

SSG Joseph G. Carroll

Location - West-A: R26, C22

JOSEPH G CARROLL

SGT US ARMY

WORLD WAR II

MAR 22 1921

DEC 9 1980

Joseph G. Carroll

A former Oshkosh resident, Joseph G. Carroll, 59, Green Bay, died Tuesday in a Green Bay hospital.

He was born March 22, 1921, in Milwaukee, the son of Edward and Anna Carroll. His foster parents were Marue and Edith Carroll. He married Leah Oldenburg, who died in 1959. He married Arlene Madison Aug. 19, 1961, in Oshkosh.

Mr. Carroll was an employee of Wisconsin Public Service Corporation for 33 years, retiring in 1978 due to disability. He was a member of the WPSC Quarter Century Club and the Pilgrim Congregational Church in Green Bay, and served in the Army in World War II. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1942.

Surviving are his widow; one daughter, Barbara Carroll, Oshkosh; three sons, Douglas, Hollywood, Calif., and Marc and Robert, both of Green Bay; two brothers, John, Minneapolis, and James, Madison; one sister, Sister Agnes Ann, Monroe, and one grandchild.

S/Sgt. Joseph G. Carroll, 505 Algoma boulevard, was with the service battery of the 663rd field artillery battalion and won the combat infantryman's badge, victory medal, American theater service ribbon, ETO service ribbon with two bronze stars, good conduct medal, one overseas service bar and one service stripe. He entered service June 6, 1942.
