

Bellwoar WAM Spring 2011

Audio Essay Project Workshop Sheet

Name:

Questions for discussion in your project group:

- What theme have you chosen for your audio essay? How did you choose this theme? What do you hope to convey to your audience through this theme?
- What techniques do you plan to use to convey your theme? Do you plan to use interviews or live action sequences? How do you plan to use music, silence, and/or sound effects?
- Review your script with your peers. Does your script convey what you discussed? What suggestions for changes will get you closer to your goals for the audio essay?

Now fill out this worksheet and post to your blog on googledocs.

List 3-5 things that your peers liked about your audio essay idea.

My audio essay idea is an interesting topic for others;
It is a good idea to include different interviews;
It is a topic that not everyone can do

List 3-5 suggestions that your peers had for revision of your audio essay idea.

I could let the people I interview introduce themselves in their native language;
I could choose music from different cultures;
I can include some more topics like sports or other cultural aspects

Now that you've had some feedback, what plans do you have for your audio essay project next week?

I want to include the idea of making people introduce themselves in their native language;
In addition I want to use culturally influenced music and include the topic of sports.