

TITLE 1 PARENT COMPACT

Policy Statement:

Commitments

Bernheim Middle will:

- Share clear information about each student's progress with parents.
- Offer practical suggestions to parents on how they can support learning at home.
- Make parent partners in the decision making process.
- Facilitate the involvement of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children.
- Seek and support adult volunteers.

School-Parent Compact

Our students' parents, families, extended families, students themselves, as well as our local community are all considered partners who share responsibilities for high student achievement.

Bernheim Middle will:

- Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in an effective, supportive, and safe learning environment that enables the students to meet Kentucky's academic standards.
- Provide parents with reports on their child's progress.
- Conduct parent, teacher, student conferences
- We will communicate in a variety of ways to keep parents informed
- Support the Parent Teacher Student Organization.
- Provide parents opportunities to become involved in the learning process.

Family Resource/Youth Service Center will:

- Share responsibility for student achievement.
- Survey families to learn what service and activities would most help them support their children as learners.
- Offer a well-planned and publicized menu of activities and programs to meet those needs.

Parents of BMS Students will:

- Support school and district attendance policies and procedures.
- Make sure assignments are complete and turned in on time.
- Assist their child with time management and organizational practices.
- Participate in decisions relating to their child's education.
- Stay in close communication with teachers and the school about their child's education.
- Support the school and individual classrooms through volunteering time and/or resources.

Students of BMS will:

- Follow behavior standards.
- Bring necessary learning materials to school and to class.
- Complete and turn in assigned work on time.
- Give the parent/guardian all notices and information received from the school.
