RE: I-129F Petition for Alien Fiancé
Supplement to Form I-129F: Part 2, Question 54 Explanation of Meeting my Fiancé in person
Petitioner: insert US citizen's name here
Beneficiary: insert foreign fiancé's name here

To Whom it may concern,

I the US citizen and petitioner, insert name here, first met my foreign fiancé, insert name here, while studying abroad in January of 2019.

- Be specific on dates where you can
- Be specific on places where you can
- Create a story to follow and explain how you've continued your relationship despite long distance. Ex) "We have spoken over the phone every day since we met with text messages, video and phone calls."
- You can talk about places where you've met each other in person, such as trips taken together
- Talk about the proposal, date, where and of course that you said yes:)
- Can talk about deciding to pursue K1 visa process. For instance can include a statement such as "If a K-1 Visa is granted to my fiancé, insert name here, we intend to marry within 90 days of his arrival to the United States. We have talked about plans to marry at XYZ location with hope that key family members and friends will be able to be present for the ceremony."
- Can end with conclusion, "I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge."
- Make sure to physically sign it when you're done!
- Have someone read it over!
- Find templates online and create your own
- Be precise and remember to keep it formal and create a timeline on your love story
- Can make it as short or as long as you want!

Sincerely,
(Physically sign here with black ink)
