

Directions: Students will navigate through the Folk Culture Storymap. The Storymap is designed to provide you with many examples of music, architecture, sports, food, folk tales and clothing. I encourage you to look into sections that interest you. Each student may have different examples that apply to the FRQ below.

1. Folk culture traditions is distinctly different from popular culture traditions
 - A. Define “folk culture” and “popular culture.”
 - B. Describe the importance of the physical environment in folk culture by citing examples from:
 - i. food preferences
 - ii. architecture
 - iii. folk tales
 - C. Compare folk culture with popular culture in the following realms:
 - i. sports
 - ii. music
 - iii. clothing

A.		A.
Bi. Example:	Bii. Example:		Biii. Example:
Bi. Additional examples:	Bii. Additional examples:		Biii. Additional examples:
Ci. Example:	Cii. Example:		Ciii. Example:
Ci. Additional examples:	Cii. Additional examples:		Ciii. Additional examples: