Blue Base

Pokémon Blue with Original Graphics (Final Version)

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Complete | Blue (U) | DropBox

"When Pokémon first came out in Japan, they were known as Pokémon Red & Green. Several months later, the first third version came out, called Pokémon Blue. In the Japanese Pokémon Blue, the sprites were different, the wild Pokémon were changed, the in-game trades were changed, the Cerulean Cave layout was changed, and the tileset graphics were changed. When they decided to localize Pokémon, rather than translating Pokemon Red & Green, they decided to translate Pokémon Blue, and keep the graphics of Pokémon Blue, but use the wild Pokémon and in-game trades from Pokémon Red & Green. Do you know what this means? Not very many people know what Kanto originally looked like!"

Features:
- Shows off the original Red and Green Pokémon graphics

Bugs:
- Cerulean Cave has not been changed

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Red Base

Pokémon Brown (Version 4.2)

Inactive | Red (U) | DropBox

A classic ROM that focuses on increasing the variety of things to do in Pokémon Red. It includes new Pokémon, moves, types, locations, and music.

"Pokémon Brown is a classic hack that takes place in the region if Rijon. It has been refurbished after five years of its original release. Not only is it improved with less spelling errors and errors altogether, but it has new areas, new music, new challenges, new twists, and of course, about 70 new Pokémon."

Features:
- Ten cities in the region of Rijon, one in Johto, and over 20 routes to explore.
- Pokedex is now up to 220
- Over 40 new moves
- TM set has been changed a bit
- Seven new types that weren't in Red

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- A wide range of characters
- A few new music track, including tunes from Johto
- New Pokémon will be compatible for trade with the second generation games and Prism once a special patch is applied
- A quest after you beat the Rijon League

Bugs:
- Pokedex won't update "own" when traded. This will be fixed in the future, and when it does, to add your traded Pokémon to the Pokedex, simply trade back and forth
- There are a few minor glitches, such as the bottom right tile of some Pokémon missing
- Pictures may be glitchy if you simply go to the Pokémon menu during battle and exit it
- Some emulators have weird lines through the Pokémon pics
- You can't hop over the ledges in Johto
- You can go through cycling road's check line like in Red

Pokémon TRE: Team Rocket Edition (Final Version)

Complete | Red (U) | DropBox

"Giovanni is having a competition to see who will be his successor in leading Team Rocket. The competition is between you and your sister, and you must beat all of the gyms and the Elite Four."

Features:

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- New maps
- Text changed
- New sprites and tiiles

Bugs:
- Some pokemon have in party sprites
- When viewing trainer card, gym leaders pictures are glitched
- Random sprites change on some routes
- Some trainers have different names
- When viewing pokemon stats, its types do not show

MissingNo. Challenge (Final Version)
Complete | Fire Red (U) | DropBox
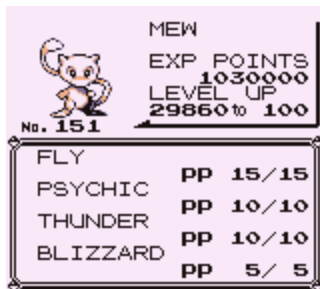

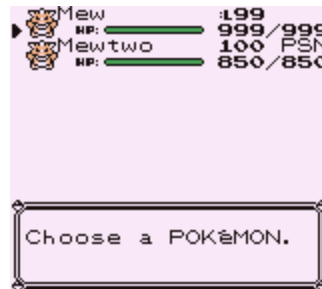

A one day hack by milksy91 while toying with RAM data in Pokémon Red. The hack and accompanying save file is part of a challenge to defeat Gary and his three MissingNo.s!

"You're forced to start in Oak's Lab after both you and Gary have received "your first pokemon". If you check the menu, you'll find out the pokemon you have aren't that normal.
If you try to escape the lab, Gary challenges you like he usually does but with three extremely high-leveled MissingNo's with new movesets that never existed. Your mission is to defeat Gary (and possibly pwn all the gym leaders and lance easily after the battle). Notice that Mew should get weaker after it levels up to lv 100 !"

How To:
1. Patch the Red.ips file to a clean Pokemon Red (U) ROM
2. Rename the Pokemon Red (U).gb to Red.gb. If your computer doesn't show .gb in the end of the file name, just rename the file to Red.
3. Open the ROM with VisualBoyAdvance 1.80 and load save state from Slot 1 by pressing F1 button. You should end up being in Oak's lab and ready for the battle.
4. Notice that your ROM (Red.gb) and Red1.sgm files have to be in the same directory for this to work

Gold Base

Pokémon Prism (Beta Version Summer 2010)

Inactive | Gold (U) | DropBox
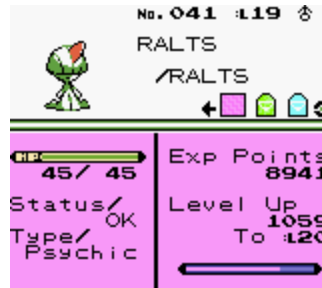

The sequel to Pokémon Brown, Pokémon Prism, set in the expanded Rijon region is a heavily edited adventure that pushes the limits of ROM customization on the Gameboy Colour.

Features:
- Featuring the brand new region of Naljo (bigger than Johto), featuring 10 fresh and original cities, towns, and villages, as well as plenty of caves, forests, routes, and several more places. Try not to get lost.
- Return of the region of Rijon (Areas were taken away in Kanto in Gold, Rijon in Prism will have all areas). Rijon will heavily be based around an important second quest.
- 252 Pokemon to find spanning from all four generations.
- New Clock system - No longer real time but can keep track of days months and years.
- Pokemon only areas.
- Three new moves
- Several new items, replacing all of the Teru-Sama's
- New music, ranging from music based from other games, to custom music.

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- Five new types (Wood, Gas, Wind, Abnormal, and Sound)
- New TM/HM set
- New Pokedex order (Naljo), as well as the National Dex
- Interact with brand new characters and some returning characters ranging from the official games to characters from Brown.
- Gold Token system - save them up and get something good. Can you find all 80 of them?
- Four crafting Skills, which you can get better and better at
- Side Scrolling areas
- New Minigames

Skeetendo Inc. Christmas Hack (Final Version Bug Fixed 2012)

Complete | Gold (U) | DropBox
A Christmas themed hack that takes place after the Winter after events of Pokémon Gold and Silver.

