May Announcements

Please sign on the hw sheet if you want your child to do the health unit instead of sex ed.

May 22 to 26 Sex Ed. Girls and boys are separated into different rooms.

Those not participating are doing a Health program.

May 8 to 25 End of the Year Testing begins - Smarter Balanced Test

Remember to use this time to strengthen math skills for end of the year testing.

Please turn in Spring Pics or check - they were due May 12

May 16 Open House

May 17 Book Fair 11:20

May 26 Friday Talent Show 1 to 2.

Congrats to our six national winners this year in the Young Poets contest-
Read the article in the school newsletter.
http://youngpoets.org/

Science Camp dates May 30, 31 June 1, June 2- at Wolf Camp in Aptos.

New permission slips need to be signed.

Students not joining to Science camp will be with Ms. Diaz, Ms. Nix, and Ms. Liston

June 7 field day

June 12 Mon movie- Happy Feet

June 13 Tues Water Slides in Newark Sillerman Center- we need parent drivers

Thanks to Joe's mom for signing up.

June 14 Wed Rock and Jump- we will walk there.

BBQ

Field Day

Breakfast and Graduation Day Thurs June 15 at 9:30 - invite family

You can check grades at www.engradepro.com

Reminder- All Homework is posted on our class website.
www.mrsgillet.com

Summer School at CS Eastbay and Stanford

http://www.csueastbay.edu/events/algebra-academy/

https://www.digitalmediaacademy.org/northern-california-tech-camps/stanford-university/

Math Support summerhttps://www.chatterblock.com/camps-and-classes/247100/east-bay-kidz-summer-math-camp/

Math and Coding
The Khan Academy Math Competition- underway

Some students have strengthened their skills at the library using the recommended online resources. Winter break would be a perfect to to catch up on skills.

Typing
6th graders should be typing about 30 words per minute.
Typing.com is recommended for practice.

Audio

Wordlywise3000.com is an recommended audio list to build vocabulary.

Class code mohcjop

Mira Gillet
Inventing Inventors
650 646 8833
www.mrsgillet.com