Dark Chocolate Espresso Cake

Prep/Cook: 15/15 min | Makes: 14-16

- 8 eggs
- 8 egg yolks
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- 2 tablespoons instant espresso powder
- 15 oz. dark chocolate
- 1 cup butter
- A pinch of salt

- Vanilla ice cream, for serving

For Coffee Syrup:

- 2 cups water
- 1/4 cup instant espresso powder

- 1/4 cup unsalted butter
- 1/4 cup cornstarch
- 1 cup sugar

1. Preheat the oven to 400 F and grease 14 - 16 ramekins with cooking spray and spread onto 2 sheet trays.
 2. In a saucepan over low heat, slowly melt the butter, chocolate, espresso, and salt until everything looks smooth.
 3. Remove from heat and let cool.
 4. Using a hand mixer or stand mixer, add eggs, yolks, sugar and vanilla. Whisk until mixture has tripled in size and eggs look pale and ribbony.
 5. Once the chocolate mixture has cooled, add 1/3 of the egg mixture to the chocolate and incorporate.
 6. Now add another 1/3rd of the egg mixture to the chocolate and fold the egg mixture in to prevent losing air. Repeat with the final 1/3rd and fold until just combined.
 7. Using a ladle or large spoon, fill the ramekins up to about 3/4 full.
 8. Bake cakes until puffed and just set when you giggle, about 15 - 18 minutes.
 9. Cook coffee syrup in a small saucepan over medium high heat by adding together the water, espresso powder, and butter until simmering.
 10. Whisk together the sugar and cornstarch together in a bowl to break up the cornstarch clumps. Add to the saucepan while whisking until the sauce becomes more viscous and coats the back of a spoon. Remove from heat.
 11. Plate chocolate cakes on a sauce with powdered sugar.
 12. Drizzle a little espresso sauce over each cake to serve.
 13. Enjoy!
