1. Introduction

Provide the background of the study concisely. In this section, the author/s should discuss the research problem in apparent sentences. Also, discuss the motivation of the study. Provide in-text references in APA style for all the facts that are presented here.

2. Literature review and hypothesis/es development

Related work of previous researchers should be presented. Minimum 25 good and at least in the last 10 years works should be presented. This section can be merged with the introduction section as well. Here, the author(s) can discuss the research gap that this study is going to cover. Provide in-text citation in APA style, e.g. According to Harris (2020), lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Harris (2020) said that lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. (Harris, 2001). 5. Conclusion

Conclusion should consist of conclusion, limitation, and suggestion.

5.1. Conclusion

The conclusion should be written in apparent structures. It should explain how the objectives of the study are accomplished.

5.2. Limitation

No study covers all aspects of the research problem. The author/s should discuss the limitations or gaps of this study.

5.3. Suggestion

Provide suggestions based on the findings and limitations of this study.

Acknowledgment

The author/s should present a list of acknowledgments at the end. Any financial or nonfinancial support for the study should be acknowledged.

References

It is highly recommended to use reference tools such as EndNote, Mendeley, Zotero, etc.

- All references must be in APA style. For more detail
- Attach at least 25 references and 85% is in the last 10 years (must be article not books).
- 50% of references are highly recommended from primary sources.
- The references should be sorted in ascending order.
