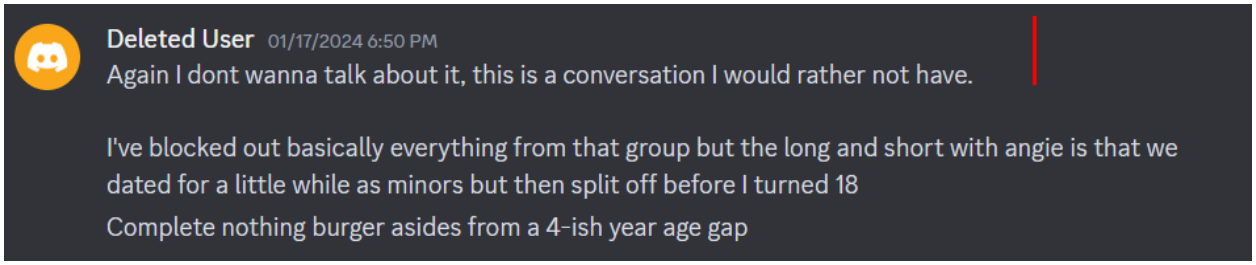

Luca backpedals in the screenshot below with, "... Then they have the gull to complain abt minor shit (not you now I'm talking abt other ppl)" as if trying to indicate that it may "arise in the future."

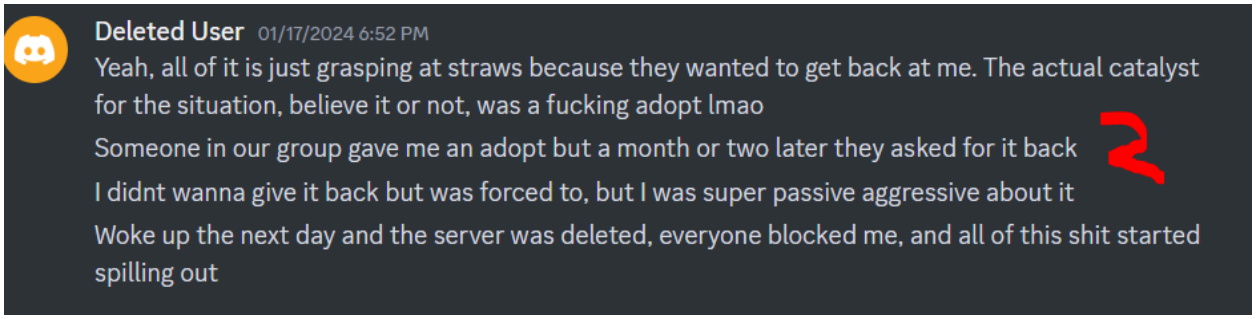

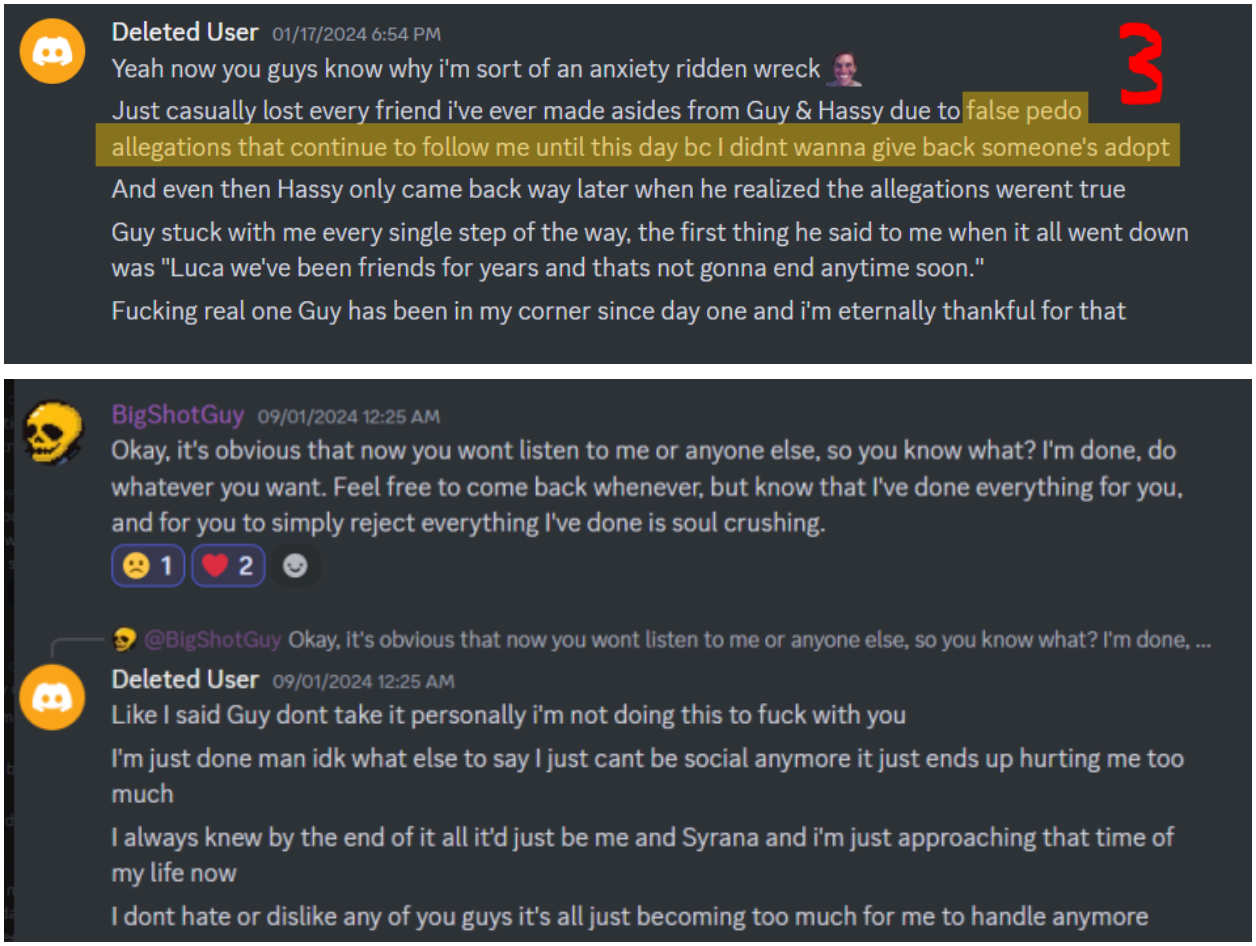

When “Syrana” mentions this, she means to say that Frog has, at least at some points, made her trauma her personality. Luca often used Syrana as a tactic to deflect any criticism (See how this didn’t work in Incidents Leading Up 2).

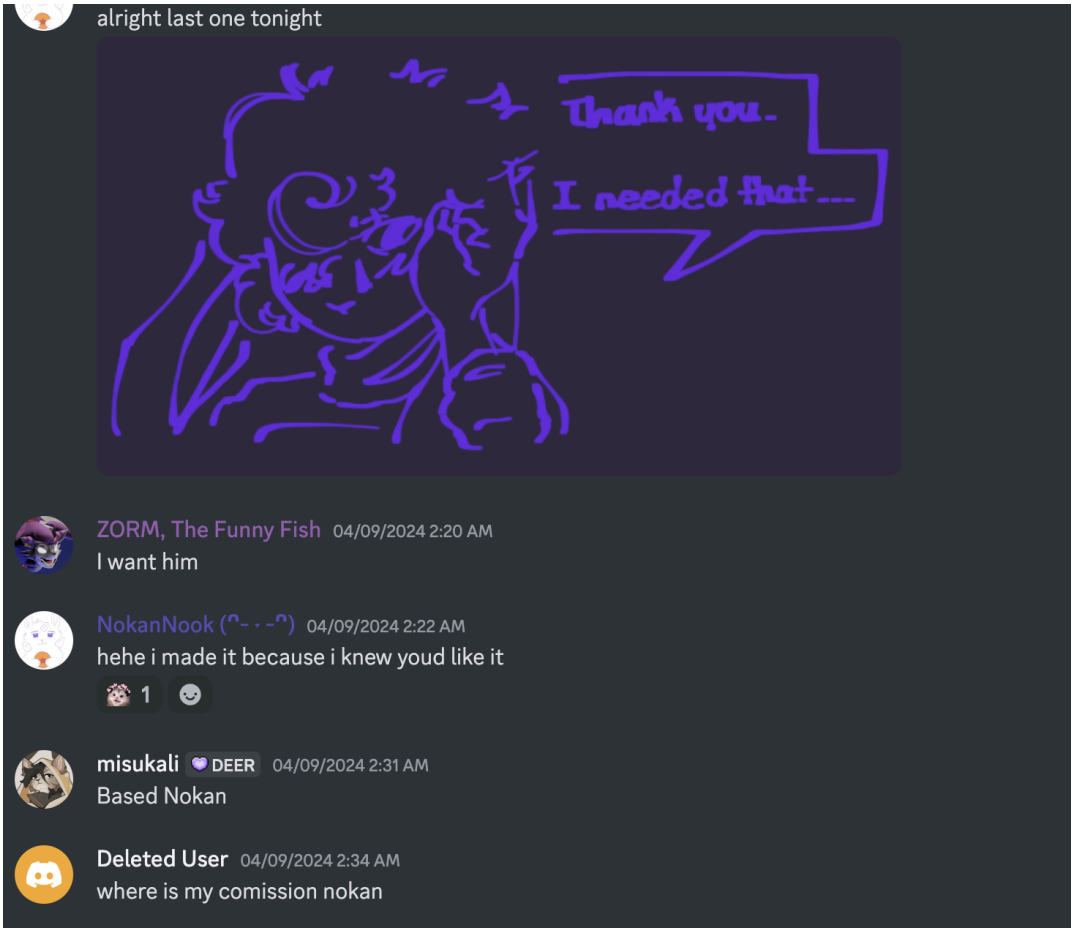

In the screenshots below, Luca gaslighted everyone in the Discord server and made them believe that all of the callout posts made of him were done out of conspiracy against him as a form of revenge for not wanting to return an adopted OC.

