FILE ID: NU7-D66-KS-DEATHMARK

ACCESS LEVEL: LEVEL 3 - EYES ONLY

SUBJECT: Sol, Krista "Deathmark"

CURRENT THREAT PRIORITY: CHAOS INSURGENCY CELL OMEGA-2

I. PERSONAL INFORMATION

Full Name: Krista Sol

Alias/Codename: Deathmark

Date of Birth: 1993-09-18

Nationality: British

Clearance Level: 3

Rank in division: First Lieutenant

Current Assignment: Mobile Task Force Nu-7 ("Hammer Down") -
Division 66, QRF Infantry Platoon

Base of Operations: Site-66

Specialization: Tactical suppression, hostile anomaly recovery, counter-insurgency Psyops Commander.

II. BACKGROUND

Born into a legacy MI6 family, Krista Sol was raised in a household where secrets, operations, and geopolitics were daily currency. Her parents, both deeply involved in counter-anomalous intelligence for the British Crown, trained Krista in surveillance, infiltration, and target elimination well before her formal military enlistment.

Rather than follow the family directly into intelligence work, Krista diverged into military field ops to apply her skills in real-world conflict zones. Her operational lethality during an MI6-Foundation joint mission in 2018 flagged her for Foundation recruitment.

after coming home for the first time in 2 years. On 12/30/21, Deathmark found her parents following the Sarkic cult in the area. she was disgusted. her parents told her to join them. instead. She fought then returned to her division. This isn't mentioned ever. known as 'Deathmark'incident 1-Bravo

III. FOUNDATION SERVICE RECORD

After initial assessment and rapid clearance acceleration, Sol was assigned to frontline combat roles under MTF Nu-7 ("Hammer Down"). Over several years, she earned distinction for her unwavering precision, operational ruthlessness, and success under duress.

Key operations included:

- Operation "Brimstone Halo" - Coordinated armored assault during SCP-████ riot event
- Operation "Osprey Fall" - Led fireteam in extraction of SCP-████ from a Chaos Insurgency ambush
- Operation "Iron Sleet" - Survived and completed mission objectives despite full unit KIA during anomalous terrain collapse

IV. TRANSFER TO NU-7 DIVISION 66 - SITE-66 QRF

Following the death of Site-66's rapid response lead, 1LT Sophia "Tokyo" Jackson, Sol was reassigned to reconstitute and lead Nu-7 Division 66, a Quick Reaction Force and infantry platoon embedded at Site-66.

Her role includes:

- First-strike and breach control during internal containment failures
- Interception and neutralization of hostile para-military threats, specifically Chaos Insurgency units in the ██████████ corridor

VI. PSYCHOLOGICAL PROFILE

Sol remains stable but exhibits extreme single-target focus. Clinical evaluations suggest high-functioning PTSD mitigated by operational immersion. Displays emotional detachment except in relation to Chaos Insurgency actions.

Psych Profile Notes:

- Will not tolerate any perceived hesitation in counter-insurgency ops
- Described by peers as "ice-cold" in planning and "white-hot" in combat

Quarterly counseling is recommended but consistently rejected unless ordered.

VII. ADDITIONAL NOTES

- Maintains a private locker marked with the Omega-2 insignia crossed out in red paint
- Refers to Omega-2 leadership as "ghosts wearing stolen skins"
- origin of term unknown

Sol maintains a personal tribute in nu-7 officer bunks for 1LT Sophia "Tokyo" Jackson. The two served together, Sol has cited Jackson's "fearless doctrine and refusal to break" as formative to her leadership style.
