

Unlocking the World of Sweepstakes Gold Coins and Bonuses: A Guide for Blockchain Gamers

Sweepstakes casinos are a favorite among blockchain gamers looking to play free games. Unlike regular casinos, you can explore these sites and their games using digital tokens like Gold Coins. If at any point you use up all your bonus gold coins, you can purchase more from the coin package section. We'll discuss how you can use these digital tokens at sweepstakes casinos, including bonuses and more.

H2 - What Are Sweepstakes Gold Coins?

Sweepstakes casinos usually support two digital coins: sweeps coins and gold coins. Unlike the former, you can play casino games with gold coins but can't redeem wins for tangible prizes. Since sweepstakes casinos are geared towards playing for fun, these coins are a great way to try your hands on different titles. One of the most significant advantages of using gold coins is that they are easier to get than sweepstakes. While you can easily purchase more gold coins whenever needed, you can't buy sweepstakes coins at social casinos.

H3 - How do sweepstakes coins work in the US?

Online casino activities in the US are regulated on a state-by-state basis. As such, playing at regular online casinos is not a legal activity in some states. However, sweepstakes coins provide the same fun casino games and are legally accessible in most US states. These social gaming sites are not categorized as gambling platforms because they do not support the use of standard legal tender for gaming.

As a blockchain gamer, you can get gold coins at social casinos using supported digital coins. That way, your purchases are swift and secure. When you buy coin packages on these platforms, you can get more coins as a bonus. Such a bankroll boost means you can play your favorite games longer.

H2: Types of Sweepstakes Casino Bonuses

There are different sweepstakes casino bonus types tailored to new and existing players. They are similar to the offers you get at standard online casinos. However, the terms and conditions will vary a little. Of the many available options, some variants have become more popular. Also, these bonuses may occasionally offer you a good amount of gold coins. Here's an overview of the top 6 bonuses you can claim at the best sweepstakes online gambling sites.

H3: No Deposit Bonuses

To claim this sweepstakes casino bonus, you must not top-up your bankroll. It is also an offer that can take different shapes, such as free coins or spins. Some sweepstakes sites often issue this bonus as a welcome package, but they also come as promotional offers for returning players. To claim this bonus, you must read the attached terms and conditions. These terms will inform you of the requirements to qualify for the offer.

If you wish to try this kind of bonus, you'll find it at Fortune Coins. There. You get free coins for three days just by logging in each day. You do not have to make a coin purchase or do anything else. Also, there is no restriction on what time of the day you can log in, so you can visit the site whenever you feel convenient. However, if you get the offer for the first day and do not log in on the second day, you'll forfeit the free coin for that second day and the third day.

H3: Sign Up Bonuses

You'll hardly find a social casino without a sign-up bonus. These offers are created to reward you for creating an account with the sweepstakes platform. These welcome bonuses are usually free gold and sweepstakes coins you can play games with. However, they can also be free spins on specific slots. On some platforms, you get this bonus right after signing up. Some others may require you to complete a KYC or do other small tasks before issuing the bonus.

Either way, the primary requirement for getting welcome or sign-up bonuses is to be a new player. That means if you already have an account with a sweepstakes casino, you can't claim its welcome offer. Some welcome offers can be delivered within a few days or in batches. For instance, a social casino issuing 50 free spins can decide to give you ten daily across five days. You'll learn about any of these terms when you read the fine print.

H3: Bonus Codes

Sometimes, you must apply a bonus code to claim an offer at your chosen sweepstakes casino. These are usually a string of alphabets, numbers, or a combination of both. The casino tells you where to input a bonus code and how to do it. For example, if the offer is attached to coin packages, you may need to type in the promo code when making a coin purchase. You can get promo codes from the sweepstakes platform promotions section, as they are often written in the bonus description. Alternatively, you can check the sweepstakes casino's social media pages or opt-in to receive promotional emails. That way, you will be notified of any available promotions and the codes you can use when claiming them. A promo code can be attached to any offer, whether a signup or promotional deal.

H3: Free Play Sweepstakes and Bonuses

A free-play sweepstakes bonus lets you play specific games without using anything from your current balance. Unlike free spins restricted to online slot games, this deal can be for table games or live dealer offerings. However, free play offers are less popular than the welcome bonus but come in handy whenever they are available. When you get a free play bonus, it can come as gold coins to be used to play games.

H3: New Sweepstakes Casino Bonuses

New sweepstakes casinos are always on the lookout for new players. To achieve this, they offer a range of impressive bonus offers. You can find the most competitive welcome bonuses at newly launched casinos. The offers at new sweepstakes casinos are no different from what you'll find at already established ones. You can expect everything from free spins to free play coins and lots more. Even though these bonuses are geared towards attracting new sign-ups, they still come with terms and conditions that you must note. Once you get the hang of these requirements, you can make the most of any new sweepstakes casino bonus.

H3: USA-Specific Bonuses

Sweepstakes casinos in the USA offer unique bonuses tailored to American players. USA-specific bonuses at social online casinos come in various forms. For instance, new players often receive welcome packages that include a combination of gold coins and sweep coins upon registration.

US players may also receive additional Sweep Coins as a first purchase bonus when purchasing Gold Coin packages. Many platforms offer US players daily login rewards, giving players free Gold Coins or Sweep Coins for consistently accessing their accounts. While players from other regions may be able to view these bonuses from their location, they'll be unable to claim or use them.
