To Whom it may concern

Hi, my name is Maliha and I am in fifth grade in PS 85 Great Expectations. I have been learning about the wild west in my class. Pioneers are going to the west because they want to own land, the chance for a fresh start, and the chance to strike it rich.

People had to do so many things to go to the west. "People sometimes packed so much stuff that they had to leave it". Pioneers faced so many things but they did not stop and they moved on they did not stop for anything and move on the journey.

Things pioneers faced were they had to leave stuff behind and other things. They had to cross the river and things but they made it to the west. The pioneers did hard work to go to the west. They wanted the land but they were living there and now the pioneers are happy but they have to do work.
