

r/vexillology monthly design contest - general rules

You will be asked to confirm you followed each rule upon submission. Repeated rule violators will be banned from the contest for all of 2022.

To submit your designs to the contest, please click this link.

Rule 1: Submission method - To submit your flag designs, you must go and visit this web page and follow the instructions there accordingly. Click on the section marked "Submission Form".

Rule 2: Submission limit - You may submit up to TWO entries to each contest. In the event you submit more than two designs, moderators will reach out via Reddit Direct Messages for clarification. In the event clarification is not received, the two most recent entries will be accepted, while all others will be rejected.

Rule 3: Technical limit - Flags should be at most 3000 pixels wide. They should also be flat and not textured.

Rule 4: Sharing prohibition - DO NOT post your flag designs elsewhere on the r/vexillology subreddit before the winners are announced. Don't post it as another thread. Don't post it as a response to the contest announcement thread. The contest aims to keep the submissions anonymous until results are announced, so as to avoid a popularity contest.

Rule 5: Attribution requirement - If you take components from public domain, or other sources that are not your own work, please attribute them in the description portion of your submission.

Rule 6: Sincerity requirement - Your flag design should be a sincere attempt to respond to the prompt. It should not be designed to troll.

Rule 7: Deadline - Entries are due by the 18th of the month.

Rule 8: Contest specific rules - Each contest will have specific rules outlined in the announcement thread. Please read them and follow them accordingly.

Best of luck!
