

Tax Status - Scholarship And Fellowship Awards

To Be Reported	Not To Be Reported
Scholarships, Fellowship Or Similar Grant Or Stipend Used For - • Room • Boarding • Other Living Expenses • Medical Insurance • Travel • Clerical Help	Scholarships, Fellowship Or Similar Grant Or Stipend Used For - • Tuition and Fees • Course-related Expenses • Books • Supplies • Equipment Required For Classes or Enrollment • Housing (Resident Advisors Receiving Housing As A Condition Of Employment)
• Foreign Students: Covered Under Separate Tax Regulations • Additional Links and Resources below: ◦ NYU Tax Website ■ FAQ ◦ IRS Website: Scholarships and Grants ◦ Tax Information for Nonresident Students and Scholars ◦ IRS Publication 901: Tax Treaties ◦ Glacier Tax Prep ◦ Tax Resources for PhD Students (external website NOT endorsed by NYU/Tandon) ■ For questions: contact nyu.glacier@nyu.edu

All students receiving a scholarship, fellowship, or similar grant or stipend through New York University will receive a tax implication letter in January clarifying the treatment of these payments for US federal tax purposes (sample letter here).

The above indicates how expenses should generally be reported on your tax return; as individual tax liability depends on each individual's circumstances, *students should contact their personal tax advisor with any questions or concerns. NYU cannot dispense tax advice.

NYU

TANDON SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING