

Sacramento Mayor Kevin Johnson Attacked With Pie in Face --- ===

Not a terrorist attack on a public official, just a joke that mayor did not appreciate.

September 21, 2016 Sacramento Mayor Kevin Johnson Attacked With Pie in Face Sacramento Mayor and former NBA star Kevin Johnson (black man) tackled and punched protester (white man) Sean Thompson, 32 who threw a pie at his face at a charity dinner. The enraged mayor landed five to 10 blows in the face to a bloody pulp. The attacker was arrested on suspicion of assaulting a public official which is a felony. He was protesting that the mayor was spending too much time worrying about a new stadium. Some wondered if the beating was justified or disproportional, and if throwing a pie was just exercising free speech.

This was no random joker. This is a scripted attack variation on police brutality against black lives matters .unarmed black men. This time a black man injures a peaceful white man who just throws a pie as a joke. These attacks are all connected, they are not random isolated events. Note how race does not matter in this case since it does not involve a black man shot by a police officer who claims to be innocent.
