

Dating Mastery: How To Stop Thinking About Women Like The Boogeyman, And Find The Quality Woman Of Your Dreams:

*3 to 4-minute read

O ye! o ye!.. Gather round the campfire gentlemen, I'm going to give you the secrets to life.

Do you want to know all the Mastery craftsmen's juicy secrets of love, sex, dating, and long-term relationships? You can call this: "Dating Mastery" Oh wait! I already did. 🙄

In this series, you will learn: How and where to meet girls, the scary first conversation, asking for and planning the first date, all the way down to when things get serious. Everything in-between, and much much more.

First, Why am I sharing these tips?

Gents, I know lots of quality ladies. I want to help you guys meet each other, make awesome babies, and make your world a happier, more fulfilling place to be.

Note: These tips are only for finding a quality woman, a long healthy relationship, and even a wife worthy of gold and rubies. Ecclesiastes 31:10-12: "A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies. Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value. She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life." My Padawans, (Star Wars reference) you can go further than you imagine with a good woman by your side cheering you on. Most of you know this already.

Maybe you're asking: "What makes you qualified to talk about this?"

Well, not only have I studied this extensively, read all the books, and watched all the videos so you don't have to, but I am also what is universally qualified as a "good" woman.

I have been raised in a good home, by great parents (I have already been trained on how to be a good wife/woman, which is something we'll cover.) I have great morals. I eat right and care about my health and body. I know how to cook, clean, cater to a man, and keep a home.

I'm hard-working. I want to sleep (yes that) with my husband often and regularly. I know how to raise children well and I want them (lots of them.) I am a great conversationalist and will make you look good around your friends and business relationships, physically and intellectually. I'm not a career-driven “Boss Bitch” as they call it, I just want to love and respect my husband and love our children. I'm always modestly dressed to the 9s because I enjoy it. Yes, I love heels. And when I'm old and grey? I know how to have fun doing anything, and I'm not a complainer. I'm also funny, as some of you know.

Mind blown? Yes, they exist. I know MANY of them.

If that type of girl is something you are interested in, then read on, and stay tuned.

Still here? Fan-freakin-tastic!

Today we start at the beginning:

Know thyself: “What even are my dreams?”

1. You have to nail down your morals. Hard work? honor? kindness? Those are all great things! You need those. However, ideally, you must know what your FAITH means to you. Everyone has a faith, and you need to be able to articulate it to a woman you are prospecting. This is a lot like a business relationship. She needs to know what she is signing up for. What do you believe about God? How will you raise your children? What does love mean? Is it unconditional, for better or worse? What do you need out of life? If you get to the end of your life, how do you want to be remembered?

Some of you have never thought of this, and that's ok! Start thinking about it and write it down. Never, I repeat NEVER be with a girl who has different morals because you won't have a lasting, loving relationship. Doesn't matter how hot she is, she will get old, you have to be on the same page.

2. How much money will you make, and how will you get there? You have to know this before you can focus on a woman. Otherwise, you will just be bumping around life and you'll squish her and yourself in the process.
3. Girls aside, what does health look like to you? Do you eat the extra dessert and still hit the gym? Does your girl have to cook you chicken and broccoli your whole life? This one's easy to figure out.

Go think and write.

What matters most to you in this crazy place we call Earth?

Tip two is one more important item you have to establish. Then we get into the scary stuff:
