

Privacy Policy

Information Collected

- Personal Information: Names, emails, IP addresses
- Usage Data: Cookies, analytics tracking
- Market Research: Voluntary survey responses (no identifiable medical data)

Purpose of Data Collection

Information collected is solely used to provide notifications, newsletters, advertising, and market research purposes explicitly disclosed at account creation.

Data Sharing & Security

TexMedCannabis.com stores data securely using AWS with SSL encryption. Data access is strictly limited to the internal team. No external sharing of data occurs.

User Rights

Users may request access to their personal data, request data portability, or demand permanent deletion (right to be forgotten) through the site's contact form.

Data Breach Notification

In the event of a data breach, affected users will be notified within 36 hours of discovery.

Cookies & Analytics

Third-party tools (Analytics, Tracking, and Web Performance) and remarketing pixels are utilized. Cookie consent banners are provided only in legally required jurisdictions.

Opt-out & Communication Preferences

Users can opt out of email and marketing communications directly via an unsubscribe button provided in emails.

Accessibility

TexMedCannabis.com follows standard website practices and explicitly disclaims liability concerning ADA compliance or web accessibility guidelines.

Updates to Privacy Policy

This policy will be reviewed at least once every two years. Users will receive email notifications of significant changes and may request account deletion if desired.

Contact Information

All inquiries related to Terms or Privacy concerns should be directed through the site's provided contact form.
