

The Law of Immigration and Citizenship

1. Becoming a Citizen

1.1. A Citizen must meet the following requirements:

1.1.1. Own Property in Roma or a Roman territory

1.1.2. Disclose any past criminal records

1.2. After a resident has received property and an endorsement, they are eligible for citizenship.

1.2.1. Citizenship is granted at the discretion of the Consuls.

1.2.2. Denials and Acceptances of citizenship can be appealed to the Emperor.

2. Retaining Citizenship

2.1. Inactive citizens are periodically removed from the Census by the joint consensus of the Consuls.

2.2. Convicted Criminals may have their citizenship revoked by the joint consensus of the Consuls as further punishment for their crimes.

2.3. Revocations of citizenship are appealable to the Emperor.