In these screenshots, Luca can be seen pestering someone before and after completing his commission, with the first being from before and the last two after. The artist took a very long time to complete his commission, however, he continued to pester him for almost three months after the fact. In the last two, he'd already been told that he would no longer be allowed to commission the artist. Despite being told this, he continued to ask all while bemoaning about the length of time it took for his commission to be finished. He complained about it so much that it began to bother other people as well.

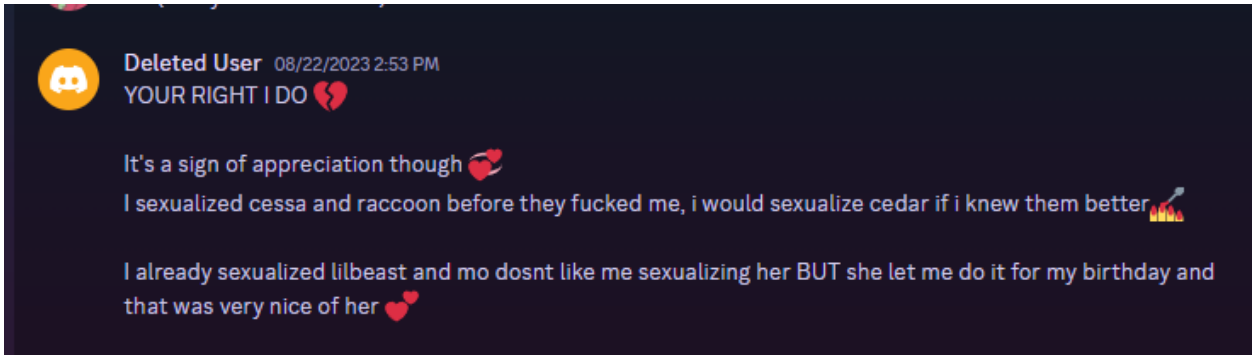

Here, Luca confesses that he started sexualizing himself again the moment he broke up with Cessa, saying “Now that Cessa is gone I’ve started baiting my Twitter following into simping for me again.”

Here Luca explains his sexualizing other people as a form of endearment, somehow not understanding how strange a statement like this is.

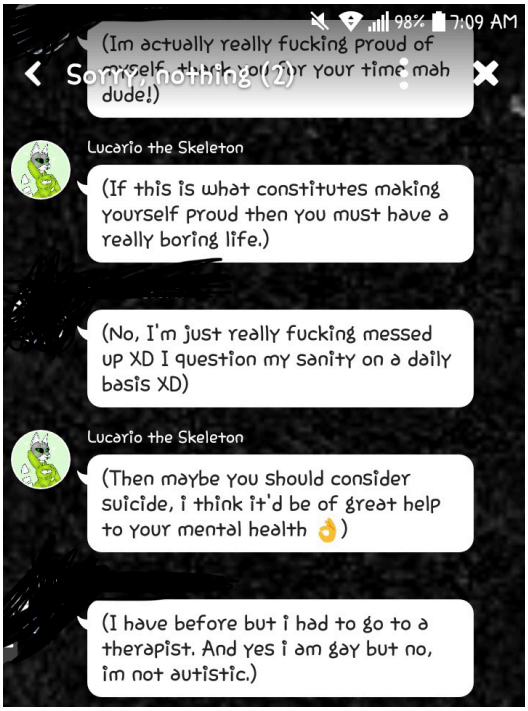

Self Harm and Death Threats

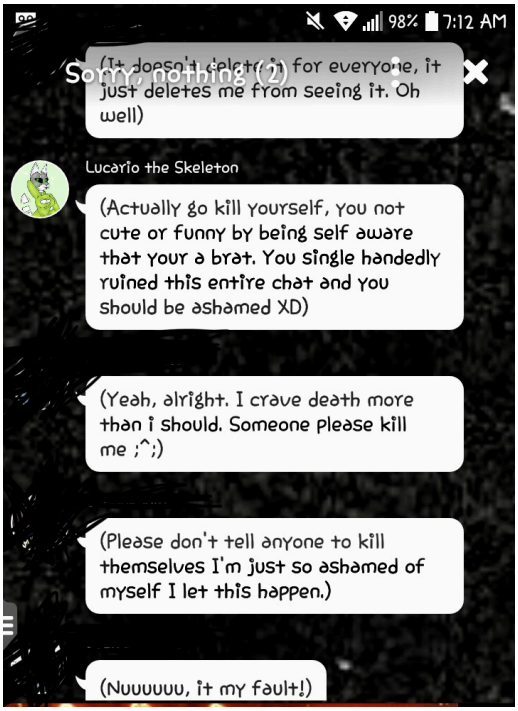

The screenshots below are dated around 2017-2020, somewhere between the Tulpa Era and the Amino Era. Context remains unknown about what prompted the self harm and death threats, but it doesn't excuse what was said.

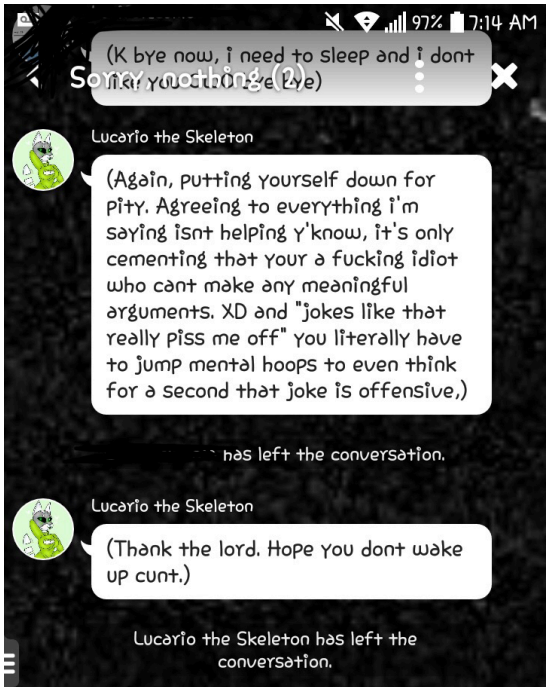

Aight okay now that i know you arent random then i can honestly tell you to slit your own throat and fucking kill yourself faggot 👌

My life is my fucking life dont judge me for shit i do that dosnt affect you. I already blocked the guy shit isnt happening. Now fuck off and die because i'm leaving this shithole of a Discord.

