

臺北市私立新民國民小學

Taipei Xinmin Private Elementary School

G2 W8 Homework

202 / 203 / 204 Name: _____ ID#: _____

What Are Consonant Blends?

A consonant blend is when two or three consonants are together in a word and each sound can still be heard.

Example: bl in black → /b/ + /l/ st in star → /s/ + /t/ tr in tree → /t/ + /r/

We say both sounds when we read the word.

1. Underline and write the Consonant Blends

1. spring _____
2. strong _____
3. cloud _____
4. brick _____
5. street _____
6. splash _____

2. Complete the Words

Word Bank:

bl br cr dr fl gl gr pl sl tr

- | | |
|-------------|------------|
| 1. ____own | 4. ____een |
| 2. ____ass | 5. ____ide |
| 3. ____ower | 6. ____uck |

3. Choose the Correct Word

1. The frog jumped into the (pond / blond).
2. The (train / rain) is very fast.
3. She saw bright stars in the (sky / cry).
4. The boy built a house with (bricks / tricks).
5. The wind blew the (clouds / crowds) away.

What Is a Compound Sentence?

A compound sentence has two complete sentences (independent clauses) joined together. They are usually joined with and, but, or, so.

Example

- I like apples, and I like bananas.
- She is tired, but she finishes her homework.
- We can play outside, or we can read a book.
- It was raining, so we stayed inside.

Each part of the sentence can stand alone as a sentence. Example: I like apples. I like bananas.

1. Combine the Sentences

Word Bank: and but or so yet

1. I wanted to play outside. It started to rain. →

2. She likes strawberries. She does not like blueberries. →

3. You can have cake. You can have ice cream. →

4. He was tired. He finished his homework. →

5. I tried my best. I did not win the game. →

2. Correct the Mistake

Each sentence below is missing a comma or conjunction. Fix it.

1. I went to the store I bought some milk. →

2. She wanted to play soccer she was feeling sick. →

3. We can go to the zoo we can stay home. →
