

This document is a compilation of iconographic evidence in Spanish and translated into English by the Deepl Translator of conversations about my relationship with Neus, @neus_az or previously @neus_spl on X/Twitter, which occurred between the end of 2024 and the beginning of 2025, where we had a romantic relationship from August 5, 2024, to March 4, 2025.

Although this person and I had interacted irregularly as friends since 2021, her romantic interest began on May 8, 2025, when we talked almost daily throughout the summer and met in person during a community gathering that I organized with other people in her city from July 19 to July 22, 2024.

She confessed her feelings towards me on July 25 while I was travelling with real-life friends in the Balearic Islands. At first, I rejected this confession because of the distance (around 1,000 km), but after explaining the situation to my close circle, I ended up accepting and the relationship became official days later.

The relationship can be divided into several sections that will be discussed below. It ended on March 4, when I was the one who requested the breakup after several arguments throughout the months, initiated by her.

This document was created with the purpose of presenting my version of events regarding screenshots of parts of our private conversations, which had already been publicly shown voluntarily on April 28, 2026, and September 15, 2026, as well as privately shown to many people or in non-community servers within her circle during 2024, 2025, and 2026.

During the relationship period, I was not integrated into the international community, only the Spanish one as another member. I also did not have a Spanish-speaking community server (P.E.Ñ.A. and Ink Destiny Cult did not exist). Both events occurred months after the relationship ended.

Everything written or shown here does not reveal the real names or social media names of people who have publicly promoted images regarding me, except the person mentioned previously, although groups or teams are mentioned.

Everything mentioned below mainly provides context for the tweet responses at the end of the document.

Only the images attached within the context of the relationship are numbered. This does not mean that the following ones are irrelevant.

Before the relationship:

In March 2024, Merequetengue was created, a Pick Up team created to be banned from the Low Ink tournament. Neus was one of the five members.

After the March 2024 Low Ink tournament, where we finished 5th, a group of people started mostly mocking me and another team member for being considered Division 4 players and not being able to win Low Ink (they did not win it either). Afterwards, the Spanish community defended us and it became something insignificant, despite the original events happening months earlier. I privately apologized to their captain. I received support messages from many people except for her.

In the April Low Ink tournament, we finished 2nd after losing 2-3 in the Grand Final Reset.

Something the entire Pick Up team was happy about, including me, but she was not, something she has continuously shown me during the relationship.

Due to individual reasons, the Pick Up was not formalized as a team and everyone joined different groups for LUTI two months later.

At that time, the main server for the Spanish UCS community announced rewards for activity on Discord voice calls within the server. On 8 May 2025, we spent around 9 hours on a voice call on the server, mostly just the two of us.

That day, she suggested we pretend to be a couple, and to be honest, at the time I didn't ask for any further explanation beyond her enjoyment of pretending to be something; and we both started appearing together, changing our descriptions and profile pictures, and joining server calls together, amongst other things.

As time went on, we told people who asked and friends that it wasn't real but just an act, yet we wanted to keep up the act for months. I did it for fun; before we set up 'The Pick Up', our communication had been quite distant, as we hardly spoke at all and it was mostly to discuss her personal matters or those of the community.

At that time, Neus was one of the best-known figures in the community, and she achieved this – just as many others maintain their connections – by not expressing her views publicly on controversial issues, which is something I personally don't do, as I tend to speak my mind, and I've always been seen as a controversial figure.

A few months later, and a few days after we'd made our relationship official, I actually asked him why.

Imagen A

And his response initially took me by surprise, as we've known each other for years. The real reason is 'to screw over the Twitter lot (especialmente Cubata)' – a former competitive team that supported you when you were at Merequetengue and continues to do so to this day.

A team where one member's partner is a friend of yours whom you describe as a nasty person – I won't be posting any screenshots of her, nor of her partner – but you felt a connection because both long-distance relationships were similar, as they live in the same town and we (the lads) live in the same town. Not to mention that a close friend of yours from the community was in a relationship with her for a relatively short time and then left to be with the lad from this team.

On the other hand, did she justify her interest in getting to know me because I'd taught her a lesson about a game? Or because she thought I seemed like a sad person?

Imagen C.

Regardless of how one interprets it, I personally took it to mean that she saw me as someone who could offer her plenty of life advice that might 'enrich' her with further knowledge or different perspectives. And from reading the screenshot, it's clear that she finds it intriguing and thought-provoking to observe the way of life of others, even if they are sad.

As well as these two reasons, I can now add a third.

As she told me, she has suffered a great deal of trauma as a result of her past relationships. One of these traumas is the need to be on the phone with someone all the time. During the time we pretended to be a couple, we spent a lot of time on the phone. One of the reasons she spent quite a lot of time with me was because, at that time, a close friend of hers – someone she used to spend a lot of time with and confide in – had found a partner; as a result, we spent too much time together, which is what led us to stop pretending and develop real feelings.

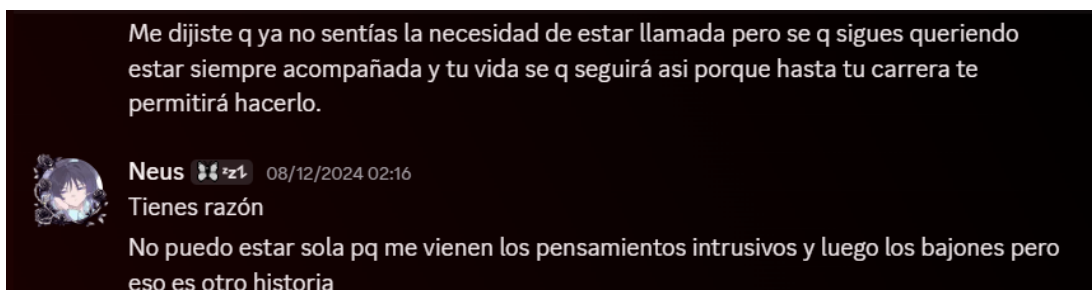

Imagen D.

Neus and I had only met once before, at the Splatoon 3 Championship tournament in 2023 in her town. Following that positive experience as part of the Spanish community, some of us decided to organise a meet-up in that same town; we all helped organise it, but I had to coordinate the timetable to suit the people who were coming on specific days.

Image A

Neus: Truth is, the crushed/feelings about whether I liked you or not happened months ago.

Cafy: You really surprised me, I don't understand what could have attracted you to me. And I know I'm annoying, but... What was the reason for pretending to be a couple? (edited)

Neus: Because I chose you.

Cafy: Yeah, but why?

Neus: Aside from the fact that my reason was to mess with the Twitter people (especially cubata) because I was getting a bit sick of them holding such a grudge against you, I was risking them starting to think badly of me, but honestly I didn't care—what mattered most to me at that moment was you.

Image B

Cafy: Neus keeping her neutrality because she doesn't want to pick a side, whereas USER stepped up to shut people up. I think USER is going to lose their mind if they read everything that happened 😂

USER 1: A bit, but they are idiots for taking the bait / getting worked up like this. Very "zzz" according to her.

Image C

Neus: I was looking for someone who above all would give me many life lessons—life talks, I mean. It's what fulfills me the most. I don't know how to explain it.

Cafy: Haha, because it makes you see a more attractive perspective on certain aspects of life.

Neus: I guess someone who understands me, but it's impossible. It's very rare to find someone like that.

Neus: (Responding to Cafy's previous message) No, even if they are sad ones. It makes me reflect a lot. Like, I find it very attractive, seeing another person's way of life.

Image D

Cafy: You told me that you no longer felt the need to be on a call, but I know you still want to always be accompanied and I know your life will continue like that because even your career will allow you to do so.

Neus: You're right. I can't be alone because intrusive thoughts come to me and then the slumps, but that's another story.

The get-together took place from 19 to 22 July. It was a brilliant get-together, but one problem was that she didn't want to socialise with everyone there.

Initially, she was only going to come for one afternoon because of her parents, but she ended up coming every day; apparently, they let her come every time and she waited for the people she didn't like to leave.

She then explained to me that she could always do so, but that it was for specific reasons.

One of the things that leads me to put forward this third reason is a snippet of conversation that took place a few days after we made our relationship official.

"My priority would be to find a partner to fill that void as soon as possible"

Imagen H.

Throughout my holiday, whilst travelling around different parts of the country with various friends, she confessed her feelings to me halfway through the trip to Menorca. My initial response was to say no, because of the distance, and because I'd never really considered her as a partner – my behaviour was simply my way of responding to the affection she showed me and the way she treated me; it was something I did unconsciously and which I still do with my close friends – helping them out.

My decision was easily overturned when I realised where I was in my life: a stable job that I could balance with my studies, savings that had allowed me to go on trips, and the satisfaction of enjoying time off work. During those trips, I truly felt a great deal of happiness in so many ways that made me enjoy everything; I also had my kitten, whom I'd adopted two months earlier, and who made me miss my daily routine.

Her message – which I won't reproduce here – came at around 2 am, in which she clarified her feelings towards me. As I've come to realise, long-distance relationships aren't for me. At that time, I also had a friend who convinced me to listen to my heart, and I realised I could cope with going that long without speaking and only seeing each other a few times a year, given my financial situation.

A few days after she'd turned me down, I opened up to her and told her how I really felt, and she accepted it. We cleared up a few things before making it official and stopping the pretence (as we'd still been pretending), and after all that, we started dating.

Image F

Neus: Man, it wasn't necessary xd. I wanted to pay for it myself 🙄 Surprisingly, they're letting me go to the beach with you guys.

Cafy: Xd? We are already at the beach.

Neus: I don't understand my mother.

Cafy: And USER 3 is here.

Neus: Damn. Then I'm not going xd.

Cafy: XD

Neus: I'm sorry. It's just that I pass...

Image G

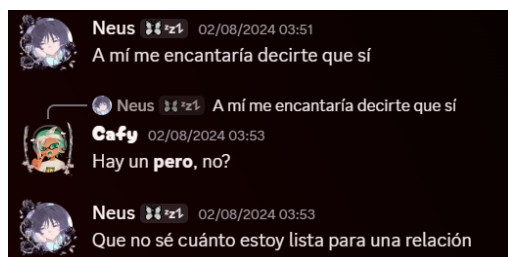

Neus: What do you mean USER 10 is coming? I'm shitting myself. What do you mean USER 3 is coming? I'm shitting myself.

Image H

Cafy: "Truth is, it worries me that you think that way") I think about it less every day.

Neus: The thing is, in reality I didn't want to have a partner, but even so I decided to tell you yes. If I had an emotional void, my priority would be to look for a partner to fill that void as soon as possible. I wasn't sure if you liked me, so I went to the get-together with 100% friend expectations. And that's why I didn't get nervous.

Durante la Relación:

The relationship began on 1 August 2024 following my declaration, but we didn't make it official until 5 August 2024, which was when she formally accepted it.

During those days, she kept asking me why I'd changed my mind and told me she didn't feel ready for a relationship.

Imagen I.

Despite making it official, I am aware – and have evidence – that her group of friends has never been in favour of the relationship, and, to some extent, neither has my group of friends.

As for her friends, it was because of my own self-interest, as they portrayed Neus as someone out of my league, and I took advantage of the situation.

Take advantage when she asked me to pretend to be her partner to 'mess with' people in her circle, as well as after she'd been chasing me for three months, dropping little compliments and flirting with me, only to then confess her feelings?

These very same people who said what I mentioned earlier are the ones who recommended she try dating lads. And I can provide evidence that Neus has been with, or tried to flirt with or date, more than 10 people in the community, given that all the relationships she'd been looking for up to that point were long-distance and with her Splatoon friends list.

Up until now, she'd only told me she'd been with two people, whom she recognises as her only 'official' relationships; she confirms that they caused her trauma – a great deal of trauma – which I set out to help her work through together, but she didn't want to, couldn't, or wouldn't let me help her, and honestly, it was mentally draining.

The relationship didn't start out as something lovely and trouble-free; as we'd already been talking for several months, it already felt a bit routine. She said that her behaviour hadn't really changed at all from when we were friends to when we became a couple, and personally I couldn't really think of my previous relationships in that way, but obviously I know myself as a person and I know my own preferences, so I know that my behaviour did change.

The fact that it was a long-distance relationship and that we were on Discord didn't change much compared to the previous few months of our relationship; our interactions were, of course, those of a couple, as you'd expect.

The relationship can basically be divided into two parts.

Right from the start of the relationship, I was looking for a chance to see her in person again, and as I had a stable job, I could afford to book trips – something that finally happened on 28 September. Up until that point, there really hadn't been many problems in the relationship;

we were simply getting to know each other more deeply – something I was very interested in – and I learnt about parts of her past, her problems, bad experiences, her tastes...

As the days went by from the start, my behaviour became more crude, and I really was the only bad person in the relationship, as my comments and words were truly unfiltered; I didn't usually think about what I was saying and simply blurted out the first thing that came into my head – which was sometimes positive and sometimes negative. I used to make comments that were in poor taste, exaggerated and out of place.

I was always aware of my personality, and I wouldn't apologise until I realised it was something that was actually damaging the relationship. A lack of communication was largely what caused the problem: she was a reserved person when it came to the issues that arose, whilst I, being someone who spoke without a filter, didn't appreciate the impact my words could actually have – and that meant I had a clear conscience at the time.

Mostly, when I was dealing with my own problems and didn't want to be with her, I'd spend my time as I always have – minding my own business, without bothering anyone, because that's how I was brought up. I've already mentioned that my parents are Latin American and the upbringing there is different; parents and the culture are still quite sexist today, which means my way of thinking is rooted in my parents' views, as they've instilled this in me over the years.

Going back to the relationship, until November 2024 I had a job that meant I wasn't available in the evenings and at night for a few weeks at a time. At the start of the relationship, her friend – who had been in a relationship – broke up with his partner, and the two of them started getting in touch much more frequently, which made me feel uncomfortable in the relationship, given that most of the time when I asked to spend time with her, she was always on the phone with her friends – something she made no effort to sort out. That need to always be with someone really bothered me, especially as she didn't usually ask me to join her on a call because she always assumed I was busy or would rather be doing other things – which didn't make sense, as I set aside time for her every day.

In December, I decided to set up a server for just the two of us; she'd always see one of her friends online and felt that sense of trust with them, but not with me. She also told me that whenever she felt sad, she'd turn to them for comfort – something she'd say I couldn't help her with. And she'd always come back feeling better; she always gave me the impression that her sadness was only temporary.

The server didn't last much longer than a week because she didn't feel comfortable seeing me only on a video call (something I did to let her know I was available and to allay her fears of feeling awkward). The server didn't last long, and after a few conversations about important matters, a few days passed. Around that time, I booked flights to spend four days at her house after Christmas, and to stay over where I would meet her parents, her dog and the rest of her family.

On 13 December, Neus changed her name on Discord to the Chinese translation. Personally, I didn't understand it, so I asked her why she wanted to pretend to be someone else. This issue caused a major row which, combined with previous problems, led her to decide to break up with me on 14 December.

After I'd highlighted all the negative aspects of the relationship from my point of view and I'd been chasing after her asking for forgiveness, she agreed to continue the relationship. Something she told me a few days later was that this decision had been made at the suggestion of her entire circle of friends, including her mother. Before telling me she was ending the relationship, Neus had told her entire circle that she'd already split up with me. After agreeing to continue the relationship, she didn't want to make it public again in her Discord profile (we'd put the start date of the relationship there) and wanted to keep the relationship private; she didn't want to tell her friends that she hadn't actually ended it, nor did she want to tell her parents. She eventually did tell them, however, and those around her weren't happy about it. As for the trip, I suggested she didn't stay at her parents' house, but in the end they agreed, and things calmed down until the start of the year.

Since that meet-up, I'd come to understand more about her life and her day-to-day routine. But after I got back, I started to feel things were different; I really began to stop feeling love for her because our conversations weren't what they used to be. Most weeks we'd end up arguing; Neus would always point out everything that was still negative about me – my faults, my empathy, my personality, the way I treated her – and day after day I realised that she was seeking the emotional satisfaction of feeling needed, of being someone who gave her all for a relationship that was falling apart entirely because of me, and I always apologised, giving her hope that I'd changed – and I kept doing so.

For her part, despite travelling between towns almost every week, she couldn't – or wasn't allowed – to come to my town, to come to my home, on the grounds that she was afraid, that her parents didn't trust me and that I didn't live in a safe place, even though they had told me I was a good person.

For my part, it took me months to persuade my parents to let me stay with them – a family I didn't know, hundreds of kilometres from home. After my last visit to her town in December, I wanted her to meet my parents and see my home. At that time, I had some savings set aside for the trip, but she always found excuses – something I didn't understand, because just this year she'd travelled all over Europe with just her friends and to another city to study, travelling there on her own every week. I offered to cover the costs, but she made it clear that she really had no intention of coming to my town, citing a fear of flying, amongst other things.

By the end of February, I preferred to chat on WhatsApp because it was an app we both felt was more personal than Discord, and we'd only used it when she was travelling or for specific occasions. From then until 4 March, there were hardly any problems; it felt as though the relationship was back to how it was at the start, but as I'd stopped feeling the same way about her, I suggested we end the relationship. Strangely, she made me wait a while before agreeing, and then apologised for supposedly not being good enough for me and for feeling inadequate – something I'd never said to her. In our arguments, I never belittled her; I simply kept apologising for my own mistakes.

After the break-up

The LUTI registration, which I'd signed up for with Neus and some other friends, ended in the last week of February, and Season 16 kicked off the day before we split up; we were both signed up to a team with a seven-person roster. She could easily have left the team, but she didn't.

Our interactions were limited to conversations solely about the tournament, which personally didn't bother me. And after the 5–0 defeat in the first week, I took the opportunity to be honest and suggested we drop out, because I'd really only signed up my friends to play with them, and the atmosphere created by another person in the group meant they didn't want to play.

After the first week of LUTI, Neus messaged me privately to follow up on the points left unresolved from our last conversation, and we discussed how our relationship was going.

From then on, we began to get back in touch, as she was asking me for help with her project to set up a tournament – something that felt fine at first, until she asked if just the two of us could moderate it. This surprised me and I didn't agree, as it meant we'd continue to have very close contact; I mentioned this to her and we had a discussion.

After that day, on 25 March 2025, she left the LUTI group and blocked me on social media for a while. Over the following days, I was told that I'd been removed from a server we both used – a competitive team that was just starting out – where she was very active, as she interacted a great deal with someone from that team.

For a month, up until 19 April 2025, many people I spoke to who were on the server I'd been removed from told me about things she and, above all, a friend of hers were saying about me, asking them not to speak to me for various reasons. For example, that I'd abused her, which is a complete lie.

That day, I sent him a message offering my initial apologies for past events and explaining in more detail why I'd ended the relationship. This message helped to stop him from receiving so many DMs or comments about what people were saying. Even so, I decided to help him with his first tournament, as my team had reached the minimum number of players required to hold it.

Throughout May, June and early July, I took an interest in community tournaments; I created my first badge on 10 May and obtained tournament permissions a few weeks later, after which I set up a gimmick tournament, which kicked off on 6 June 2025. In mid-June, he joined a group I was a regular in to play with friends in a tournament on a date when I couldn't play myself. From then on, we only interacted occasionally until he sent me another private message asking for the photos he'd sent me whilst we were together.

By this time, I'd heard rumours that she was seeing a lad (another lad from the community) – something she'd only mentioned to me as not being 'official', but then on social media she pinned a date earlier than the one in the message. As well as showing interest in things she posted, such as flowers, despite having blocked me

Around this time, I asked my friends to stop telling me things about her because, to be honest, it was getting a bit tiresome; what they were telling me wasn't helping me at all.

In August, given the poor competitive standard that many mid-level players were experiencing, another person and I decided to set up an exclusive low-level Spanish server on 16 August. This worked well with our tournaments. At first, we excluded players who weren't low-level, such as Neus and others, but after a couple of months we sent them private messages as we'd turned the server into a community server with no restrictions. At the same time, my international community tournaments became an international organisation in October 2025.

These two projects, which began in the summer of 2025, are unrelated to our relationship but mark the period during which my name gained the most recognition within the community.

The last interaction between Neus and me was simply to exchange New Year's greetings for 2026.

Neus: Well, my mother likes you now

I'm no saint – I think that goes without saying – and I admit that I have treated Neus badly, as evidenced by the tweets she herself has posted, such as those shown in the following images. These relate to the reason behind the near-break-up that began on 14 December – a date by which my trip at the end of September had already been paid for.

I no longer hold this view, and although the dilemma began here, I have come to realise over time that my behaviour in this matter is completely unacceptable, given that my arguments make no sense whatsoever.

Cafy: Why do you put Chinese characters? Do you want to pretend to be Chinese? Because you only have the origin from there. Maybe people from there will get annoyed because you want to pretend to be them just for being born there and not knowing either the language or customs.

Cafy: (Responding to Neus: "I'm doing your Genshin stuff so shut up") In VC with others 🥰

Neus: and?

Neus: (Responding to Cafy's comment about people getting annoyed) but I am Chinese.

Cafy: Only by origin. By the way, I'm going to Japan with my friends.

Neus: (Responding to "Only by origin") yeah but that doesn't change the fact that I'm Chinese and that I have a name.

Neus: (Responding to "Do you want to pretend to be Chinese?") I'm not pretending, I am xd Cafy: (Responding to Neus) I'm just saying that some Chinese people might get annoyed by that.

Neus : why would they get annoyed if I tell them I'm Chinese they should get annoyed if it's for example Ateno who uses characters in Japanese and couldn't be more Spanish people insulting me with "Chinese" is one thing, but telling me that I'm not Chinese, like I have no race, hurts me even more xd

Neus: Jose I have to tell you something And it's important I don't want to continue in this relationship Whether you want to be friends or take a break But we're not a couple anymore I'm no longer comfortable in the relationship due to a lot of problems you have and don't plan to change.

Cafy: (Responding to "I'm no longer comfortable...") I understand you feel that way, I can't deny I'm being an asshole like with yesterday's argument, honestly I can't find the words to apologize to you like you deserve, and not just for this one but for my behavior in other things, I know I'm not changing and I realize every night, I think about changing how I say things to you but since I see it's too late I don't tell you anymore.

Cafy: (Responding to "Whether you want to be friends or take a break") but taking a break without being able to continue as a couple? I'm doing things to change, can't you give me more time? can you VC?

Cafy: Neus can I call you?

--- 15 December 2024 ---

Cafy Neus I love you so much seriously, I don't want to be apart from you, whenever you want to talk to me I'll be waiting.

Cafy: (Responding to Neus: "I'm still waiting for a proper apology") I know it's useless because it won't change what I said, I know I said it to you in bad ways, and the circumstances under which I told you weren't the best for me either, obviously consider it as you wish, I just wanted to make it clear that I know cases where people you don't know at all judge you for doing X things related to your origin or language, and I apologize again because it doesn't affect you as such, I simply didn't understand why you put characters in a language you don't speak and I know it's the internet and everyone does what they want, I'm really sorry it upset you and for not giving you a proper apology at the time.

Neus: You're right I can't be alone because intrusive thoughts come to me and then the slumps, but that's another story But I don't understand why you're still jealous Then when talking to them I always talk about you But not bad things, I always mention you because it just comes naturally to me But I don't do it to show off that I have a boyfriend It's because something reminds me of you

Cafy: (Responding to "I don't understand why you're still jealous") I'm not jealous of the person or people, I'm jealous that someone else gets to spend more time with you when I'm the one who wants to, even if you don't have as good a time with me as with others. It's the simple fact of whether I'm there or not, being the one you prefer almost all the time almost without asking, and the one you spend the most time with during the week.

Neus: But that is a very selfish point of view

Cafy: Yes But since it's something I don't have, it's jealousy

Neus: That is actually bad Right now I don't want to because I'm kind of snotty/stuffy and I don't want you to hear me like this

Cafy: (Responding to "Then when talking to them I always talk about you") In that and many other aspects I notice we are very different, but not opposites

Conversations at the end of a relationship

All the screenshots were taken after our private conversations broke down. Neus wasn't someone who hated me, nor did I hate her; I apologised for everything that went wrong in the relationship – something she didn't see at the time as causing her any harm, although it now seems she does.

Cafy: Tomorrow I start [work/internship].

Cafy: These days I was doing internships.

Cafy: And to be honest, with uni and work, my social battery and energy are completely drained.

Neus: Ahh

Neus: Makes sense, I understand you're more tired

Neus: I would give you a hug every time you get off work to give you energy

Cafy: Yeah

Cafy: But it's impossible

Neus: 🙄

Cafy: Idk to be honest I don't really feel like continuing the relationship, I don't see myself able to with the things I have day to day.

Cafy: If you lived here it would be different, but being long-distance it's not the same. Cafy: Andrea?

Neus: Tell me

Neus: It's just that I got sad

Cafy: (Replying to "It's just that I got sad") Tell me

Cafy: It was just to check if you were there, since you left it on read.

