Item 3. – 7:50-8:00

Lead Testing Requirement – Dr. Gale

Explanation: Act 39 of 2018 addresses the requirements for schools to test for lead levels. If a school chooses not to test for lead levels, then the school must discuss lead issues in school facilities during a board meeting at least once a year. Penn Manor last tested for lead in all schools in the spring of 2021. The results showed that there are no issues with lead in Penn Manor schools. The administration is recommending that no testing occurs in 2023.

Approval for placement on the April 17, 2023 Board Voting Agenda