Features:
- Major events changed to holiday themed ones
- New tilesets to give it a snowy winter feel
- Map updates to take advantage of more map block availability
- Pokemon added from other generations
- A new move and new items
- Ice sliding on frozen lakes not just on the Ice Path

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokémon Epic Gold (Final Version 1.2)

Complete | Gold (U) | DropBox

Features:

- All Pokémon exclusive to Pokémon Silver can now be caught in the wild
- The Gym order has been changed. Here is the new order that you challenge the Gyms:
  Pryce, who is now the 5th Gym Leader, goes up to Level 34
  Chuck, who is now the 6th Gym Leader, goes up to Level 37
  Jasmine, who is now the 7th Gym Leader, goes up to Level 40, and has evolved one of her Magnemites, and her Steelix now knows Rock Slide
  Clair now goes up to Level 44, her first Dragonair is replaced with Gyarados, and her other two Dragonairs have had their movesets revised
- Every single trainer in the Johto region after Violet City has had their levels raised and some have had their teams changed to reflect Crystal/HeartGold/SoulSilver
- The Rocket Executives fought in the Radio Tower now have good movesets
- The final Rocket Executive has evolved his Koffing, and replaced his Houndour with a Crobat
- Lance's Dragonite are no longer hax
- Many trainers in the Johto region no longer use hax Pokemon, simply due to higher level or me de-evolving them or replacing them

Pokémon Halloween Hack (Final Version)

Complete | Gold (U) | DropBox

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Features:

- New Autumn palettes
- Jack-o-lanterns outside of houses
- Ghost Pokemon available much earlier
- Dark Pokemon more available
- A new area to explore
- A new event Pokémon

Silver Base

Pokémon Dark Future (Beta Version 3.0)

Active | Silver (U) | DropBox

"You're a university student living in The Capital. The Capital is the biggest city in Suden where the story takes place. One day, you're called to get to the school immediately as your professor happens to have unordinary quest for you and your schoolmate.

You embark on an epic adventure in search for things called Elemental Orbs. Not much is known about these orbs but one thing's for certain, they were the reason for The Crisis one thousand years ago."

Features:
- Explore a whole new world with everything made from scratch: maps, texts, scripts etc.
- Unique storyline based on collecting Elemental Orbs instead of collecting badges and defeating the Elite Four
- A new evil organization
- Mini-games including "Magical book" & "Magikarp battles"
- 250 Pokémon catchable with each legendary Pokémon having some kind of quest behind them
- Lots of boss fights with only some of them being against gym leaders

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Crystal Base

Pokémon Pikachu Edition (Final Version 1.03)

Complete | Crystal (U) | DropBox
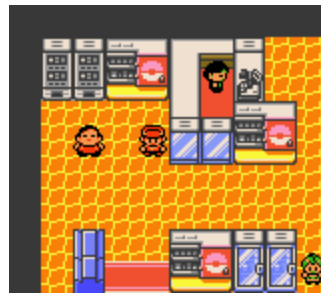

Features:

- Pikachu has three evolutions
- You can catch all pokemon except: Mew, Mewtwo, Togepi and Togetic, Cleffa and Igglybuff
- New trainers
- New looking areas
- New tiles
- New sprites
- Twenty new TMs
- Pokemon that normally can't learn for example HM Cut or Fly can learn it now
- Stats changed: Smeargle, Magikarp and Pichu. Teddiursa and Phanpy are a little stronger
- Types changed: Charizard, Aerodactyl and Gyarados
- Machoke, Kadabra, Graveler and Onix are able to evolve now without trading

Bugs:

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- Worldmap looks same as in original Crystal and it shouldn't be like that
- There are probably bugs like: "Bulbasaur can learn TM Flamethrower"

Info:
- Play this on computer with +500% speed since it's very difficult to beat this game without using VBA
- You've to go through Dark Cave in the beginning of the game
- You've to pick up bicycle in Goldenrod bikeshop
- You can never get to Violet PokeCenter

Pokémon Ultimate End (Final Version 1.03)

Complete | Crystal (U) | DropBox

Features:
- Major difficulty increase
- New areas & trainers
- Some new tiles
- All pokemon expect Mew, Mewtwo and Celebi are catchable or tradable
- Articuno, Zapdos and Moltres have their own special locations
- Item prices, trades are changed
- Trade evolutions have been changed to level evolutions
- Move changes
- Gym leader changes

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

You can fly to Vermilion City after visiting Vermilion Port (S.S.Aqua port next to Goldenrod City but don't fly to Vermilion before you access it on foot. If you do you've to fly back to Indigo Plateau to use the ship to get to Goldenrod again, you need bicycle from Goldenrod to access all areas.

Ruby Base

Pokémon Light Platinum (Final Version)

Complete | Ruby (U) 1.0 | DropBox

A very high quality hack that twists the standard Pokémon formula just enough to keep the game refreshing. Features two continents, a familiar cast, and a host of challenges even after both leagues have been defeated. A fully complete game only let down by poor pacing and a poorly written storyline.

Features:
- A new region, Zhery
- New Elite Four and Gym Leaders
- New rivals

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- All Pokémon from Johto, Kanto, Hoenn, and Sinnoh
- Trips to other areas
- New sprites, events, and tiles
- A new final final event, the Pokémon World Championship!

Pokémon Ruby Destiny Reign of Legends (Final Version 4.0)

Complete | Ruby (U) 1.0 | DropBox

Features:
- A new region to explore, Gento, which, consists of four main islands: Lorina, Selaro, Borora, and Retazo
- All Diamond and Pearl Pokémon are available
- Play as the heroes of FireRed and LeafGreen
- A new story, new rivals, and a new evil gangs -- Royal Darkness and Luminous Cenaries

Bugs:
- Do not lose to Diark after you defeated Shelly in Francia Forest!
- Do not press Start after you get Manaphy's Egg!
- Pokémon's POKéDEX entries aren't edited
- When you receive your Diamond/Pearl Starter pokémon, don't give it a nickname
- Some tile errors in the Johto Region houses
- Some tile errors in Thin Forest

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- The pokémon locations in the World Map are glitched
- The world map is glitchy

Pokémon Ruby Destiny Rescue Rangers (Final Version 1.84)

Complete | Ruby (U) 1.0 | DropBox

SANDSLASH: I told you they're here.

AQUADINE: You dare defy me!?
Then so be it!

DEVIHELL   Lv:22
ANGEALLEN Lv:23

GUARDIAN DRAGONS sent out DEVIHELL and ANGEALLEN!

Only one POKéMON is known to move mountains and the land...

Features:
- Play as a Pikachu
- Rescue other Pokémon with your partners Chikorita and Torchic
- Heal With Nature; Use healing berries and healing plants
- New tiles, scripts, and overworld

Bugs:
- Text and grammar issues
- Heading towards Mt. Krystal again will trigger the Angeallen script again
- Do not lose to either Rayquaza and Angeallen in Mt. Krystal
- Losing to any battles inside the Tower of Fate will cause some major glitches

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokémon Ruby Destiny Life of Guardians (Version 15.0)

Complete | Ruby (U) 1.0 | DropBox

Features:

- Explore the new region of Hevah
- Play as a new hero or heroine and battle against new rivals
- New tiles, sprites, maps, music, events, and Pokémon
- Increased difficulty; Trainers will reward you with less money and items will be expensive than normal
- Day and night system
- Three game modes: Good, Bad and Normal!

Bugs:

- Possible that Ralts will faint during the Light Catching Pokémon script
- Some new music takes a bit of time to start to play
- Some music are a bit loud
- Don't press 'A' repeatedly or hold any directional buttons during any events in the game.

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokémon Naranja (Beta Version 2.0)

"Do you remember the Ash's adventures in the Orange Islands?
Now thanks to with the hack Pokémon Naranja, they are waiting for you in a videogame so that you'll be able to walk the tropical archipelago just like it happened in the anime but at your very own rhythm."

