Weather Reference

Code GREEN

- No tropical systems are expected to impact the league's team's area
- The weather and emergency committee will monitor the forecast from the National Hurricane Center on any storm that may affect your league's activity.
- Clears a Code YELLOW/RED. This will be announced ONLY by the weather and emergency committee

Code YELLOW

- Part of your league's team's area is in the "forecast cone" of the tropical cyclone during the week prior to and up to the time of the activity.
- Daily briefings will be conducted with the Weather and Emergency Committee and all decision makers for your league.
- A daily forecast update will be sent out by the Weather Manager to team coaches and team directors after the daily briefing. This will be done via email and social media.

Code ORANGE

- Not applicable

Code RED

- Part of your league's team's area is in the "forecast cone" of the tropical cyclone 2 days prior to set-up day or 3 days prior to the activity. (https://www.nhc.noaa.gov).
- A tropical storm/hurricane has severely impacted part of the league's state just prior to the activity that causes flooding, clean up of downed trees, etc of not only the event site, but also part of the league's team's area that prevents some teams from attending.
