

Breakout Session Number: 67

Breakout Session Day: Friday

Breakout Session Number: V

Breakout Room: St. Charles A

Department/Discipline: Social Studies and World Language/Social Studies

Session Title:	Inquiry in Social Studies
Session Description:	Nevada social studies standards require teachers to take an inquiry-based approach to social studies. But what does that look like in the elementary classroom from day to day? In this session, you'll learn more about an inquiry-based approach in the elementary social studies classroom, leaving with ideas for practical ways to apply it in the classroom.
Facilitator Bio:
Bio: Emily Hagan is an Implementation Coordinator for inquirED. In this position, she supports the Clark County School District in implementing Inquiry Journeys, Clark County's adopted Tier 1 Instructional Materials for elementary social studies. Early in her career, she taught Gifted and Talented students, which fostered her love of inquiry-based learning. She recently completed a PhD in Psychology with an emphasis in integrating learning and technology.
Picture:

Bio: Stephanie Morgan is the supervising administrator for Social Studies and World Language in the Curriculum and Instruction Division for the Clark County School District. Mrs. Morgan has over 30 years in the education profession. In the Clark County School District, she has been a social studies middle school teacher, a Dean of Students, an Assistant Principal, an Elementary Principal, and a curriculum director. She believes that social studies is the key to our students connecting with the world around them and seeing themselves in their studies.
Picture:

