

2020 NOMB Leadership Team Information

Are you interested in using your leadership skills to move the 2020 NOMB forward into a new era of growth and success? FANTASTIC! See the information below regarding the expectations of the leadership team and the first steps to being considered for the 2020 season.

Expectations

As role models to other students and ambassadors for New Oxford High School, student leaders are expected to embody the program's highest ideals, values, and aspirations, and to uphold its expectations as outlined in the member handbook. In addition, student leaders are expected to:

- Be at least 15 minutes early to all rehearsals and performances, and be the last ones to leave after everything is cleaned-up
- Be present for additional leadership team meetings in the spring and summer as well as every Thursday during the regular season
- Complete logistical tasks prior to rehearsals (setting-up props, long-rangers, or other necessary equipment)
- Lead productive sectionals or one-on-one work sessions with members of the NOMB
- Serve as a constant example of how outstanding member of the NOMB is to prepare, rehearse, and carry themselves on and off the field
- Act as an positive ambassador between the membership and instructional staff

Are you up to the task? If so, follow the steps below to get started.
