

Skills, Passions and Values Alignment Worksheet

IMPORTANT: Please do not request write access to this file. Instead, please go to File -> Make a Copy to create your own copy in your own Google Drive. This is the master document, and so cannot be edited by anyone.

In the fields below, add as many current skills that you have, any passions or interests, and any skills that you could learn and have an interest in. Please also add values as this is important to align your skills and a future program and what drives you.

Be as comprehensive as possible. This exercise may well be ongoing for a few days as ideas come up for you. So keep it going in the background while you continue with other exercises.