Features:
- Placed in a tropical region never pictured in a game: The Orange Archipelago
- The same plot of the anime, with all episodes included
- Updated fauna with Hoenn, Johto and Kanto Pokémon
- Four gyms with challenges as in the anime
- Harder difficult with more high level Pokémon and more double battles
- Includes five Sinnoh Pokémon, two new pre evolutions, and two new Unown
- The archipelago's Pokémon, as in the anime, have altered colourations

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokémon Crono (Beta Version 2.0)

Inactive | Ruby (U) 1.0 | Archived

Inactive | Ruby (U) 1.0 | Archived

Features:
- 3D Style
- New region, characters, and events
- A mysterious storyline set before the first generation -- circa 1980

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokémon Snakewood (Final Version)

Complete | Ruby (U) 1.0 | DropBox

"You awake in what used to be Littleroot town, having no memory of how you got there or even who you really are. It soon becomes apparent however that something very big has happened while you were out: Hoenn has been invaded by an army of zombies.

Working with Prof. Birch, you set off to find your brother Landon and Birch's daughter May, who have both gone missing in an attempt to find the source of the undead plague. At the same time, you try to uncover your past. On the way you face zombies, witches, demons and the enigmatic Taoist, Gleis, as well as the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse, the Hoenn Internal Affairs Army, and, eventually, the architect of all this misery himself: Senex.

However, it isn't nearly as dark as all that: there are also the cheerfully insane (and improbably numerous) Deadly Seven, the unruffled and cynical Army Recruiters Tina and Bruce, and a psychic dragon's egg. Not to mention a special appearance from the Denjuu universe."

Features
- New scripts, new overworlds, new sprites - the usual
- Exciting new areas, such as the hidden Meathouse, the maddening Island of Calm and

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

the unexpected Hoenn University of Film
- Several zombie versions of normal Pokémon, two of which are capturable
- 6 Denjuu
- An indeterminate number of Fakemon (somewhere between 40 and 50), including a good number of hidden evolutions to existing Pokémon
- New legendaries, some of which are very, very evil
- 7 Sinnoh Pokémon
- 5 Isshu (or Unova, depending on how much you care) Pokémon
- Most Gyms have now been destroyed by zombies, and hence Badges are come by in somewhat unusual ways
- A few type changes for Pokémon here and there.
- A surprising pet shop run by a certain Count
- A host of deceitful characters who will do anything to lie to you
- An unusual and somewhat wandering storyline
- An enormous number of references to books, films, manga, other hacks and other such things
- A somewhat darker plot than usual
- A slightly increased difficulty level

Bugs:
- Some tile glitches in various locations around Hoenn
- Occasionally, having your emulator on super-speed will cause certain scripts to malfunction
- There is a part of the introduction that says 'And you are?', which appears to be unremovable.

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokémon Quartz (Final Version)

Complete | Ruby (U) 1.0 | DropBox
Features:

- 237 catchable pokemon
- A new region, Corna.
- New characters, type changed gym leaders, and nine badges to collect
- New scripts: phone calls, messages, meet people, choose pokemons to be given, catch the legendaries
- An original storyline

Pekin's Ruby Hack

Beta | Ruby (U) | Link
This hack's main feature is 194 original Fakemon and the addition of three new types, Cosmic, Digital and Fairy. Other additions to the hack include new moves, new items, a day/night system, a few other convenience features and the addition of a few extra areas to explore around the Hoenn region. The hack does not change the story of Pokémon Ruby.

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Emerald Base

Pokémon Flora Sky Main Dex/Complement Dex (Final Version)

Complete | Emerald (U) | DropBox

"You'll come to a land with many mysteries of the legendary Pokémon. After the battle between Dialga and Palkia, the portal between Torn World – the world of Giratina and real world is opened. Giratina appears and brings many unanticipated dangers. And you must close this portal before its too late. Meanwhile, Team Magma and Aqua are seeking the legendary Fire and Water type Pokémon to dominate their world. Together with other friends, our hero will prevent the heat of the legendary Pokémon by the actions of Team Magma and Aqua. What will help Groudon and Kyogre calm down?"

Features:
- Gen IV and V Pokémon
- New Story, moves, map, items, and mini-game
- New Event For Legendary Pokémon
- New Character
- 386 Pokémon in the hack with new Sprites, 4th and 5th Sprites
- Day Night System, Daily Events

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Bugs:

- Still have some grammar mistakes.
- Some glitches while you're decorating in the secret base.
- When you rematch the E4 (higher level), the vs bar only show Cynthia.
- The PokeNav and some moves display wrong informations.
- Bag Egg/Invisible thing in PC Box: Sometimes you will have this bug when use PC Storage. That's also a common Emerald's bug. Maybe because you used many cheat codes...You should release the invisible thing in PC box and don't check it. With Bad Egg don't try to hatch it, back up your save file and don't use any cheat are some good ways. A Bad Egg may be in Daycare if you have only one Pokémon there. Check the Daycare again. There is another way to get rid of them by use a DMA + clean Pokémon code. Search google or youtube. After that, remove all codes and save again.
- The game may freeze (rarely) when you battle some Trainers in Battle Tent. If you get this problem. Reset the game and continue. (you have to save before enter the battle Tent so don't worry your save will be lost)

Pokémon CrystalDust (Beta Version 2.0)

Active | Emerald (U) | Download

"Once again, you're put back into the shoes of either Gold or Kris, and sent on your way across the Johto region. With the most accurate scripts, text, features, and everything else compared to other remakes, you can nostalgically relive your past GBC memories and experiences in full-on GBA style on your way to becoming a Pokémon master."

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Features:
- Complete recreation of almost everything imaginable; sprites, sound, maps, events, and text all are almost perfect copies of their GBC counterparts, only slightly updated
- May be based off of Emerald, but most things are taken from FireRed, including sprites, tiles, battle graphics, font, animations, ...
- Day/Night system; while not being the most original thing in the hack, it allows for more sense of realism
- More ASM hacks than I can count; even little things like Mom on the Pokégear have been hacked to make them Crystal-accurate
- Scripts are made to the best of my ability; no more exclamation mark without the sound!
- No sound glitches; this hack uses the right free space, and uses the built-in Fire Red voice groups

Bugs:
- When flying to the Lake of Rage after defeating the Red Gyarados but before talking to Lance, the animation messes up a bit, making you appear under Lance for a split second.

Pokemon Victory Fire (Version 2)
Completed I Emerald Base I Dropbox

Features:

- New starter
- New region (TYRON)
- New Storyline
- New Tiles
- Underground Black Market (Be warned, items there may affect your grinding for the

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

better or worse)
- Character boxes when talking to certain people
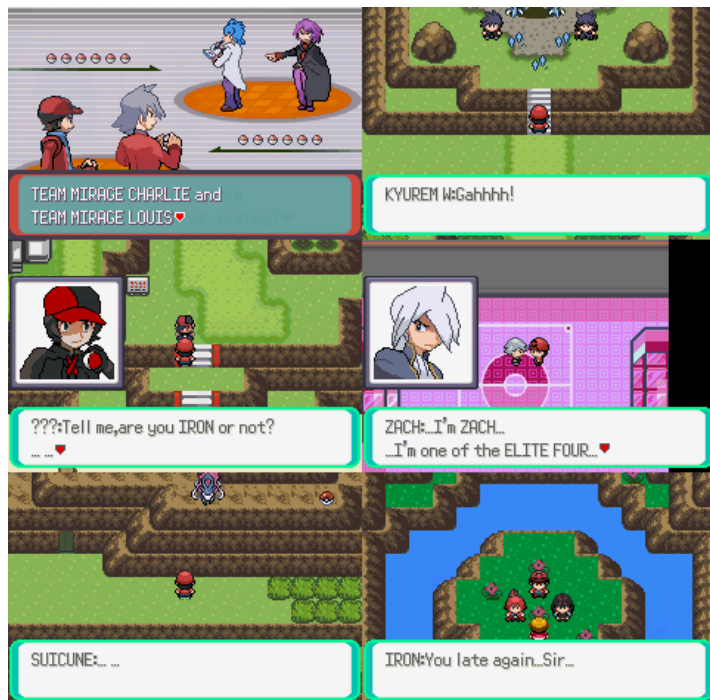

Fire Red Base

Pokémon Fire Red Omega (Final Version 1.0)

Complete | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox

Features:
- The starters are now Smoochum, Elekid & Magby.
- All Wild Pokemon in Grass, on cave floors etc and first time trainer battles have been changed. The majority of VS Seeker battles have been left untouched.
- The majority of fishing and Surfing locations have had their Wild encounters edited to fit with the change in rods and allow a wider variety.
- The Old Rod is now located in Viridian, north of the coffee guy.
- The Good Rod is now located in Vermilion, where the Old Rod used to be.
  The Super Rod has not changed locations.
- Small patches of grass have been added to Viridian, Vermilion, Celadon and Cerulean with new Pokemon inside.

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- The Old Rod no longer fishes just Magikarp; the majority of areas early on in the game relinquish valuable water Pokemon when fished into with the Old Rod.
- Likewise, most midgameish water will have good Pokemon when fishing with the Good Rod.
- The National Dex is obtained as soon as you get the PokeDex.
- Some new areas have been added - these are called Chronum Tower, Ancient Labyrinth and Yggdrasill Forest. These are not accessible until the end of the game.
- Altering Cave has been changed into a teleporting hub, and now allows you to warp to the aforementioned Chronum Tower and Ancient Labyrinth, as well as Navel Rock and Birth Island. However it is only open after you give the Sapphire to Celio.
- The starters from the Kanto, Johto and Hoenn regions are given by people around Kanto. Be sure to talk to new people in PokeCenters, town squares etc as they may be the ones who give you a starter! Expect to see the Hoenn starters first, then the Johto starters and the Kanto starters last.
- All Gym Leaders, Giovanni battles and Elite Four battles now have six Pokemon to deal with.
- Certain music has been changed ie the Gym Leader/Elite Four music has been swapped with the Elite Four music from Ruby, Sapphire & Emerald.
- The Safari Zone has been remodelled to incorporate a wider variety of Pokemon; while the structure is still the same the areas themselves are notably different.
- Levels throughout the game are overall higher; this is to compensate for the rather larger chunks of EXP you might receive.
- Some new items have been added throughout the game, including some stones, a Lucky Egg, etcetera.
- Some legends have had their levels changed.
- There are some new trainers but not very many at all.
- Trades in the game have been edited.
- Some marts have had their stock edited, and the prices of items such as Ultra Balls have been lowered.
- Some extra dialogue has been added for the second round of the Elite Four.
- The E4 is now challengeable anytime, even when Lorelei is at Four Island. While this is a paradox, it had to be done to allow the E4 to be challenged at all.
- Eevee is now Level 30 when obtained.
- The fossils are now Level 40 when obtained.
- Lapras in Silph. Co has been replaced with Castform.
- Someone else will give you Lapras, but it's up to you to find them!
- Featured throughout the game are some cameo battles of my closest internet friends (though there are one or two missing.) You won't encounter them until the second round E4 is open.

Pokémon Fire Red Nostalgia (Final Version)

Complete | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox
A simple ROM that brings revamped versions of the original 151 Gameboy sprites to your Fire Red adventure.

"Are you tired of new games where the Pokémon sprites actually look like the Pokémon they are supposed to be? Does the idea of Pokémon who don't have oversized heads and weirdly shaped eyes make you sad? Do you wish we could go back to the days of the Gameboy when all the sprites looked totally ridiculous?

Well now you can! In this hack, two months in the making, all 151 of the original Pokémon have been replaced with revamped versions of their original sprites, revamped to fully fit alongside generation III sprites! Playing Pokémon FireRed has never been so nostalgic!"

Features:
- Replace old sprites with new revamped third-generation style sprites
- Deluxe Version -- Improves some gym teams and makes all Pokémon obtainable in the wild

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokemon Manly Pink (Completed)

Active I Fire Red I Box O' hell
Pokemon Manly Pink is a Fire Red hack which replaces Generation 1 Pokemon with Generation 5 Pokemon, also adding in certain story elements, such as N appearing at the end of Viridian Forest and Bianca (Named Belle in-game) appearing halfway through Route 3. It's unknown who it's made by. This hack is presumably made before the english version of Black and White were released as the Pokemon have their Japanese Names instead with the exceptions of Zorua, Zoroark and Munna. The Pokemon movesets has been set to moveset presumed by the creator if they existed in Generation 3.

Bring Gen 5 Pokemon to Gen 3 games? What sorcery...

Pokémon Ash Gray (Beta Version 3.61)

Active | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox

Follow in the footsteps of Ash Ketchum on his travels throughout Kanto and Johto in Pokémon

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Ash Gray which faithfully recreates scenes from the Pokémon anime with a surprising level of attention to detail.

Features:
- Play as Ash Ketchum
- Have the opportunity to catch all of the Pokémon Ash does
- Follows the same events as in the Anime Series
- New Tiles, sprites, and maps
- Tools like the Hatchet and the Pickaxe replace the need for HMs such as Cut and Rock Smash

Bugs:
- Bad Eggs appearing in storage boxes (Do not move them)
- Can't get on/off the bike in certain outdoor areas
- Teachy TV is broken (Do not use it)
- Rival's face turns red if you try to name him
- Ashley backsprite is sometimes discolored and HP bar may be discolored during battles as Ashley
- Pallet Town berry system doesn't work quite right yet
- Slight hitch in Pallet Town Windmill

Pokémon Azure Horizons (Beta Version 2.0)

Inactive | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

"After months of waiting, you finally get your acceptance letter to the regional league. Finally the chance to follow in the footsteps of your brother, a great Pokémon trainer. With goal set, you begin to start your journey as a Pokémon trainer growing with each challenge. Working your way through the ranks and eventually, to the top. However, as soon as your journey begins something has happened. A disturbance has undergone, strange Pokémon trainers have been going around the region causing havoc. Their goal, however, is out of the ordinary. What it is currently is completely unknown... will it conflict with your own? Along the way you will meet people who can either aid or hinder you on your quest. There is more to them then you first thought, however."

Features:
- New Region - Entire new region of Zephyr complete with diverse areas for you to explore!
- Many Pokémon - A good portion of the 386 ADV gen Pokémon will be obtainable.
- Team Tundra - An entirely new "evil" team
- D/P Features - A few features from Diamond & Pearl will be carried over.
- Sprite Changes - Pokemon sprites from D/P will be carried over and applied to select Pokemon.
- New Music - Tracks from R/S/E will be in this game, some entirely new ones might as well too!
- Decapitalization - Decapitalized names of items, attacks, area names, etc.
- Events & Sidequests - Entirely new and fresh events and sidequests to keep you busy!
- More Trainer Battle Themes - Much like R/S/E, this hack will have several battle themes for specific Trainers.
- Running in Buildings - Just like D/P/P!

Bugs:
- The title screen is still has the Charizard
- Oak's intro is still the same
- Female heroine backsprite is still the same
- Alder talks as Oak after you get the Pokédéx

Pokémon Sienna (Beta Version 3.1)

Active | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox

"The day has finally come, the day for your era to begin. After months of waiting, you hear of an opening at the Indigo Plateau trainer school in Kanto. After sending off your letter, your CV is rejected. Mostly because of your lack of experience; but, your alternative is to go out on your own journey. Challenging the gyms, and finally the plateau, in Kanto, should be no problem. But, the region is being disturbed by the uprising of a mysterious team. This 'team' have been going around the region and causing havoc, stealing Pokémon and mugging shops. Will you merge in with the group, let them be, or will you stop them on your journey? It's all up to YOU!"

Features:
- A unique decision based story line

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- Based on two new regions
- Featuring new music and new Pokémon

Pokémon Gust (Demo Version)

Inactive | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox

A sarcastic Pokémon game with a focus on scripted events and aesthetics rather than reinventing the Pokémon formula.

Features:
- New plot, same old "Eight Gyms"

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- New maps, same old tiles (for the most part)
- New scripts, same old main events
- New gameplay aspects, same old HMs
- New overworlds, same old Nurse Joy
- Three evil teams to counter, a region to save
- And 386 different ways to go for it

Bugs:
- Do not play as female. It will cause a lot of game breaking bugs
- When you're asked to nickname your Bulbasaur, you actually don't; you nickname a random pokemon instead
- Not all of the player's overworlds have been replaced
- The first pokemon battle (with Ignus) has Oak's text in it

Pokémon Ash's Quest (Final Version)

Inactive | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox

"Pokemon: Ash's Quest is a complete translation of every important event from the first 82 episodes of the Pokémon anime -- everything you can think of – A.J.'s Gym, the School of Hard Knocks, the banned episodes, the singing Jigglypuff, the Pokemon League tournament – that you wish they would have included in the original games this hack has.

When playing, just remember that this is what you'd have expected Gamefreak to have made if the games were based off the show, instead of the other way around."

Pokémon Septo Conquest (Version 3.1)

Complete | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

"One year ago, the King of Septo was assassinated and his kingdom was stolen from him by two people known as The Dictators. Prof. Oak, who was working as the King's chief researcher, managed to rescue the King's only child and took him/her to his hometown of Faris Town. Now living with an alcoholic foster mother, you, the only child to the King and the true heir to the throne of the Septo Region, must take the region back. After Oak gives you a Pokémon, you start your very own quest. The objective is to overthrow the seven Barons (minions of the Dictators), each of whom rule one island. By doing that, you'll be able to conquer that island and get closer to the showdown with the two Dictators."

Features:
- Three different starter Pokémon: Machop, Drowzee and Skarmory.
- A host of new characters, including the player, the seven Barons, a Pokémon thief named Cookman and much more!
- A few old characters from the original games return in new roles: Oak, who was the King's chief researcher, Lance, who becomes an ally and gives you many free items throughout the game, Brenden and May, who were kidnapped from Hoenn by Team Solar and brought to Septo, Bill, who is now an evil scientist who likes to clone people. Also Brock serves as a boss early on in the game, as he is now homeless after being kicked out of Kanto and seeks to battle many skilled trainers in order to get his old gym leader position reinstated.
- A whole new region to explore.
- Filled full of humorous dialogue!
- All 386 Generation three Pokémon are obtainable

Pokémon Shiny Gold (Beta Version 5.0 [X])

Inactive | Fire Red (U) 1.0 | DropBox

A remake of Pokémon gold with extra features, it has quite a few bugs and isn't quite as polished as some of the more recent remakes, Crystal Dust and Liquid Crystal, but is the only (?) Pokémon Gold remake for the GBA. The latest beta ends at Fuchsia city.

Features:
- Extra optional and compulsory battles
- Hoenn Pokémon
- New areas
- Remapped dungeons
- Extra recurring characters
- Phone booths in replace of the phone system of the PokéGear
- The return of the Trick House with new puzzles!

 That's one huge Giratina

 Now I feel sleepy....

The Story begins in a dream (Crap. Was I dreaming of typing this?). A Pokemon suddenly appears and chooses you, a young boy/girl, to save not only it, but the world itself.

You awake asking yourself questions (Why do I talk to myself?). Deciding to ignore the dream for now, you step out into your home town known as Fells in the Core Region. Your best friend, who also had the same dream, stops you at the front door to inform you of an emergency message from the town's Professor. When you encounter the professor, he quickly informs you of the disasters and climate changes occuring all over the Core Region (Global warming exists in Pokemon apparently).. His workers in panic, he asks you to visit the delivery station and pick up a package for him from Prof.Oak. As you set out on this simple task, you encounter a mysterious girl who appears to know knowledge of the dream you've had about a creature name DARUGIS. After receiving the package, a powerful pokemon is within you and your friend, Pete, sight. Eager to test your early skills against a powerful pokemon, you quickly engage in a battle with it. The pokemon uses it's powerful winds, easily defeating your pokemon and knocking you out in the process (Dick, he just took my money and beat up my dudes). After awakening in your room, you see Pete and your mother patiently waiting for your recovery. You soon begin to realize this is the start of a journey into many mysteries and powerful pokemon you can't wait to challenge.

Features :

- New Starters
- Increased difficulty (Trust me, this game will make you cry if you don't grind)
- New Region (CORE)
- New story (Yay story-time)

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokemon Adventure Red (Beta 9 but looks like full game)

This game is based on the Pokemon Adventure Manga. The game follows the manga closely with nearly all the events inside. However, some events were changed to make it longer. The fact that the game follows the manga closely, you don't get to chose your own starter Pokemon. However, you'll be able to get them all later in the game. Despite the game following the Manga's storyline, some events were changed or alter to make it longer.

Features:
- Story follows the Manga exactly with few extra events.
- Only boy is playable.
- All Pokemon are catch-able eventually.
- Poliwhirl is the start Pokemon
- Blue and Green makes more appearance
- New tiles, maps, textures, items, trainer class and pokemon sprites.
- Game would have OPTIONAL events that would change the storyline.
- The main character speaks in color text.
- Several reference to the anime.
- Some trainers have special Pokemon.
- 3 new Pokemon types: Fairy.
- Optional events that would affect the game's outcome.
- Day and night system.

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- Mega Evolutions (Poliwrath, Politoad, Pidgeot, Nidoking, Venusaur (X & Y) and Steelix).
- Special and Physical Split (Final Beta)
- Two Storyline (Main Story and Post Game Story)

Bugs:
- The Orange Archipelago Map is incorrect.
- Teleport will teleport you to random towns/city. Please do not use it
- In the route east of Fuchsia City, there'll be a Red Sprite. Interacting with it will result in a game freeze.
- Opening up map might freezes your game.
- Opening up berry bag might freezes your game.

Pokemon Gaia (Version 1.1 but listed as Beta)
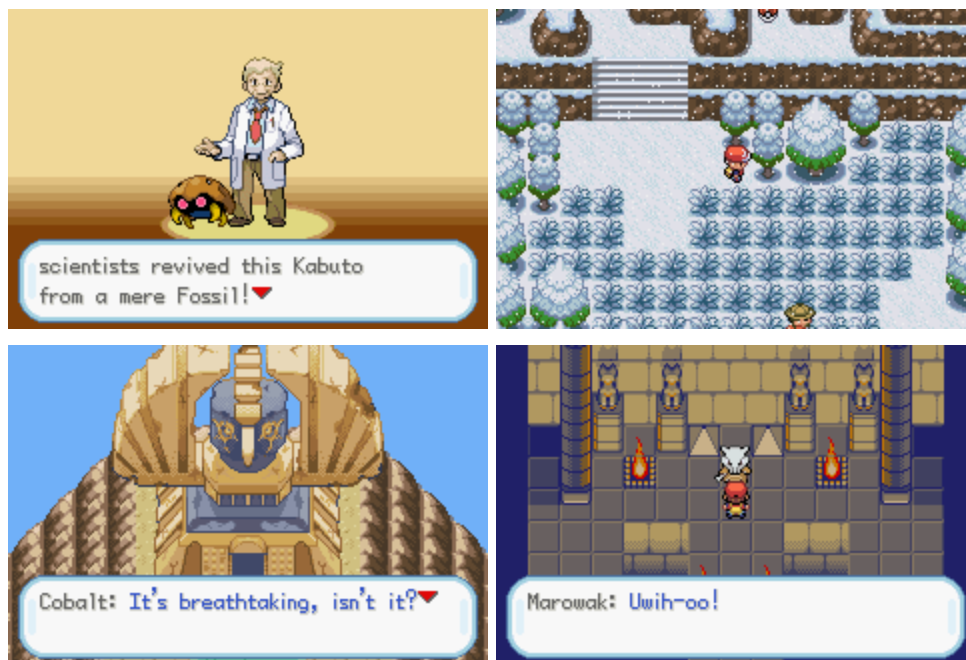

The rural Orbtus region has a rich and varied history. Long ago, a prosperous civilisation populated its rocky landscape. They created several monuments to their gods and guardians, and it is believed they were wiped out by a series of disastrous earthquakes, with only their temples and idols remaining, as relics of the past.

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

In the present day, increased seismic activity has caught the interest of local archaeologist and Pokémon Professor, Professor Redwood. As his concern for the region's safety grows, he seeks out the assistance of new Pokémon Trainers with a flair for adventure to help him in his endeavour to save the region. In Celanto Town, on the south coast of Orbtus, he finds exactly what he is looking for, and kick-starts the journey of two talented Pokémon Trainers. One of those young people, of course, is you! Will you be able to uncover the mystery of the Orbtus region and prevent the earth from consuming it once again?

Features:
- The Generation 4 physical / special / status split
- The Generation 6-styled capture-experience system
- The Black 2 / White 2-styled Repel system
- Infinite TMs
- Gen. 4 - 6 Pokémon/moves/items/abilities
- Updated type chart/learn set/moves/ sprites
- New items and moves
- Rock climb and climbable walls
- Hidden Grottoes
- Decapitalisation and minor updates

Pokemon Rijon Adventures
Beta | Fire Red (U) | Link

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

"Dear Journal, It's finally the day I tour the region of Rijon. I've been looking forward to this day for many years. It's been twenty years since my dad fought in a battle with who was once his toughest adversary for Rijon's champion title. The two are now the best of friends.

And from today, I'll be the one embarking on a big journey for which I'm sure to enjoy. As I walk through it, I hope to meet lots of new friends. Those friends may help me reach my sole aspiration - becoming the Pokémon League Champion! That may mean though, that I will not write in my journal. Without a doubt, though, I'll have lots of things to write about when this journey comes to an end"!

sdrawkcaB deR eriF (Pokemon Fire Red Backwards) Completed
C'mon, look at the title | DropBox

Have you ever thought "You know, man... if you like, went south of Pallet at the beginning of the game, you would TOTALLY be able to go through Kanto backwards"? Yeah, didn't think so. But a while ago, I did, and I decided to make it a reality.

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Features :

- Pokemon Fire Red, but backwards.
- Many Pokemon have been buffed. In particular, plenty of bugs are stronger.
- Some gym leader TMs have been changed so you don't get overpowered moves early.
- Some typings have been changed. Not many, though.
- Surf has been given a lower base power.
- Cut has been given a higher base power and made steel type.
- Naturally, every trainer has been changed.
- Wild Pokemon have beenc changed as well. This hack has nearly every Pokemon between Gens I and III, with the exception of legendaries and a few others.
- "Teleport" is now a psychic type explosion.
- Pokemon appear in puddles, like Gen V.
- There is a postgame, so be sure to make your file saves without savestates.

Diamond Base

Pokémon Dark Diamond (Beta Version 1.0)

Inactive | Diamond (U) | DropBox

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

"Team Void is plotting to take over the world, by turning all of the Pokémon into dark versions of themselves, and you have to stop them. You start out in the usual Pokémon Diamond way, going to the lake to get your first Pokémon, but instead of a Starly attacking you, it's a Darkrai clone, which absorbs your starter. When the starter comes back out, it's a dark Pikachu, but hasn't fully gone "dark", it isn't evil yet, due to Team Void still perfecting their transformation technology. "

Features:

- All 493 Pokémon will be available
- All trade evolutions are now item/level evolutions
- Brand new storyline
- Dark Pikachu as your starter
- Pikachu will possibly a new moveset, adding some dark moves
- New dialogue
- New enemy, Team Void
- All legendaries will be available as wild encounters
- All event items are available through in-game trade
- Wild Pokémon heavily edited

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

- Safari game Pokémon edited
- Trophy Garden Pokémon edited
- Increased difficulty in Gym Leaders, Rival Battles, and Elite Four

Platinum Base

Pokémon Bloody Platinum (Version 1.0)

Complete | Platinum (U/E/J) | DropBox

Features:
- Day and night cycles determine which Pokémon can be caught
- Different male/female Pokémon sprites
- Revamped trainers -- new teams and recoloured sprites
- A new rival system -- your starter Pokémon determines the makeup and style of your rival's team
- Stronger gym leaders and stronger wild Pokémon
- Alternative evolution methods
- Shadow legendary Pokémon

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Heart Gold Base

Pokémon Hard Gold (Final Version 2.0)

Pokémon Hard Gold is a ROM with a focus on increasing the difficulty of the game whilst making it possible to complete a Pokedex with just a single ROM.

Features:
- Major trainer battles are now more challenging with stronger Pokémon, better moves, and hold items. This includes battles with Gym Leaders, Elite 4, your Rival, Team Rocket Admins, Eusine, and the Kimono Sisters. Many normal trainers also have upgraded teams
- Ability to catch all 6 Johto and Sinnoh Starters in the wild
- Ability to evolve former trade-evolution Pokémon without trading
- Ability to find both Soul Silver-only and Heart Gold-only Pokémon in the same game
- New overworld sprites for main characters
- Ride a Skateboard instead of a Bicycle!
- New and edited sprites for many Pokémon
- Some late-game trainers can even use legendaries. Can you find and beat all 17 Arceus trainers?

Bugs:
- Major Lag - Occurs on no$GBA. You may experience major lag if you have the PC or Pokémon Team screen open for more than a minute or so
- EXP Glitch - You apparently can't gain more than 10000 EXP. It will give you only about a 100 EXP or so. This only happens when battling Pokémon that give you lots of EXP, like a higher level Audino or Blissey

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokemon Sacred Gold/ Soul Silver Final Version (1.05)

Features:
- 493 Pokémon (i.e. all Pokémon available in the fourth generation) can be obtained somehow within the game.
- Trainers have received new rosters to tie in with the greater variety of Pokémon available (explained by a 'migration wave' to the regions).
- The data of a lot of Pokémon has been changed; this can mean just extra level-up moves, but features such as abilities, experience rates, TM compatibility and even types might be changed.
- A small amount of attack moves have also been edited.
- Edits to evolutions mean Sacred Gold and Storm Silver are self-contained (i.e. you do not need to trade to obtain all the Pokémon).
- The availability of items has been changed quite wildly in general.
- On that note, some things have been changed just to make things in the game a lot more convenient.
- A wide variety of scripted events have been both added and edited.
- Trades within the game have also been both edited and shifted around to make getting some hard-to-place Pokémon a bit more convenient.
- Some small aesthetical edits have been made, e.g. Karen has a new background for her battle and Lance now uses Cynthia's background from DPPt instead of his own.
- Some extra bits of 'story' have been added.
- The game has had a variety of blockades added to it to increase the linearity of the story (to help the level curve).

Bugs:
- Possible black screen and/or white screens from various events around the Safari Zone area. I'm unsure on the specifics of this one, but save often just in case. This isn't a consistent bug so it's difficult to test and fix.
- One of the battles on Route 47 can be activated from a weird position.
- The MooMoo Milk dialogue is messed up.
- Some events such as the Icicle Plate and Steven in Vermilion don't seem to work on R4?
- The Mew event freezes on some flash cards.
- Garchomp are missing their Rough Skin ability.
- Claydol doesn't actually learn Fly.
- There will be Lyra/Ethan overworld doubles if you lose against her/him in Goldenrod.
- One particular item ball causes you to gain ~450 Full Heals.
- There is a typo with the Odd Keystone's description.
- Most 30% encounters with the Super Rod for some reason produce a Missingno. as opposed to what Pokémon should be available. This occurs due to missing encounters for the 30%

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

slot at Night!

- The important item document says Silver Wind is in Route 39; it's actually Route 38.
- The names for the Gentleman/Socialite on Route 34 haven't stuck.
- Double trainer battle in Route 13 has a messed up name.
- Steven will not acknowledge the Lati event after capturing Regigigas regardless of the Lati event's progress.
- The Celebi event involving your rival/Giovanni etc will result in a freeze when it reaches Tohjo Falls.
- Cynthia may refuse to give you the Sinnoh starter if you talk to her after getting the Earth Badge.
- Scizor learns Night Shade instead of Night Slash.
- Flags have a tendency to reset for some unknown reason. This doesn't always trigger and it's completely unknown why it occurs.
- Ledyba's Attack and Special Attack haven't been swapped as the document says.

White Base

Pokémon White 151 (Beta Version 1.0)

White 151 is a hack that allows you to customize your Pokémon White experience with a combination of pre-prepared patching.

Features:
- Customized patches that allow you to pick and choose which elements of pokémon white you want to edit
- A Wild Region patch that allows you to remove Johto, Hoenn, Sinnoh, and Unova Pokémon from the wild.
- An All Pokémon Accessible patch that allows you to catch all the Kanto fossil and legendary Pokémon.
- A Evolution Isolation patch that restricts Kanto pokémon from evolving via methods not present in generation one. E.G. Magby won't evolve into Magmar and Magmar won't evolve into Magmortar.
- A Gift Unova Remove patch that swaps gift Pokémon with Kanto pokémon.
- An In Game Trade patch that changes all the Pokémon NPCs offer to trade you to Kanto pokémon.
- A Trainer Patch that replaces all the Pokémon trainers have with the original 151.

Pokémon Hoenn White (Beta Version 2.06)

Features:
- Hoenn Starters
- Only Pokemon from the Hoenn Dex available (with the exception of Zekrom and event pokémon)
- Wild Pokemon have been edited in the main story
- R/S/E Trainer Battle Music
- Stats have been edited for all Pokemon
- Harder trainers and gym leaders
- Steven Stone as the Elite 4 champion

Bugs:
Do not open the Pokedex until you have received the Elemental Monkey

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Pokémon Pure White (Version 1.2)

Pokémon Pure White is the ultimate hardcore Pokémon experience. All 649 Pokémon are obtainable without trading, from the start, and you'll need them. Trainers are tougher and you never know what they're sending out! Doing well? Take part in the The Pure White/Pitch Black Video Challenge to win prizes.

"Because let's face it, Pokemon was made with children in mind so it's made possible for a 6-year old to beat it. These hacks will prove difficult even for adult Pokemon fans. You can beat the real games simply by using your most powerful attacks, but that won't work in Pure White/Pitch Black. You'll have to rely on more advanced strategies like status effects, stat-lowering moves, and switching constantly to keep your team alive."

Features:

- Old Places, New Faces
  Non-Unova Pokemon will be available to you as soon as you begin your adventure. This gives you more team options to face the upcoming challenges. Of course, you should expect your opponents to use non-Unova Pokemon as well.
- Gotta Catch 'Em All!
  All 649 Pokemon will be available in this game without trading, transferring, or accessing the Dream World. This includes legendary Pokemon as well, although they will be especially tough to find. A list of Pokemon locations will be provided.
- The Solution to Evolution
  Pokemon that used to evolve by trade have new evolution methods so you won't have to trade anymore. A list of new evolution methods will be provided.
- Trainer is about to send in..."something"?
  By default in the real games, you'll always be told what your opponent will send in which gives you a chance to easily counter your opponent's next Pokemon. In these games, the trainer's Pokemon name has been replaced with the word "something" which means you'll never know what your opponent will send in next!
- Smugleaf just got Smugger
  The truth is, starting with a Snivy gives you a disadvantage since this game is especially tough on Grass-types. To make up for this, the Snivy line now evolves much quicker than the other two starters. In addition, it also learns two new moves - Earth Power instead of Wring Out and Dragon Pulse instead of Gastro Acid. If for some reason, you still want Wring Out and Gastro Acid, you can always learn them as a Servine.
- Pseudo Tutors
  The reason a lot of Unova Pokemon don't learn many good moves is because the huge list of tutor moves from 3rd and 4th gens are missing. To slightly make up for this, some Pokemon now learn a "tutor" move by level up. For instance, Unfezant gets Superpower,

Produced and maintained by BHLHB3 and PunsAreFun

Lilligant and Vanilluxe get Earth Power, and Klinklang gets Zen Headbutt.

- Doctors? More like Murderers!
  Doctors will always heal your Pokemon to full health...if you can beat them! But they'll always engage in triple or rotation battles and have extremely powerful Pokemon with extremely powerful moves. They may be even tougher than Gym Leaders! Don't expect to win against them the first time. However they are completely optional, just like in the real games.
  Nurses on the other hand, are very easy to beat and use Audinos, Chanseys, and Blisseys which are great for EXP.

- Maybe you'll actually Read this time
  Regular trainers in the real games never have anything to say other than a few generic lines. In these games, some trainers here and there will have a bit more interesting dialog. Expect to hear references to pop culture, world events, internet memes, innuendos, and maybe even a few things not appropriate for a Pokemon game!

- Gender Bender
  Major trainers you'll meet in the game will have their genders switched, so males will become females and females will become males. Their overworld sprites, VS sprites, and battle sprites will be edited to reflect this change. This keeps the game fresh even when you're not battling or catching Pokemon.

- WHAT DO YOU MEAN IT GETS HARDER?!?
  Don't expect the challenges to end once you've beaten the main storyline. Besides the rematches against the Elite 4 and your Rivals, there are more difficult battles in store for you. Can you beat the Riches family, who are even tougher than the Elite 4? Or how about clearing Challenger's Cave, where everything is at Level 100 (even the wild Pokemon!). Don't even think about beating Morimoto the first time!

- A Dream Come True!
  Now you can get Pokemon with Dream World abilities without actually having to access Dream World. All the best abilities have been added to Pokemon who need them such as Drizzle Politoed, Drought Ninetales, and Speed Boost Blaziken.

- What a Steal!
  Time to put Thief and Covet to good use. Many wild Pokemon will be holding items that are rare or completely unavailable in the regular games. This include Berries mostly, but also expensive or hard-to-get items such as Vitamins, Rare Candies, and Battle Subway prizes.

Pokémon Volt White (Version 3.1)

"Pokémon Blaze Black and Pokémon Volt White are edits of the regular Pokémon Black and White versions which self-contain all 649 Pokémon, allowing a player a large amount of variety. In addition, BB/VW also have edited trainers, an increased difficulty level, improvements to many Pokémon and more. They are the spiritual successor of my two other hacks, Pokémon Fire Red Omega and Pokémon Spirit Gold. Blaze Black and Volt White were also - with one minor exception - the first of their kind to be made."

Features:
- Catch all 649 Pokémon
- Every single trainer in the game has had their Pokémon edited, fitting a new level curve and increasing the difficulty overall. While not mind crushingly tough, they're sure to provide more of a challenge than the original games were able to. The level curve takes full advantage of the new experience system in Black and White.
- A vast number of Pokémon have had certain statistics about them edited. This can be a number of things, including experience rate, typing, base stats and abilities. A lot of Pokémon have been given their Dream World abilities as an option, where applicable and/or useful.
- Pokémon have also had additions to their moveset, including additions or alterations to their level up movesets as well as TM and HM compatibility. Level up movesets in particular have been edited for 600+ Pokémon.
- There has also been editing of many evolutions, generally involving those Pokémon who generally had to be traded to be evolved. Blaze Black and Volt White are entirely self-contained; no outside contact is required for anything.
- Items found in the field have been changed considerably, to include TMs, evolution items and fossils previously only found post-League. The items have been adjusted in such a way that makes it convenient for the game's progress. Where applicable, text has also been changed to reflect these changes. Multiples of certain items, such as the evolution stones, the Lucky Egg and the EXP Share are also given out, all in the name of convenience.
- It isn't just trainers and wild Pokémon who have had their levels changed; event Pokémon such as Reshiram and Zekrom have also had their levels changed, ensuring that they don't become useless due to the sharp increase in levels.
- All five in-game trades have also been edited, giving you new possibilities for your team.
- A small number of attacks have also been changed to make them more useful, generally in terms of power (and rarely, type).
- A number of documents are included with the download that allow you to see any and all changes made. Wondering what's new? Where to find something? Consult the guides!

Bugs:
- The exp is weirdly low from certain high levelled opponents. This is to do with the game, though, and is not fixable.
- It appears to be possible for an error to occur at Driftveil from repeated fishing then leaving... not sure about this one, but be sure to save around there just in case.

Black Base

Pokémon Pitch Black (Version 1.2)

Pokémon Pitch Black is the ultimate hardcore Pokémon experience. All 649 Pokémon are obtainable without trading, from the start, and you'll need them. Trainers are tougher and you never know what they're sending out! Doing well? Take part in the The Pure White/Pitch Black Video Challenge to win prizes.

"Because let's face it, Pokemon was made with children in mind so it's made possible for a 6-year old to beat it. These hacks will prove difficult even for adult Pokemon fans. You can beat the real games simply by using your most powerful attacks, but that won't work in Pure White/Pitch Black. You'll have to rely on more advanced strategies like status effects, stat-lowering moves, and switching constantly to keep your team alive."

Features:

- Old Places, New Faces
  Non-Unova Pokemon will be available to you as soon as you begin your adventure. This gives you more team options to face the upcoming challenges. Of course, you should expect your opponents to use non-Unova Pokemon as well.
- Gotta Catch 'Em All!
  All 649 Pokemon will be available in this game without trading, transferring, or accessing the Dream World. This includes legendary Pokemon as well, although they will be especially tough to find. A list of Pokemon locations will be provided.
- The Solution to Evolution
  Pokemon that used to evolve by trade have new evolution methods so you won't have to trade anymore. A list of new evolution methods will be provided.
- Trainer is about to send in..."something"?
  By default in the real games, you'll always be told what your opponent will send in which gives you a chance to easily counter your opponent's next Pokemon. In these games, the trainer's Pokemon name has been replaced with the word "something" which means you'll never know what your opponent will send in next!
- Smugleaf just got Smugger
  The truth is, starting with a Snivy gives you a disadvantage since this game is especially tough on Grass-types. To make up for this, the Snivy line now evolves much quicker than the other two starters. In addition, it also learns two new moves - Earth Power instead of Wring Out and Dragon Pulse instead of Gastro Acid. If for some reason, you still want

Wring Out and Gastro Acid, you can always learn them as a Servine.

- Pseudo Tutors
  The reason a lot of Unova Pokemon don't learn many good moves is because the huge list of tutor moves from 3rd and 4th gens are missing. To slightly make up for this, some Pokemon now learn a "tutor" move by level up. For instance, Unfezant gets Superpower, Lilligant and Vanilluxe get Earth Power, and Klinklang gets Zen Headbutt.
- Doctors? More like Murderers!
