EMMA WATSON ON GENDER EQUALITY

Watch the video and answer the following questions:

1. What movement does Emma Watson represent?
2. What's her aim and the aim of the movement she represents?
3. What do they want to obtain and especially from whom?
4. What is the definition of feminism Emma Watson offers in her speech?
5. When did she start questioning gender-based assumptions? Why? What happened to her?
6. Why have many women rejected feminism? Why has being a feminist become unpopular?
7. What is feminism instead according to Emma Watson?
8. Is there a country in the world where gender equality has been achieved?
9. Does Emma Watson deliver her speech at the UN or take part in this campaign due to very personal experiences? What does she say about herself as a woman? Does she feel discriminated?
10. Who does she want to extend her invitation to fight for gender equality to?
11. How does she try to convince them?
12. What is one of the highest causes of death among men between 18 and 49 in the UK?
13. How can men free from gender stereotypes help free women as a natural consequence?
14. "Both men and women should be free to be sensitive; both men and women should be free to be strong". Can you explain what this statement means in your own words? (give examples)
15. What did Emma tell herself to find the courage to do something for this cause, which she cared so much about?

16. What does Emma Watson look like while speaking? (choose the expressions/adjectives that best describe your impressions)

Relaxed   at ease   uneasy   anxious nervous   sincere   passionate   committed feigning   terrified   worried   spontaneous

17. What does she say about her being "the Harry Potter girl"?
18. Did you like her as Hermione Granger in the Harry Potter saga?
19. What kind of female character is Hermione?
20. What's your opinion respect to the issue she proposes in her heartfelt speech at the UN?