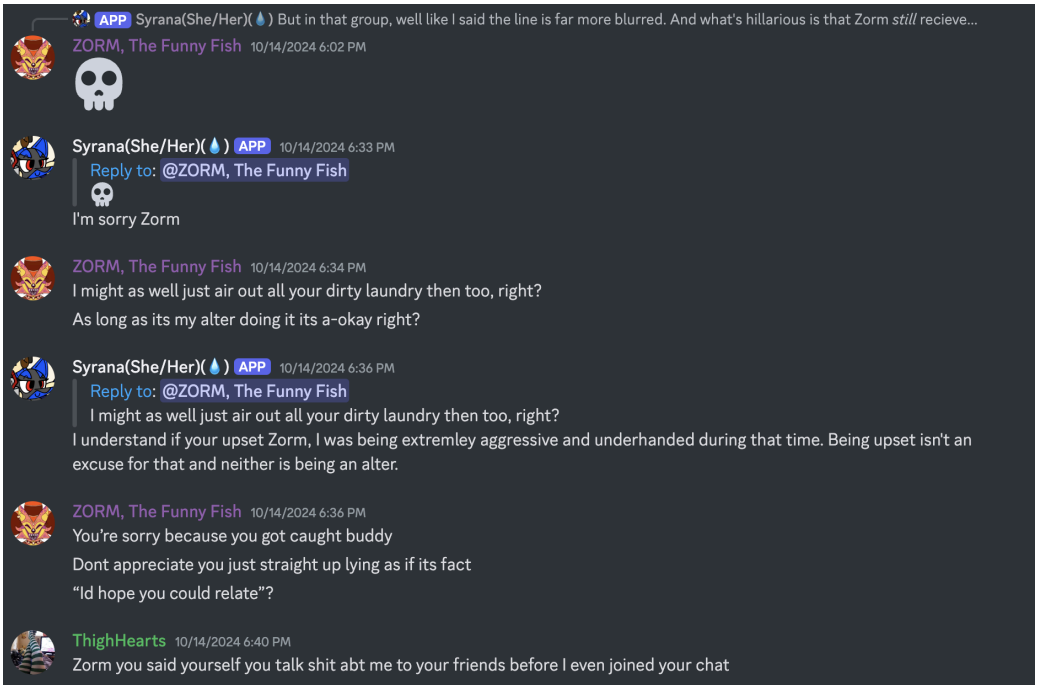

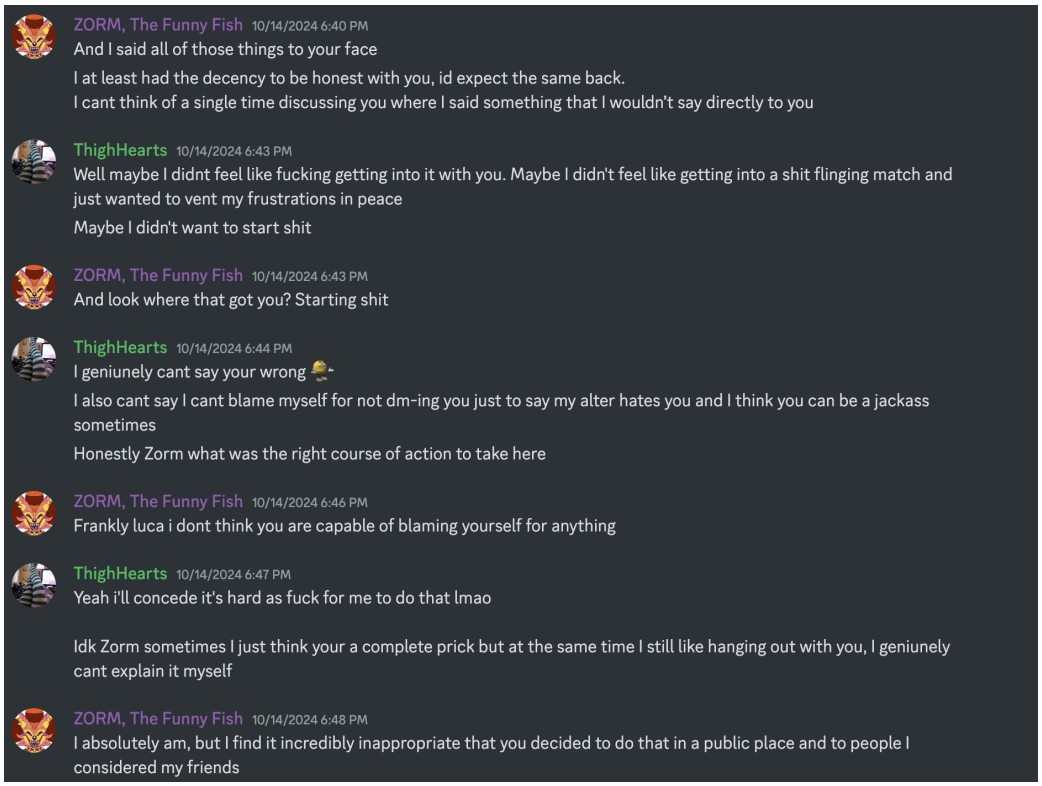

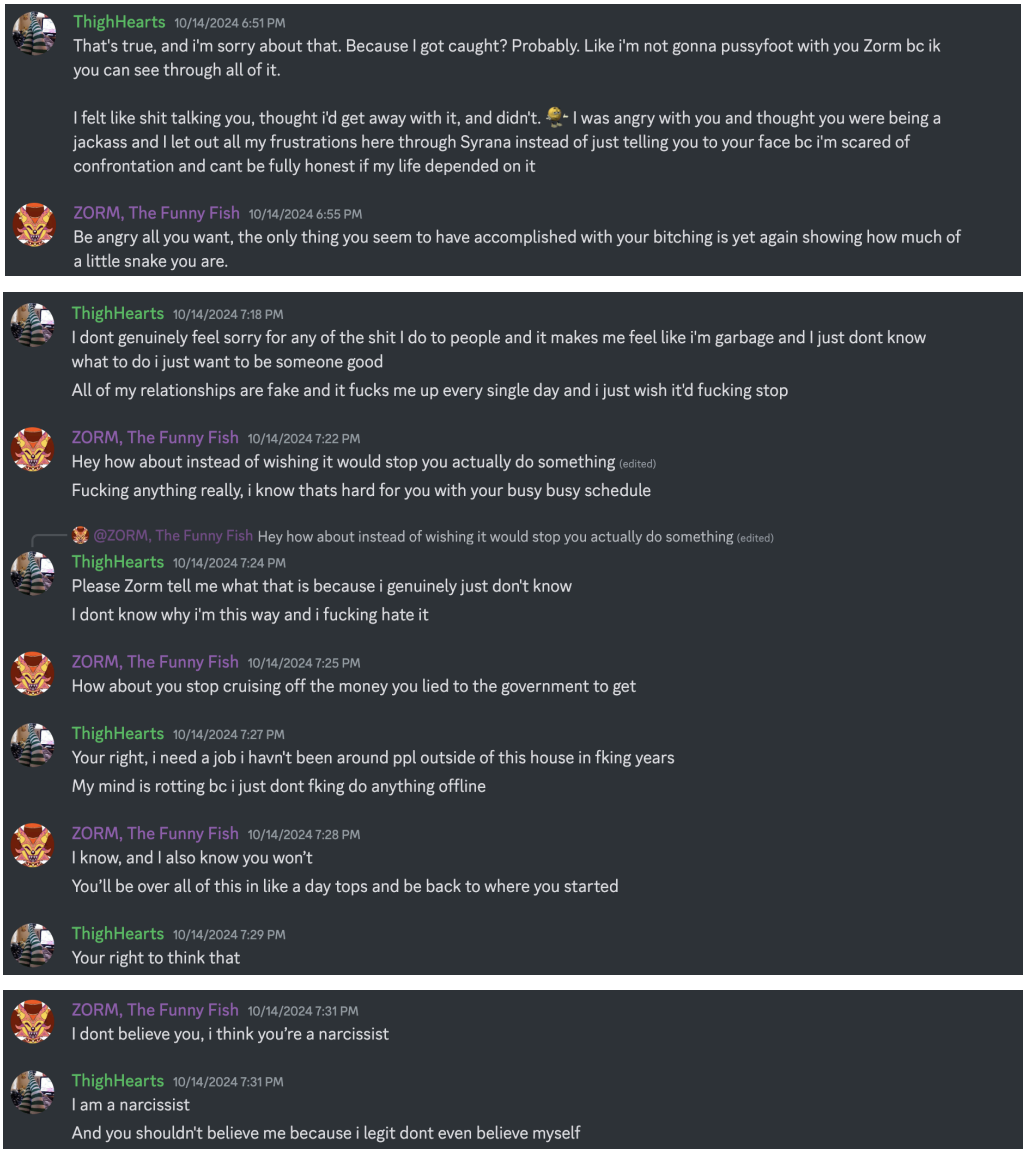

Syrana (DID Faking)

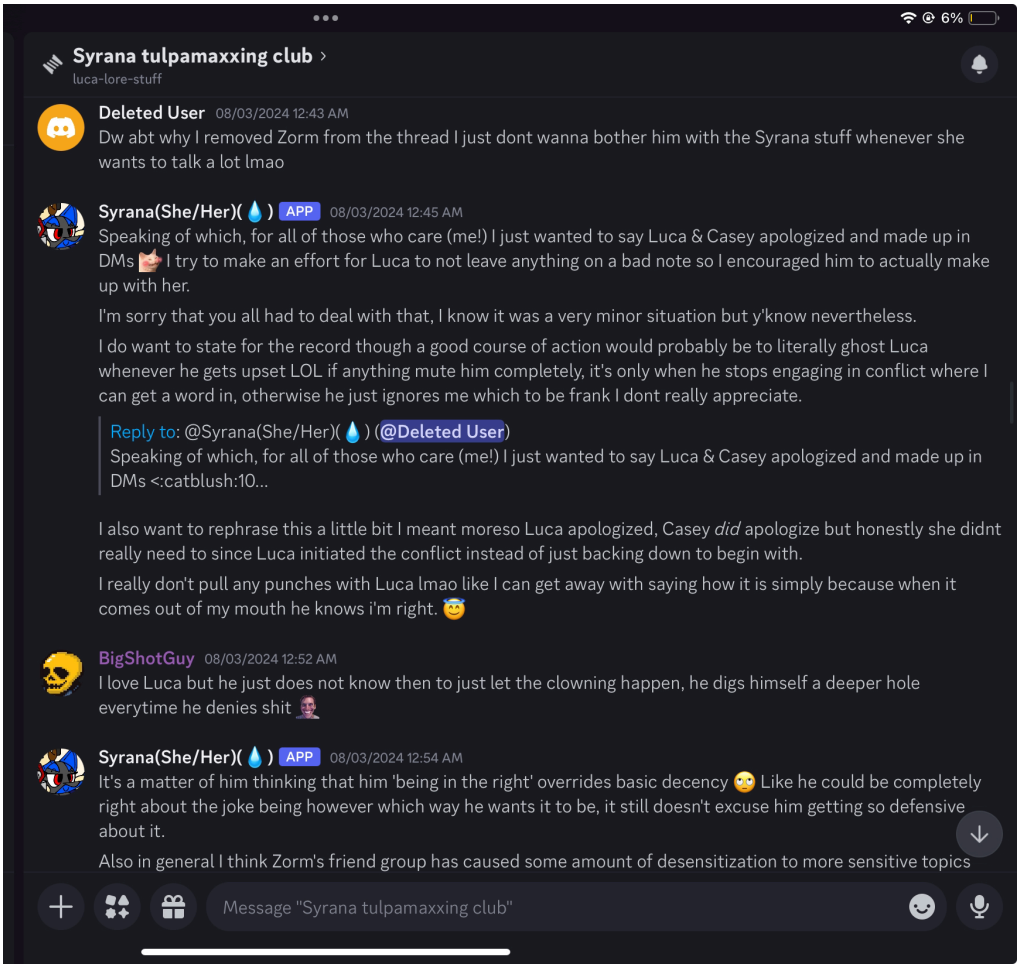

The following screenshots are all under Incident #2 with more context, but this is here for the sake of further clarifying a pattern of manipulation that Luca has.