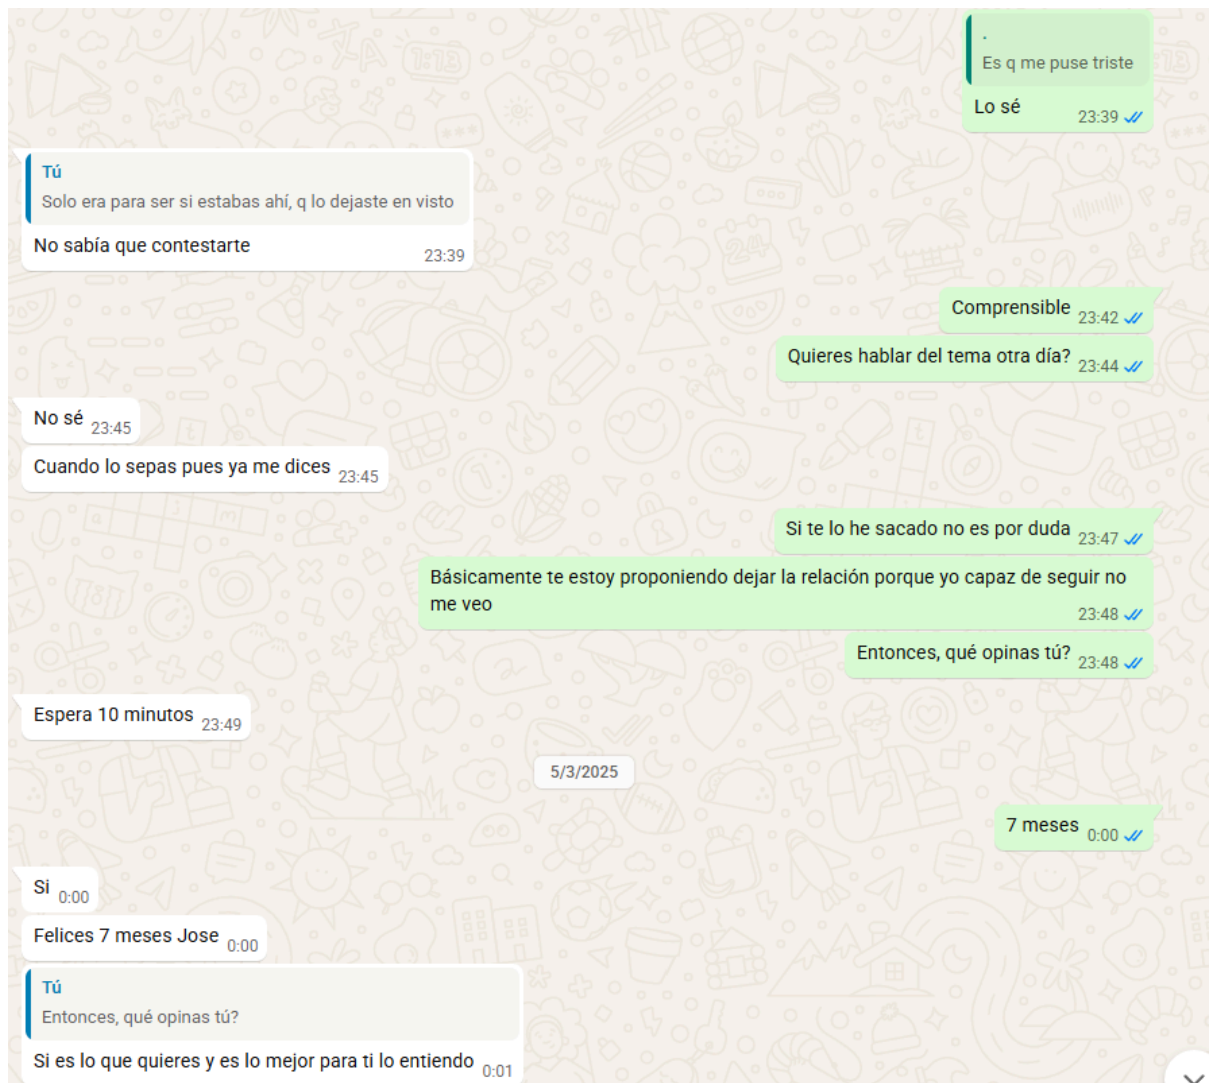

Imagen W

[Right]: I know

[Left]: (Replying to "It was just to check if you were there...") I didn't know what to reply to you

[Right]: When you know, just tell me

[Right]: If I brought it up to you, it's not out of doubt. [Right]: Basically I'm proposing that we break up because I don't see myself capable of continuing. [Right]: So, what do you think?

[Left]: Wait 10 minutes

--- 5/3/2025 ---

[Right]: 7 months

[Left]: (Replying to "So, what do you think?") If it's what you want and it's best for you, I understand.

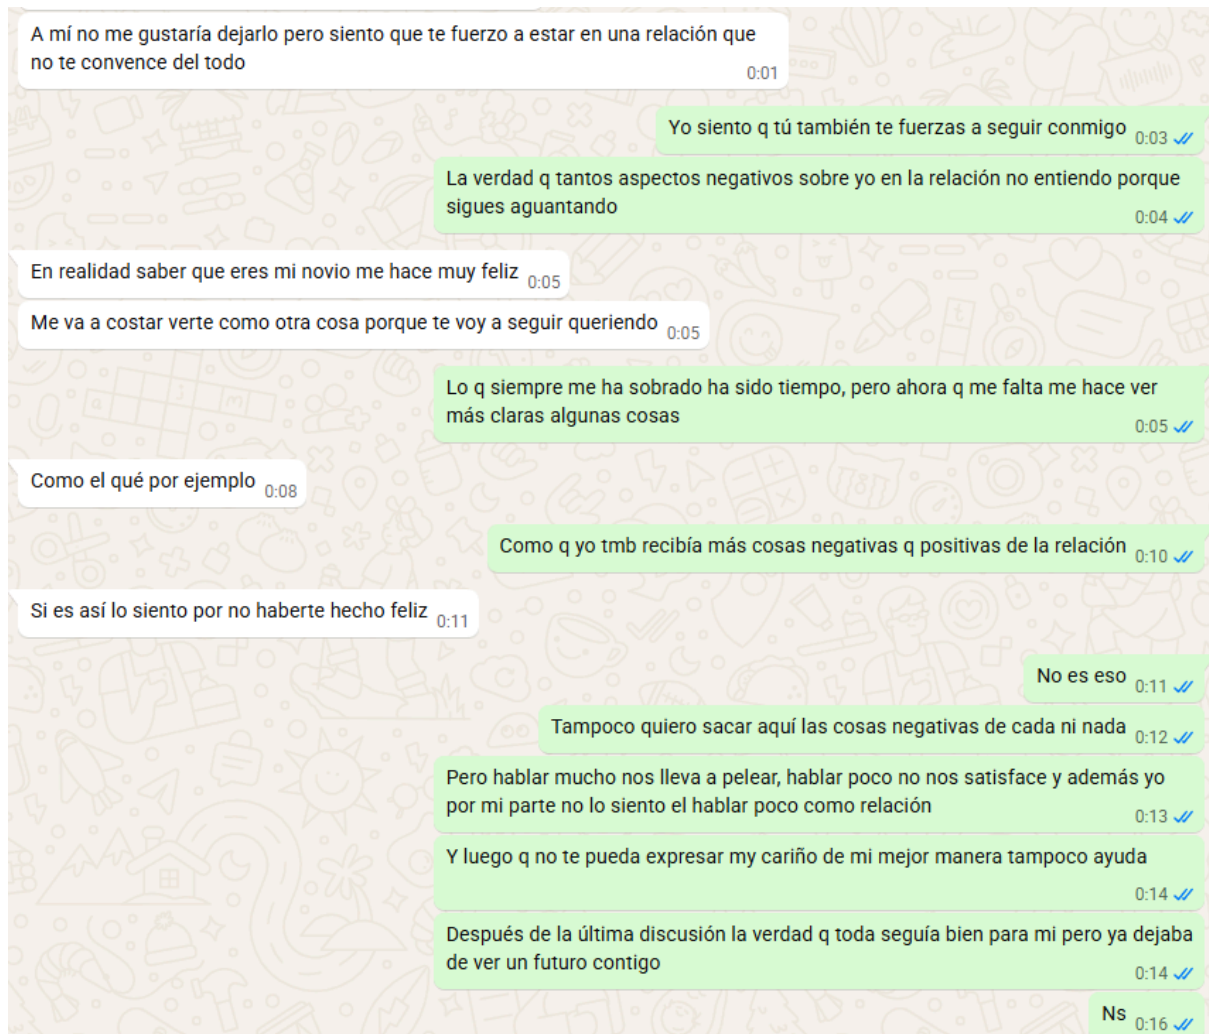

Imagen X

[Left]: I wouldn't like to break up, but I feel like I'm forcing you to be in a relationship that doesn't fully convince you.

[Right]: I feel like you're also forcing yourself to stay with me. [Right]: Honestly, with so many negative aspects about me in the relationship, I don't understand why you keep putting up with it.

[Left]: Actually, knowing that you're my boyfriend makes me very happy. [Left]: It's going to be hard for me to see you as anything else because I'm going to keep loving you.

[Right]: What I've always had plenty of was time, but now that I'm lacking it, it makes me see a few things more clearly.

[Right]: Like I was also receiving more negative than positive things from the relationship

[Left]: If so, I'm sorry for not making you happy

[Right]: It's not that [Right]: I don't want to bring up the negative things of each person here either. [Right]: But talking too much leads us to fight, talking little doesn't satisfy us, and besides, on my end, talking little doesn't feel like a relationship to me. [Right]: And then, not being able to express my affection to you in my best way doesn't help either. [Right]: After the last argument, to be honest, everything was still fine for me, but I stopped seeing a future with you. [Right]: Idk

Imagen Y

[Right]: I prefer to end things as friends even if it hurts

[Left]: That's fine

[Right]: I know you don't want to force me into anything, but do you agree with anything or everything I said? Or did you feel something similar?

[Right]: I hope you sleep well, I know it doesn't do much now but I love you

[Right]: I'm going to sleep, good night

[Right] : (Replying to "I'm fine don't worry") I do worry

Cafy: (Replying to "How have you been?") Well, not very good, I was more worried about how you'd be handling the situation instead of thinking about myself.

Cafy: (Replying to his previous message) In fact, today I quit my job because I couldn't stop thinking about whether it was the right thing or if it was really what I wanted, and I wasn't performing.

Neus: It's been a shitty week actually, but I've handled it as best I could.

Neus: The first few days I couldn't stop crying and couldn't process that we weren't a couple anymore.

Neus: (Replying to "In fact, today I quit my job...") I didn't want you to reach that point either.

Neus: At that moment I saw that the relationship couldn't go any further, and even though I didn't want to break up, I wasn't going to argue back.

Neus: Just like you expressed yourself the way you did, I did too, and I don't think it was a bad decision; it was simply what you were feeling at that moment.

Cafy: (Replying to Neus about staying friends) Well, as long as talking to me doesn't stop you from meeting someone else and remembering the negative things about our relationship, I guess it's fine.

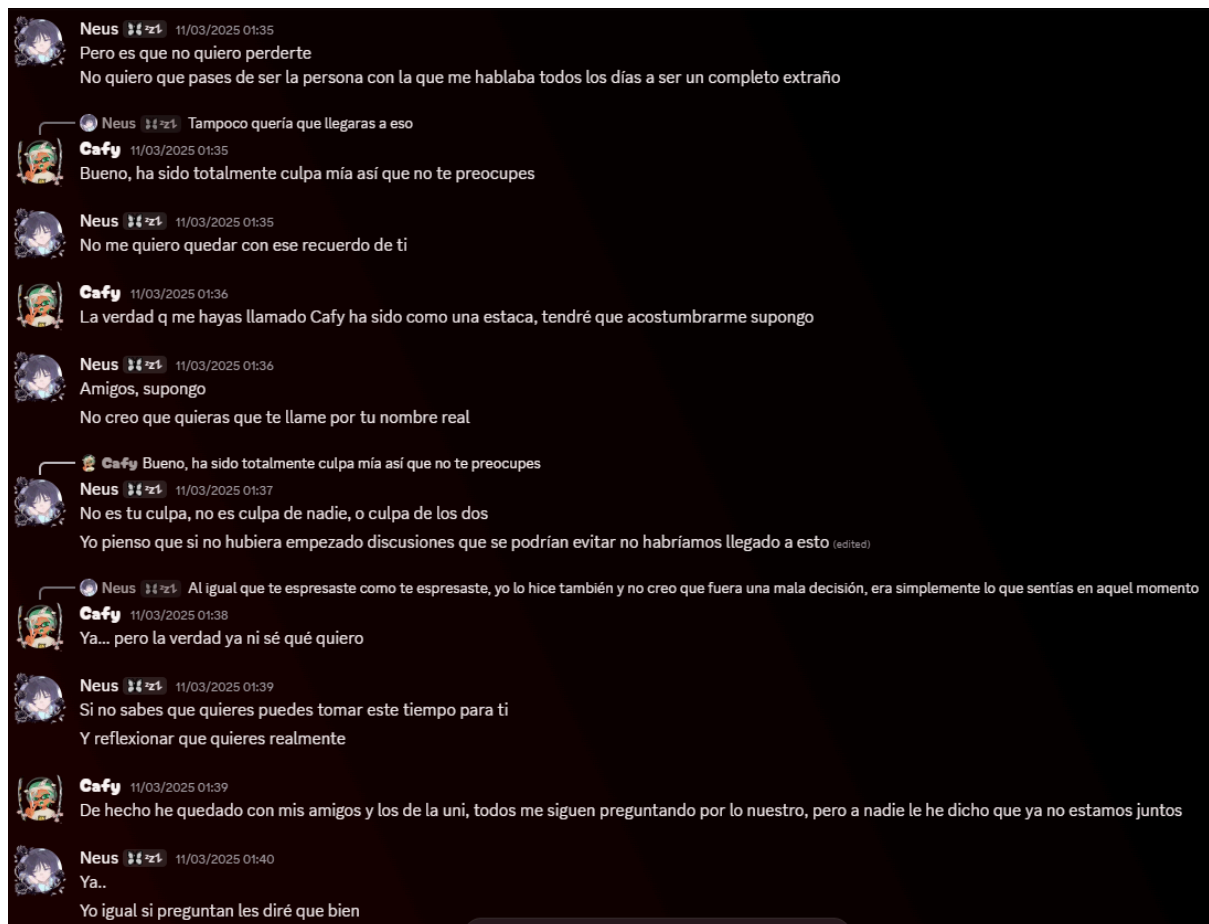

Imagen AA

Neus: But I don't want to lose you

I don't want you to go from being the person I talked to every day to being a total stranger

Cafy: (Replying to Neus: "I didn't want you to reach that point either") Well, it was entirely my fault so don't worry

Neus: I don't want to be left with that memory of you

Cafy: Honestly, you calling me Cafy felt like a stake in the heart, I guess I'll have to get used to it

Neus: Friends, I guess

I don't think you want me to call you by your real name

Neus: (Replying to Cafy: "Well, it was entirely my fault...") It's not your fault, it's nobody's fault, or both of our faults

I think that if I hadn't started arguments that could have been avoided, we wouldn't have reached this point (edited)

Cafy: (Replying to Neus) Yeah... but honestly I don't even know what I want anymore

Neus: If you don't know what you want, you can take this time for yourself

And reflect on what you really want

Cafy: In fact, I met up with my friends and the ones from uni, everyone keeps asking me about us, but I haven't told anyone that we're not together anymore

Neus: Yeah..

Same here, if they ask I'll just tell them things are fine

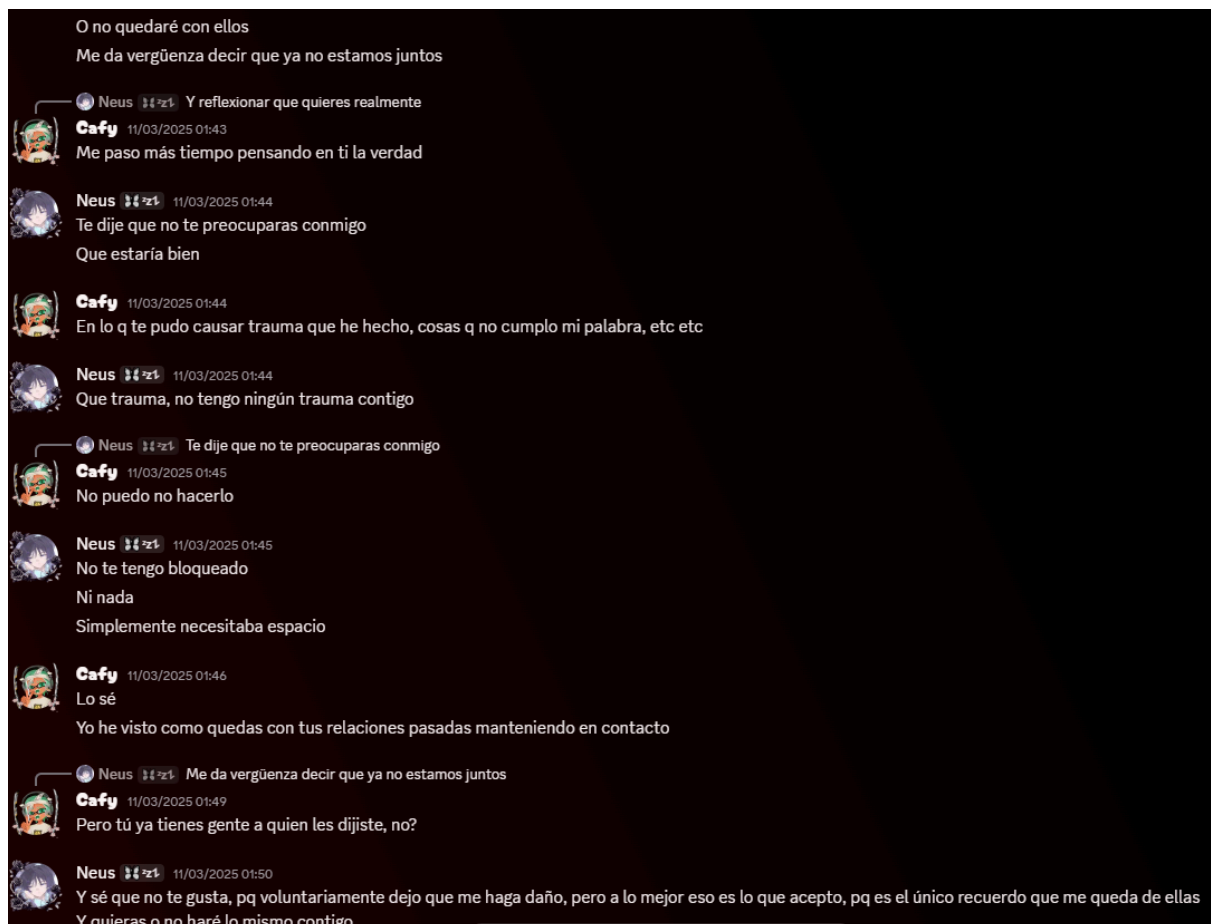

Imagen AB

Cafy: Or I won't meet up with them

I'm ashamed to say that we're not together anymore

Cafy: (Replying to "And reflect on what you really want") I spend more time thinking about you, honestly

Neus: I told you not to worry about me

That I would be fine

Cafy: About what might have caused you trauma from what I've done, things where I didn't keep my word, etc etc

Neus: What trauma, I don't have any trauma with you

Cafy: (Replying to "I told you not to worry about me") I can't not do it

Neus: I don't have you blocked

Or anything

I simply needed space

Cafy: I know

I've seen how you stay in contact with your past relationships

Cafy: (Replying to "I'm ashamed to say that we're not together anymore") But you already have people you told, right?

Neus: And I know you don't like it, because I voluntarily let it hurt me, but maybe that's what I accept, because it's the only memory I have left of them

And whether you like it or not, I'll do the same with you

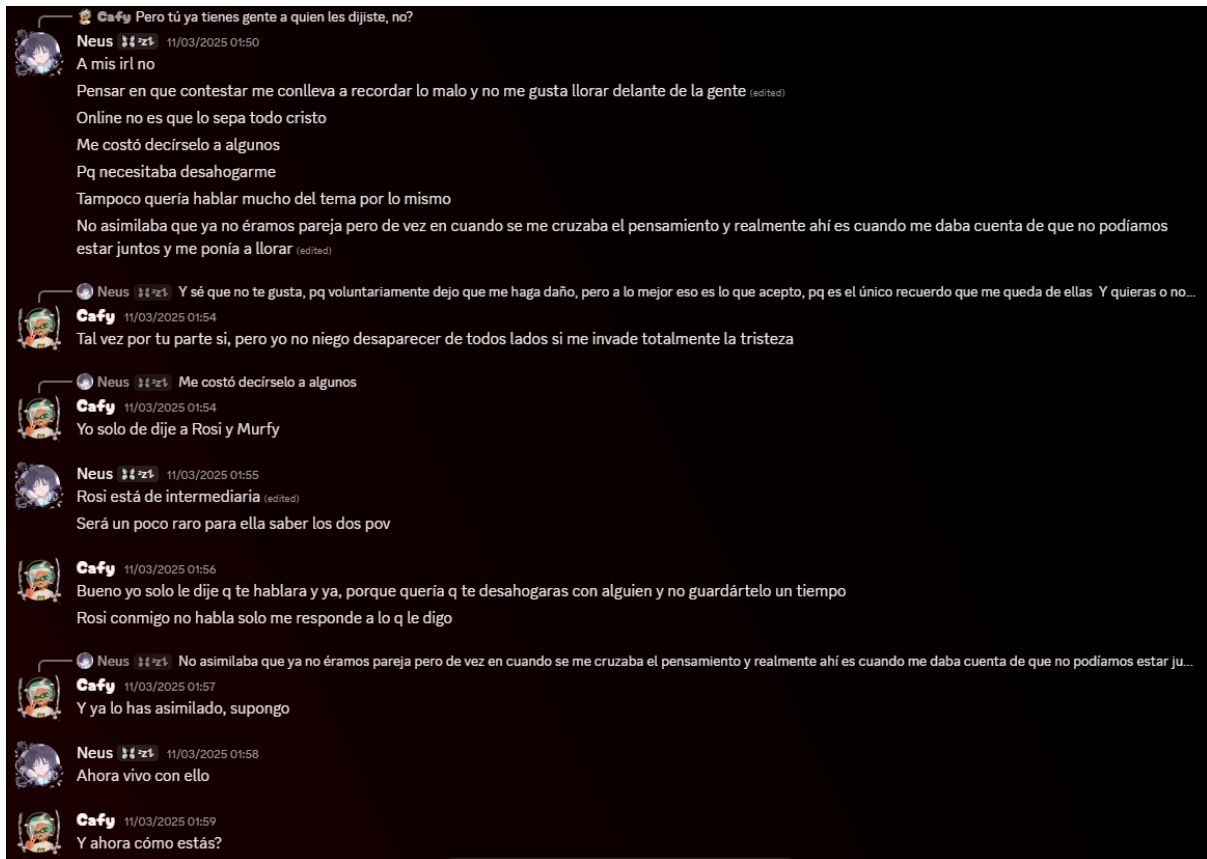

Imagen AC

Neus: (Replying to Cafy: "But you already have people you told, right?") Not to my irl friends

Thinking about what to answer leads me to remember the bad parts, and I don't like crying in front of people (edited)

Online it's not like everyone knows

It was hard for me to tell a few people

Because I needed to vent

I didn't want to talk much about the topic either for the same reason

I couldn't process that we were no longer a couple, but every now and then the thought crossed my mind, and that's really when I realized we couldn't be together and I started crying (edited)

Cafy: (Replying to Neus: "And I know you don't like it, because I voluntarily let it hurt me...") Maybe on your end yes, but I don't rule out disappearing from everywhere if sadness completely overwhelms me

Cafy: (Replying to "It was hard for me to tell a few people") I only told Rosi and Murfy

Neus: Rosi is acting as an intermediary (edited)

It must be a bit strange for her knowing both POVs

Cafy: Well, I only told her to talk to you and that's it, because I wanted you to vent to someone and not keep it inside for a long time

Rosi doesn't really talk to me, she only replies to what I ask her

Cafy: (Replying to "I couldn't process that we were no longer a couple...") And you've processed it now, I guess

Neus: Now I live with it

Cafy: And how are you doing now?

Neus: Good

Relieved ?

I didn't know when to break no contact

It's still early, but if I waited longer I thought you wouldn't want to hear from me anymore

I was more afraid of losing you completely

Than breaking up as a couple

I already had a feeling you'd send me those breakup messages when speaking to me, so it didn't shock me that much

Cafy: Well, I'm glad for you then

Neus: You don't need to worry about me anymore

I prefer that you focus on yourself now

Cafy: I don't know what I'll do, don't expect much from me either, so I have to cheer myself up

Cafy: (Replying to "I prefer that you focus on yourself now") I wish

Neus: I want you to be okay

Cafy: But I prefer thinking about you imagining you moving on and being happy, or at least that's how I've been spending the weekend

Sorry, I'm falling asleep while writing

Neus: Go to sleep

I should too

You haven't slept much today

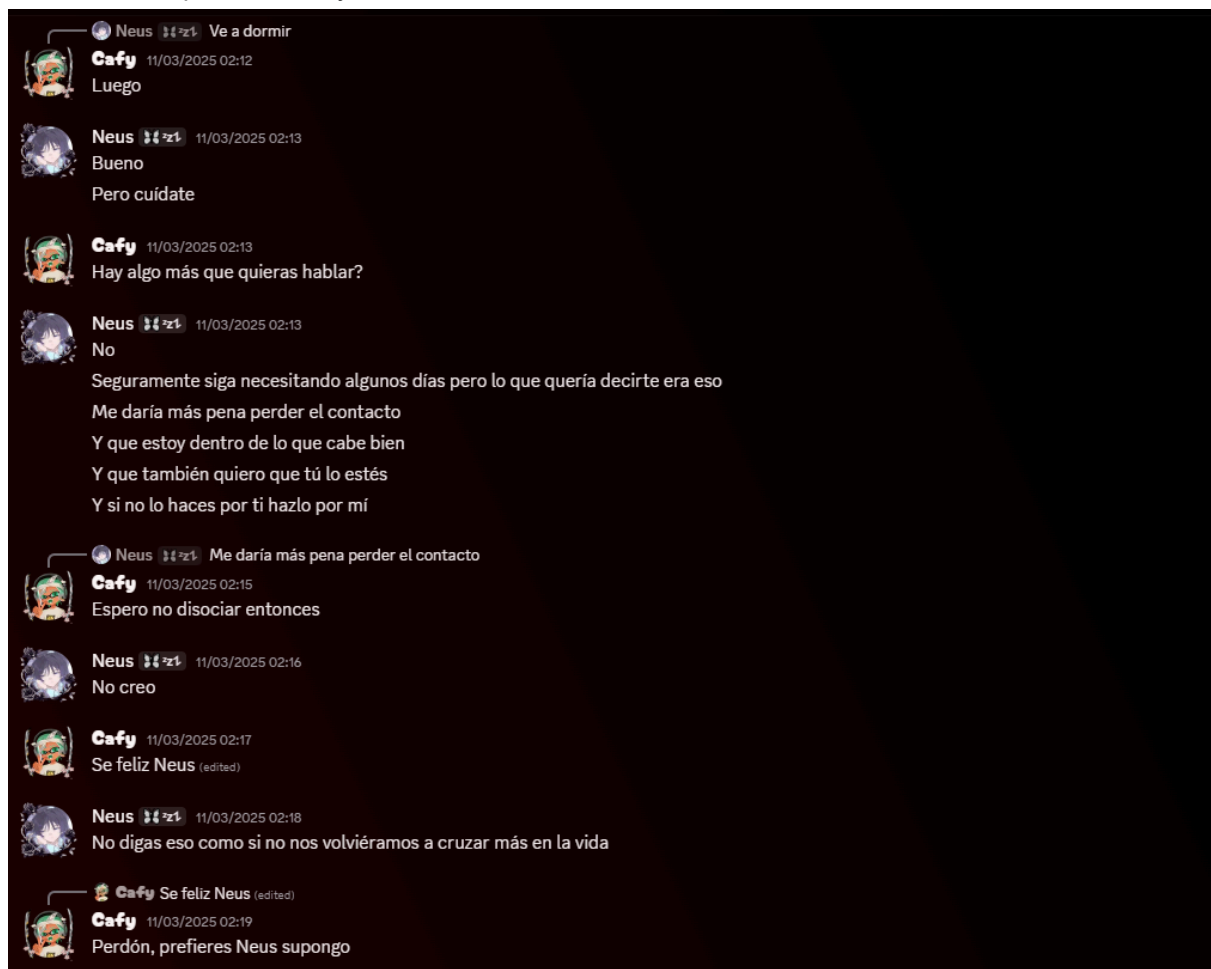

Imagen AE

Neus: Go to sleep

Cafy: Later

Neus: Well

But take care of yourself

Cafy: Is there anything else you want to talk about?

