We are thrilled to welcome back our Children's Choir teacher, Mr. Logan Kropp! As part of his two-year graduate assistantship at Georgia State University, Logan will be directing the children's choirs and working with all of St. Benedict's choirs.

About Mr. Logan Kropp, choral scholar:

Logan Kropp is excited to be a choral scholar again at St. Benedict's Episcopal Church this school year! Logan is currently working on his Master of Music in Choral Conducting at Georgia State University. Prior to moving to Atlanta, Logan taught music in his hometown of Great Falls, Montana for five years. Logan earned his Bachelor of Music Education at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Washington.

More information about St. Benedict's choirs can be found on our website here. Please contact Valerie or Logan if you have any questions or feedback, and we hope to see you soon!
