

<h2>LEARN</h2> The 1930s were a nadir for Black Americans. Systemic segregation, subordination & economic privation were prevalent in American society nationwide. White Southern political power blocked New Deal benefits. Use the links to explore this history and the ways Black Americans increasingly took risks to more forcefully advocate for justice & equality. REQUEST THE SCHOOL MODULE HERE	<h2>QUESTION</h2> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What facts support the view that the 1930s were the low point for Blacks after Reconstruction? 2. How did Black Americans confront systemic segregation in the 1930s? 3. How effective were Marian Anderson, A. Philip Randolph, and Eleanor Roosevelt in advancing civil rights for Blacks in the 1930s? 	<h2>CONSIDER</h2> A. Philip Randolph: "We Had Action" <h2>UNDERSTAND</h2> Civil Rights Movement Vocabulary	<h2>INFORM</h2> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Great Migration 2. Harlem Renaissance 3. The Great Depression and Racial Segregation 4. African Americans and the New Deal 5. Library of Congress Exhibit: A Century in the Fight for Freedom: Great Depression 6. Discussing the Great Depression 7. Myrdal, American Dilemma
<h2>BLACK AMERICAN LIFE</h2> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. African Americans and the Great Depression 2. How the New Deal Left Out African Americans 3. We Work Again 4. Last Hired, First Fired 5. Redlining 6. Unions 7. 1943 Detroit Riots 	 <h2>Civil Rights in the New Deal</h2> In what ways were the 1930s a period of economic, social & political subordination for Black Americans? What tools and strategies did Blacks use to confront segregation and deprivation ? VISIT OUR WEBSITE: 		<h2>MARIAN ANDERSON & ELEANOR ROOSEVELT</h2> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Music Desegregation 2. The Marian Anderson Concert: Timeline and Primary Sources 3. Marian Anderson Sings at the Lincoln Memorial 4. ER & Civil Rights 5. Paul Robeson "Ballad for Americans"
<h2>FDR</h2> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 1933 Inaugural Address 2. New Deal and Civil Rights 3. Southern Senators 4. 1937 Inaugural Address 5. Warm Springs Segregation 6. FDR & Civil Rights 7. WWII & Civil Rights 			<h2>A. PHILIP RANDOLPH</h2> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. RR Porters Union 2. Blacks in the Army 3. The March on Washington: Background + Video + Detailed Information 4. Executive Order 8802 5. Blacks' Double War 6. Segregated Service 7. Tuskegee Airmen
<h2>HARD HISTORY</h2> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Scottsboro Boys: Article + Video + FDR is Asked to Intervene 2. Tuskegee Study: Article + Video 3. 1930s Lynching 4. Anti-Lynching Bill 5. Japanese - Americans 6. Port Chicago Trials 	<h2>1940s CIVIL RIGHTS CASES</h2> <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Supreme Court Denying Blacks the Right to Vote in Primary Elections 2. Racially Restrictive Housing Covenants 3. Segregated Education 4. Internment Upheld 	<h2>ANALYZE</h2> Library of Congress National Archives CA History Project	<h2>TAKE ACTION</h2> Write a letter to the editor Write a letter to an elected official Make a Public Service Announcement