Neus: No

I'll probably still need a few days, but what I wanted to tell you was that

It would hurt me more to lose contact

And that I'm doing well, all things considered

And that I also want you to be doing well

And if you won't do it for yourself, do it for me

Cafy: (Replying to "It would hurt me more to lose contact") I hope I don't dissociate then

Neus: I don't think so

Cafy: Be happy Neus (edited)

Neus: Don't say that as if we were never going to cross paths again in life

Cafy: (Replying to "Be happy Neus") Sorry, you prefer Neus I suppose

Imagen AF

Neus: I still love you a lot and I want you to stay in it

Cafy: (Replying to "Don't say that as if we were never going to cross paths again in life") I don't feel ready to look you in the eye again either (edited)

Cafy: (Replying to "I still love you a lot and I want you to stay in it") I love you very much too

God, I'm crying again

Neus: Sorry

Why?

Cafy: Take care, I want you to be happy

I'm going to sleep

Neus: I will

I hope you sleep well

And don't cry

I don't want you to be sad

Cafy: (Replying to "I don't want you to be sad") I regret not telling you 'I love you' as many times as I could

Neus: You have loved me like no one has ever loved me before

Your love was enough for me

Cafy: Did you tell your parents already?

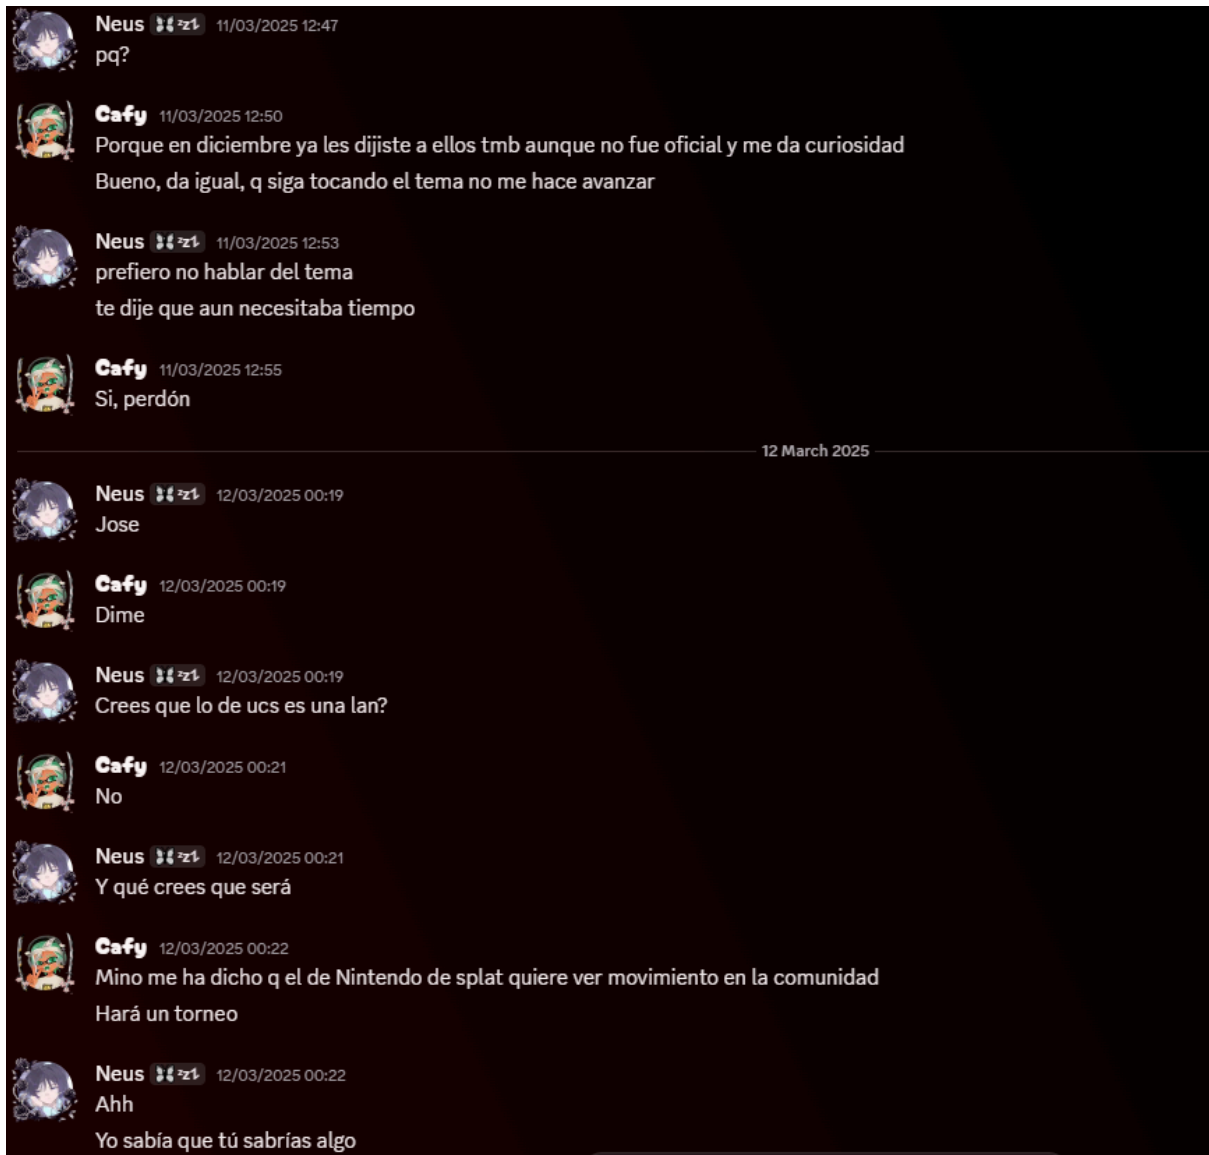

Imagen AG

Neus: why?

Cafy: Because back in December you already told them too even though it wasn't official, and I'm curious

Well, whatever, continuing to touch on the topic doesn't help me move forward

Neus: I prefer not to talk about it

I told you I still needed time

Cafy: Yeah, sorry

Neus: Jose

Cafy: Tell me

Neus: Do you think the ucs thing is a LAN?

Cafy: No

Neus: And what do you think it will be?

Cafy: Mino told me that the Nintendo guy for Splat wants to see movement in the community

He will host a tournament

Neus: Ahh

I knew you'd know something

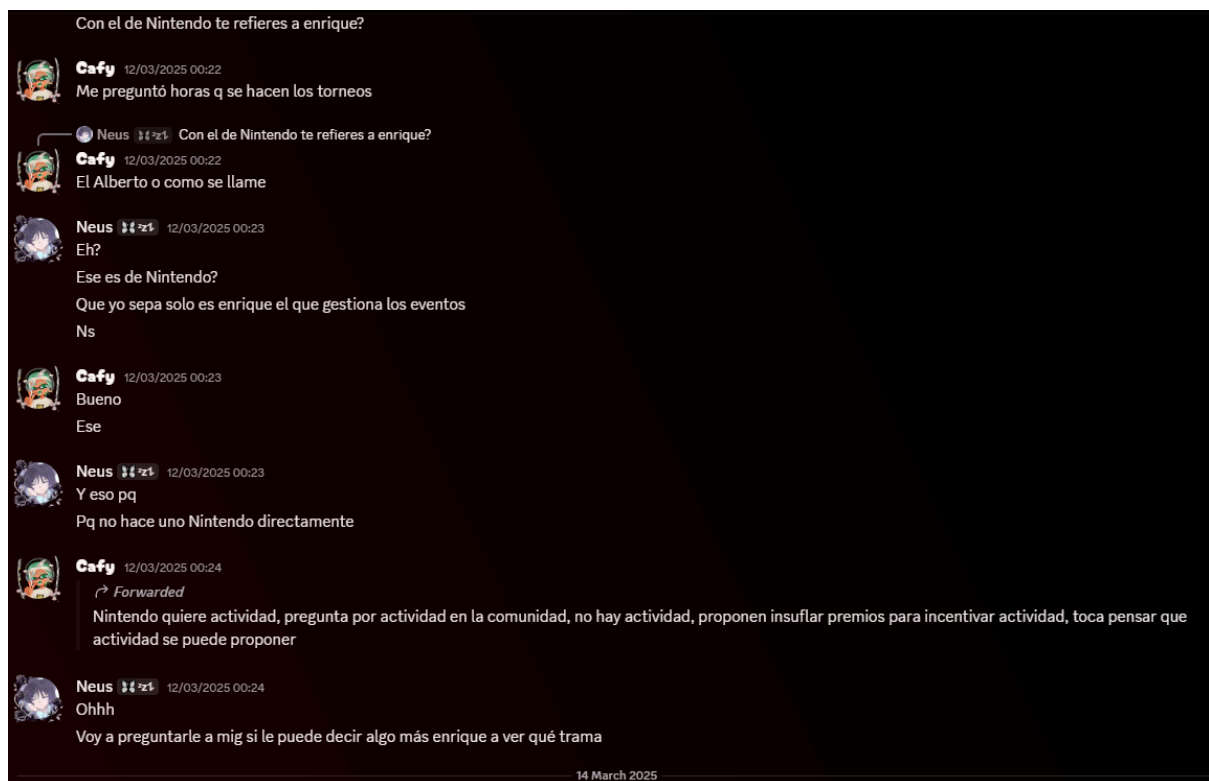

Imagen AH

Cafy: He asked me what hours tournaments are usually held

Cafy: (Replying to "By the Nintendo guy do you mean Enrique?") Alberto or whatever his name is

Neus: Huh?

Is that guy from Nintendo?

As far as I know, it's only Enrique who manages the events

I don't know

Cafy: Well

That guy

Neus: And why is that

Why doesn't Nintendo do one directly?

Cafy: (Forwarded message)

Nintendo wants activity, asks for activity in the community, there is no activity, they propose pumping in prizes to encourage activity, we have to think about what activity can be proposed

Neus: Ohhh

I'm going to ask Mig if he can ask Enrique anything else to see what he's up to

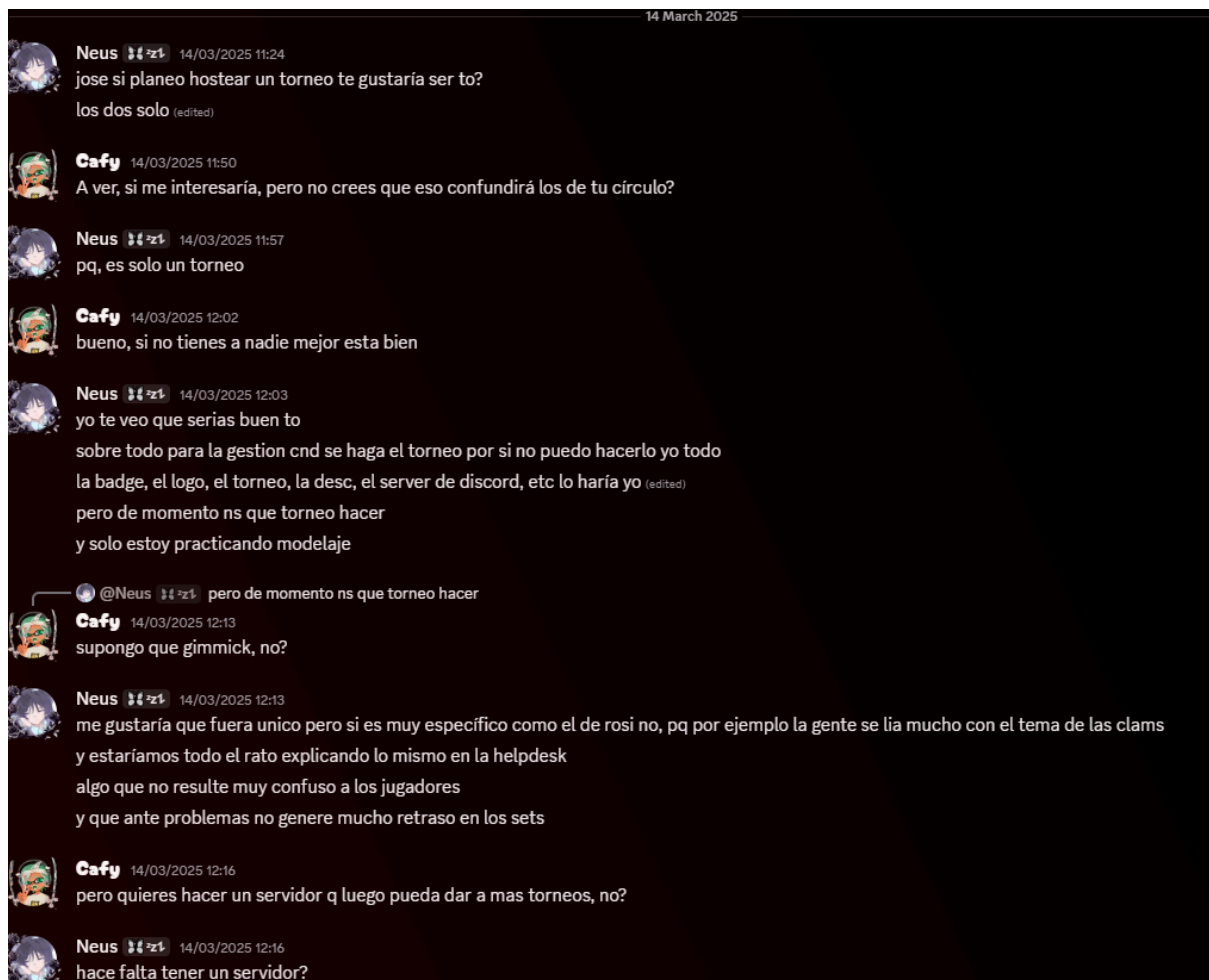

Imagen AI

Neus: jose if I plan to host a tournament would you like to be a TO?

just the two of us (edited)

Cafy: Well, I would be interested, but don't you think that will confuse people in your circle?

Neus: why, it's just a tournament

Cafy: well, if you don't have anyone better it's fine

Neus: I see you being a good TO especially for the management when the tournament takes place in case I can't do everything myself

the badge, the logo, the tournament, the desc, the discord server, etc. I would do (edited)

but for now IDK what tournament to host and I'm just practicing modeling

Cafy: (Replying to "but for now IDK what tournament to host") I guess a gimmick one, right?

Neus: I'd like it to be unique, but if it's too specific like Rosi's then no, because for example people get really confused with clams and we'd be explaining the same thing in the helpdesk all the time

something that isn't too confusing for players and doesn't cause too much delay in the sets when problems arise

Cafy: but you want to make a server that can lead to more tournaments later, right?

Neus: is it necessary to have a server?

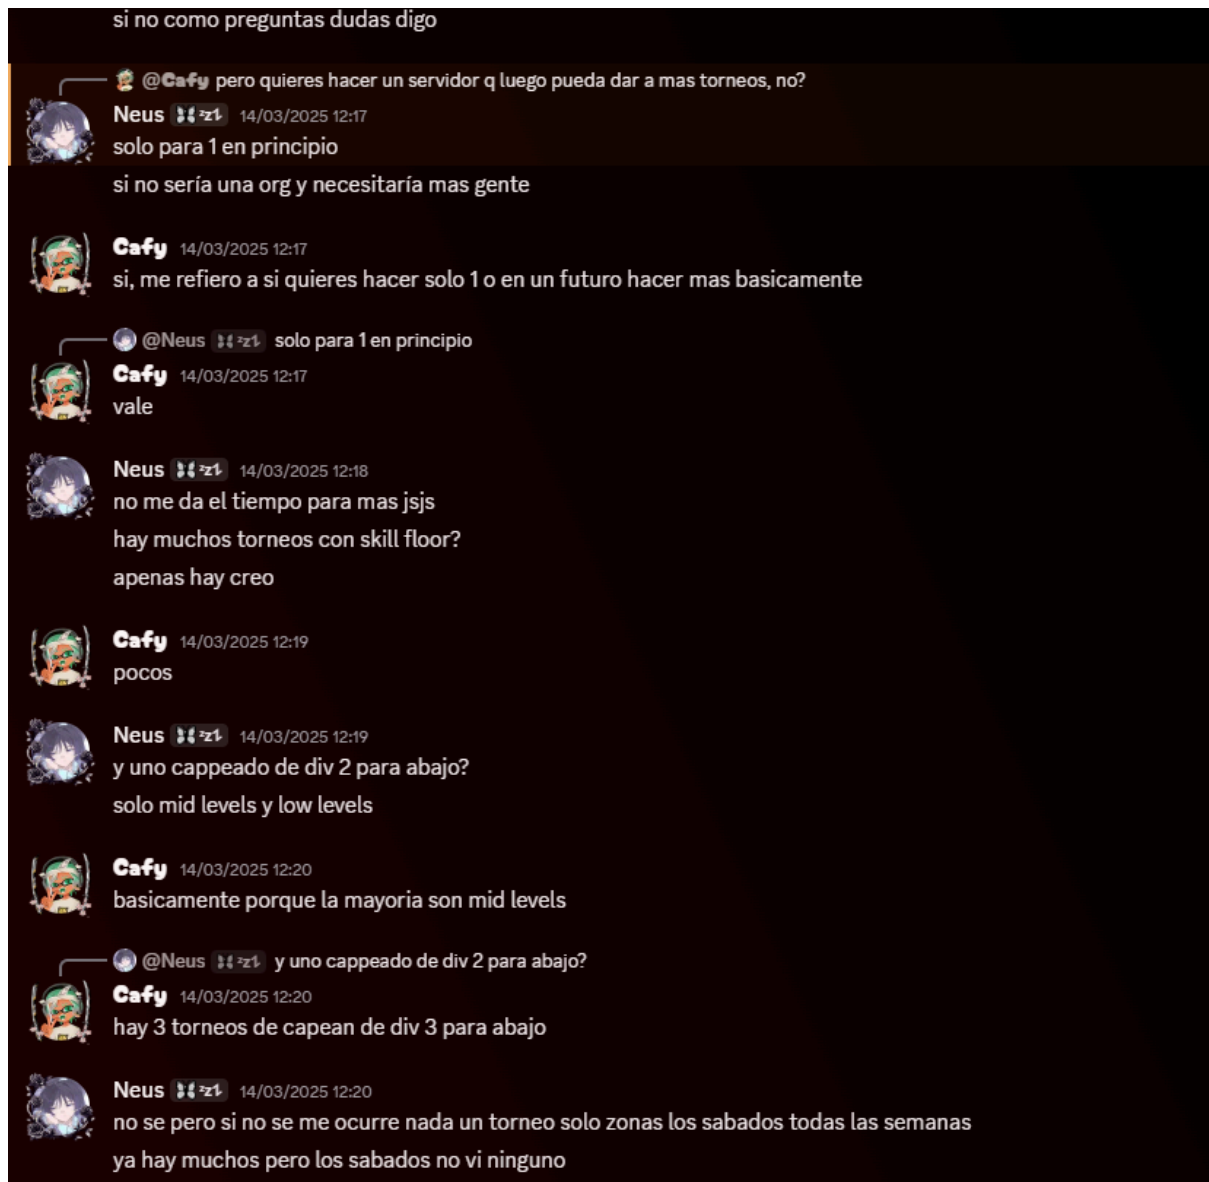

Imagen AJ

Neus: (Replying to "but you want to make a server that can lead to more tournaments later, right?") just for 1 at first

otherwise it would be an org and I'd need more people

Cafy: yeah, I mean whether you want to do just 1 or make more in the future basically

Cafy: (Replying to "just for 1 at first") okay

Neus: I don't have time for more haha

Are there many tournaments with a skill floor?

there are barely any I think

Cafy: a few

Neus: and one capped from div 2 down?

only mid levels and low levels

Cafy: basically because most are mid levels

Cafy: (Replying to "and one capped from div 2 down?") there are 3 tournaments that cap from div 3 down

Neus: IDK, but if I can't think of anything, a zones-only tournament on Saturdays every week

there are already many, but I haven't seen any on Saturdays

Imagen AK

Cafy: (Replying to "and one capped from div 2 down?") mmm, IDK, hosting a tournament that creates high level teams wouldn't be very worth it

Neus: I understand

Cafy: it would have to be monthly and LATAM schedule

Neus: like LI or what

Cafy: basically

Neus: that creates mid levels

Cafy: or LSL

or world 9

Neus: but isn't LSL every 2 weeks or am I high

Cafy: it's monthly

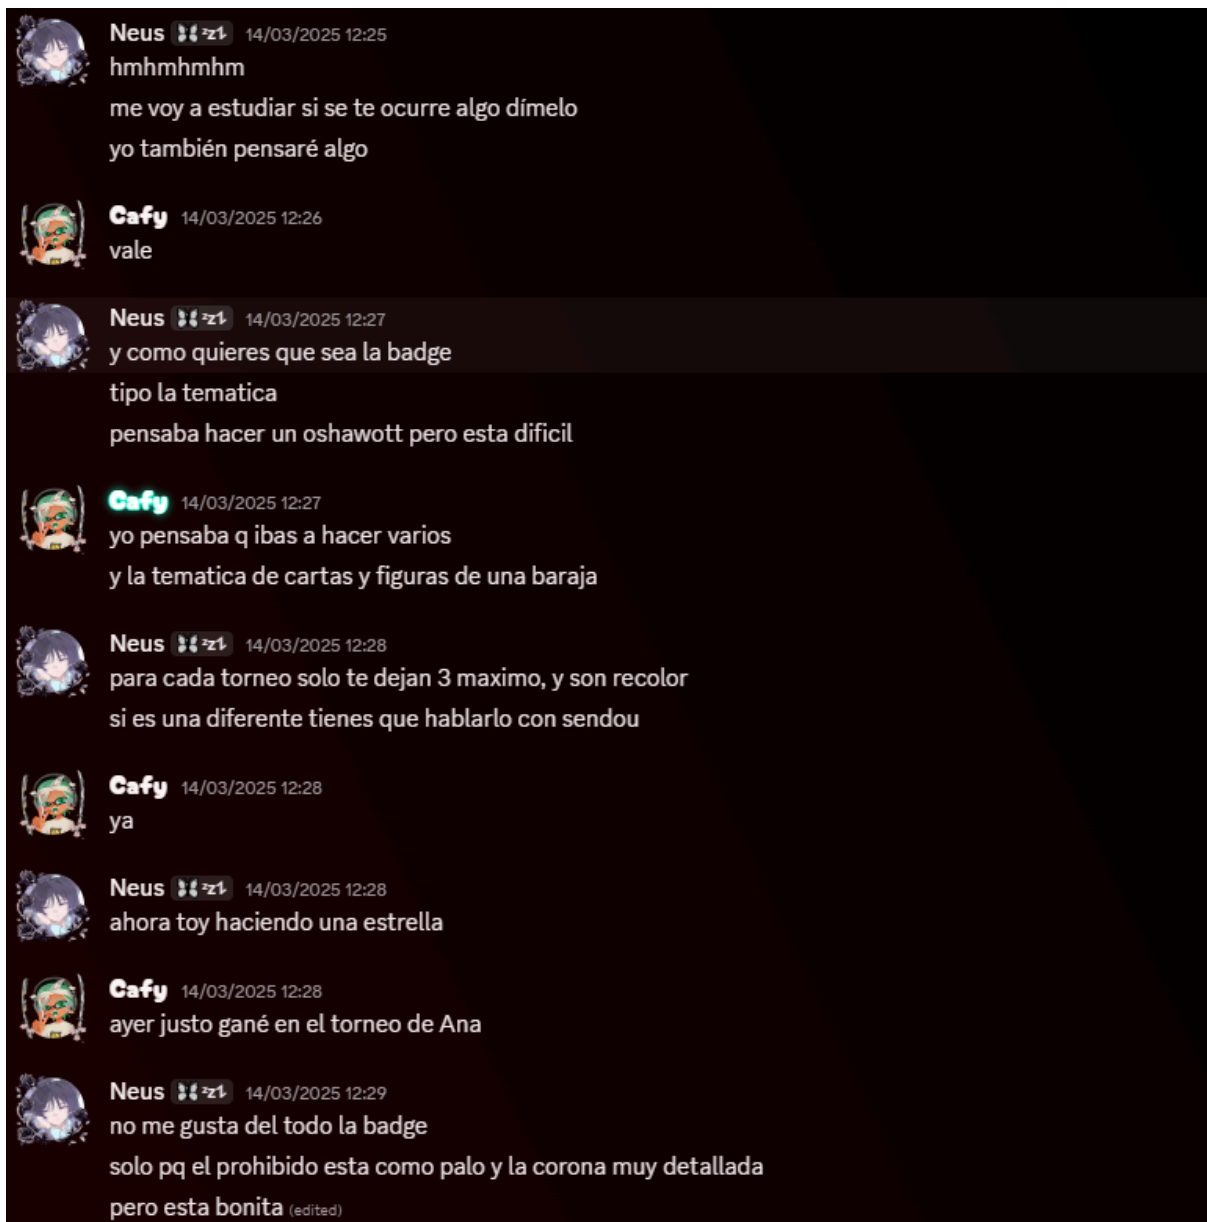

always 1 week before LI

it's this Saturday actually and world 9 on Sunday

Neus: and one like level up?

Cafy: level up is every two weeks

On this day, we just had a relaxed chat about the tournaments.

Imagen AL

Neus: hmhmhmhm

I'm going to study, if you think of anything let me know

I'll think of something too

Cafy: okay

Neus: and how do you want the badge to be like the theme

I was thinking of making an Oshawott but it's hard

Cafy: I thought you were going to make several and with a playing card and suit theme

Neus: for each tournament they only allow 3 maximum, and they're recolors

if it's a different one you have to talk to sendou about it

Cafy: yeah

Neus: right now I'm making a star

Cafy: I actually won in Ana's tournament yesterday

Neus: I don't completely like the badge

just because the 'prohibited' sign looks like a stick and the crown is too detailed

but it's pretty (edited)

Imagen AM

Cafy: How do you feel about dropping LUTI after the set?

Neus: :)

Dunno

Cafy: Okay

Cafy: so tomorrow you can't play after all?

Cafy: And...?

Neus: yes

Cafy: Yes as in you can play?

Neus: yes

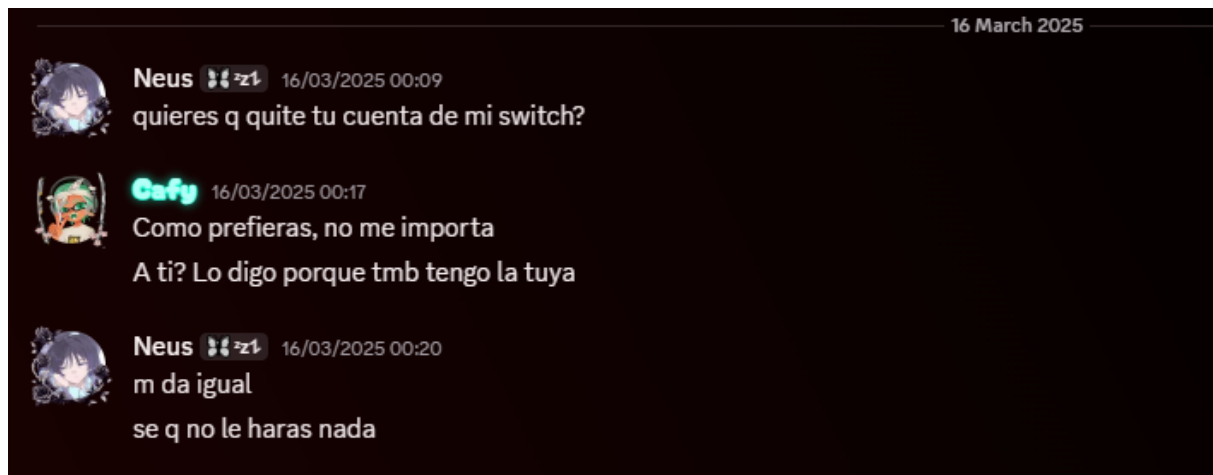

Imagen AN

Neus: do you want me to remove your account from my switch?