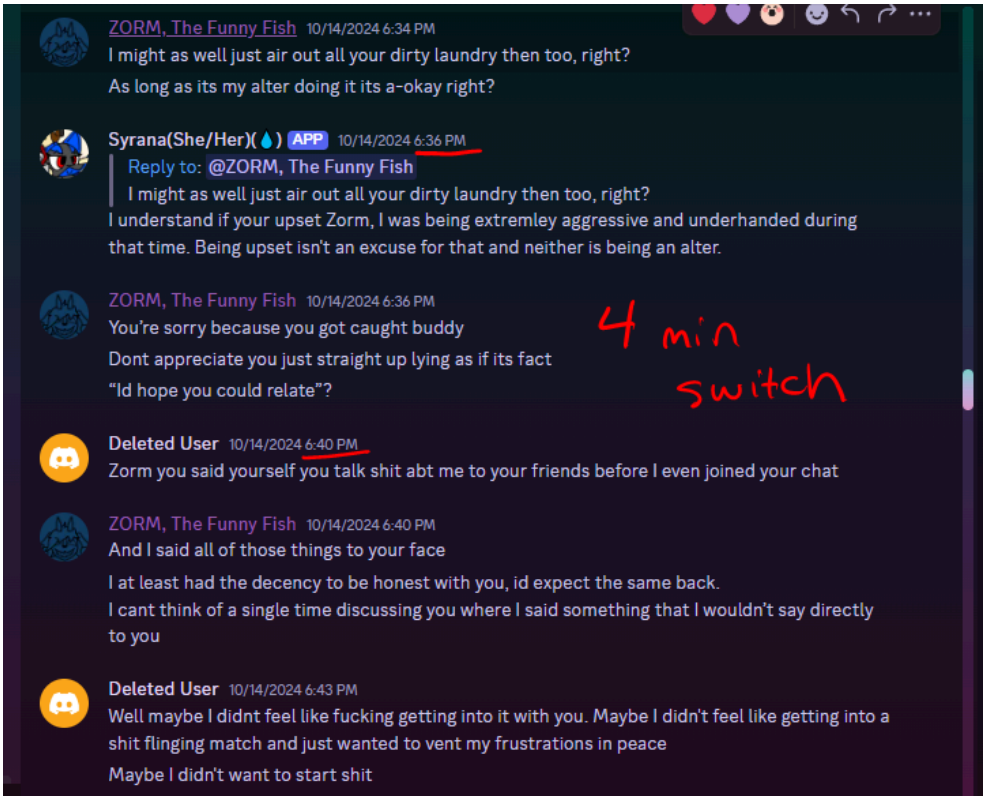

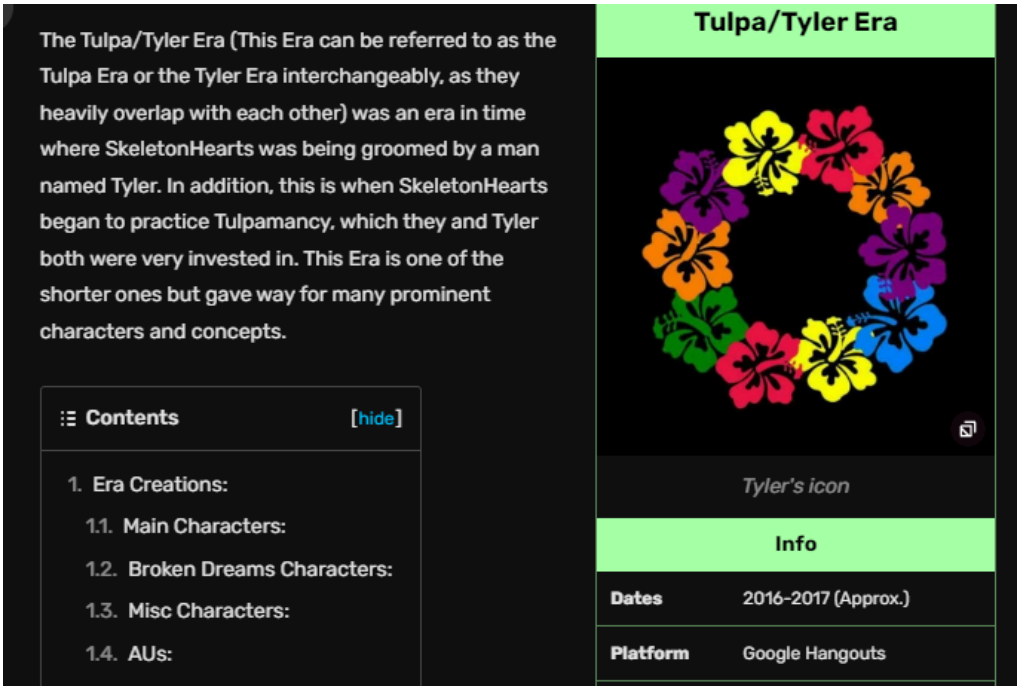

Please note the channel name of “Syrana Tulpamaxxing Club.” While in itself may seem like nothing, Luca has gone on to explain in his own Wiki article his views on Tulpas and DID.

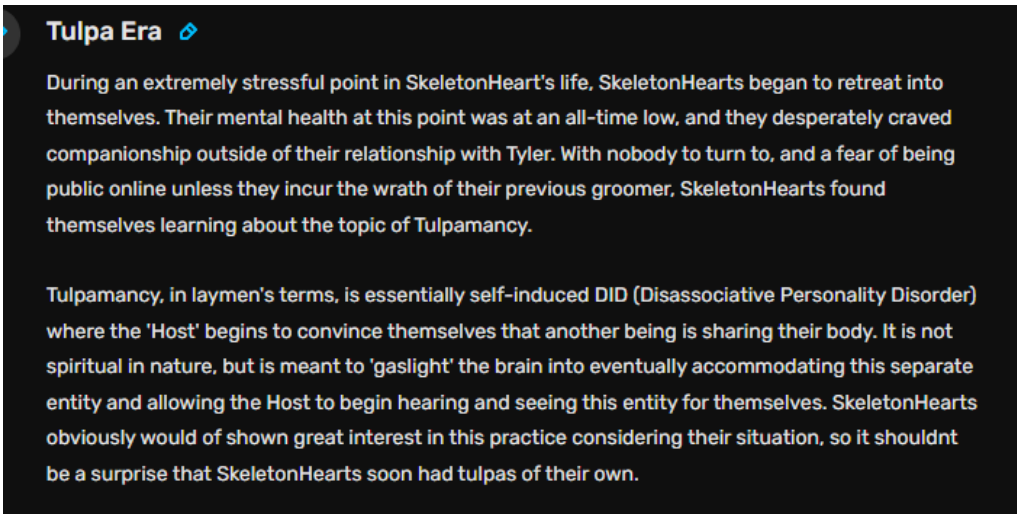

The moment Syrana was mentioned by Zorm she quickly responded, but within four minutes of an active conversation she completely switched with Luca. While also in this same conversation, Luca stops using Syrana as an excuse and starts using I/me pronouns on why he was shit-talking Zorm in the server behind his back.

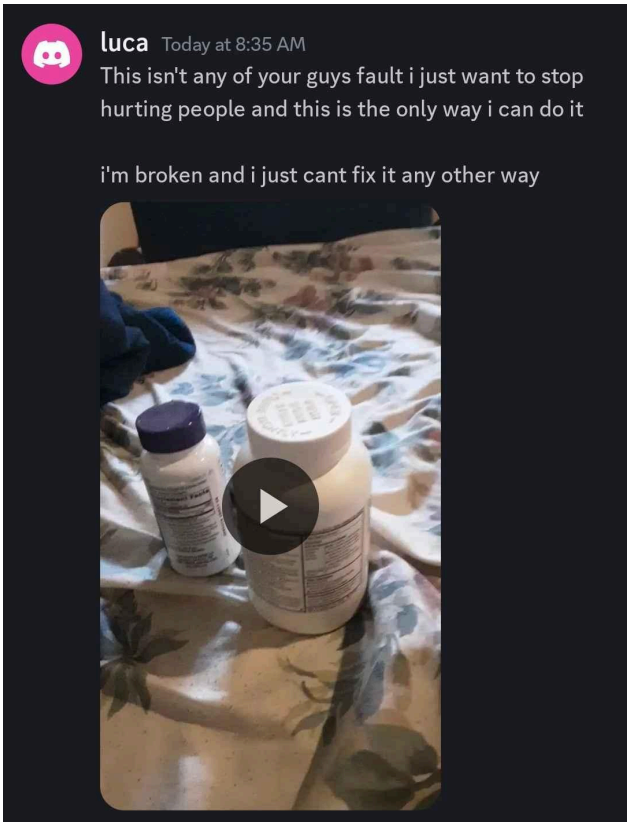

Tulpas, as explained by Luca, is 'self-made DID' which is incorrect. Tulpas and DID are not the same thing. While DID is an actual mental condition developed as a way to cope with trauma, Tulpas are entirely fictional and are manifested more so as imaginary friends. He has never been diagnosed with DID by a psychiatrist, yet will likely continue to claim that he has it.

Suicide Baiting

There have been several instances in which Luca has suicide baited people in his life. The two most notable two moments are on Sony Sketch and the latest Discord server. The more recent of the two moments was mentioned in the Incidents Leading Up section in detail. To reiterate for convenience's sake, Luca sent a video to a friend of himself swallowing two bottles of medication in an attempt to overdose.

Pandora is an ex of Luca whom he had suicide baited. They sent a message to a friend about Pandora and “What they have done” including the following image. Days later, Luca acted as if he had forgotten about the suicide baiting. Presumably, sometime in between these days Luca made his suicide note.

All the characters here circled in red are reclaimed as listed under the "Reclamation Era" section on the SkeletonHearts Wiki. Including Sock's old persona design.

Sock (Minor)

Sock was previously mentioned in the Grooming section. They had characters such as “Ballsie” (The green Skelecario with the purple) that Luca has “reclaimed” among other characters (Including their old persona “Angie”.)

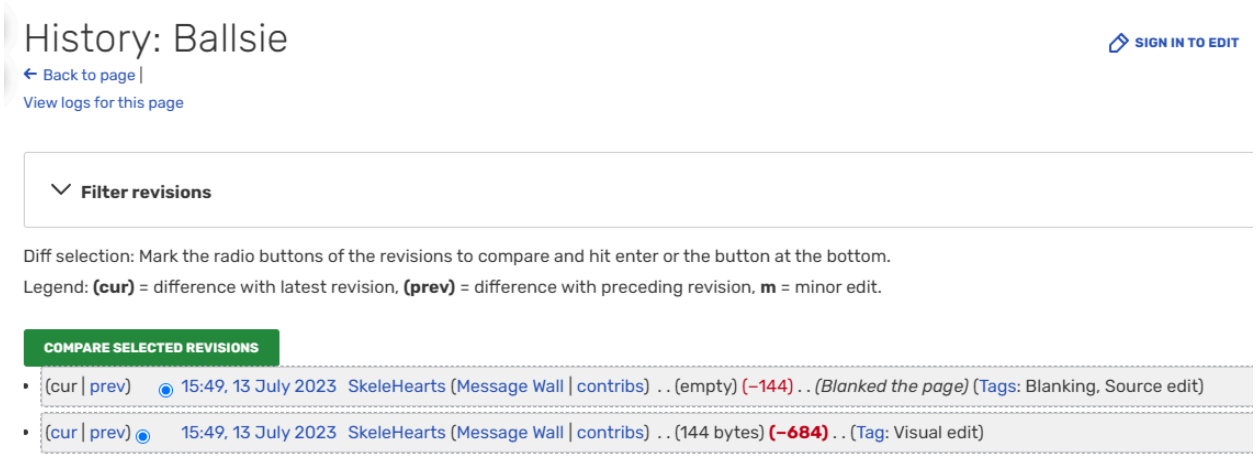

• Mittensette

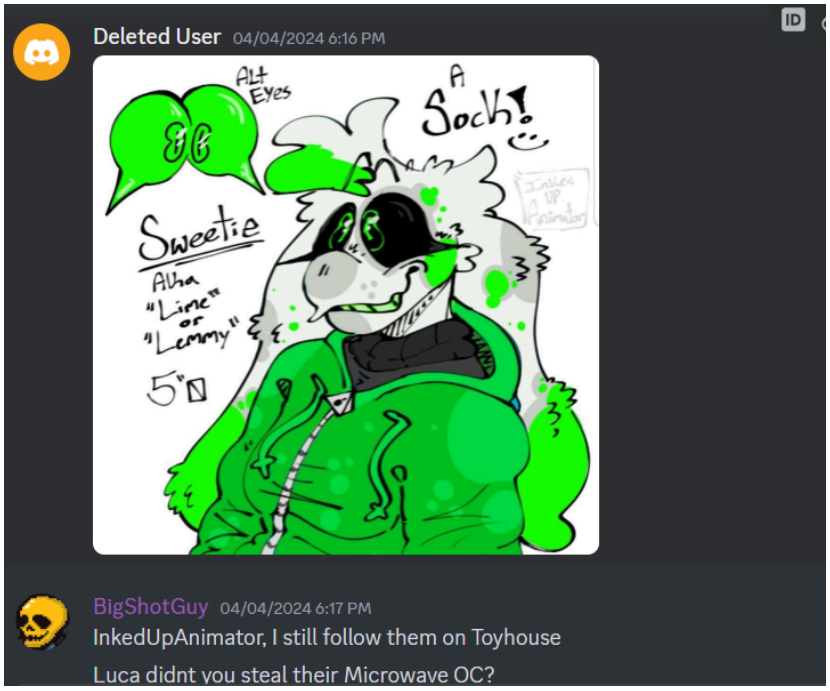

(Mittens is a former alias of Sock)

