Introduction (Century Gothic Bold 16)

The introduction should describe the nature of the problem and current state of knowledge; state the purpose, scope and general methods, and present hypothesis and/or research goals. The paper should demonstrate an adequate understanding of the relevant literature in the field and cite an appropriate range of literature sources. Any significant work should not be ignored. (The first paragraph under Heading is not intended).

(Second paragraph is intended with Tab of 0.5). The introduction should state clearly the objective of the paper as well as the context of the investigation. The literature review should be limited to the articles, books and other items that are relevant to specific research questions addressed. The theoretical framework of the research may contain a full section explaining the motives of the research, identifying a gap in the existing literature of the research, and potential usefulness of the proposed theoretical basis.

Subheading 1 (Century Gothic, Italic, 14pt)

Please, include the figures in the text, but also send them additionally as separate documents in jpg, jpeg or tif format. Figures should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. Every figure should have an individual title. Use italic font and capitalize each word (except and, in, of, with, etc.). For example Region-Profitability Model. Each figure should be also mentioned in the text of the paper.

This is an example of how to format your bulleted/numbered lists – please cut this list and paste it at the desired location:

- Region A
- Region B

This is an example of how to format the table in the text. All tables should be numbered (e.g. Table 1, Table 2, Table 3). Every table should have an individual title. Use italic font and capitalize each word (except and, in, of, with, etc.). For example Relationship between Region and Business Performance. Each table should be also mentioned in the text of the paper.

Table 1

Relationship between Region and Business Performance

Business Performance	Region A	Region B
Average Profitability	20%	21%
Average Asset to Liabilities Ratio	25%	53%

Note: Any comments to the table

References within the text

Use authors' last names, with the year of publication in parentheses after the last author's name, e.g., "Fettke et al. (2003)"; alternatively, "(Fettke et al., 2003)". If more than one authors are referenced, use the first author and "et al.". If more than one article by the same author(s) in the same year is cited, the letters a, b, c, etc. should follow the year. Any direct quotation, regardless of length, must be accompanied by a reference citation that includes a page number.

Methodology (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

The empirical section should provide appropriate citations to the methodology used. Paper's argument should be built on an appropriate base of theory, concepts, or other ideas. The research or equivalent intellectual work on which the paper is based should be well designed. Methods employed should be appropriate.

Results (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

Full details of the analyses and results must be included in the paper itself. Results should be presented clearly and analysed appropriately. Conclusions should adequately tie together the other elements of the paper.

Discussion (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

Authors should provide a brief discussion. The research question should be answered. Authors should note the limitations of the study. Results should clearly express its case, measured against the technical language of the field and the expected knowledge of the journal's readership. Attention has to be paid to the clarity of expression and readability, such as sentence structure, jargon use, acronyms, etc.

Conclusion (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

Authors should note the limitations of the study. A conclusion should be based on answering research questions and/or should include results of hypothesis investigation. Further research directions should be proposed.

References (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

At the end of the paper, a reference list in alphabetical order should be supplied. References should not be numbered or bulleted. Use Century Gothic, 10 pt for reference. Citation not older than the last decade should be used as much as possible.

Use APA style for the references.
