

“Atrocious, I think I used that word right” - Area Manager Inspection

Jan 27, 2023

And there we stood proudly in our uniforms, the ultimate representation of a unit. A unit built from honor, respect, and dedication. A Unit that is led excellently by a proud, sactimous leader. Right away, platoon leaders took charge of their respective platoons, preparing for the Annual Inspection. After each cadet was, I must say, meticulously inspected by LCDR (select) Dennis Barrett, we prepared for our final presentation: Pass and Review. Determination in every step, our twee company marched with diligent haste. After a stunning and fatuous performance, we’ve somehow once again managed to prove the greatness of our insipid unit. We are Hoggard NJROTC. While many obstacles have interrupted our path, we’re not completely vacuous because at least we painstakingly passed by 1 cadet. Thank Jesus.
