

Rosa L. Goldblatt

Rosa Drobiarz Goldblatt was born in New York, a daughter of Henry and Sophie Drobiarz, newly emigrated from a displaced persons camp in Germany. The family, which included Henry's brother Michael, moved to a dairy farm in Central Village, Connecticut in June of 1952. They soon joined Temple Beth Israel because of the many families with young children. Henry and Sophie became very involved in Temple Beth Israel activities from Sisterhood to youth groups, ritual activities to social and fundraising activities.

Their children, Rosa, Suzanne, Martin, and Marilyn, followed their lead and also became involved in synagogue life participating in various plays, youth groups and Hebrew School. Rosa, a graduate of American University in Washington, D.C., is married to Michael, a CPA in Norwich, Connecticut and has three children: Louis, Matthew, and Rachel.

Rosa works full-time in her husband's practice as a staff accountant, as well as being the office manager. She is a past Vice-President of Beth Jacob Synagogue in Norwich and has served on many committees there as well. She is also currently serving as Secretary of the Jewish Federation of Eastern Connecticut.
