

Low Cost Internet for Families

Multiple programs offer low-cost or affordable internet service for families with low or fixed incomes. Additionally, free wifi can be accessed at all DVUSD schools and parking lots, public libraries, and many local businesses.

Inexpensive internet is available with several assistance programs from major internet service providers such as:

Xfinity Internet Essentials Program ($10/month for 50Mbps - no credit check, no cancellation fee, includes equipment):

<https://www.xfinity.com/learn/internet-service/internet-essentials#Seelistofqualifyingassistanceprograms>

Xfinity Low Cost Internet ($20/month for 150 Mbps):

https://www.xfinity.com/learn/deals/internet-service#Pricing Other Info

Spectrum Assist for Low Income Families ($15 for 30Mbps for the first 12 months-no data cap, no contract, free modem):

<https://www.spectrum.com/internet/spectrum-internet-assist>

AT&T Access ($30 or 100Mbps or $15 for 50Mbps -no contract, no deposit, includes equipment, free installation): <https://www.att.com/internet/access/>

Cox ConnectAssist ($30 for 100Mbps):

<https://www.cox.com/residential/internet/low-cost-internet-plans.html>