READ/LISTEN:

Matthew 7:1-6 ESV / "Judge not, that you be not judged. 2 For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. 3 Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? 4 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when there is the log in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

6 "Do not give dogs what is holy, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, lest they trample them underfoot and turn to attack you.

REFLECT:

Read the passage again. Focus on any words, phrases, themes, or memories God is drawing you into. Feel free to sit in this as long as desired or join in discussion.

DISCUSS:

What stood out in the passage above? How might it impact your personal or professional life? Are there specific examples you'd like to share?

GO:

What is one way you (or the group) could apply this teaching in your life? Once discussion is over, pray for one another and go with God.

"God knows our situation; He will not judge us as if we had no difficulties to overcome. What matters is the sincerity and perseverance of our will to overcome them." –C.S Lewis
