

Read this BEFORE you perform any of my scripts.

I get a lot of the same questions asked, so here's a quick FAQ!

PLEASE NOTE: MY SCRIPTS ARE PUBLIC AND OUT THERE. JUST BECAUSE A VA DOES A SCRIPT OF MINE DOESN'T MEAN I CONDONE THAT VA'S BEHAVIOR. ONCE A SCRIPT IS PUBLISHED I HAVE NO REASONABLE WAY TO PREVENT PEOPLE FROM USING MY SCRIPTS. I WOULD HAVE TO REMOVE ALL OF THEM FROM USE.

1) Can I monetize this script ?

Of course. Just make sure that you credit me and you send me a link. If your monetization is Patreon for example and only patrons could listen, I require a personal link so I can hear. If you're using an app, I require a way to listen to the script for free without joining said app.

You do not have to link back to the script.

If you're making a steady profit from my scripts, please consider giving me a donation through my ko-fi or gifting me something from my wishlist. It really helps me a lot.

2) Can I change the gender?

Of course. Most of my M4F scripts can be easily turned into A4A scripts.

3) Can I post to YouTube, Soundcloud, etc?

Yes! Just follow the rules outlined in question one.

4) Can I edit this script?

In general, this is a firm NO. I define editing as "changing the plot/script structure". For example, let's say I have a script where the VA yells at the listener. You could not drop that part of the script or change its intention. If you want to edit my script, you can reach out and ask, but I would also encourage you to pick a different script.

That being said, it is okay to edit: swearing, pronouns, and you can change a bit of the sentence structure to make things easier for you to say the lines.

YOU CANNOT REWRITE THE SCRIPT TO ADD ADDITIONAL SCENES, REFERENCES, JOKES, ETC.

When in doubt, ask before you record or perform the script AS WRITTEN.

5) I know your most of your scripts are SFW, but can I use your script and add NSFW elements to it?

Thanks for asking! I do have NSFW-optional scripts and NSFW Scripts. Basically, I will label a script NSFW optional. What this means is that if you want to have an NSFW scene in it, you can! If you don't, you can easily skip this at no cost to the overall plot.

Now, this doesn't mean that you can take existing scripts and turn them into NSFW scripts. Please respect my wishes and use only NSFW optional scripts.

My NSFW scripts must be performed as written. Please do not change or add things to it.

If you are looking for well written NSFW scripts, please go take a look at all the fabulous writers on r/GWAScriptGuild.

6) Do you take commissions?

I do! I post when my commissions are open.

7) Is there anything you don't write?

I don't write yandere/non-human scripts (i.e. cat-girl) scripts. No pregnancy or labor scripts either. Not my thing.

In terms of NSFW content, I am not comfortable with non-consent/dubious consent content.

8) Can I record your scripts if I'm a minor? May I interact with you if I'm a minor?

No. While I do have a lot of scripts that are SFW, I'm not comfortable with minors interacting with my content in any way. My content is written and made for adults.

I will ban any minors that try to interact with me. Emails sent by minors will be deleted. Please respect my boundaries and do not contact me.

9) Can I translate your scripts?

No, sorry!

10) Will you write a sequel to _____?

In general, I tend to just go with the flow and write whatever story whenever I feel like it. That being said, if there's a script you really love and want a sequel to, please do let me know! I'm usually open to writing more scripts following a specific storyline.

11) I really want to do this script, but it says I need two VA's!

Sometimes, I include the option to have a second VA in my scripts. In general, this enhances the storytelling/provides an opportunity for VA's to collaborate if they wish. Don't worry though, I usually include a section that you can skip down to where only one VA is required. That being said, I highly encourage you to collaborate! It's a lot of fun.

12) Someone is using your script without giving you credit! Someone is claiming they wrote your script!

Unfortunately, this does happen sometimes. The best thing you can do is to leave a comment on the video informing the VA that I wrote this script. Please also let me know. Usually, this issue resolves itself and proper credit is given.

13) I really love your work! Do you accept donations?

For those of you who are wanting and able, I do have a ko-fi page where you can donate to me. If you don't want to donate, no need to worry! Aside from paid, exclusive commissions, the majority of my scripts will be free and public.

14) Can I combine your series into one big video?

Sure! But please note that unless I put final on one of the scripts, there will be more parts coming out. So, if you're trying to tell a complete story, you might want to hold off.

15) Can I invite you to my discord? Do you write for discord?

No. I do this as a fun side hobby. I have a very busy real life that doesn't allow me much free time. Thank you for asking though!

16) I need to chat with you but you aren't taking messages?

Feel free to email me at lupinwritesscripts@gmail.com

17) Will you collaborate with me?

Sorry, but no! This is a fun hobby I do when I have time.

18) Can you give me feedback on my script?

Thanks for thinking of me, but no. If you are seeking feedback, I would encourage you to post on r/ASMRScriptHaven

19) Can I use your scripts to train AI?

I do not allow my scripts to be used with any form of AI. I do not give permission for any of my content to be used for the purposes of training AI or using AI programs. You may not take a script of mine and use it with AI.
