Siena Hayashi completed the pictures series “Human as a being”

Dedicate this Artwork for the people die on 11th March 2011, a huge earthquake and Damon Tsunami in Japan.

TOKYO, JAPAN March 9, 2019, Siena Hayashi, a Japanese Painter with Christianity, started his artwork from 2011 to figure out Human imaginations as 24 keywords, the pictures series “Human as a being”. He has finished his work on 9th March in 2019.

The motivation to draw the picture series was to see so many people had gone in Fukushima and north part of Japan by the huge earthquake and Damon Tsunami in a modern world.

Many Christians pray for the salvation of the spirits of the people and families.

Siena Hayashi said, “My salvation is to draw these pictures with my heart.”
