

About

This exchange is to celebrate shuangxuan (beefleaf) - the romantic ship between He Xuan and Shi Qingxuan of Heaven Official's Blessing - and to connect fans with a shared love of the ship! All interpretations and preferences, from sweet and fluffy to dark and depressing, are welcome.

The due date for all works is October 7th, the day before the start of Hanlu. This is the day Shi Qingxuan ascended...and He Xuan also went through some things. A very important day for both of them. 💕

FAQ

I have questions about my giftee's prompts or preferences.

Please email or DM the mods with any questions you have for your giftee, and we will ask them for you.

I can't work with any of my giftee's prompts.

Please email or DM the mods, and we'll help sort things out!

I need to drop out.

If you need to drop out, that is okay. Please email or DM the mods as soon as possible, and we'll assign your giftee to a pinch hitter.

Posting date...

While the ideal posting date is October 7, anytime during that week (Oct. 2-8) is also okay! This exchange is running on GMT-5 (US eastern time), but there's no need to stress too much on the exact hour your works are posted.

However, if you don't think you'll be able to post your work before the end of the day on October 8, please let the mods know via email or Twitter DM.

Pinch hitters?

Pinch hitters are writers or artists who volunteer to pick up gift assignments that would otherwise be left unfilled due dropouts or other circumstances. The minimum requirements for pinch hitting are the same as those for regular gift assignments.

You can sign up to just be a pinch hitter, or you can sign up to pinch hit along with being a regular event participant.

Pinch hit requests will be sent out via email.

Betas?

Although all works should be polished and proofread, betas are not required and the mods will not be organizing or assigning betas.

Contact us!
