

October 2023

No meeting was held in person because the board had offline reviews via email to finalize and approve the annual dues letter that went out.

No other actions required review of vote.