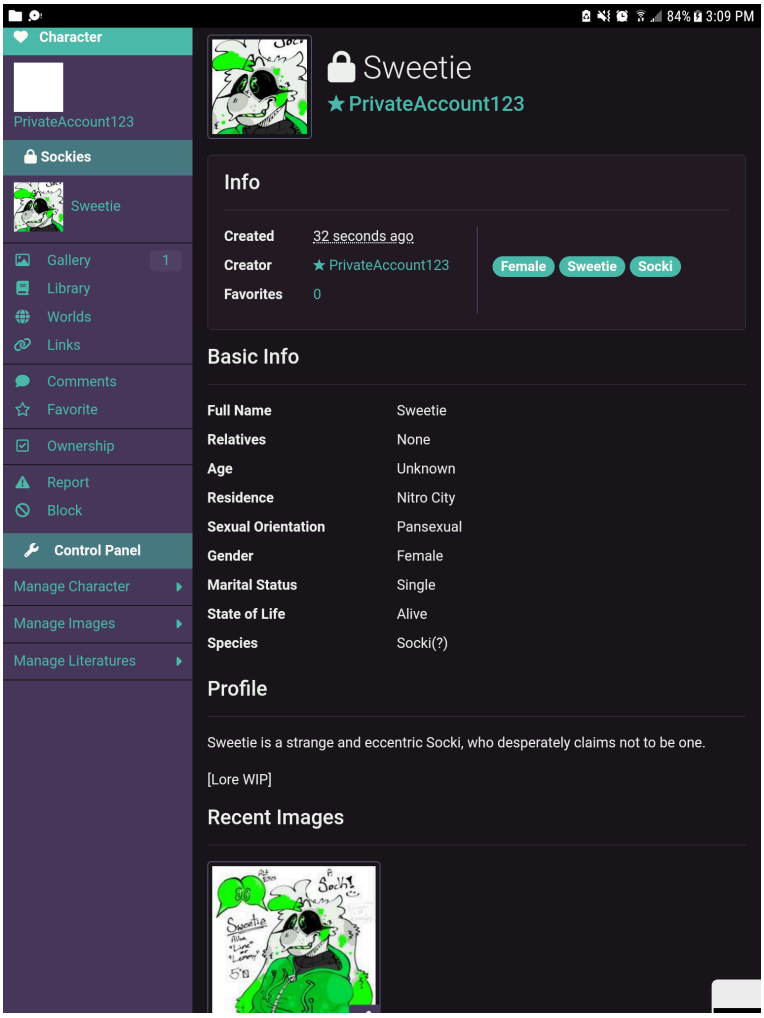

Proof of Luca attempting to delete any information available online of Ballsie.

1nkedUpAnimator (Minor)

Ink was a minor around the time that they interacted with Luca. Despite this, Luca has drawn suggestive artwork of their old sona design of a microwave. Around the time Luca knew Ink, they were 13-14.

I would love to claim Chandesam herself if I was able but there's just no way I could get away with that, unless the character has been dropped which I doubt since that's lampy's main fking character

But hey I already have some clones she herself gave me so it's fine

Fortunately she gave me chars that looked exactly like her (Vanessa & Nirv) so I can just say it's one of those two

Bc I do still like the designs they just need to be cleaned up a little

Exactly I in good concious can not leave these characters to rot and be left abandoned like they did to me. Chandesam probably hated me but as soon as she was dropped by her owner she was like "Omg now I know how it feels" (edited)

Lolki (Minor)

Lolki comes from a minor named Allanah who is one of Luca's exes. Allanah made several accounts to date Luca in the Amino and Discord era to rise any reaction she could raise out of him by doing drastic shit, sometimes pretending to be different people to date Luca (She sent a mutual friend a picture of a shotgun and started suicide baiting him once). Lolki was a character Allanah made to be friends with Lua.

Loofa (Minor)

Loofa was a minor that Luca interacted with on Sketcher's United platform. Luca harassed Loofa until they deleted all their socials. Despite all of this, Luca has "Reclaimed" Loofa's character design.

Cessa

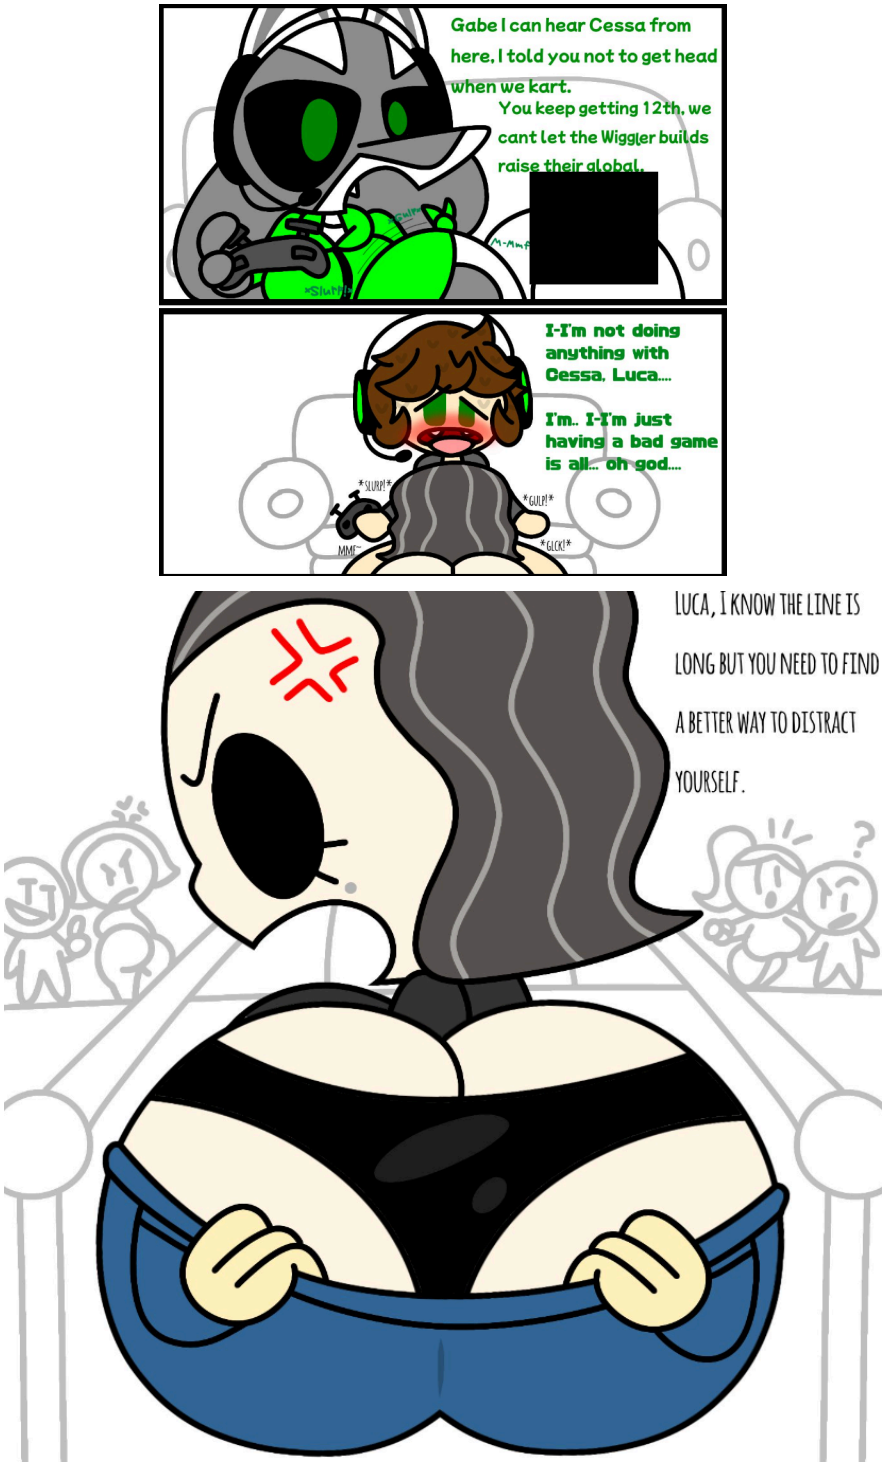

Cessa is an ex of Luca who had an attachment to him. Witness testimony states that she had spent money on him, and actively supported his art endeavors. Despite her support, Luca broke up with Cessa. This is a person he has dated. He made her a character, and "reclaimed" a real person he dated.

HEY LUCA,
VERBAL KEYSMASHING

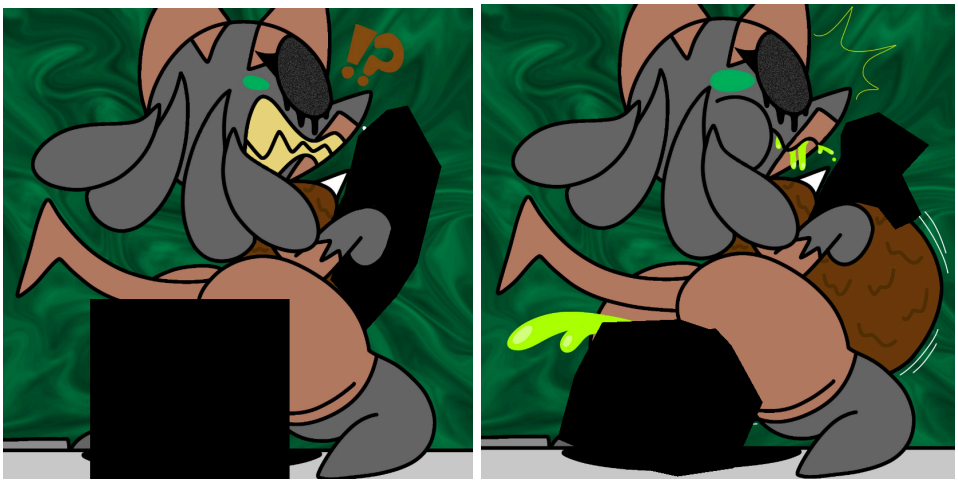

OMG LUCA I
WANNA GO ON THE LAZY RIVER
WITH YOU!

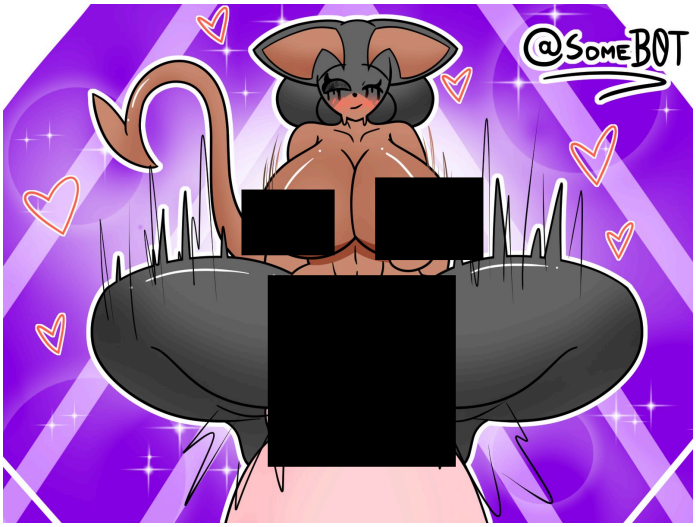

Toxic (Minor)

Toxic, who was a minor at the time, had their Skelecario “reclaimed” by Luca, the most notable example being this cum inflation and tentacle porn. The tentacle has been censored for obvious reasons. Luca commissioned art of this character as well to unsuspecting artists who didn't know this was used to represent a minor at one point.

“Kayla” (Minor)

Same story with Kayla. Luca begged a minor for their old sona design and decided to make porn of it. The Chris Chan-inspired drawings were made almost immediately after obtaining it. It’s to be noted that the minor he obtained this from mentioned being uncomfortable with the idea of their persona being sexualized (Which it shouldn’t be in the first place) yet this didn’t stop Luca.

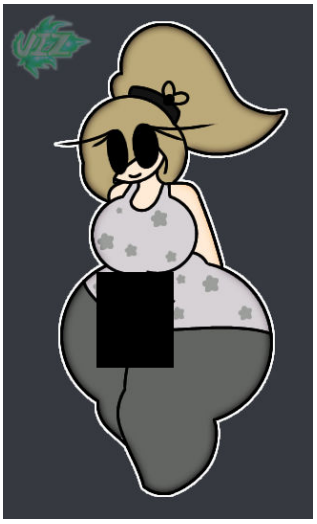

Luca is still actively commissioning art of this character.

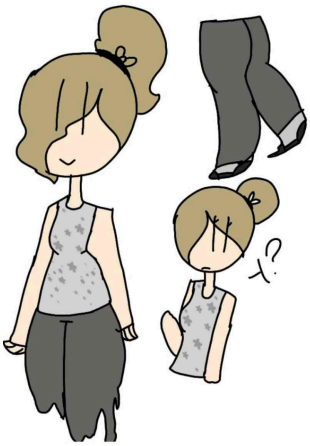

”Lem” (Minor)

Information on who “Lem” is remains unavailable, but it is known that this was drawn by a minor to represent a minor. Luca “reclaimed” this design, and has requested/commissioned porn of her from unsuspecting users.

History: Lem

As of March 4, 2024, Luca deleted the wiki page of Lem in an attempt to hide evidence.

Hannah

Hannah is a character believed to be based on Luca's step-sister. While there is no evidence of his admittance to this being true, several people who knew Luca have corroborated this fact with each other.

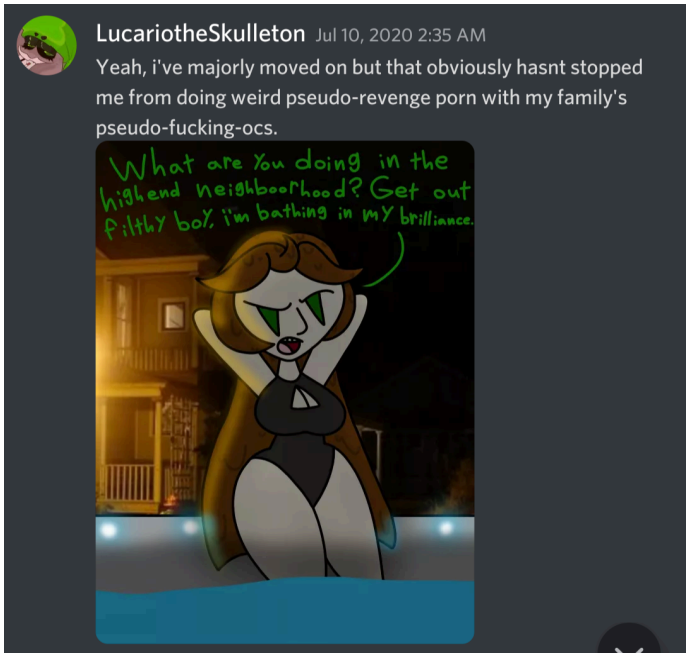

Disclaimer

While we believe that the information we bring forth is valid criticism against Luca, we do not condone the harassment against him via death threats, intentionally getting information out of him, or other methods of causing him distress. Everything provided here is to not only provide evidence of Luca's wrongdoings, but also to provide evidence to Luca himself that he needs to get help.

Incest

Mindy and Hannah

Mindy is a character who is a stand-in for IRL's mother. Here, Luca admits that Mindy is based on his mother and that he makes "pseudo-revenge porn with his family's pseudo-fucking-OCs."

Another character based on one of his family members is Hannah, his step-sister. Although no direct evidence confirms this to be true, the allusion to it by making any extra family members for his persona is probable. To add to that point, Luca has never given his persona a family member that isn't reflective of a family member in real life.

Luca and Lua

Luca and Lua are different characters but have been paired together here for a reason. Luca (Luca's fursona) is often depicted as having sex with Lua (who is canonically her daughter). The difference in appearance is intentional between drawings, as Luca still draws them with this dynamic in different AUs he makes of the characters.

(This includes a minor's character, the one in blue.)

Zoophilia

Lenny

Luca describes Lenny as “A cat who seeks out people to fuck” and little else.

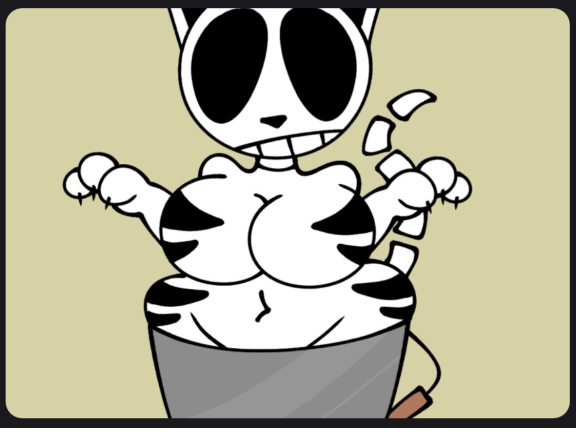

Buckat

Luca himself best describes Buckat.

Doc I swear I know nothing about this.

Mikai

Mikai is a nightmare that Luca had involving a Pokemon-esque RPG. In this dream, Mikai suddenly appeared as an unstoppable monster that started horrifically consuming the Pokemon.

Otter

Otter is an otter based on a stuffed animal otter Luca received from an aquarium he had visited as a kid.

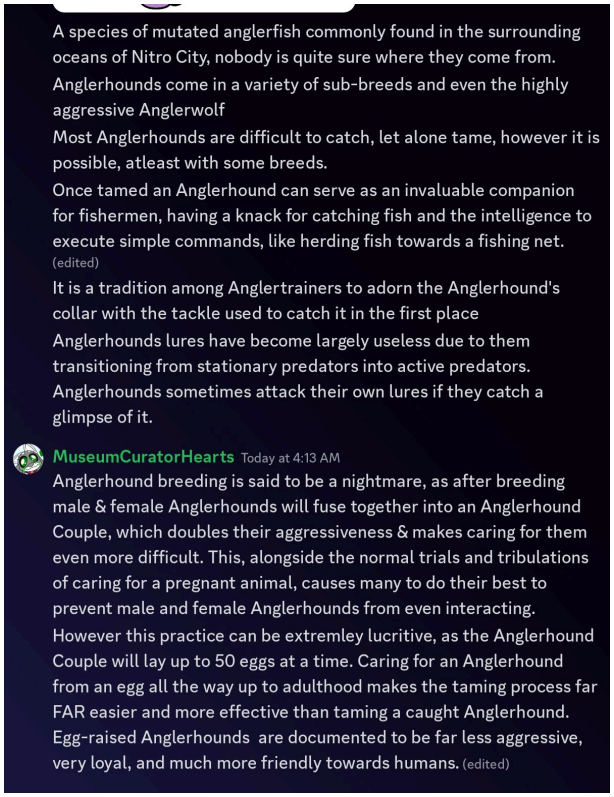

Anglerhounds

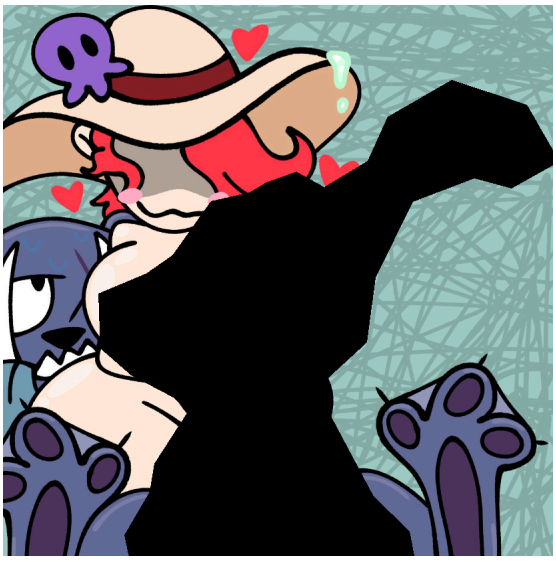

Anglerhounds are anglerfish with dog-like bodies. They are explained more in-depth in the screenshot below. Keep in mind how Luca goes into explicit detail about the breeding habits of a feral animal.

New creature: the Anglerhound!
A species of mutated anglerfish only found in the oceans surrounding Nitro City. The idea came to me in a dream.
Way more lore for it in the screenshot!
oceans of Nitro City, nobody is quite sure where they come from. Anglerhounds come in a variety of sub-breeds and even the highly aggressive Anglerwolf
Most Anglerhounds are difficult to catch, let alone tame, however it is possible, atleast with some breeds.
Once tamed an Anglerhound can serve as an invaluable companion for fisherman, having a knack for catching fish and the intelligence to execute simple commands, like herding fish towards a fishing net.
It is a tradition among Anglertrainers to adorn the Anglerhound's collar with the tackle used to catch it in the first place
Anglerhounds lures have become largely useless due to them transitioning from stationary predators into active predators.
Anglerhounds sometimes attack their own lures if they catch a glimpse of it.
MuseumCuratorHearts
Anglerhound breeding is said to be a nightmare, as after breeding male & female Anglerhounds will fuse together into an Anglerhound Couple, which doubles their aggressiveness & makes caring for them even more difficult. This, alongside the normal trials and tribulations of caring for a pregnant animal, causes many to do their best to prevent male and female Anglerhounds from even interacting.
However this practice can be extremley lucritive, as the Anglerhound Couple will lay up to 50 eggs at a time. Caring for an Anglerhound from an egg all the way up to adulthood makes the taming process far Marina is just now noticing 'Ol Salty's.. uh.. moby dick.

Kipper

Kipper is based on Luca's old pet fish. A real pet fish that Luca had. Despite this, Luca has made a minor sock draw a design for his dead fish as a woman and drew said fish in sexual scenarios.

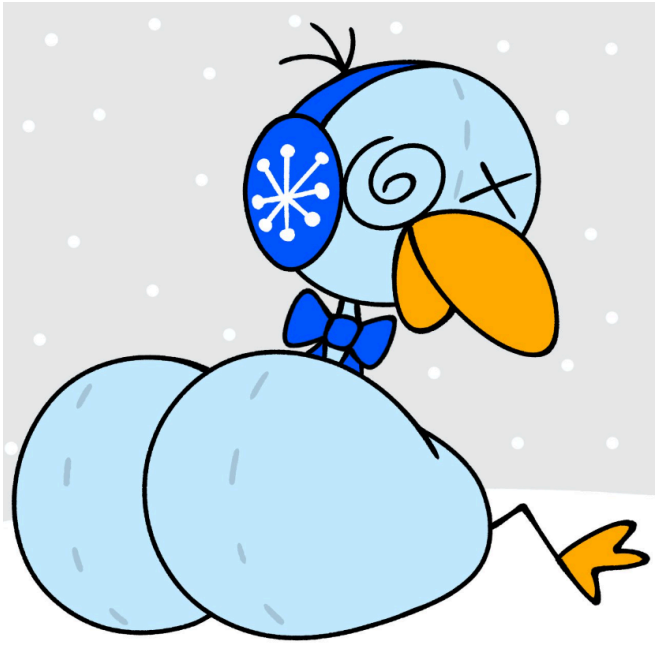

Ableism

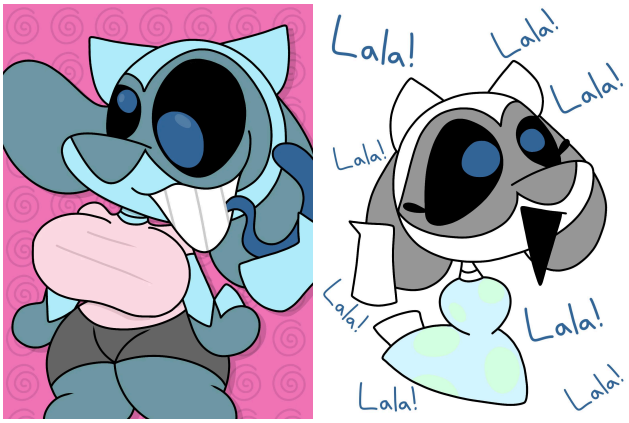

Owen

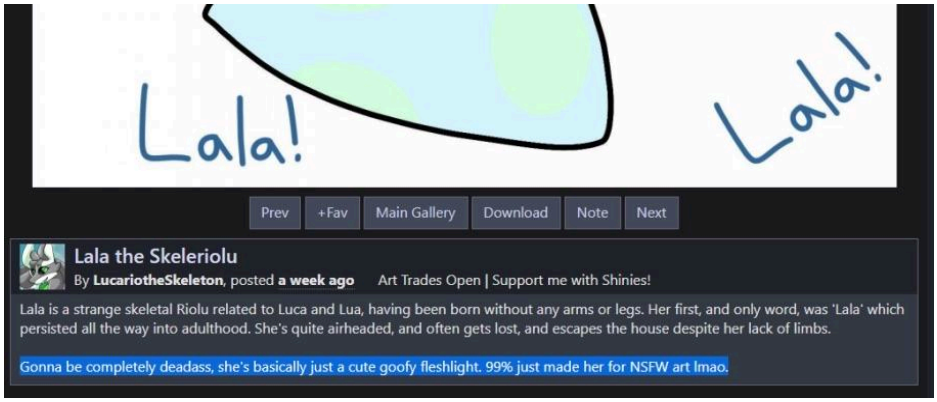

Owen is based on a mentally disabled classmate of Luca's that he drew to mock them.

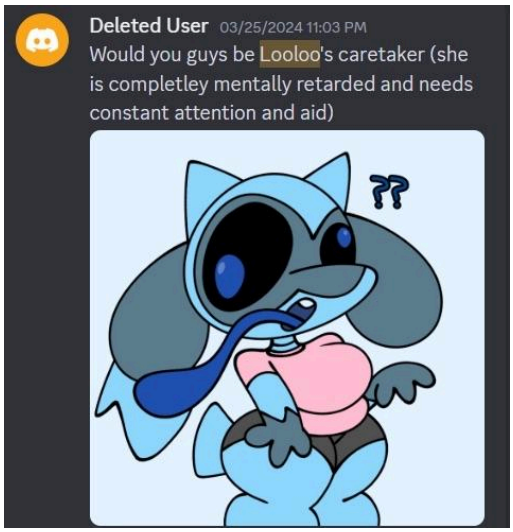

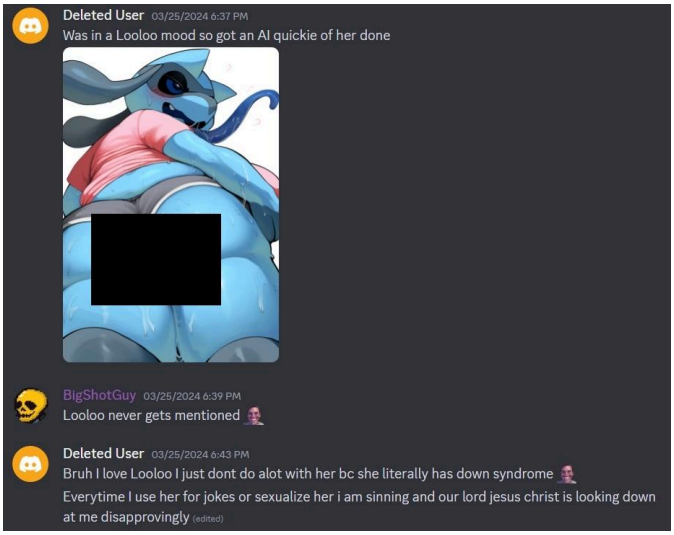

Looloo and Lala

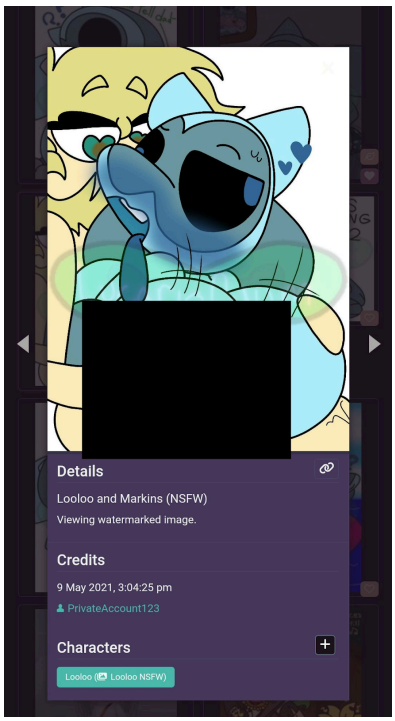

Looloo and Lala are separate characters but are paired here due to their ableist themes. LooLoo is a Skelecario depicted with her tongue out, and with an intellectual disability (More explicitly Down Syndrome in one of the screenshots below.) Lala is a Skeleriolu born with no limbs and can only repeat her name.

Lala is a strange skeletal Riolu related to Luca and Lua, having been born without any arms or legs. Her first, and only word, was 'Lala' which persisted all the way into adulthood. She's quite airheaded, and often gets lost, and escapes the house despite her lack of limbs.
Gonna be completely deadass, she's basically just a cute goofy fleshlight. 99% just made her for NSFW art lmao.

