3 YEAR
GOALS

We believe that everyone is created equally and has sacred worth. River Glen Church is a safe place for people of all ages, abilities, ethnicities, gender identities, and sexual orientations to worship God, learn to follow Jesus, and be guided by the Holy Spirit.

Accessibility for all abilities

Improving accessibility of the building, Sunday services, other church activities

In progress

Make our presence known within the community

improved and deliberate online presence

In progress

Encouraging members to invite friends to church activities

Add more organized methods for allowing church members and guests to get to know one another.

continuing our local mission efforts

Continuing community efforts - Longwood, Youth360

Expand and capitalize on our enthusiasm to serve

Help members around acceptance and appreciation of where members and guests are in their church journey.

Include activities where prayer and faith are included, but are also welcoming to people who may not yet feel comfortable in a church setting

Support everyone around having healthy goodbyes and connect to new people and patterns.
