

Outreach

Hey Rachel,

Your Photography Business Coaching Program speaks to your audience's dreams and desires, which is awesome to grab their attention and make them feel understood.

But you could be missing potential sales for the coaching program by not leveraging Facebook ads.

So, I went ahead and created one below to promote your lead magnet so you can generate more leads more effectively.

If you like it, I have a few other ideas to convert these leads into clients for your Photography Business Coaching Program (think about a promotional email sequence)

Thanks,
Angelo
