

The Jane Bullowa S/CDN Service and Leadership Award

The Staff/Curriculum Development Network (S/CDN) acknowledges the need for a professional association to recognize outstanding individuals among the ranks of its members as well as individuals whose accomplishments have improved the field of education. S/CDN has established this award for which nominations are annually solicited from the membership.

The Jane Bullowa S/CDN Service and Leadership Award was instituted for the recognition of individuals who have been career-long leaders in the field of education. The intended recipients of this award are individuals who have made significant contributions to the field over an extended professional career and have a history of contributions to S/CDN, resulting in a positive and significant impact on the work of the organization.

The S/CDN Mission and Goals:

Mission

The S/CDN will develop and strengthen the capacity of New York State educators to promote success for all students.

Goals

- Enhance communication among BOCES/Large City School Districts and the State Education Department by sharing information and resources with each other and local school districts.
- Support student learning and college and career readiness through quality curriculum, staff and organizational development.
- Collaborate with the State Education Department in planning and implementing curriculum, instruction and assessment through capacity building initiatives.
- Provide professional development leadership.
- Network with other professional organizations.

An individual may be nominated for this award by a current or former S/CDN member.

Nominations for this award are accepted upon the receipt of the nomination form (including descriptive narrative).

Selection will be based on information submitted to the S/CDN Award Committee. The selected individual(s) will be honored at the last S/CDN meeting of the school year.
