

Ascension of 'Abdu'l-Bahá - Nov 27-29

Abdu'l-Baha was the eldest son of Baha'u'llah (founder of the Baha'i faith) who referred to Him as "the Mystery of God" and "a shelter for all mankind", however Abdu'l-Baha preferred to be called "Abdu'l-Baha" which means "the Servant of Baha" in reference to His servitude to Baha'u'llah. When Abdu'l-Baha passed away on 28 November 1921, He was eulogized as One who led humanity to the "Way of Truth," as a "pillar of peace" and the embodiment of "glory and greatness."