Cafy: Whatever you prefer, I don't mind

Do you? I'm asking because I also have yours

Neus: I don't mind

I know you won't do anything to it

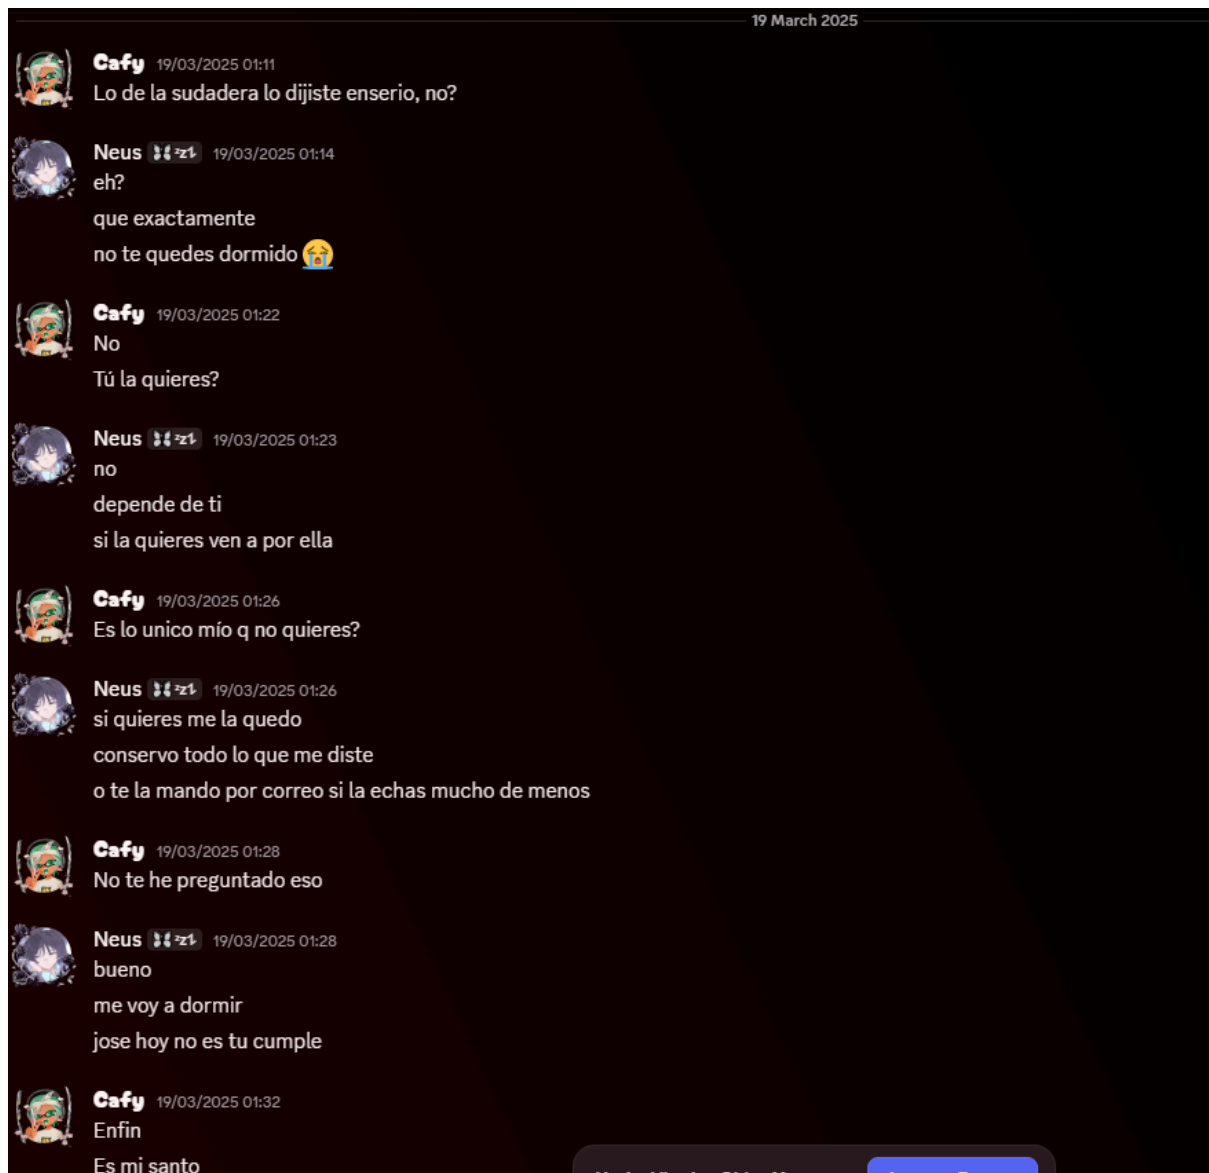

Imagen AÑ

Cafy: Were you serious about the hoodie thing?

Neus: huh?

what exactly

don't fall asleep 😭

Cafy: No

Do you want it?

Neus: no

up to you

if you want it come get it

Cafy: Is it the only thing of mine that you don't want?

Neus: if you want I'll keep it

I keep everything you gave me

or I can mail it to you if you miss it a lot

Cafy: I didn't ask you that

Neus: well

I'm going to sleep

jose today isn't your birthday

Cafy: Anyway

It's my saint's day

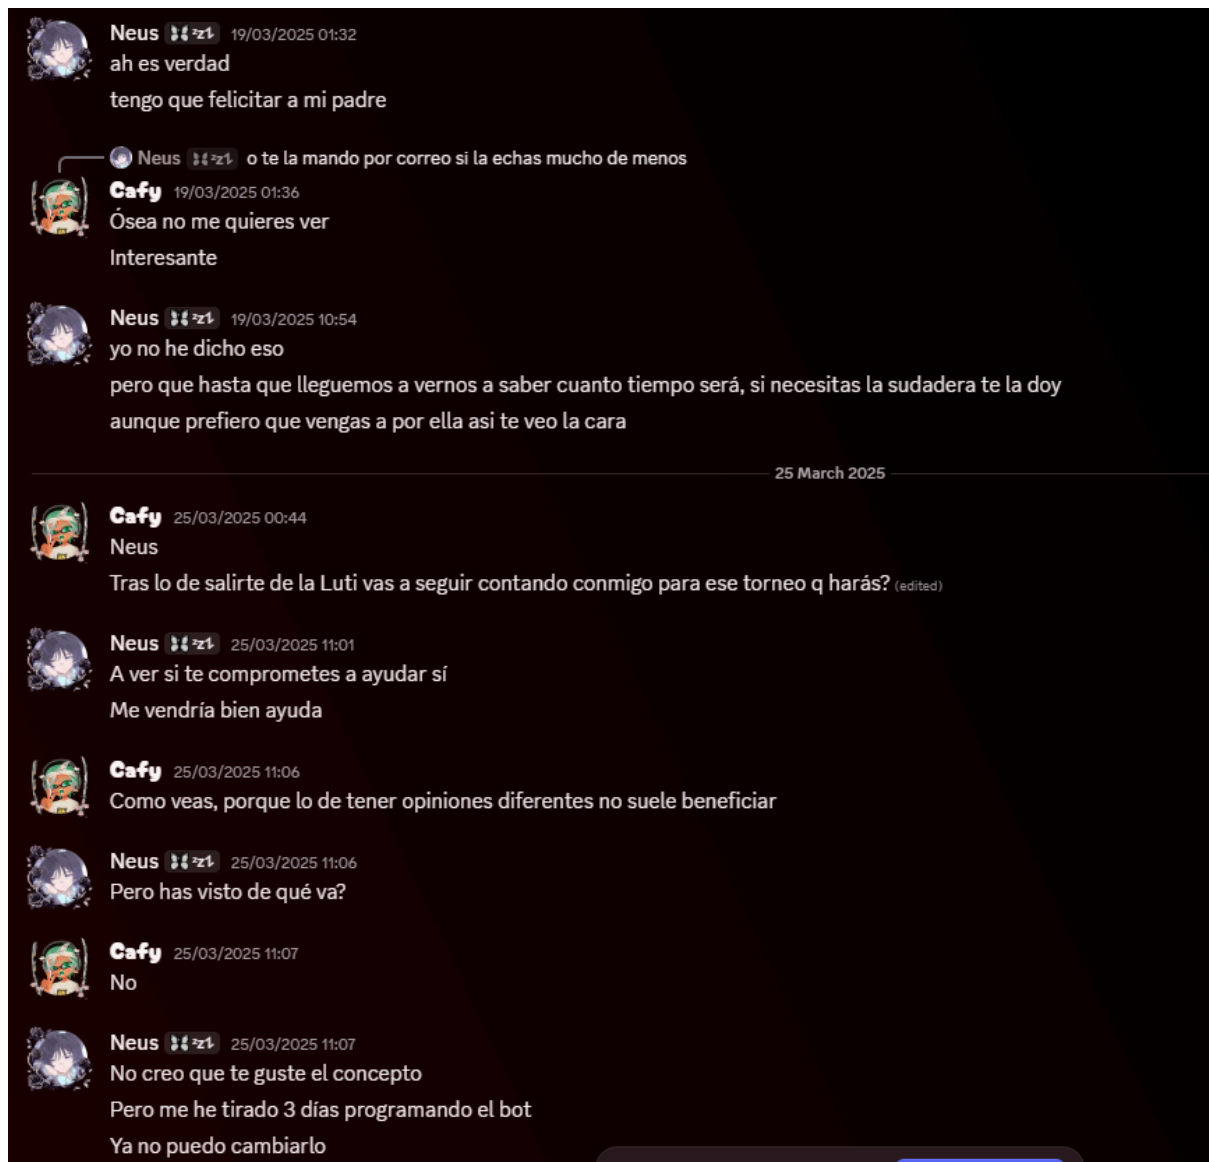

Imagen AO

Neus: ah that's true

I have to wish my dad a happy saint's day

Cafy: (Replying to "or I can mail it to you if you miss it a lot") Meaning you don't want to see me

Interesting

Neus: I didn't say that but until we actually see each other who knows how long it'll be, if you need the hoodie I'll give it to you

though I'd prefer you come get it so I can see your face

Cafy: Neus

After leaving Luti, are you still going to count on me for that tournament you're hosting? (edited)

Neus: Well if you commit to helping, yes

Help would be nice

Cafy: Whatever you think, because having different opinions usually doesn't help

Neus: But have you seen what it's about?

Cafy: No

Neus: I don't think you'll like the concept

But I've spent 3 days programming the bot

I can't change it anymore

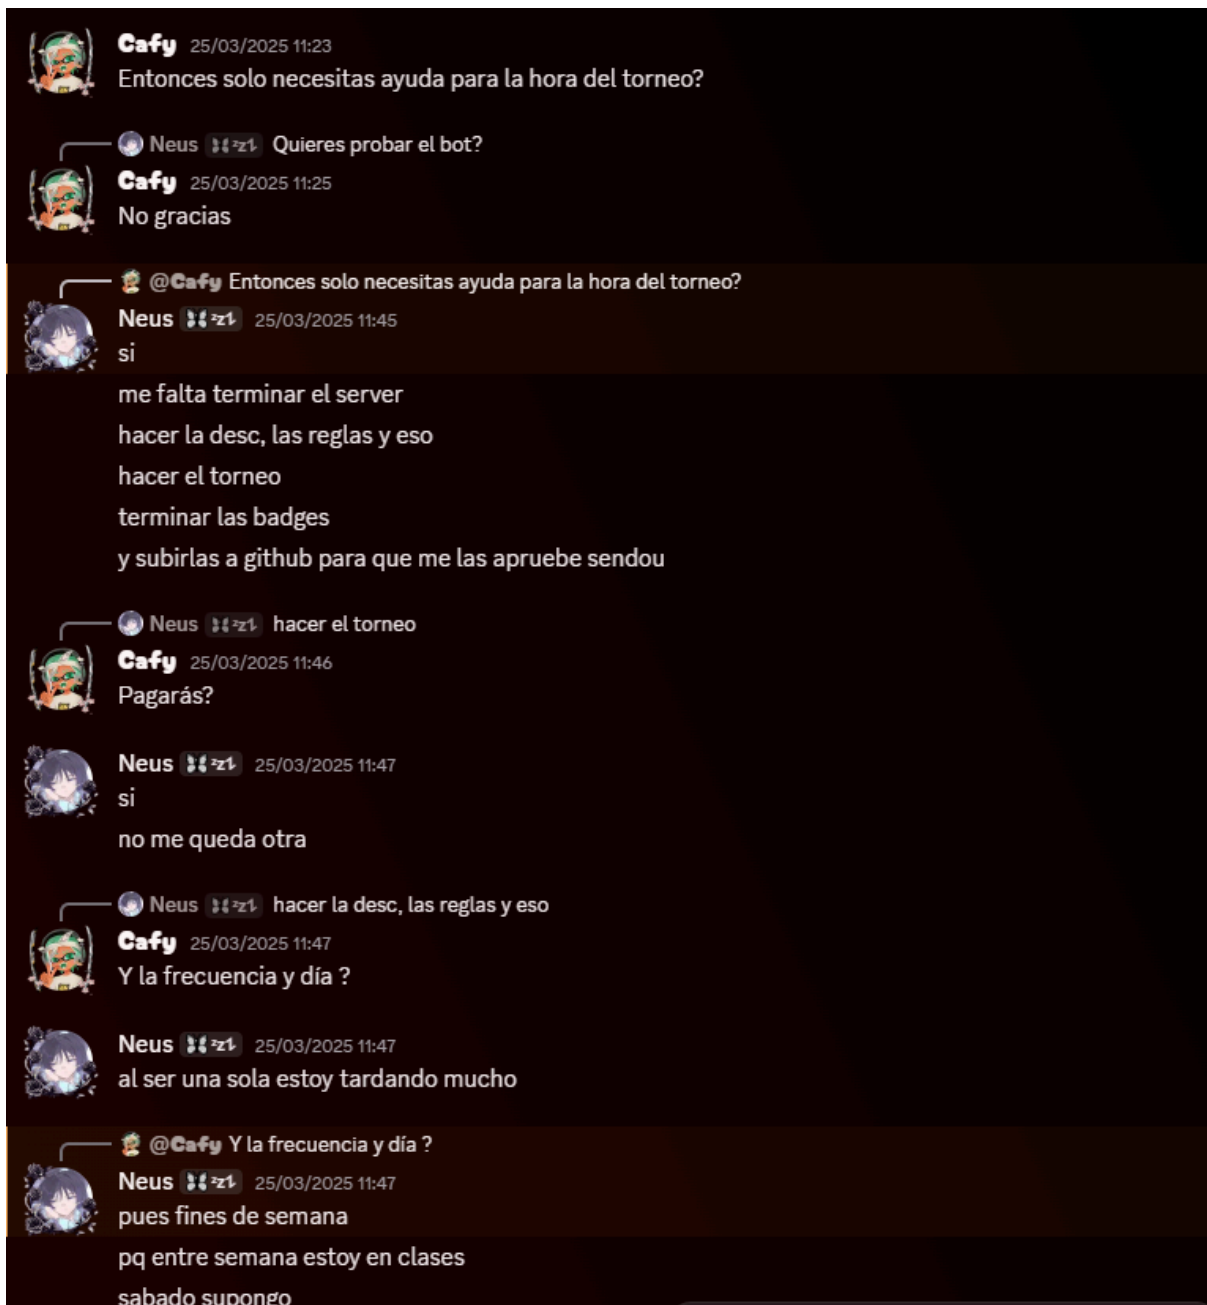

Imagen AP

Cafy: So you only need help during the tournament hours?

Cafy: (Replying to "Do you want to test the bot?") No thank you

Neus: (Replying to "So you only need help during the tournament hours?") yes

I still need to finish the server

write the desc, rules and stuff

create the tournament

finish the badges

and upload them to github for sendou to approve

Cafy: (Replying to "create the tournament") Will you pay?

Neus: yes

I have no choice

Cafy: (Replying to "write the desc, rules and stuff") And the frequency and day?

Neus: since I'm alone it's taking me a long time

Neus: (Replying to "And the frequency and day?") well weekends

cause during the week I have classes

Saturday I guess

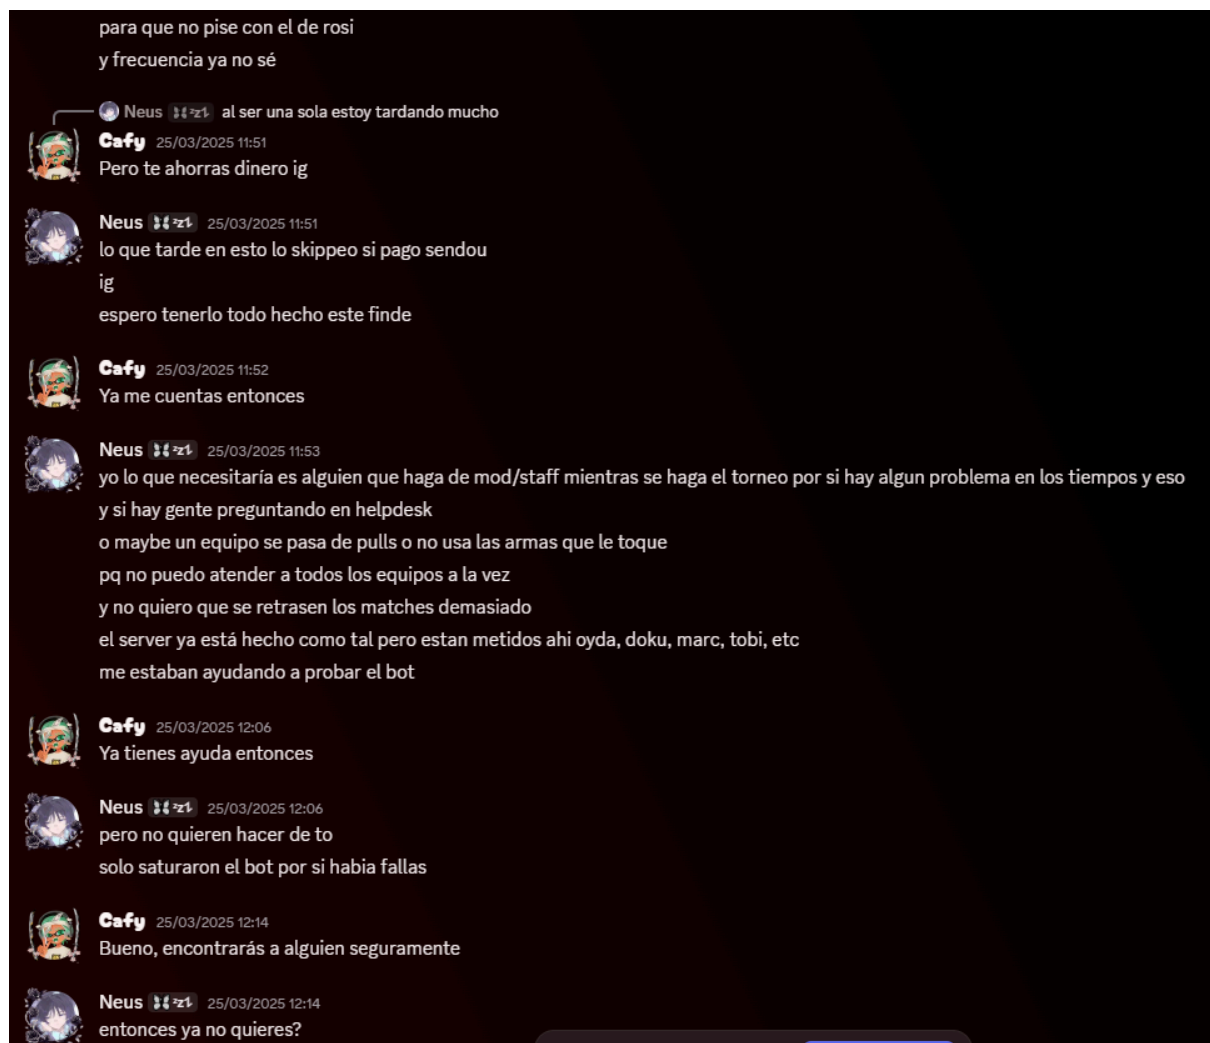

Imagen AQ

Neus: so it doesn't overlap with rosi's

and frequency I don't even know anymore

Cafy: (Replying to "since I'm alone it's taking me a long time") But you save money ig

Neus: whatever time this takes I skip if I pay sendou

ig

I hope to have everything done this weekend

Cafy: Let me know then

Neus: what I'd need is someone to act as mod/staff during the tournament in case there's any timing issues and stuff

and if there are people asking in helpdesk or maybe a team goes over the pull limit or doesn't use the assigned weapons

cause I can't attend to all teams at once and I don't want matches to get delayed too much the server itself is already done but oyda, doku, marc, tobi, etc are in there

they were helping me test the bot

Cafy: You already have help then

Neus: but they don't want to do TO stuff

they just spammed the bot to test for bugs

Cafy: Well, you'll surely find someone

Neus: so you don't want to anymore?

Imagen AR

Cafy: Idk

The TO part yes

But because of other things no

Neus: okay

well we'll see

this is more or less how the badges will look, but they're not finished and neither is the texture

(Shows two star-shaped badge images)

Cafy: Wasn't it supposed to be 3?

Neus: the third one is different

it's going to be a 4-leaf clover

it's a separate achievement from the tournament

Cafy: (Replying to "well we'll see") Basically it's because I'm changing everything and removing you from my circles, because I already told you I avoid contact after that

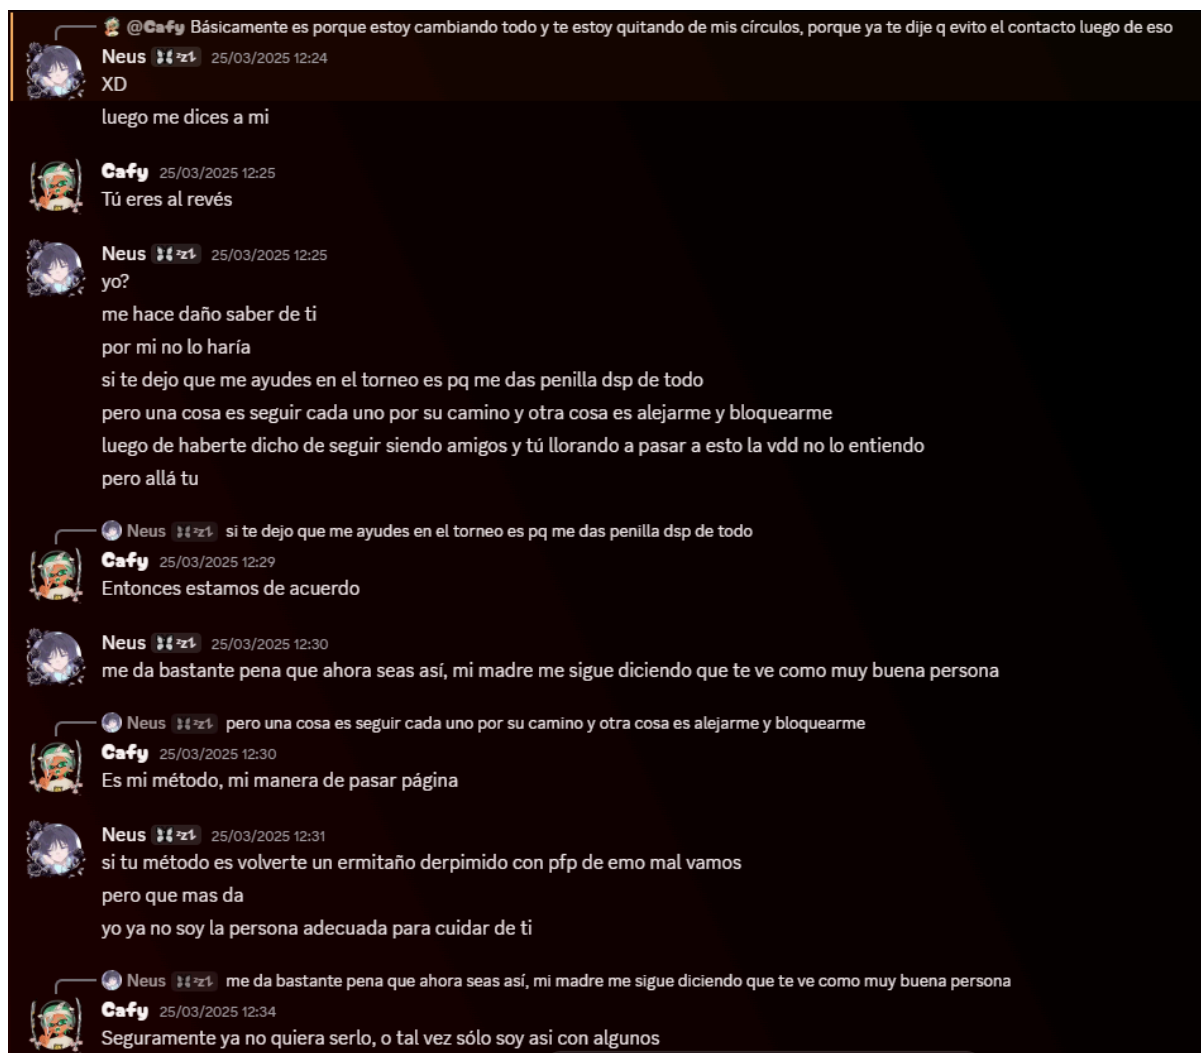

Imagen AS

Neus: (Replying to "Basically it's because I'm changing everything and removing you from my circles...") XD

and then you talk to me about it

Cafy: You're the opposite

Neus: me?

it hurts me to hear from you

I wouldn't do it for myself

if I let you help me with the tournament it's because I feel a bit sorry for you after everything but going our separate ways is one thing and distancing yourself and blocking me is another

after you said we should stay friends and you crying, switching to this... honestly I don't get it

but whatever

Cafy: (Replying to "if I let you help me with the tournament it's because I feel a bit sorry for you after everything") Then we agree

Neus: I feel really bad that you're like this now, my mom keeps telling me she sees you as a really good person

Cafy: (Replying to "but going our separate ways is one thing and distancing yourself and blocking me is another") It's my method, my way of moving on

Neus: if your method is becoming a depressed hermit with an edgy emo pfp we're off to a bad start

but whatever

I'm not the right person to take care of you anymore

Cafy: (Replying to "I feel really bad that you're like this now...") I probably don't want to be anymore, or maybe I'm only like this with some people

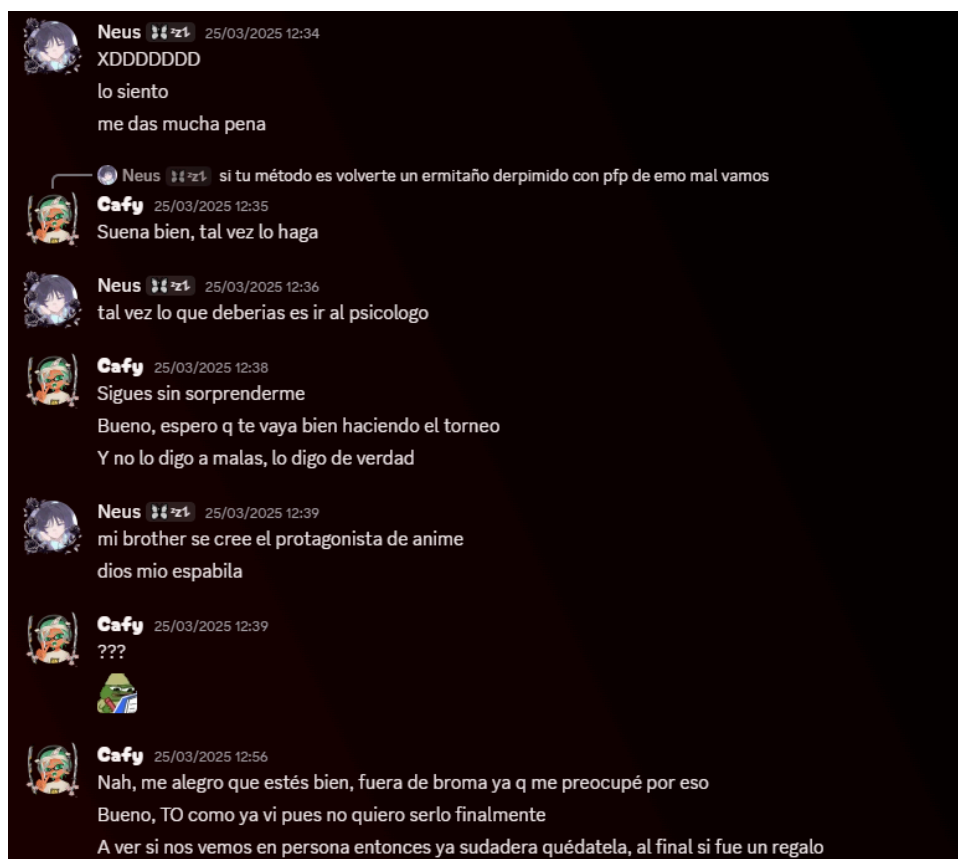

Imagen AT

Neus: XDDDDDDDD

I'm sorry

I feel so bad for you

Cafy: (Replying to "if your method is becoming a depressed hermit with an edgy emo pfp we're off to a bad start") Sounds good, maybe I will

Neus: maybe what you should do is go to a therapist

Cafy: You still don't surprise me

Well, I hope the tournament goes well for you

And I'm not saying it maliciously, I really mean it

Neus: my guy thinks he's an anime main character

my god wake up

Cafy: ???

(Pepe the Frog sticker)

Cafy: Nah, I'm glad you're doing well, jokes aside since I was worried about that

Well, as for being TO, as I see it now I don't want to after all

Let's see if we see each other in person then, keep the hoodie, in the end it was a gift

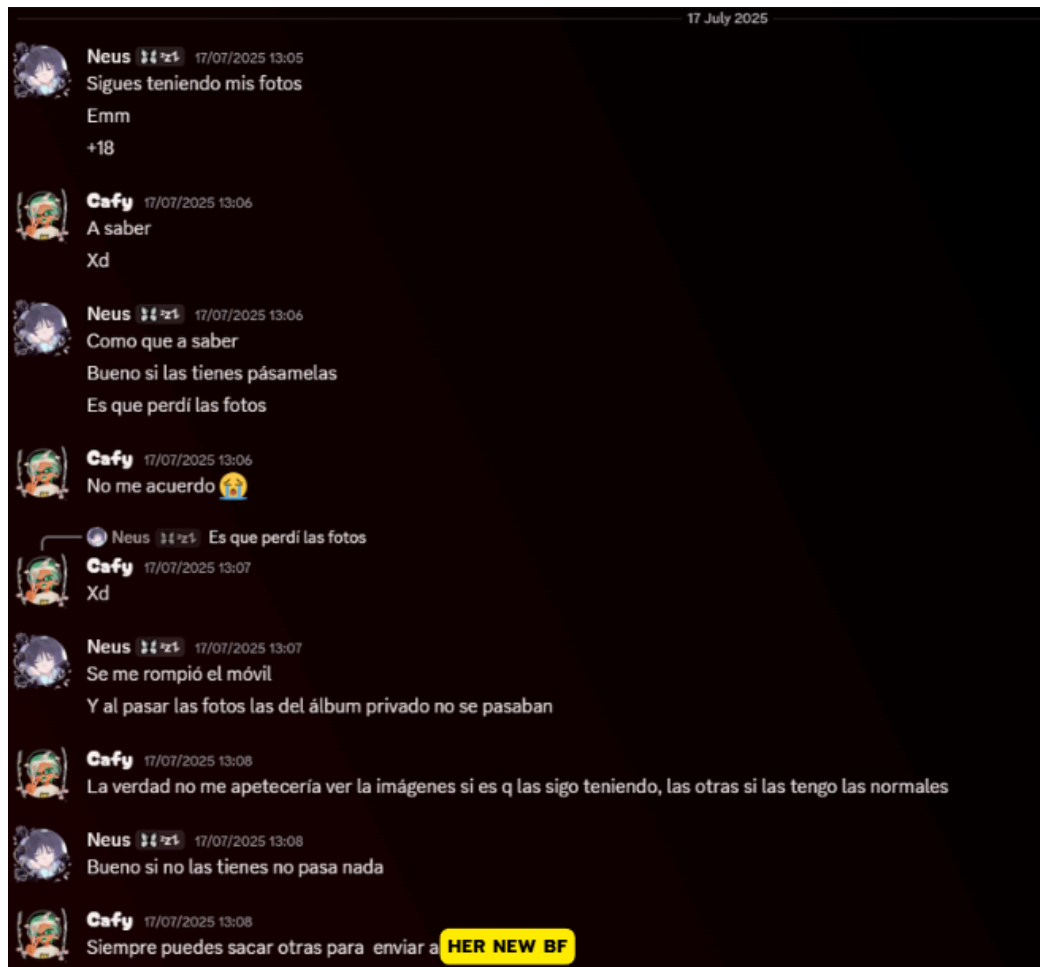

Imagen AU

Neus: Do you still have my photos

Umm

+18

Cafy: Who knows

Xd

Neus: What do you mean who knows

Well if you have them send them to me

It's just that I lost the photos

Cafy: I don't remember 🥲

Cafy: (Replying to "It's just that I lost the photos") Xd

Neus: My phone broke

And when transferring photos the ones from the private album didn't transfer

Cafy: To be honest I wouldn't really feel like looking at the pictures if I still have them, the other normal ones I do have

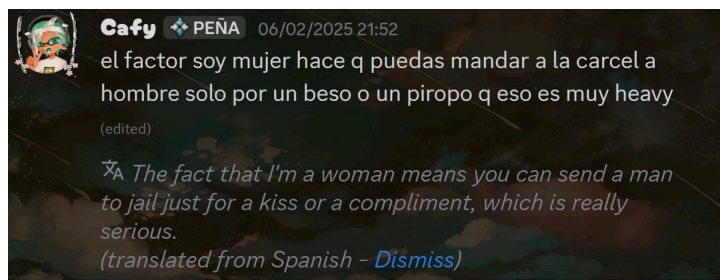

Neus: Well if you don't have them it's fine

Cafy: You can always take new ones to send to HER NEW BF

Before I reply to some of the tweets, I'd like to thank your friends for their interest in bombarding me with harassing calls and insults when your posts started getting views. (irony).

Caso 1:

Context: We were talking about her coming to my town and the danger of travelling at night.

I am not advocating kissing someone or making them feel uncomfortable without their consent; it is vital to recognise and respect each individual's boundaries.

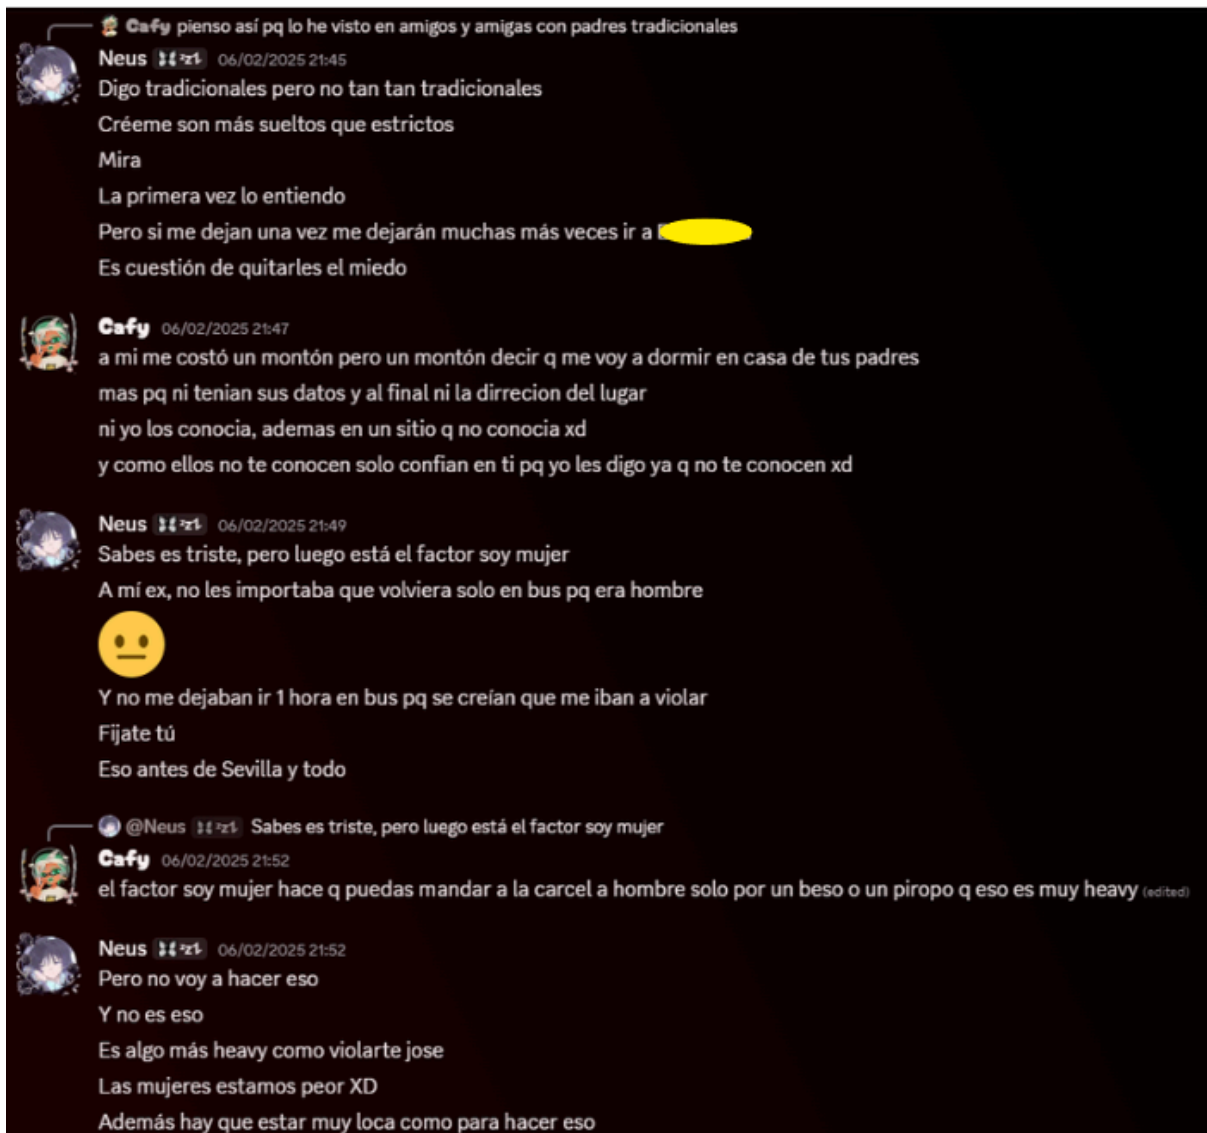

What I wanted to highlight is that I sometimes find it difficult to analyse the legal or social consequences faced in such cases, particularly in Spain.

Perhaps I did not express the concept clearly, but I do not condone a lack of consideration. I understand why my message may have come across as insensitive, and I'm sorry if it was perceived that way. I am aware that harassment and non-consensual behaviour have a serious impact on people, and an even greater one on women.

My comment was intended to analyse the weight of legislation and complaints, not to dismiss the emotions of those facing an uncomfortable or unfair situation. As someone who studies legal matters.

When a complaint is based on gender-based violence in Spain, the presumption of innocence (that is, the right to be treated as innocent until proven otherwise) ceases to apply if it is a case where a woman accuses a man of something in this area, which includes the case of a kiss, for example.

But that bit doesn't fit with the conversation; I admit it was a comment born of frustration at seeing that, throughout 2025 and 2026, Neus has been travelling with her friends in a small group all over Europe (to places much further away than the distance between our cities) and makes weekly train journeys on her own to another city for university, yet her parents won't let her come to my city. There are several reasons for this, but she never managed to sort it out; despite my suggesting solutions, it never came to pass.

Neus: (Replying to "I think that way because I've seen it with male and female friends with traditional parents") I mean traditional, but not that traditional

Trust me, they're more relaxed than strict

Look

The first time I understand

But if they let me go once, they'll let me go many more times to [REDACTED]

It's a matter of taking away their fear

Cafy: it took me a lot, like a whole lot, to say that I was going to sleep at your parents' house especially because they didn't even have their info and in the end not even the address of the place

nor did I know them, plus in a place I didn't know xd

and since they don't know you they only trust you because I tell them to, since they don't know you xd

Neus: You know it's sad, but then there's the "I'm a woman" factor

With my ex, they didn't care if he took a bus back alone because he was a guy

And they wouldn't let me take a 1-hour bus ride because they thought I'd get raped

Go figure

That was even before Seville and everything

Cafy: (Replying to "You know it's sad, but then there's the 'I'm a woman' factor") the "I'm a woman" factor lets you send a guy to prison just for a kiss or a catcall, which is really crazy (edited)

Neus: But I'm not going to do that

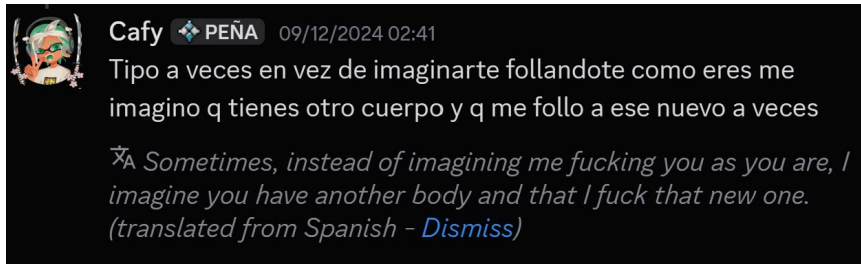

And it's not that

It's something heavier, like getting raped Jose

We women have it worse XD

Plus you'd have to be really crazy to do something like that

Caso 2

I won't show the context because it's basically a sexting exchange between the two of us at 2.41 am.

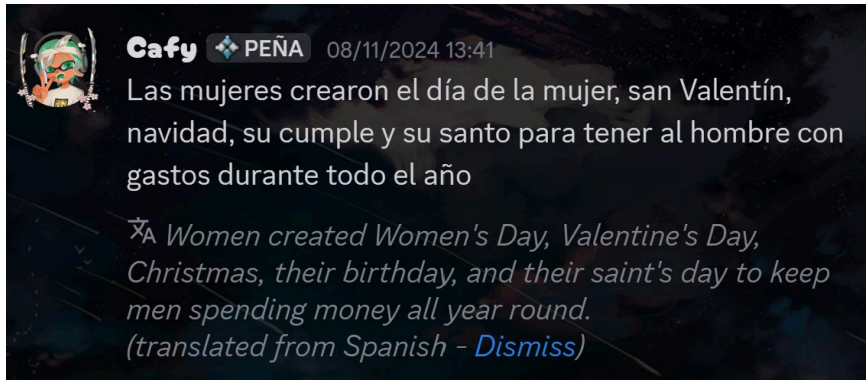

I realise that reading that may have been shocking or hurtful, but it doesn't mean I didn't feel any interest or attraction. Sometimes, the imagination creates fantasies or 'mind games', but what's created in the mind is different from reality and from my true feelings towards you.

I'm sorry if my comment made you feel uncomfortable or insecure, just as it did for me at the time. I was too direct in expressing a spur-of-the-moment thought without considering how you might take it. It wasn't my intention to make you think that I don't like your appearance or that I'm not attracted to you.

That thought was simply a mental curiosity about possibilities or hypothetical situations, but I genuinely like you just as you are. I decided to share it out of trust and to discuss mental aspects, not to compare you or belittle you.

Throughout our relationship, I've always valued and appreciated your natural appearance just as it is – as you well know, given that it's something that has made you feel insecure, and it's one of the things I've supported, defended and valued the most, so that you wouldn't change.

It was a joke with an absurd and sarcastic twist, referring to consumerism and festive celebrations – not a social study or a genuine criticism of women.

I was exaggerating to the point of mentioning Christmas or birthdays just to highlight how silly it all was. I'm sorry if it came across as hurtful or sexist; that wasn't my intention.

I recognise that what I said was poorly phrased and may seem like an attack on women, but that is not the case. I apologise for generalising so clumsily.

Besides, it's something that really makes no sense in the context of the conversation. I can say that many people in my close circle – and even Neus herself – know that I love the festive season and have always considered myself someone who enjoys giving presents.

This was evident when I visited her home on 26 December, where I gave presents not only to Neus but also to her parents – a pair of pyjamas from the official Real Madrid shop and a bracelet I'd bought in Turkey. And I made the trip despite having spent Christmas Eve two days earlier in hospital with my mother, as she had been admitted.

It wasn't the only time I gave her presents; the same thing happened when I travelled in September for no particular reason, giving her a pendant, a poem, a soft toy and other things, as well as presents on Valentine's Day and her birthday.

She, on the other hand, didn't give me an initial present at Christmas because she didn't know what I liked or might like after several months of being together.

Obviously, we don't all express love in the same way, and that was also a problem in the relationship; that doesn't mean, however, that despite her spontaneous gifts, she didn't show me her love.

In fact, on my Twitter and other social media accounts, you can see how I organise other local or national celebrations where gifts are usually given.

Neus: let's go on valentine's day 2025

it falls on a friday

and there's a holiday on monday

Cafy: (Replying to "let's go on valentine's day 2025") What is that

Ah

Neus: WHAT DO YOU MEAN

NOQENWBFOE

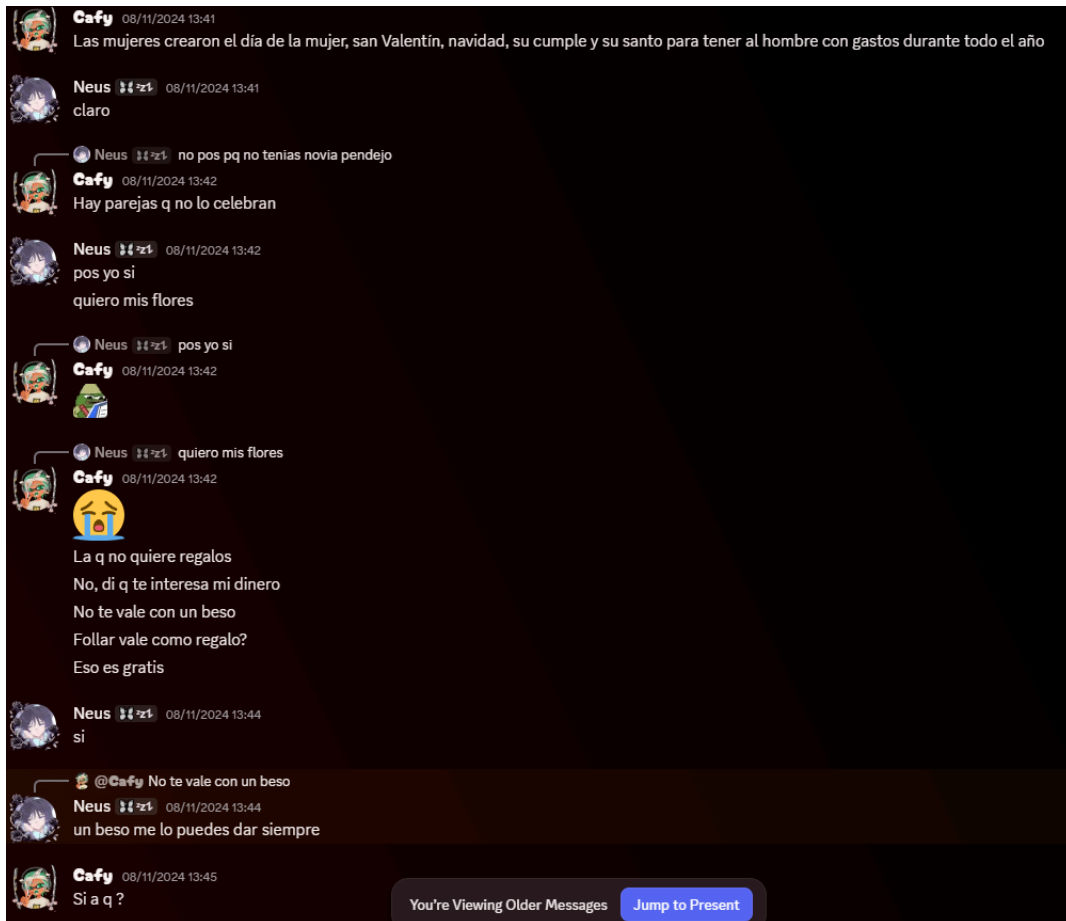

Cafy: I forgot it existed xd

It's just that I don't celebrate it

(Pepe the Frog drinking juice sticker)

Neus: well yeah cause you didn't have a girlfriend dumbass

XD.

Cafy: Women created Women's Day, Valentine's Day, Christmas, their birthday and their saint's day to keep men spending money all year long

Neus: right

Cafy: (Replying to "well yeah cause you didn't have a girlfriend dumbass") Some couples don't celebrate it

Neus: well I do

I want my flowers

Cafy: (Replying to "well I do") (Pepe the Frog sticker)

Cafy: (Replying to "I want my flowers") 🤔

"The one who doesn't want gifts"

No, just say you care about my money

A kiss isn't enough for you?

Does fucking count as a gift?

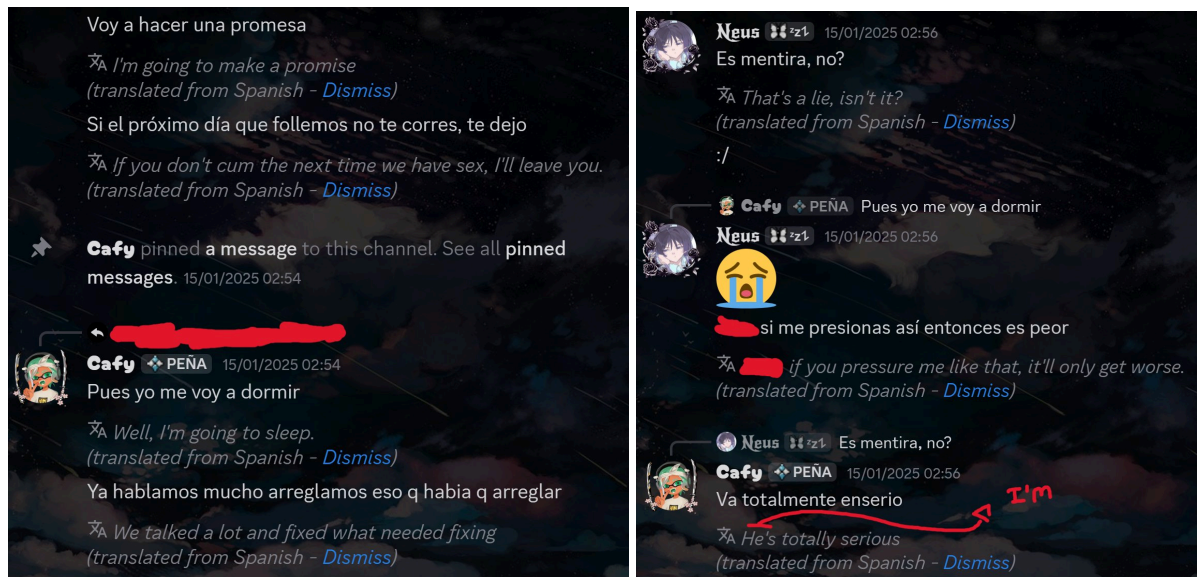

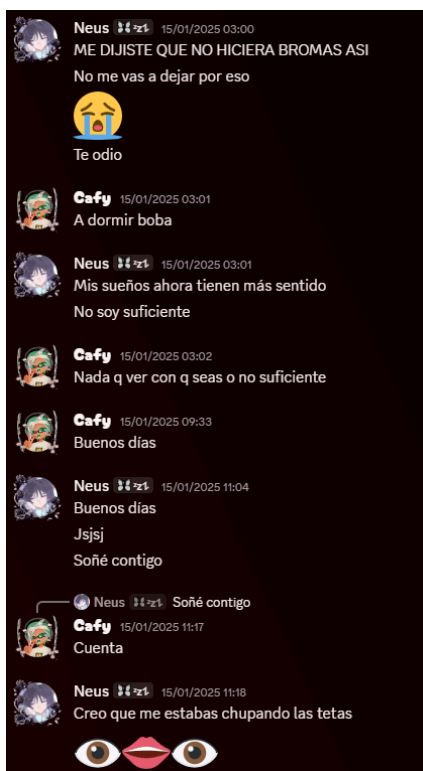

That's free

Neus: yes

Neus: (Replying to "A kiss isn't enough for you?") you can give me a kiss anytime

Cafy: Yes to what?

I fully acknowledge that that comment was inappropriate. I was trying to make a joke, a provocative remark, without thinking it through properly, but I didn't realise how hurtful and aggressive it sounded. No one should feel pressured in intimate situations, and I should never have put a relationship under that sort of pressure. I made a serious mistake in expressing myself that way, so I apologise.