Racism

Use of the N-word

Luca has drawn his characters saying the N-word a copious number of times. From several witnesses, it's been confirmed that he has also casually used the N-word several times in both forms. To pile on further, he has also drawn his characters in Nazi getups and even made a child draw his character Null in said Nazi clothing.

Raceplay Porn

Luca has drawn somnophilia porn of himself being penetrated by particularly large black penises. It should be noted that outside of their references, Luca has only drawn brown and black people in pornography. Luca has also retweeted raceplay porn of the characters Marina and Pearl, although it was deleted before evidence of it could be screenshotted.

Underage Character NSFW

Max and Ruby's Ruby

Ruby is a 7-8-year-old rabbit in the TV series, yet Luca persists in drawing her with his usual short stack fetish proportions and mentioning how she "Probably sleeps with random men."

Ruby Bunny (voiced by Samantha Morton in seasons 1-2, Rebecca Peters in seasons 3-5, and Lana Carillo in seasons 6-7) is an 8-year-old (starting off at 7 years old) white bunny, and is Max's older sister.

Mentions of Gummi as a Loli (Please note that the image used on the wiki was created by a minor)

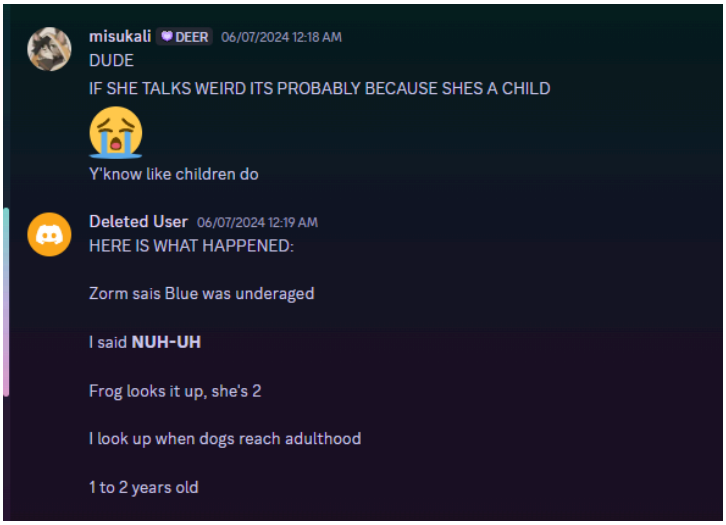

"Blue's Clues D*ldo Disaster"

Luca was inspired to draw porn of Blue from Blue's Clues from YouTuber DeadwingDork's video "Man With Son Takes Blues Clues Discord to Way (Live Clip)", more specifically by the thumbnail of the video. His drawing of this pornography caused one of the server members in his friend group Discord server to leave because of how disgusted he was by it. This also spawned a discussion between several other members of the server and Luca, with said members attempting to explain to him the fact that Blue is underage in the show. However, Luca refused to see reason and cited repeatedly how dogs reach maturity by 1-2 years of age. This logic does not track however considering both that Blue is referred to often as a puppy and that she has a kindergarten teacher.

Alright I guess we're doing this then

In general, puppies become adult dogs between one and two years of age. But it's not like they wake up the morning of their first birthday and are suddenly grown-up dogs! In fact, puppy maturation is a process, and it varies from dog to dog depending on size, breed, socialization, and more.

Somaya (Tomorrow's Pioneers)

Tomorrow's Pioneers was a children's show that was aired by the terrorist organization Hamas. In the show, it was encouraged to children that they grow up to become terrorists and attack America. It was later pulled off of air for these reasons.

SkullHead 02/27/2024 10:37 PM
Now next one isnt REALLY a lolcow but like
I sort of use the Lolcow folder for any sort of internet absurdity
Here is Somaya, AKA Layla the Lion

She is based off Tomorrow's Pioneers, if your lunlucky enough to know what that is Now I had to be really REALLY careful when making this one luckily! i am not!

Okay so Tomorrow's Pioneers is an islamic extremist kids show that existed back in the day, early 2000's right? It

SkullHead ›

SkullHead 02/27/2024 10:41 PM
So first of all Somaya is NOT AN EXTREMIST she is a completley normally perfectly sane woman who follows and practices the muslim faith in a way that does not harm herself or others ☝

Casey :3 02/27/2024 10:41 PM
thank god
i was lookin it up and saying it out loud and my bf heardf me and said "OHHH that show is fucked" that is all i need to know!

SkullHead 02/27/2024 10:42 PM
In my lore, after the studio where Tomorrow's Pioneers was firebombed twice (not my lore, ACTUAL event that happened bc of the nature of the show) the islamic goverment finally stepped in and ordered the show to calm the fuck down, however bc everyone working on it was y'know obviously had an agenda, basically everyone quit, and the new ppl brought in had plans to make it an ACTUAL kids show
Which is where Somaya comes in, since she's the actress who plays the new mascot character Layla the Lion
So sort of an alternate timeline thing now Tomorrow's Pioneers is an actual kids show and teaches shapes and colors and all that jazz

oohhohohoh
thats an interesting one but god does it have a crazy backstory

SkullHead 02/27/2024 10:43 PM
Honestly this was a two birds one stone thing, yeah I wanna get a lolcow OC for the show done but this also lets me explore having an actual islamic character
Somaya is used alot outside of her role in the show as an actual normal character of mine, who just so happens to be muslim
Was a very fun way for me to introduce some variety into my world

Was a very fun way for me to introduce some variety into my world

io ohohoh ueah! tha ts awesome sauce at least its turned positiver

SkullHead 02/27/2024 10:45 PM
Yup, like I said I had to tread carefully with that one and I think I did the best I could while still drawing an attractive woman based off an islamic extremist children's show ☝
Bc i'm sorta fucked like that I guess

Use of “Shota” and “Loli”

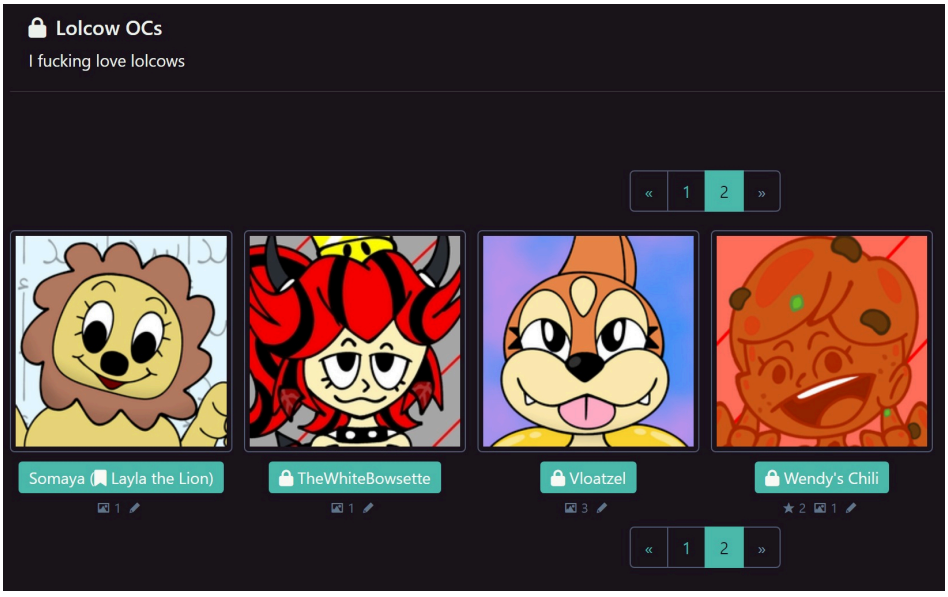

In one of his conversations with Sock, Luca uses the terms “lolicon” and “shota” when referring to real-life children. The terms, of course, are most commonly used by people who enjoy the sexual depictions of minors. Luca has argued in the past that he formerly used the word in place of Shortstack since he didn’t know what short stacks were at the time, but this reads as very well aware of what a shota/loli is.

Miscellaneous

Shooter!IRL is a version of Luca that shot up his school. The reasoning as to why he created this version of his persona is unknown, but from one person's faint memory of the explanation, it might have had something to do with the fact that he got bullied frequently in high school. Due to those experiences, he often had fantasies of killing everyone in his school.

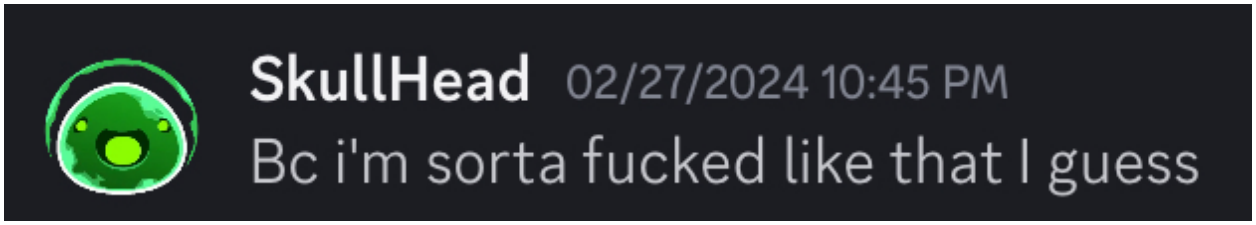

Disclaimer

While we believe that the information we bring forth is valid criticism against Luca, we do not condone the harassment against him via death threats, intentionally getting information out of him, or other methods of causing him distress. Everything provided here is to not only provide evidence of Luca's wrongdoings, but also to provide evidence to Luca himself that he needs to get help.

Luca has had a pattern of manipulative and abusive behavior since as far back as 2018 and still has yet to show any signs of improvement. He has only gotten worse as he is more open about his interest in incest, feral NSFW, Zoophilia, and more. As mentioned in the Disclaimer, do NOT go out of your way to harass Luca in any shape or form. Avoiding interaction with Luca is heavily preferred, but if you are to interact with him please exercise caution.

Luca needs help, plain and simple. Despite refusing to get help numerous times, he desperately needs to seek it instead of searching for validation from people online who are unaware of how depraved he truly is.

One final message, in the words of Luca himself from his Cosmodore video.
