#Story 1

Jenny went to the forest and she heard the sound of water. She approached that sound and found a river. She took off her clothes and wanted to go inside the water. The water is chilly and calming. She dived into the deep river and calms herself under the river. When she came out of the water, she heard a rumble of thunder and starts raining. She panicked, take her stuff, and run to her car.

She unlocked her car with the key car remote. She opened the door and closed it. She started feeling cold and trembling. She started the engine and turned on the heater in the car.