I realise that what I wrote comes across rather badly, and quite rightly so. At the time, she was asking me to make the conversation a bit steamy. The mental strain from what happened last time came through in this conversation, and it was completely unfair of me to issue an ultimatum of that nature.

I want to apologise sincerely for what I said. Saying that 'I was completely serious' only intensified the pressure, and I know that's damaging to trust and intimacy. There's nothing wrong with you, nor do you have to meet any standard to be with me. It was a mistake on my part, and I fully understand how it affected you.

For his part, it was something he apparently didn't mind, as he said that, as he has told me many times, he dreams about things depending on how his day has gone. And on this occasion, it was clear that he didn't really attach much importance to it, as he knew, indirectly, that it was just one of my many out-of-place comments.

Image

Neus: YOU TOLD ME NOT TO MAKE JOKES LIKE THAT

You're not going to leave me because of that

I hate you

Cafy: Go to sleep silly

Neus: My dreams make more sense now

I'm not enough

Cafy: Nothing to do with whether you're enough or not

Cafy: Good morning

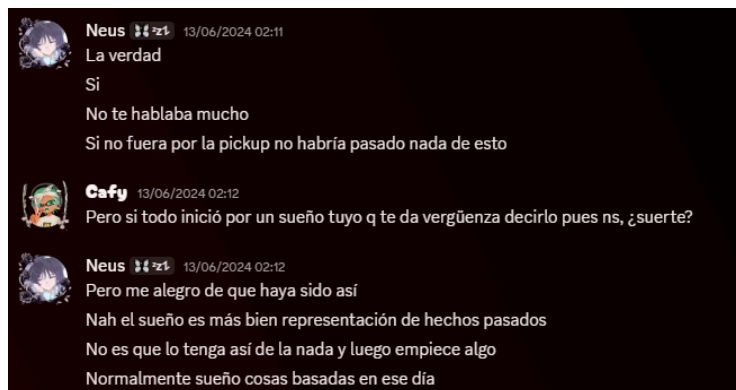

Neus: Good morning

Haha

I dreamed about you

Cafy: (Replying to "I dreamed about you") Tell me

Neus: I think you were sucking my tits

Neus: To be honest

Yeah

I didn't talk to you much

If it wasn't for the pickup none of this would have happened

Cafy: But if it all started because of a dream of yours that you're embarrassed to talk about then idk, luck?

Neus: But I'm glad it turned out like this

Nah the dream is more like a representation of past events

It's not like I just have it out of nowhere and then something starts

I usually dream about things based on that day

I'm genuinely surprised by the hatred that can be directed at you by someone with whom you once became close friends – especially when they've done absolutely nothing to you.

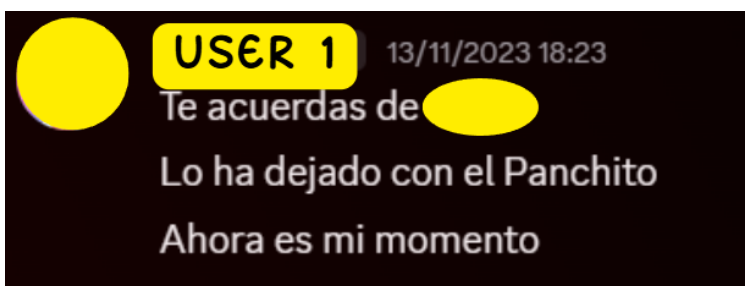

It's been a relief to you on several occasions to realise that you were one of the people who have shown me the most hatred, not only in public but also in private over the last few years, where your tolerance towards me is based on hatred for something that has nothing to do with you.

Personally, I've never blamed you for many things, but your behaviour has made a great many people around you realise that they don't feel comfortable with you.

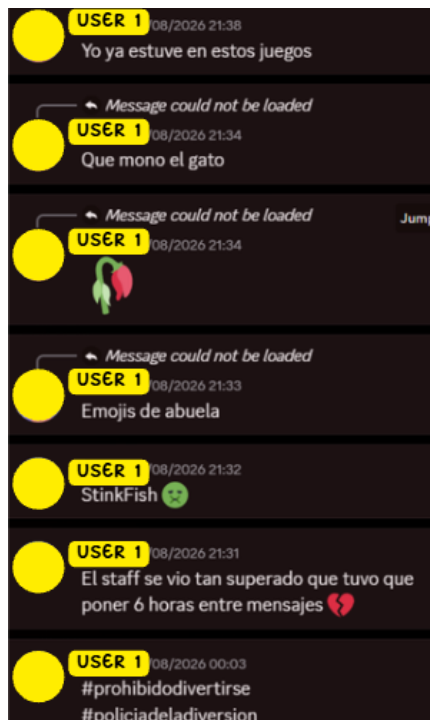

ojala se tomen las medidas necesarias, no podemos tolerar estos comportamientos

And it's not just me who says they see you as a manipulator, someone who turns out to be a negative influence.

I don't blame Neus for most of her actions; I blame you, because as far as I know, you're someone who has had a major influence on her behaviour.

And perhaps I deserve all the hatred that you and others have directed at me, but I've always kept my own views to myself, despite knowing the countless things you've told me and others about yourself and your deep-seated hatred towards me. You're the only person I've actually blocked, because you contradict yourself, manipulate others and have been criticising people based on other people's arguments for years. I've never hated you; it's just that you continue to disappoint me as a person day after day.

I could lump your case in with your friend's, but you're really the only person who's actually come back just to cause trouble and take advantage of second chances. As you well know, you've been banned from another community server; I was actually the only member of the P.E.Ñ.A. staff who wanted to keep making excuses for all your actions, but your misconduct is what confirmed that you're still holding on to the same attitudes. I know, or rather I still believe, that your public actions are really the work of a circle of influence that supports you in that regard. Because I don't really see you as a malicious person, just someone who doesn't take their online life seriously; obviously, that's your right, and it's mine to continue keeping in touch with you and your circle. I don't expect an apology for your behaviour, but if you were to offer one, I'd be willing to forgive you one day.

I honestly think words are superfluous when it comes to this image, which represents the sort of GIFs you used to send on one of my community servers.

It wasn't the only one – there were many – and you probably won't care now, but it's something that's already unacceptable, which you justify with your character and the way you behave on social media.

You didn't say anything in your tweets, but I know that, personally, you're happy with how things are going right now. I just wanted to mention you here so you know my DM is still open, but I won't let you ignore me again if we bring up that unresolved topic of conversation.

User 4

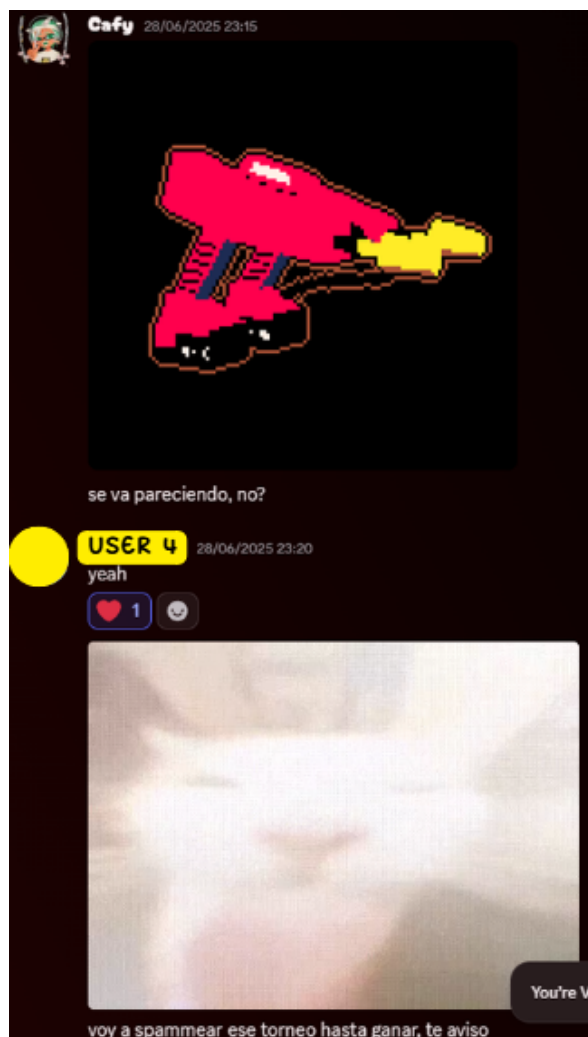

bro treats girls like this but then comes to my dms being a dick sucker asking to be suggested to + / victimizing himself to be brought to + screams, he's just an asshole and deserves to be excluded by other players, he just shows that he's an asshole and deserves to be alone

According to this post, there's a radical difference

espero que nunca llegues a high level

between your personality in DMs and in public. First of all, you're generalising as if I treated all women that way – comments that were made during an online relationship.

You're currently one of the few active high-level players who's Spanish and, objectively speaking, a good person. I don't think you can describe me as self-serving just because I've mentioned the odd problem to get you to play with me from time to time, as I've always helped and supported you in your competitive career; and just because I suggested it once – when you'd previously commented positively and I'd thanked you – you immediately assume I'm at that level.

You've seen for yourself that I've helped people in a positive way, and you were sometimes friendly towards me, but you never gave me the chance to play in a tournament; when I asked you about it, you ended up playing with other people because of their level, and you were certainly keen to get a badge I'd created; when you couldn't play in it due to your level, you looked for a way to 'help as a TO' – yet publicly you did nothing to help the organisation, of which you're no longer even a part, because they didn't give you the badge when you became a staff member.

A server where you only posted four messages in months, as the rest were just GIFs.

Using someone's comments to clear your team's record is completely irrelevant, given that I have not publicly said anything against your team.

I am, in fact, a staunch supporter who believes you are a cornerstone of your team; yet, despite this, the decisions the team has made over the last few months regarding the people who are currently part of your inner circle and myself have not been the right ones in terms of public image.

Firstly, it's worth noting that Neus has been active on your servers because it's an environment I'm not particularly familiar with; this was partly a factor in a decision that didn't affect me at first, but later on, with the subsequent influences that followed, it did. The fact that I've received messages where the mere mention of my name provokes hatred began after my split with Neus, continued with the addition of User 1 to your team, and culminated with User 2 and co. I'm not saying you can't interact with them, talk to them or have them around; the problem was simply the influence these people have had on the team – something that clearly affects me, as seen in tweets like yours, even though I haven't done anything to you directly.

I'm surprised to see that, following this, you're portraying me as the most prominent figure in the Spanish community when I haven't even claimed that myself. Because, in reality, the person who actually holds that influence has never taken the reins, as he himself states he lacks the ability, time and dedication to do so.

Coming back to you, you're the one I respect most at Starfish, and your tweets are surely just meant to blow the issue out of proportion. It hasn't bothered me that you're part of the group of people who planned this, but rather that they spread it across every possible server as if it were something illegal, or that you simply did it so that more people would see it. Regardless, I don't dislike you, and I don't think your attitude towards me will change, but my DMs are open to you for anything, just as they are for P.E.Ñ.A.

I've been looking back at our interactions over the years and, although there haven't been many, most of them have been positive. I don't think you're a bad person at all, but even though I don't know you very well, I know you take the hatred towards people who have hurt your close friends very personally, and I understand that. The Hispanic community doesn't usually speak out publicly about the things it sees, and so in recent weeks we've let people carry on playing and acting as if nothing had happened. But, just like User 5, I personally haven't done anything to you, but by stirring up scandals – despite being aware of and involved in the planned tweets – you've upset people and given a negative impression of yourself to many others who have nothing to do with competitive gaming: new players and casual players who aren't aware of the reasons behind your actions.

It doesn't bother me that you're putting your side of the story out there; ever since I joined the Hispanic community, I've always had the problem of people hating me without any basis, or based solely on a single perspective, as was the case with Epsilon.

The bans on P.E.Ñ.A., my server where you posted your copy-and-paste posts and personal opinion on the events before they were made public, were not my decision. Whilst it's said on Starfish that P.E.Ñ.A. is a dictatorship, there are many people who know this isn't the case, particularly the staff.

Well, I thought I was special, but it turns out that at the end of the day I'm not, I thought something good could come out of all this, that life was smiling at me with colgate teeth, but the only thing that will be hanging is me, because apparently I'm an idiot who thought something unique had happened to him. Auf Wiedersehen, Bonvoyage, Goodbye, Byeeee, Adiosuudios, I'm leaving the server realizing that I can't, I couldn't and I will never be able to be the prom queen, the school football captain, the most popular girl at East High, I'll just be a pink princess who could never fulfill her dream of being on the peña server...

Un drama de splatoon 😊 cafy es una persona aparte de splatoon, no fue el juego el que lo hizo un violador en potencia, un machista, un sexista, un misógino y un transfobico... Es él quien por experiencias de la vida es así y no parece que tenga ganas de cambiar así que lo → separate from Splatoon, it wasn't the game that made him a potential rapist, a sexist, a misogynist, and a transphobe... It is him who, due to life experiences, is like that and it doesn't seem like he feels like changing, so... "

It is clear that a game cannot justify people's behaviour. But accusations are one thing, and the truth is quite another. Do you really see my case as a violation? If that is the case, why not take legal action and actually prove what your words suggest, but you have no evidence because it doesn't exist. You are also exaggerating the seriousness of the matter by calling me a chauvinist, sexist, misogynist and transphobic – where do you see that sort of behaviour in the account of the relationship that you support?

You're someone I still respect, even though most of your views on these matters are private – whether they're negative or positive, as I've seen throughout our interactions – I'm partly surprised that you were part of the group that planned all this, but just as you were someone who changed your view of me on several occasions, and after an incident that affected us when we were a team, you saw that I'd matured and that's why you asked me to play Luti with the same people we played with in the Div 6 team.

I hope that, after reading this document, you will form your own opinion of me and let me know how you feel through your actions. Because, despite this tweet, you have continued to be someone who supported my projects and accepted my invitations. I have always treated you with respect, and that is why I ask the same of you.

Despite everything I know about you, it's really only Neus's perspective that doesn't match my personal view of your character.

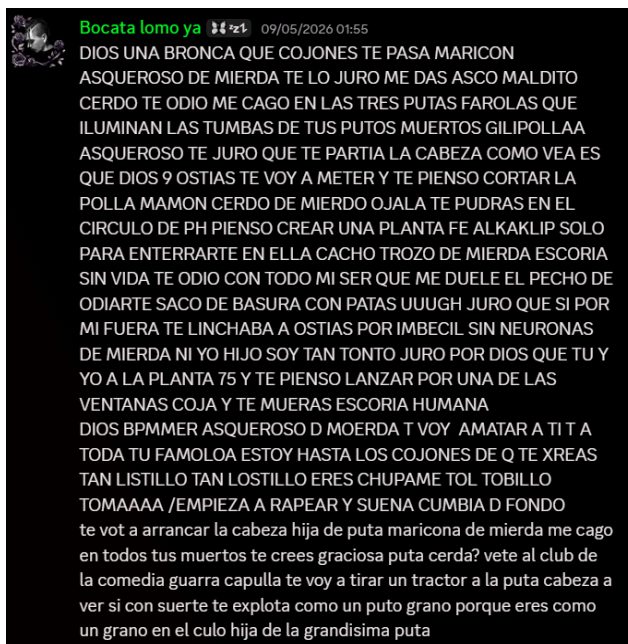

The fact that I was Neus's ex-partner for two years – and the person she claims has caused her trauma, dependency and emotional instability – was the topic of conversation whenever she was feeling down. Despite everything I know about you, I've given you plenty of chances to remain my friend; I've encouraged you and helped you to improve as a person and as a player, cheering you on every time you gave up the game because it didn't satisfy you and when you didn't make it into the top three; I always invited you first to my projects because I knew that with me, you were a different person, but talking to me was always secondary because the person you've always kept in touch with is Neus – the very same person who accuses you of being the biggest mistake of her life, yet she continues to speak to you because she can't let go of you, and your presence really was a problem in my relationship with her. I don't blame you for getting back in touch with her; I blame Neus because, even though she's aware that you caused her a great deal of pain, she's unable to learn to let go.

I always saw you as someone who, despite having an aggressive, somewhat selfish personality and a lack of mental stability, was my friend. After getting your logos, you left me behind, because, like many, you forget those who have helped you; but I ruled out taking this matter as seriously as others did, as you have since moved closer to the community again following your most recent identity theft in a tournament, amongst other things. Your friendship with Neus is something that benefits no one.

And I could carry on showing screenshots, but this is enough to illustrate what your relationship is like, despite the fact that you've been together for years.

This screenshot on the right shows a copy-and-paste message, one of the many he sends from time to time.

Image 1:

Cafy: But playing with me, what does that have to do with it?

Does it also happen to you when we play together?

I'm only worried about USER 8

Though at the same time no

Neus: Oh yeah

Cafy: But sometimes I worry about how you get when you talk about him, when you interact with him

Personal opinion

Initially, I hadn't planned to post this document, because – apart from my digital dignity and the prejudices others hold against me – it isn't something that has seriously affected my life off the internet. A key reason why it has taken me almost two weeks to put this document together is that currently, juggling two jobs and attending university takes up a lot of my time.

I can confirm that the images posted by Neus were not her sole doing; other users have claimed to have been aware of, or to have been involved in, planning the day, the date and the screenshots chosen to tarnish my image as much as possible as someone of some public relevance.

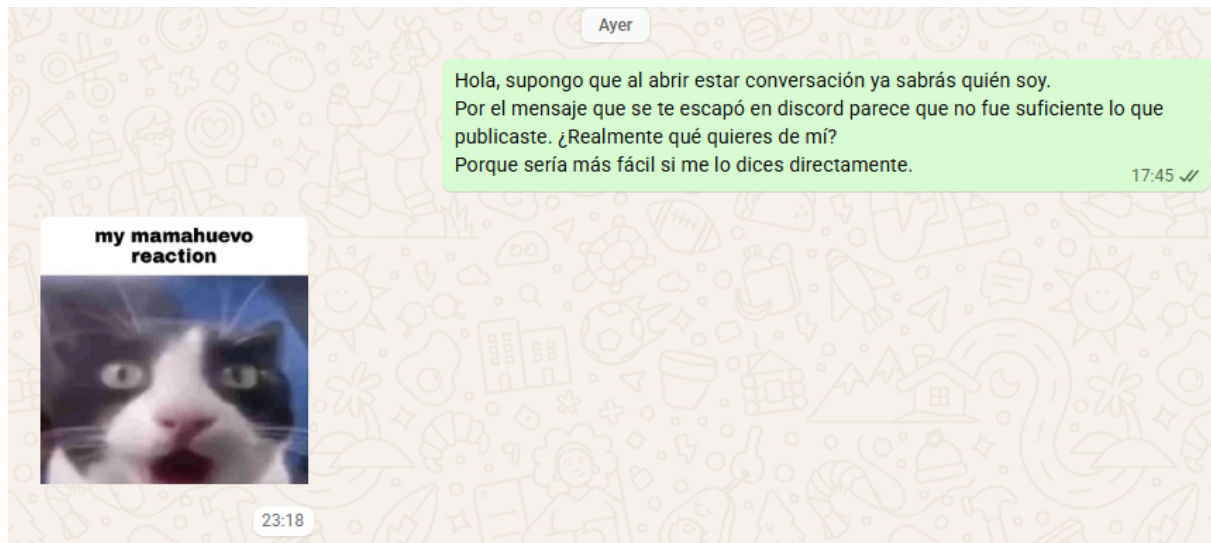

I cannot help but blame you; ultimately, it was your decision to publish all of that, and upon learning of this document, you have also decided to publish one – or at least that is what you are indirectly letting me know today by blocking me after I searched for a word that you accidentally sent in a direct message. I have been aware of this since June of this year.

My private messages have always been open; I know you're quite an easily influenced person, and I can tell you from the bottom of my heart that the influences you're under don't seem positive – not just for me, but for many others as well. What's more, I've been genuinely concerned by the number of people who've asked me to write this because, in their own words, they claim that your image should be tarnished just as mine has been.

I truly hope you'll be happy with whoever you're with now, or with whoever you choose to share your life with. I apologise once again for everything I've put you through, for making you feel bad so many times. And we both know that this document doesn't include all the hurtful things said by both of us during the relationship, but I don't think it's necessary any longer to continue airing in public something that benefits neither of us.

Deep down in my heart, I still believe that, beneath all this current hatred, you haven't forgotten the lovely times we shared together.

"Hi, I guess upon opening this conversation you'll know who I am. From the message you slipped up in discord it seems like what you posted wasn't enough. What do you really want from me? Because it would be easier if you tell me directly."

And she blocked me.

Este documento es una recopilación de pruebas iconográficas en español y traducidas al inglés por el traductor DeepL Translator de conversaciones sobre mi relación con Neus, @neus_az o antes @neus_spl en X/Twitter que han sucedido entre finales de 2024 e inicios de 2025, donde tuvimos una relación de pareja del 5 de agosto de 2024 al 04 de marzo 2025.

A pesar de que esta persona y yo nos hemos relacionado desde 2021 de manera irregular como amigos, el interés amoroso por parte de ella comenzó el 8 de mayo de 2025, donde hablábamos casi a diario durante todo el verano y nos vimos en persona por una quedada de comunidad que yo organicé con otras personas en su ciudad del 19 al 22 de julio de 2024.

Ella se declaró hacia mí el día 25 de julio, mientras yo estaba de viaje con amigos de la vida real en las Islas Baleares. Al principio yo rechacé (por el tema de la distancia, cerca de 1.000 km) esta declaración, pero luego tras contar la situación a mi círculo cercano acabé aceptando y se oficializó días después. La relación se puede dividir en varios apartados que se comentarán a continuación. Acabó el 4 de Marzo donde fui yo quien lo pidió tras varias discusiones a lo largo de los meses iniciadas por ella.

Este documento se creó con el fin de dar mi versión de los hechos por las capturas de partes de nuestra conversación privada que ya fueron mostradas con plena voluntad de manera pública el 28 de abril de 2026 y el 15 de septiembre de 2026, y a muchas personas de manera privada o en servidores no comunitarios de su círculo durante 2024, 2025 y 2026.

Durante el periodo de la relación no estaba integrado en la comunidad internacional, solo la española como un miembro más, tampoco tenía un servidor de la comunidad hispana (no existía P.E.Ñ.A. ni Ink Destiny Cult). Ambos eventos se dan meses después del final de la relación.

Todo lo escrito o mostrado aquí no expone el nombre real o en redes sociales de personas que han promocionado públicamente las imágenes con respecto a mi persona que no sean la mencionada anteriormente, pero sí de Grupos o equipos.

Todo lo mencionado a continuación da contexto sobre todo a las respuestas de tweets al final del documento.

Solo están enumeradas las imágenes que se adjuntan en el contexto de la relación. Eso no significa que las siguientes no tengan relevancia.

Antes de la Relación:

En Marzo de 2024 se creó Merequetengue, una Pick Up creada para ser Baneados del torneo Low Ink, entre los 5 miembros se encontraba Neus.

Tras la Low Ink de Marzo 2024 donde quedamos 5tos. Un grupo de personal comenzó a burlarse de mí mayormente y otro miembro del equipo por considerarnos Div 4 y no poder ganar la Low Ink (ellos no la ganaron), tras ellos la comunidad hispana salió a defendernos y se quedó en algo poco significativo a pesar de que los sucesos originales fueron meses antes pero yo me disculpe por privado ante su capitán. Recibí mensajes de apoyo de muchos excepto de ella.

En la Low Ink de Abril quedamos 2os tras perder 2-3 en la Grand Final Reset.

Algo con lo que toda la pickup estaba feliz incluyo yo pero ella no, cosa que me ha demostrado continuamente durante la relación.

Por motivos individuales de cada uno la Pick Up no se formalizó como equipo y cada uno se apuntó con gente diferente a LUTI 2 meses después.

En ese momento el principal servidor comunitario de comunidad española UCS, anunció premios por actividad en llamadas de discord dentro del server. El día 8 de Mayo de 2025 pasamos unas 9 horas de llamada en el servidor mayoritariamente solo los dos.

Aquel día ella me propuso fingir ser pareja, y realmente en aquel momento no le pedí explicaciones más allá del placer suyo de fingir ser algo, y ambos comenzamos a mostrarnos juntos, cambiandonos descripciones, fotos de perfil y apareciendo en llamadas de servidores juntos, entre otras cosas.

Con el paso del tiempo comentamos a la gente que preguntaba y amigos que no era verdad si no que era algo actuado, pero quisimos seguir actuando durante meses. Y yo lo hice por entretenimiento, antes de crear la Pick Up nuestra comunicación era bastante distante, ya que no hablábamos casi y mayormente era para tratar asuntos personales de ella o de la comunidad.

Neus en este momento era una de las figuras más conocidas en la comunidad, y lo logró así como muchos mantienen sus contactos y es no opinando públicamente sobre temas conflictivos, que es algo que personalmente no hago ya que suelo opinar, y siempre se me ha considerado un perfil polémico.

Meses después, y tras unos días de oficializar la relación real, le pregunté realmente el motivo.

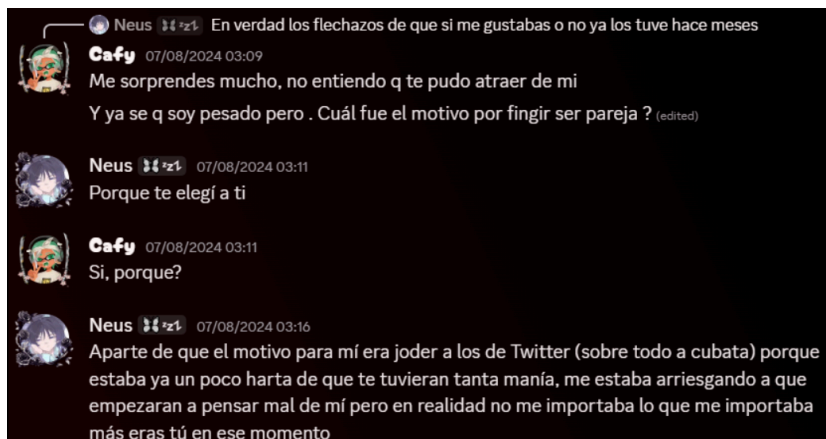

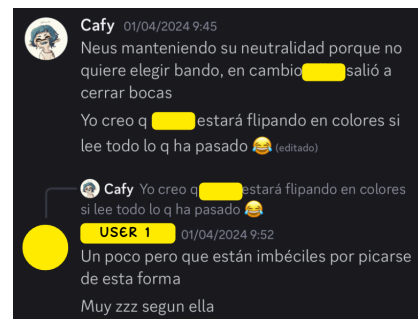

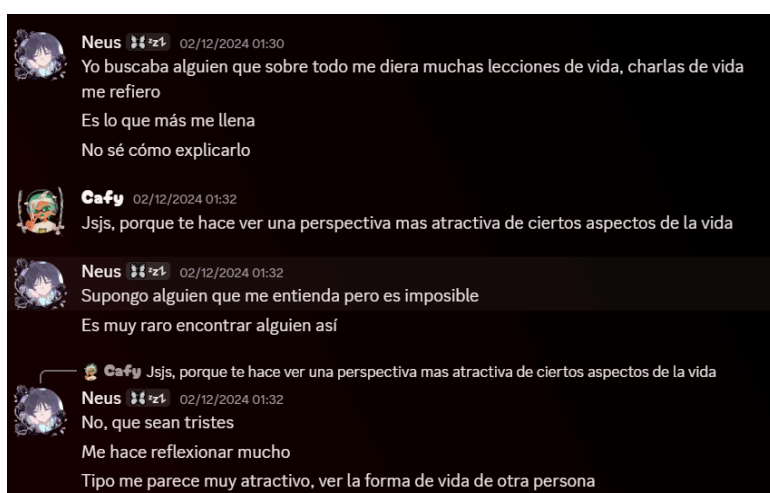

Imagen B

Imagen A

Y su respuesta inicialmente me dejó sorprendido, al ser conocidos de hace años. Que el motivo real sea “joder a los de Twitter (sobre todo a Cubata)” antiguo equipo competitivo que te ha apoyado cuando estabas en Merequetengue y a día de hoy lo sigue haciendo.

