

NHS Alma Mater

The Blue and White is right forever and to its honor we'll be true.
We will join our hearts together for the dear old white and blue.

And with our praises loudly ringing,
we will always be the best.
We won't forget the fighting spirit of our dear old NHS.

Fight Song

You've got to fight,
You've got to hit that line
and march to victory.
You've got to pass;
You've got to gain that ground
to show your loyalty –
Rah-rah-rah-shout.
We're right behind you fellows
Come on, Rattlers, fight –
You've got to hit that line
and teach the others to respect the mighty blue and white.

Go Rattlers Go, Fight Rattlers Fight, Win Rattlers Win, GO, FIGHT, WIN!

N-A-V-A-S-O-T-A NHS
You've got to fight, fight, fight for the blue and white
Rah-rah-rah-shout.
V-I-C-T-O-R-Y, yes –
You've got to hit that line
and teach the others to respect the mighty blue and white.