Equipo que un miembro tiene de pareja a una amiga tuya a la que la describes como una persona mala, de la cual no voy a poner capturas, al igual que su pareja, pero te sentías vinculada dado que ambas relaciones a distancia eran similares, porque ellas viven en la misma localidad y nosotros (los chicos) en la misma localidad. Y eso sin contar que un amigo cercano a ti de la comunidad fue pareja relativamente poco de ella y luego se fue con el chico de este equipo.

Por otro lado, ella justificó el interés de acercarse a mí ¿ por que le di darle una lección de aprendizaje sobre un juego?. ¿O porque le parecía una persona triste?

Imagen C.

Independiente de la manera de comprender, personalmente lo entendí como que ella me identificó como alguien que le puede dar muchas charlas de vida que pueda “llenarla” de más conocimientos o otras perspectivas. Y leyendo la captura se puede entender que Le atrae y reflexiona ver la forma de vida de otra persona que sean tristes.

Además de estos 2 motivos actualmente puedo añadir un 3r motivo.

Tal y como me comentó ella, debido a su/sus relaciones pasadas tiene muchos traumas. Uno de estos traumas es la necesidad de estar en llamada con alguien siempre. Durante el tiempo que fingimos ser pareja pasamos mucho en llamada. Una de las razones por las cuales ella pasaba bastante tiempo conmigo era porque en esas fechas un amigo cercano suyo con quien antes pasaba mucho tiempo y contaba sus cosas consiguió pareja y por lo tanto, pasamos demasiado tiempo juntos que fue lo que llevó a dejar de fingir y tener sentimientos.

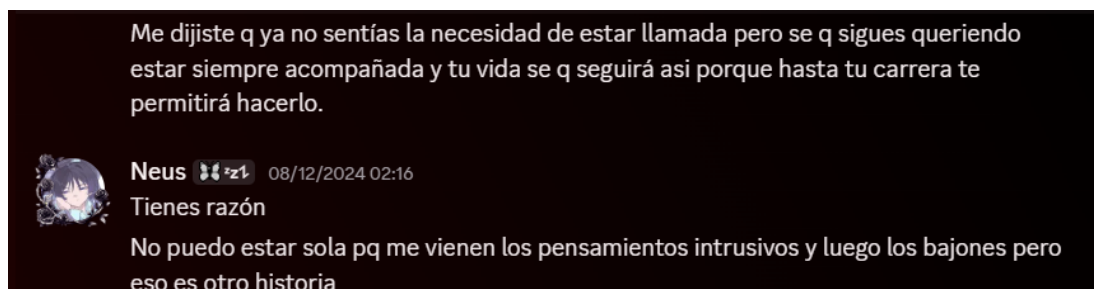

Imagen D.

Neus y yo nos habíamos visto solo una vez en el torneo Championship de Splatoon 3 en 2023 en su municipio, tras esa buena experiencia como comunidad española algunos decidimos realizar una quedada en ese mismo municipio, la cuál organizamos entre todos pero yo tenía que cuadrar el horario entre las personas que vinieron específicos días.

Imagen G

La quedada se realizó del 19 al 22 de julio. Fue una quedada genial, un problema en esta quedada fue que ella no quería relacionarse con todas las personas.

Inicialmente sólo iba a venir una sola tarde por sus padres, pero acabó viniendo todos los días, al parecer la dejaron venir siempre y esperaba a que las personas que le caían mal se fueran.

Luego me aclaró que ella podía siempre pero que fue por motivos específicos.

Una de las cosas que me hace afirmar este tercer motivo es un fragmento de conversación que se ocasionó a los días de oficializar nuestra relación.

“Mi prioridad sería buscar pareja para llenar ese vacío cuanto antes”

Imagen H.

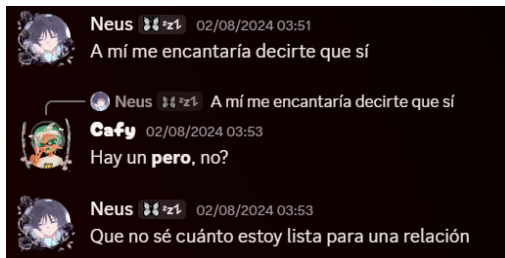

Durante todo este tiempo de mis vacaciones viajando por diferentes partes del país con diferentes amigos, ella se me declaró en mitad del viaje marcado como Menorca, algo que yo respondí que inicialmente que no por el tema de la distancia y que realmente nunca me había planteado verla como pareja dado que mi trato simplemente era mi respuesta al afecto que ella me mostraba y al trato que me daba, era algo que hacía inconscientemente y que sigo haciéndolo con mis amigos cercanos el tema de ayudarles.

Mi decisión se vió fácilmente destruida al ver en qué momento de mi vida me encontraba, un trabajo estable compaginable con estudios, dinero ahorrado y que me ha permitido hacer viajes y la satisfacción de disfrutar de vacaciones laborales, realmente en la época de estos viajes sentía mucho felicidad en miles de aspectos que me hacían disfrutar todo, también tenía a mi gato de meses adoptado 2 meses atrás que me hacía extrañar la rutina.

Su mensaje que no pondré aquí fue cerca de las 2 de la madrugada donde ella aclaraba sus sentimientos hacia mí, las relaciones a distancia como he podido comprobar no son lo mío, en aquel momento también tenía un amigo que me convenció de escuchar a mi corazón y viendo que podía aguantar estar tiempo sin hablar y vernos unas cuantas veces al año con mi economía.

A los días de mi rechazo, yo me abrí a ella y le expresé lo que en verdad sentía y ella aceptó, aclaramos algunas dudas antes de oficializarlo y dejar de fingir (ya que seguíamos fingiendo) y tras todo ellos comenzamos la relación.

Durante la Relación:

La relación comenzó el 1 de agosto de 2024 tras mi declaración pero no la oficializamos hasta el 5 de agosto de 2024 que fue cuando ella la aceptó formalmente.

Esos días fueron un periodo donde ella me preguntaba constantemente el motivo del cambio y que no se sentía lista para una relación.

Imagen I.

A pesar de formalizarlo, tengo conocimiento y pruebas de que su grupo de amigos nunca ha estado a favor de la relación, y en parte mi grupo de amigos tampoco.

Por parte de sus amigos por tema de interés mío dado que colocaban a Neus como alguien inalcanzable para mi, y que yo me aproveché de la situación.

¿Aprovecharme cuando ella me pidió fingir ser pareja para “joder” a gente de su entorno además de luego de durante 3 meses ir detrás de mi soltando pequeños piropos y ligando conmigo para luego declararse?

Esta misma gente que dijo lo mencionado de antes es la misma que le recomendó a ella probar con chicos. Y puedo adjuntar pruebas que Neus ha estado o intentado ligar/estar con más de 10 personas de la comunidad, dado que todas sus relaciones que ella buscaba hasta el momento eran a distancia y con su lista de amigos de Splatoon.

Yo hasta el momento ella solo me había comentado que había estado con 2 personas a las que ellas son las únicas que reconoce como relaciones “oficiales” que ella confirma que le causaron traumas, muchos traumas los cuales yo me propuse ayudarla a pasarlos juntos pero ella no quería, no podía o no debaja que la ayudará y sinceramente suponía un desgaste mental.

La relación inicialmente no empezó como algo bonito y sin inconvenientes, como ya habíamos hablando durante varios meses ya se sentía algo cotidiano. Ella comentó que prácticamente no cambiaba su manera de ser de amigos a pareja, y personalmente no podía considerar mis anteriores relaciones como tal pero obviamente me conozco como persona y se mis gustos por lo cual se que cambió mi manera de ser.

El hecho de que la relación fuera a distancia y fuera por discord no cambiaba mucho con respecto a los últimos meses sobre nuestra relación, nuestras interacciones obviamente eran de pareja con lo típico.

La relación se divide básicamente en 2 partes.

Desde un inicio de la relación yo buscaba la posibilidad de acercarme de nuevo en persona y dado que tenía un trabajo estable me podía permitir comprar viajes, algo que sucedió el día 28 de Septiembre. Hasta esa fecha realmente no hubo muchos problemas en relación, simplemente íbamos conociéndonos en profundidad, algo por lo cual yo me interesaba mucho más, y conocí parte de su pasado, sus problemas, malas experiencias, gustos...

Mi comportamiento al paso de los días desde el inicio se volvía más vulgar, y realmente fui la única mala persona en la relación, ya que mis comentarios y mis palabras realmente eran sin filtro, no solía pensar lo que decía y simplemente comentaba lo primero que se me venía a la cabeza lo cuál era algo a veces positivo y a veces negativo, solía hacer comentarios de mal gusto, exagerados y fuera de lugar.

Siempre fui consciente de mi manera de ser, y no me disculpaba hasta que veía que era algo que realmente rompía la relación. La falta de comunicación era mayormente lo que creaba el problema, ella al ser una persona reservada con los problemas que surgían y yo al ser alguien que al comentar sin filtro no valoraba el impacto que realmente mis palabras podían causar y eso me hacía tener la conciencia limpia en ese momento.

Mayormente cuando contaba mis problemas y no quería estar con ella pasaba tiempo como lo he pasado siempre, metido en mis cosas, sin molestar a nadie porque así me educaron. Ya le comenté que mis padres son latinos y la enseñanza allí es diferente, los padres y la cultura sigue actualmente machista, lo que implica que mis pensamientos tienen una base relacionada al pensamiento de mis padres por lo que me ha inculcado en años.

Volviendo a la relación, yo hasta noviembre de 2024 tenía un trabajo que me impedía algunas semanas estar disponible por tarde y noche, durante el inicio de la relación su amigo que tenía pareja dejó de tenerla, y ambos volvieron a retomar contacto mucho más frecuente lo que llevaba a sentirme mal en la relación, dado que la mayoría de veces que le pedía estar con ella, ella siempre estaba en llamada con sus amigos, algo que ella no buscaba solucionar, esa dependencia a estar siempre con alguien, algo que me molestaba mayormente porque ella no solía pedirme estar en llamada porque siempre suponía que yo estaba ocupado o que prefería hacer cosas, algo que no tenía sentido ya que cada día le dedicaba tiempo.

En diciembre decidí crear un servidor entre nosotros, ella siempre veía a alguno de sus amigos conectados y con ellos tenía esa confianza pero conmigo no. Además me comentó que muchas veces en las que se sentía triste iba con ellos para animarse, algo a lo que me comentaba que no la podía ayudar. Y siempre volvía recuperada, siempre me dió a entender que sus tristeza es pasajera.

El servidor no funcionó mucho más de una semana porque ella no se sentía cómoda viéndome solo en llamada (algo que hacía para darle a entender que estaba disponible y que solucionaba ese miedo a incomodarse). El servidor no duró mucho y tras pláticas sobre temas importantes, pasaron unos días. En esas fechas compré los vuelos para pasar 4 días en su casa después de navidad, y dormir en su casa donde conocería a sus padres, perro y familia.

El 13 de diciembre Neus se cambió su nombre en discord a la traducción en Chino, personalmente no lo comprendí y le pregunté porque quería aparentar ser. Este tema creó un gran conflicto que junto a los anteriores problemas el 14 de diciembre ella decidiera romper conmigo.

Tras destacar todos los aspectos negativos por mi parte de la relación y yo ir detrás de ella pidiendo perdón ella accedió a seguir con la relación. Algo que me comentó días después es que esa decisión fue tomada por sugerencia de todo su círculo incluso su madre. Neus antes de decirme de acabar la relación, le dijo a todo su círculo que ya lo había dejado conmigo. Después de acceder a seguir con la relación de pareja, ella no quiso volver a hacerlo público en su descripción de Discord (teníamos la fecha del inicio de la relación) y quería mantener la relación privada, no quería comentarle a sus amigos que finalmente no había tomado esa relación ni a sus padres. Algo que finalmente hizo y con los que su entorno no estaba conforme. Con respecto al viaje yo ofrecí la vía de no alojarse en su casa pero sus padres al final accedieron, y hasta inicios de año la cosa se calmó.

Desde esa quedada llegué a profundizar sobre su vida y día a día. Pero tras volver comencé a sentir las cosas diferentes, realmente comencé a dejar de sentir amor por ella porque las conversaciones dejaron de ser lo de antes. La mayoría de semanas comenzamos a discutir, Neus siempre destacaba todo aquello que seguía siendo negativo por mí, mis defectos, mi empatía y mi manera de ser, mi trato, y día tras día me di cuenta que ella buscaba la satisfacción emocional de ser suficiente, ser alguien que daba todo por una relación que se caía a pedazos únicamente por mi culpa, y yo siempre pedí disculpas, dándole esperanzas de que había cambiado, y lo seguía haciendo.

Por su parte ella a pesar de viajar casi todas las semanas entre municipios, no podía o no la dejaban venir a mi ciudad, venir a mi hogar, justificando que le daba miedo, que sus padres no confiaban en mí y que no vivía en un lugar seguro, a pesar de que ellos me dijeron que era una buena persona.

Por mi parte me costó meses convencer a mis padres para viajar a la casa de ellos, una familia desconocida a cientos de kilómetros de casa. Tras la última visita a su municipio en diciembre quería que ella conociera a mis padres viendo a mi casa. En estas fechas tenía unos ahorros para viajar pero ella siempre puso pegas, algo que no entendía porque justamente este año ella viajó por toda Europa solo con amigas y a otra ciudad a estudiar a la cual viajaba sola cada semana. Me ofrecí a cubrir los gastos pero me dió a entender que realmente no tenía intención de venir a mi ciudad, por miedos a volar, entre otros.

A finales de febrero prefería hablar por whatsapp por que era una aplicación que ambos sentíamos más personal que discord, y habíamos usado solo para cuando viajaba y cosas puntuales. Desde ese momento hasta el 4 de Marzo no hubo casi problemas, se volvía a sentir que la relación volvía al inicio, pero como yo deje de sentir lo mismo por ellas propuse dejar la relación. Algo que ella me hizo esperar un rato de manera extraña y acceder y pidiéndome perdón por supuestamente no estar a mi altura y sentirse insuficiente, algo que yo en ningún momento le dije, en las discusiones nunca la menosprecie, me limitaba a disculparme continuamente de mis errores.

Después de la relación

La inscripción de LUTI donde me inscribí con Neus y otros amigos acabó la última semana de febrero y el inicio de la Season 16 fue el día antes de acabar la relación, ambos estábamos inscritos en un equipo con un roster de 7 personas. Ella tranquilamente podía salir del equipo pero no lo hizo.

Nuestras interacciones se limitaban a las conversaciones solo sobre el torneo, algo personalmente no me incomodó. Y tras la derrota por 5-0 en la primera semana aproveché para sincerarme y proponer dropear porque realmente solo metí a mis amigos para jugar con ellos y el ambiente con otra persona del grupo hacía que no querían jugar.

Tras la primera semana de LUTI, Neus me escribió por privado para darme respuesta a las cosas que quedaron pendientes de nuestra última conversación y nos comentamos como estábamos pasando la relación.

A partir de ahí comenzamos a volver a retomar el contacto dado que ella me pedía ayuda para su proyecto de crear torneo, algo donde al principio se sintió bien hasta que me pidió que moderáramos solo nosotros 2, algo que me sorprendió y que no estaba de acuerdo porque eso implica que seguiríamos teniendo un contacto muy cercano, algo le comenté y discutimos.

Tras ese día, el 25 de marzo de 2025, se salió del grupo de LUTI, me bloqueó de redes durante un tiempo. A lo largo de los días me confirmaron que me habían sacado de un servidor en común, un equipo competitivo que estaba empezando, donde ella se pasaba muy activa dado que interactuaba muchísimo con alguien de ese equipo.

Durante 1 mes hasta el 19 de abril de 2025 me comentaron muchas personas con las que hablaba que estaban dentro del servidor donde me sacaron, cosas que ella y sobre todo un amigo suyo decían sobre mí, pidiendo que no hablaran conmigo por muchos motivos. Como por ejemplo que yo abusé de ella, algo que es totalmente mentira.

Este día le envié un mensaje expresando mis disculpas iniciales a los acontecimientos pasados y explicando más en profundidad el motivo por el cual dejé la relación. Este texto ayudó a que dejará de recibir tantos dms o comentarios acerca de lo que decían. Aun así decidí ayudarlo en su primer torneo dado que con mi equipo se llegó al mínimo necesario para celebrarlo.

Durante mayo, junio e inicios de julio me interesé en los torneos de la comunidad, creé mi primera badge el 10 de mayo y conseguí los permisos para torneos semanas después y de ahí cree un torneo gimmick y el 6 de junio de 2025 fue el estreno. A mediados de junio se unió en un grupo donde yo era frecuente para jugar con amigos en un torneo en una fecha que no podía jugar yo. A partir de entonces solo interactuamos de vez en cuando hasta que volvió a enviarme un mensaje privado para pedirme las fotos que me pasó durante la relación.

Para estas fechas me habían llegado noticias que estaba con un chico (otro chico de la comunidad) algo que ella solo me comentó que no era oficial pero luego en redes fijó una fecha anterior a la del mensaje. Además de estar interesada en cosas que publicaba como flores a pesar de tenerme bloqueado

Durante estas fechas pedí a los amigos que dejarán de decirme cosas sobre ella porque la verdad que era algo ya agotador, dado que las cosas me comentaban no me aportan.

En Agosto, dado la mala calidad competitiva que muchos jugadores de mid level veíamos, decidimos crear yo y otra persona un servidor exclusivo de low level hispano el 16 de agosto. Algo que funcionó con nuestros torneos. Al principio excluimos a los jugadores que no eran low level, como es el caso de Neus y otros jugadores, pero tras un par de meses les enviamos mensajes privados ya que volvimos el servidor en uno de comunidad sin restricciones. A la vez mis torneos de la comunidad internacional se volvieron una organización internacional en Octubre de 2025.

Estos dos proyectos que comenzaron en el verano del 2025 son ajenos a la relación pero marcan el trayecto con más reconocimiento de mi nombre en la comunidad.

La última interacción entre Neus y yo fue simplemente felicitarse por el nuevo año 2026.

No soy un santo, creo que es algo obvio, y admito que si he tratado a neus de mala manera, así como los tweets que ella misma ha publicado como en estas siguientes imágenes. Estas corresponden al motivo y la casi ruptura que se originó el 14 de diciembre. Fecha en la cual mi viaje de finales de septiembre ya estaba pagado.

Actualmente no tengo esta misma mentalidad y a pesar de que el dilema originó aquí he llegado a comprender durante este tiempo que mi comportamiento en este asunto es completamente inaceptable dado que tiene nada de coherencia mis argumentaciones

Conversaciones del final de la relación

Todas las capturas son a partir de la ruptura de nuestras conversaciones privadas. Neus no fue alguien que me odiará ni yo a ella, pedí disculpas por todo lo malo de la relación, algo que ella en ese momento no veía como daño hacia su persona, cosa que actualmente parece que sí.

Neus 14/03/2025 12:16

Antes de responder a algunos de los tweets agradezco el interés de tus amigos por hacerme llamadas de acoso e insultos cuando tus publicaciones comenzaron a tener visitas. (ironía).

Respuestas de las capturas de pantalla

Caso 1:

Contexto: hablamos de que ella viniera a mi ciudad y el peligro de ir de noche.

No estoy defendiendo que se dé un beso o que se incomode a alguien sin su aprobación; es vital reconocer y respetar los límites de cada individuo.

Lo que quería resaltar es que a veces considero complicado el análisis sobre las penalizaciones legales o sociales que se sufren en estos casos, sobre todo en España.

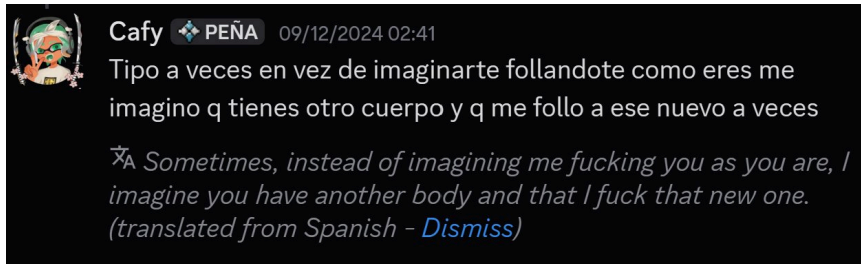

Tal vez no expresé correctamente el concepto, pero no apoyo la falta de consideración. Comprendo por qué mi mensaje pudo parecer insensible y lamento si se percibió de esa forma. Soy consciente de que el acoso y los comportamientos no consentidos tienen un impacto grave en las personas y más fuerte en las mujeres.

Mi observación estaba dirigida a analizar el peso de la legislación y las denuncias, no a desestimar las emociones de quienes enfrentan una situación incómoda o injusta. Como alguien que estudia material jurídico.

Cuando se basa una denuncia en violencia de género en España deja de existir la presunción de inocencia (esto es el derecho a ser tratado como inocente hasta que se demuestre lo contrario) si se trata de un caso donde una mujer acusar a un hombre de algo de este ámbito, donde incluye el caso del beso por ejemplo.

Pero ese fragmento no va de acuerdo con la conversación, admito que fue un comentario basado en la frustración de ver que Neus durante 2025 y 2026 ha viajado con amigas suyas en un grupo reducido por toda Europa (lugares mucho más lejos que la distancia entre nuestras ciudades) y hace viajes en tren semanales por la universidad sola a otra ciudad y sus padres no la dejan ir a mi ciudad. Hay varios motivos pero nunca llegó a solucionarlo, a pesar de yo proponer soluciones nunca se dió el caso.

No mostraré el contexto porque básicamente se trata de un momento de Sexting entre ambas personas a las 2:41 AM.

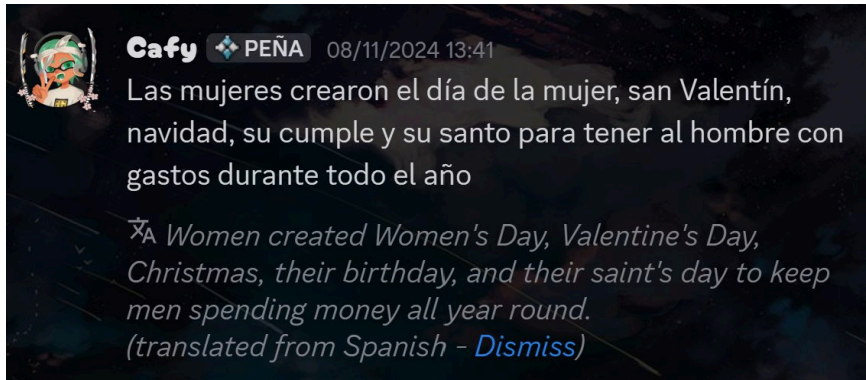

Comprendo que leer eso pueda haber sido impactante o doloroso, sin embargo, no indica que no me sintiera interés o atracción. A veces, la imaginación genera fantasías o 'juegos mentales', pero lo que se crea en la mente es diferente de la realidad y de mis verdaderos sentimientos hacia ti.

Lamento si mi comentario te hizo sentir incómodo o inseguro/a así como lo hice en su momento. Fui demasiado directo al expresar un pensamiento del momento sin considerar cómo podría tomarlo. No fue mi intención hacerte pensar que tu físico no me agrada o que no me atraes.

Ese pensamiento fue simplemente una curiosidad mental sobre posibilidades o situaciones hipotéticas, pero realmente me gustas tal como eres. Si decidí compartirlo fue por confianza y para hablar de aspectos mentales, no para compararte o menospreciar.

Durante toda la relación siempre he valorado y apreciando tu físico natural tal y como es y como tu bien sabes dado que es algo que te ha hecho sentir insegura y es uno de las cosas que más te he apoyado, defendido y valorado para que no cambiaras.

Caso 3

Era una broma con un toque absurdo y sarcástico referida al consumismo y a las festividades, no un estudio social ni una crítica real hacia las mujeres.

Estaba exagerando hasta el punto de mencionar la Navidad o los cumpleaños para hacer notar que se trataba de una tontería. Lamento si sonó hiriente o sexista, esa no era mi intención.

Reconozco que lo expresado está mal planteado y puede parecer un ataque contra las mujeres, pero no es así. Pido disculpas por haber generalizado de manera tan torpe.

Además es algo que realmente no tiene nada de sentido en la conversación. Puedo decir que muchas personas de mi círculo cercano e incluso Neus sabe que amo las fiestas y siempre me he considerado una persona que le gusta regalar cosas.

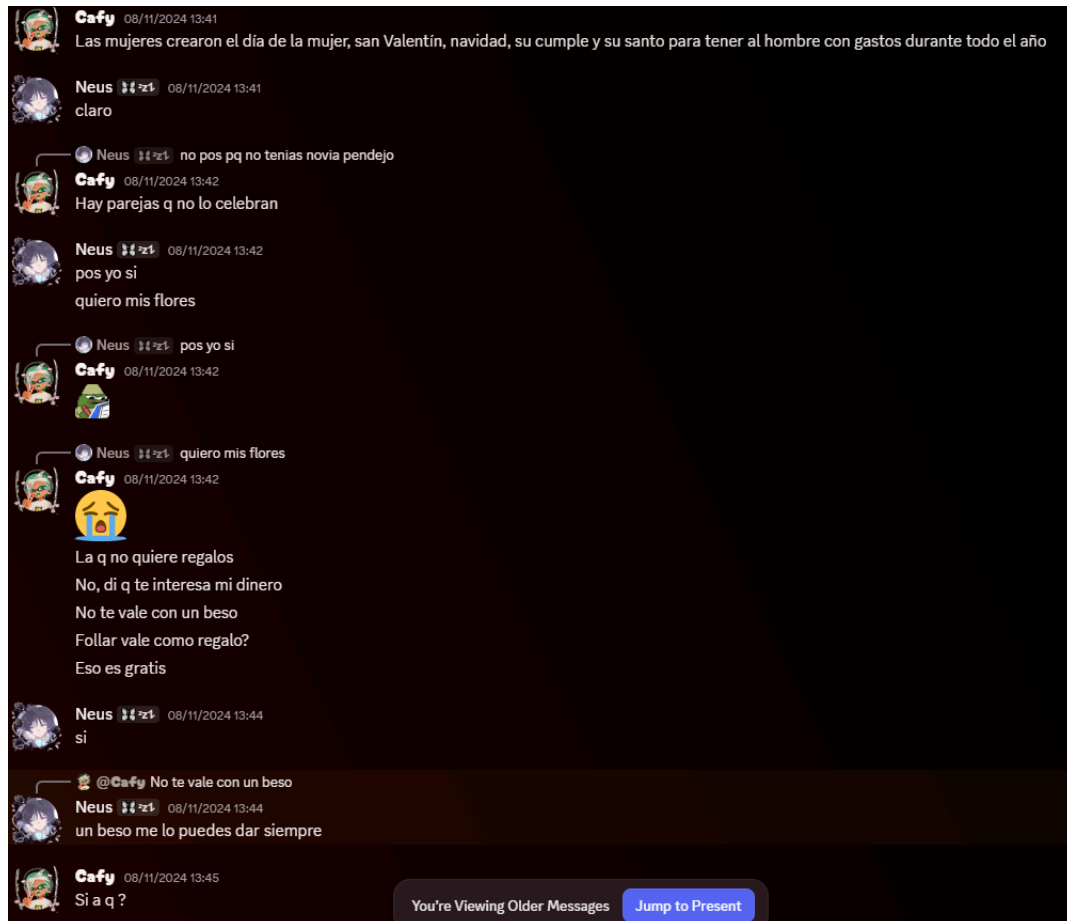

Así como se vió reflejado cuando hice mi viaje a su casa el 26 de diciembre, dondé no solo le hice regalos a Neus si no a sus padres, un pijama de la tienda oficial del Madrid y una pulsera comprada en Turquía. Además de viajar cuando 2 días antes pase nochebuena en el hospital con mi madre porque estaba ingresada.

No fue la única vez que le hice regalos a ella, así fue cuando viaje en septiembre sin motivo alguno de regalos, dándole un colgante, un peluche y más cosas, al igual que regalos en San Valentín y su cumpleaños.

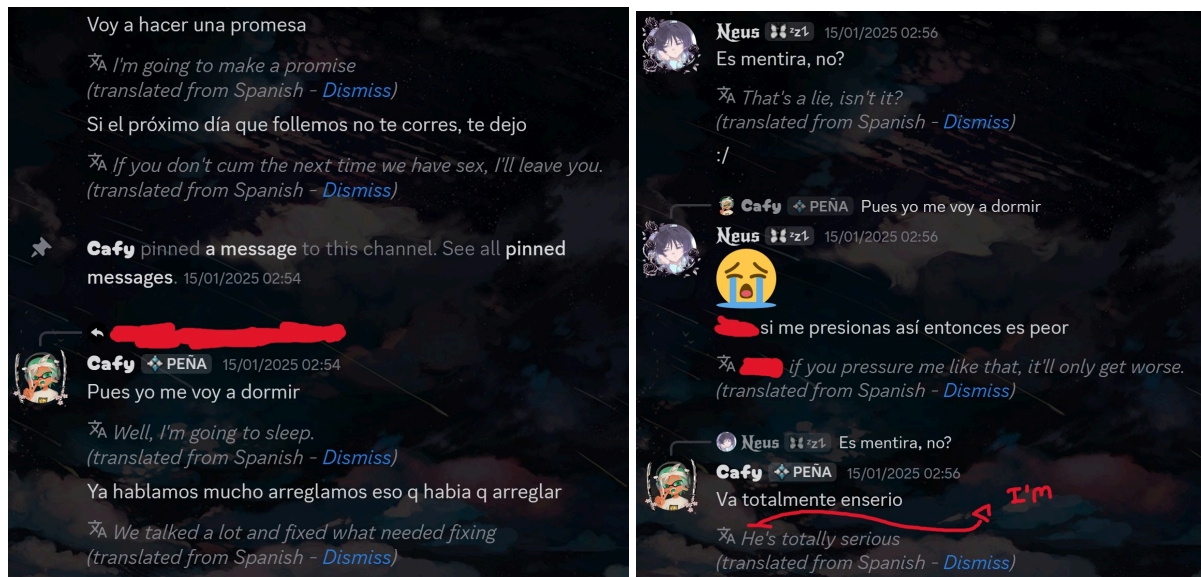

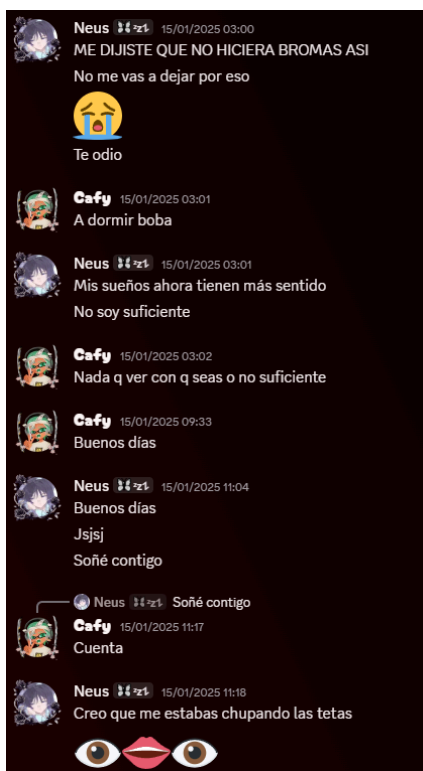

Ella por otro lado en navidad no dió un regalo inicial porque ella no sabía que me gustaba o que podría gustarme después de meses de relación.

Obviamente no todos expresamos el amor de la misma manera y eso también fue un problema en la relación, eso no significa que a pesar de sus regalos hechos por espontaneidad no me hayan mostrado su amor.

De hecho en mi twitter en mi redes sociales se puede ver como cerebro otras fiestas locales o nacionales donde se suelen dar regalos

Caso 4

Reconozco plenamente que ese comentario fue inapropiado. Intenté hacer una broma, un comentario provocador sin pensarlo adecuadamente, pero no comprendí cuán dañino y agresivo sonaba. Nadie debería sentir presión en la intimidad, y jamás debería condicionar una relación de esa manera. Cometí un grave error al expresarme así que pido disculpas.

Soy consciente de que lo que escribí se ve bastante mal, y con toda razón. En ese momento ella pedía que convirtiera la conversación en algo horny. La presión mental de lo sucedido la última vez se mostró en esta conversación y fue completamente injusto de mi parte emitir un ultimátum de esa naturaleza.

Quiero disculparme sinceramente por lo que dije. Afirmar que "iba completamente en serio" solo intensificó la presión, y sé que eso es perjudicial para la confianza y la cercanía. No hay nada malo en ti, ni tienes que cumplir con un estándar para estar a mi lado. Fue un error de mi parte, y comprendo perfectamente cómo te afectó.

Por su parte fue algo que aparentemente no le importó dado que expresa que así como me ha comentado muchas veces sueña cosas según como ha sido su día. Y este día mostró que fue algo que realmente no le dio mucha importancia, ya que sabía indirectamente que era uno de mis múltiples comentarios fuera de lugar.

Neus  13/06/2024 02:11

La verdad

Si

No te hablaba mucho

Si no fuera por la pickup no habría pasado nada de esto

Cafy 13/06/2024 02:12

Pero si todo inició por un sueño tuyo q te da vergüenza decirlo pues ns, ¿suerte?

Neus  13/06/2024 02:12

Pero me alegro de que haya sido así

Nah el sueño es más bien representación de hechos pasados

No es que lo tenga así de la nada y luego empiece algo

Normalmente sueño cosas basadas en ese día

Realmente me sorprende el odio que puede desprender una persona con la cual en algún momento llegas a ser amigos cercanos, y sobre todo, cuando directamente no te hice nada.

Siento una ayuda para ti en varios momentos, ver que eras de las personas que más odio me han mostrado no solo a nivel público si no a nivel privado durante estos últimos años, donde tu tolerancia conmigo se basa en un odio sobre algo ajeno a ti.

Personalmente nunca te he culpado de muchas cosas pero tu manera de ser ha hecho consciente a muchísimas personas de tu entorno, que no se sienten cómodas contigo.

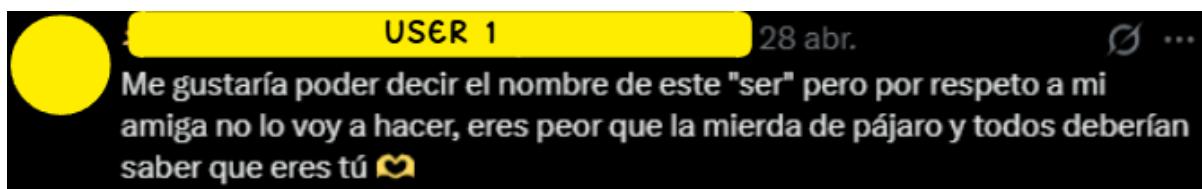

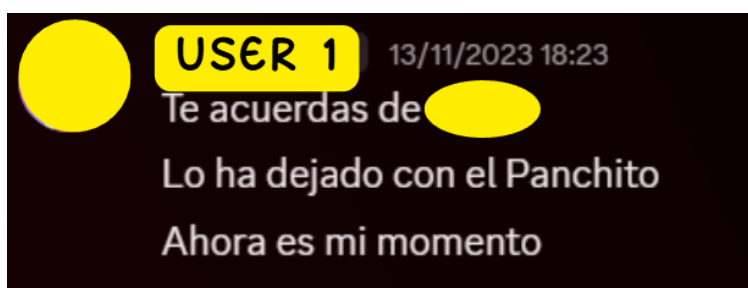

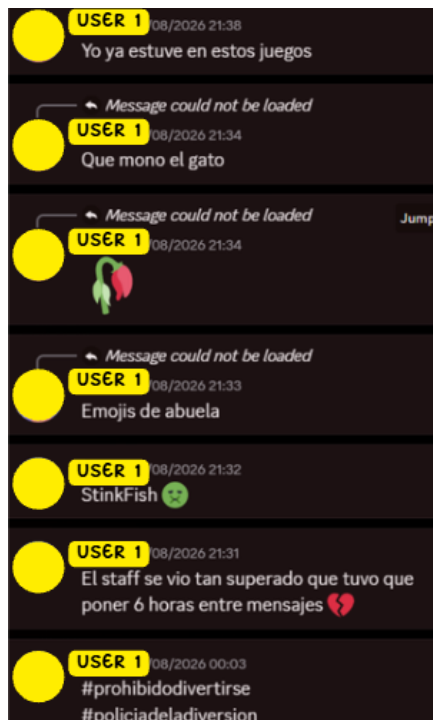

Imagen , y . Tweets

Y no son palabras mías quienes me dicen que te ven algún manipulador, una persona que resulta ser una influencia negativa.

No culpo a Neus por la mayoría de sus acciones, te culpo a ti, siempre desde mi conocimiento eres una persona que ha influenciado mucho su comportamiento.

Y puede que me merezca todo el odio que tu y otras personas me han dado, pero yo siempre había mantenido mi versión privada, a pesar de conocer las miles de variedades que me has dicho y contado a los demás sobre ti y realmente tu odio profundo hacia mi. Eres la única persona a quien realmente tengo baneado, ya sea porque te contradices, manipulas a los demás y críticas con fundamentos ajenos durante años. Yo nunca te he odiado, solo que me siguen decepcionando como persona día tras día.

#TakeDownPeña2026 fui víctima del movimiento baneo de su servercito solamente por la unicidad de mi personalidad #NoMásVíctimas

Podría juntar tu caso con el de tu amigo, pero realmente la única persona que realmente ha vuelto solo para entretenerse y abusar de las segundas oportunidades. Como tu bien sabes estas vetado de algún otro servidor comunitario, realmente fui la única persona del Staff de P.E.Ñ.A. que quería seguir justificando todos tus actos, pero tú abuso de conducta fue quien respaldó que sigues manteniendo las mismas actitudes. Tus movimientos públicos sé o sigo pensando que realmente son actos de un círculo de influencia que te apoya en ese sentido. Porque realmente no te veo como alguien malvado, solo alguien que no se toma la vida digital como algo serio, obviamente estás en tu derecho, y yo en el mío de seguir manteniendo contacto contigo y con tu entorno. No espero disculpas por tu comportamiento, pero si llegaras a hacerlo realmente estaré dispuesto a perdonarte algún día.

Sinceramente creo que sobran las palabras con esta imagen que representa el tipo de gifs que mandabas en un servidor comunitario mío.

No fue el único, fueron muchos, y ahora te dará igual, pero algo ya inaceptable que justificas con tu carácter y manera de ser en redes.

No comentaste nada en tweets pero sé que a nivel personal ahora mismo estás feliz de ver la situación. Solo quería mencionarte aquí para que sepas que mi dm sigue abierto, pero no te permitiré que me ignores otra vez si sacamos el tema de conversación pendiente.

bro treats girls like this but then comes to my dms being a dick sucker asking to be suggested to + / victimizing himself to be brought to + scrims, he's just an asshole and deserves to be excluded by other players, he just shows that he's an asshole and deserves to be alone

personalidad en los dms y pública según este post hacen un cambio radical. Primero generalizas como si yo tratara así a todas las mujeres,

comentarios que fueron durante una relación en internet.

Actualmente eres de los pocos high level que son activos, españoles y objetivamente buena persona. Comentarte algún que otro problema para adarme a partidas en su momento no creo que lo puedas describir como que soy un interesado, ya que siempre te he ayudado y apoyado en tus vida competitiva, y por decirte una sola vez el suggest cuando la anterior vez comentaste positivamente y te agradecí, ya que directamente piensas que tengo el nivel.

He sido alguien que tú mismo has visto que he ayudado positivamente a la gente y tu trato a veces era agradable, pero nunca me diste la oportunidad de Imagen y jugar un torneo, cuando te preguntaba al final jugabas con otras personas por el nivel que tenían, y tú sí fuiste un interesado al querer conseguir una badge que hice y al no poder jugarlo por nivel, buscaste la vía de “ayudar como TO” y públicamente no ayudaste nada a la organización de la cual ya ni eres parte porque no te dieron la badge cuando conseguiste ser staff.

Servidor donde solo enviaste 4 mensajes en meses ya que los otros solo fueron gifs si lo defendéis sois parte del problema. después Starfish era el “problema” de la comunidad y los “payasos”

la cara más visible de la comu española btw

Usar la exposición de comentarios de alguien para limpiar el historial de tu equipo es algo que no tiene relación dado que yo públicamente no he dicho nada en contra de vuestro equipo.

Soy de hecho fiel partidario que tu eres un pilar fundamental de tu equipo y a pesar de eso las decisiones que el equipo ha tomado a los largo de los últimos meses sobre las personas que actualmente forman parte de tu círculo cercano y servidor no han sido las correctas como imagen pública.

Inicialmente puede destacar que Neus se ha movido por vuestro servidores porque es un entorno que yo no tengo tan cercano ha supuesto en parte una decisión que al inicio no afectó pero luego con las siguientes influencias que llegaron tras ella si. El hecho de tener llamadas donde literalmente mi mención crea un odio comenzó tras la ruptura con Neus, añadiendo a User 1 a vuestro equipo y finalizando con User 2 y compañía. No digo que no puedas interactuar, hablar o tenerlos cerca, el problema fue simplemente la influencia que estas personas han dado al equipo, algo que me afecta claramente a mi por tweets como los tuyos cuando a ti yo no te he hecho nada directamente.

Me sorprende ver que tras esto me dais a conocer como la persona más visible de la comunidad española cuando ni yo mismo lo he afirmado. Porque realmente la persona que tiene esa influencia nunca ha tomado las riendas porque él mismo afirma no tener la capacidad, tiempo y dedicación para ello.

Volviendo a ti, eres el que más respeto de Starfish y seguramente tus tweets solo son para agrandar el tema. No me ha molestado que seas parte del grupo de personas que ha planeado esto, sinó que lo difundieran en todos los servidores posibles como si fuera algo ilegal o simplemente lo hiciste para que mas gente lo viera. Independientemente no me caes mal, y tu actitud frente a mi no creo que cambie, pero tienes mi dm abierto para cualquier cosa al igual que P.E.Ñ.A.

banned de peña, honestamente no estoy contento con las stats de mi speedrun lo podría haber hecho mejor porque desgraciadamente su servidor es de los q más atraen a gente nueva a la comunidad y queremos de todo menos que se relacionen con gente así de primeras 😞

Desgraciadamente también soy la persona que ha dedicado muchísimas horas, esfuerzo y dinero en algo que no tiene beneficio propio

Podemos ya echarlo a patadas de la comu o que 🤔🤔

He estado mirando nuestras interacciones estos años que a pesar de ser pocas la mayoría han sido positivas, no creo que seas una mala persona para nada, pero a pesar de conocerte poco se que te tomas muy personal el odio hacia personas que han hecho daño a amigos cercanos tuyos y lo comprendo, la comunidad hispana actualmente no suele opinar sobre las cosas que ve de manera pública y por ende dejamos que gente en estas últimas semanas yo siga jugando y haciendo como si nada hubiera pasado, pero al igual que el usuario 5, personalmente a ti no te he hecho nada, pero crear escándalos a pesar de ser consciente y parte involucrada de los tweets planeados, has molestado a personas y dado una imagen negativa de ti a muchas otras que no tienen nada que ver con el competitivo, nuevos jugadores, y jugadores casuales que no son conscientes de los motivos de tus actos.

No me molesta que difundas tu versión de las cosas, desde que entré a la comunidad hispana siempre he sufrido el problema de tener gente que me odia sin fundamentos o con fundamentos de una sola perspectiva como fue el caso de Epsilon.

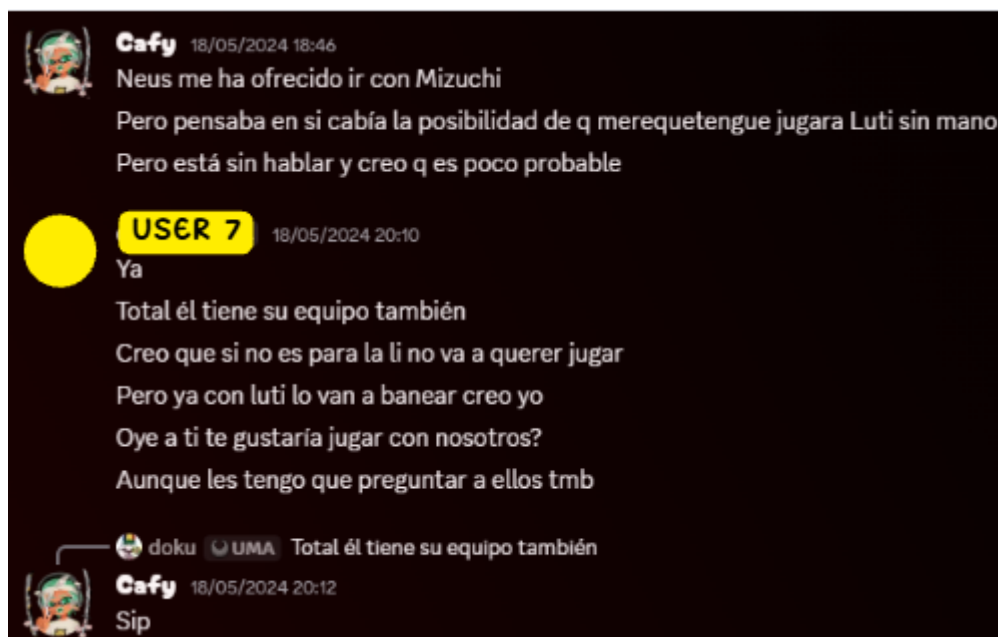

Los baneos de P.E.Ñ.A., servidor mío donde expusiste tus copy paste y opinión personal sobre los hechos antes que se mostrarán públicos no fueron decisión mía. Como en Starfish se dice que P.E.Ñ.A. es una dictadura hay mucha gente que es consciente de lo contrario, sobre todo el staff.

Un drama de splatoon 😊 cafy es una persona aparte de splatoon, no fue el juego el que lo hizo un violador en potencia, un machista, un sexista, un misógino y un transfóbico... Es él quien por experiencias de la vida es así y no parece que tenga ganas de cambiar así que lo →

Está claro que un juego no puede justificar el comportamiento de las personas. Pero una cosa son las acusaciones y otras las verdades. ¿Realmente ves mi caso como una violación? si es el caso porque no acudir a medidas legales, y exponer realmente lo que tus palabras dicen pero no tienes pruebas porque no existen. Agrandar la gravedad del asunto además diciendo que soy machista o transfóbico, donde ves ese tipo de mensajes en lo que se cuenta en la relación que apoyas.

Eres una persona que sigo teniendo respeto a pesar de que la mayoría de tus opiniones sobre los casos son privadas ya sean comentarios negativos o positivos como he comprobado a lo largo de nuestras interacciones, en parte me sorprende que hayas sido parte del grupo que planeó todo esto pero al igual que tu fuiste una persona que cambió su manera de verme en varias ocasiones, y que tras un caso que afectó cuando fuimos un equipo, viste que maduré y por eso me pediste jugar Luti con la misma gente con la que jugamos en el equipo Div 6.

Espero que al leer este documento tomes una decisión sobre tu opinión personal sobre mí y me lo hagas saber con actos. Porque a pesar de este tweet has seguido siendo una personable que apoyaba mis proyectos o aceptaba mis invitaciones. A ti directamente siempre te he tratado desde el respeto y por eso te pido lo mismo.

A pesar de todo lo que sé sobre ti, y realmente solo la perspectiva de Neus no coincide con mi opinión personal sobre tu manera de ser.

Ser consciente de ser la expareja de Neus durante 2 años y ser la persona a quien ella afirma que le ha creado traumas, dependencia e inestabilidad emocional era el tema de conversación cuando a veces ella estaba deprimida. A pesar de todo lo que sé sobre ti, te he dado muchas oportunidades de seguir siendo mi amigo, te he animado y ayudado a que mejores como persona y como jugador, animando cada vez que dejabas el juego porque no te satisface y cuando no entras en el +3, te invité siempre el primero a mis proyectos porque sabía que conmigo tu manera de ser era diferente, pero hablar conmigo siempre fue algo secundario porque la persona con quien siempre has mantenido contacto es Neus, la misma que te acusa de que tu fuiste el un gran error en su vida, al cual le sigue hablando porque no puede desprenderse de ti y realmente tu presencia fue un problema en mi relación con ella. No te culpo por volver a hablarte con ella, culpo a Neus porque así como es consciente que le causaste muchísimo daño no es capaz de aprender a soltar.

Siempre te consideraré alguien que a pesar de tener una personalidad agresiva, en parte egoísta y con poca estabilidad mental fuiste mi amigo. Tras conseguir tus logros me dejaste atrás, porque como muchos se olvida de quienes te han ayudado, pero descarte por tomar este tema como otros luego de acerca más a la comunidad de nuevo tras tus acciones de suplantación de identidad en un torneo como más reciente entre otras, tu amistad con Neus es algo que no beneficia a ninguna parte.

Y podría seguir enseñando capturas pero es suficiente con esto para exponer cómo es vuestra relación a pesar de vuestra relación hace años.

Opinión personal

Inicialmente no tenía pensado subir este documento, porque quitando mi dignidad digital y los prejuicios que me tienen los demás no es algo que haya afectado gravemente a mi vida fuera de internet. Un motivo relevante por el cual he tardado casi 2 semanas en hacer este documento es porque actualmente tener 2 trabajos e ir a la universidad me quita mucho tiempo.

Las imágenes expuestas por Neus puedo afirmar que no fue un acto individual de ella, otros usuarios han afirmado tener conocimientos o ser partícipes de planear el día, la fecha y las capturas elegidas para manchar lo más posible mi imagen como alguien con algo de relevancia pública.

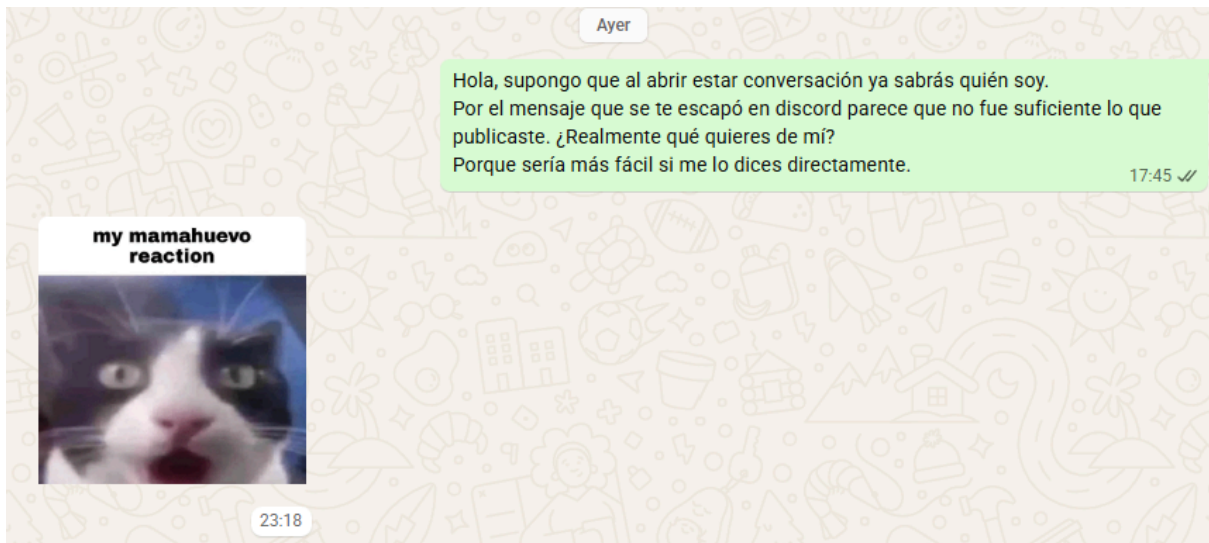

No puedo no culparte siempre y al final ha sido tu decisión publicar todo eso y al enterarse de este documento has decidido también publicar uno, o así me lo estas haciendo saber indirectamente el día de hoy bloqueandome tras buscar una palabra la cual enviaste en el dm sin querer. Así como tengo conocimiento desde junio de este mismo año.

Mi privado siempre ha estado abierto, se que eres una persona bastante influenciable y puedo decirte de corazón que tus influencias no parecen positivas y no solo para mí si no para muchos otros, además de que realmente me ha preocupado la cantidad de personas que me ha pedido que escriba esto porque según palabras de ellos afirman que tu imagen debe ser manchada así como ha sido la mía.

Realmente te deseo que seas feliz con la persona que estés ahora o con quienes quieras compartir tu vida, me disculpo de nuevo por todo lo que he hecho pasar, por hacerte sentir mal tantas veces. Y ambos sabemos que este documento no incluye toda la información mala dicha ambas partes durante la relación pero creo ya no es necesario seguir exponiendo de manera pública algo que no beneficia a ninguno.

En el fondo de mi corazón sigo pensando que detrás de ese odio actual, no has olvidado las cosas bonitas que hemos pasado juntos.
