

Glenwood Community West Elementary School
5th Grade Social Studies Curriculum
Approved Date - June 2022

Course ID:	Course Purpose: The student will analyze and determine how the foundational documents of the United States were developed and how those documents guided decisions. The student will evaluate rights and responsibilities of US citizens, and explain how those rights and cultures shape laws for those who live within a society. The student will also evaluate how to determine financial management through exploration of banking, household, and money management strategies.
-------------------	---

Course Outcomes	Outcome Components	Description	Iowa Core
SS.5.1	The student will analyze how the foundational documents of the United States guide and impact governments at the national, state, and/or local levels.
	SS.5.1.1	Identify the purpose of foundational documents that formed the United States.
	SS.5.1.2	Compare different levels of government (national, state, local) in the United States
	SS.5.1.3	Analyze foundational documents and how they guide the United States Government (national, state, and/or local levels).
SS.5.2	The students will analyze the rights and responsibilities of U.S. citizens at the national, state, and/or local levels and how they shape our society.
	SS.5.2.1	Identify the rights and responsibilities of U.S. citizens at the national, state, and/or local levels
	SS.5.2.2	Summarize how rights and responsibilities shape our society at the national, state, and/or local level.
	SS.5.2.3	Compare rights and responsibilities at the national, state, and/or local levels.
SS.5.3	The students will evaluate how U.S. citizens change laws or rules within our society to determine how they shape the economic, political, and/or social issues in the United States.
	SS.5.3.1	Explain how laws are enacted and changed within society.
	SS.5.3.2	Describe the movement of goods and/or services within different regions.
	SS.5.3.3	Determine how rules or laws shape economic, political, and/or social issues.
SS.5.4	The student will apply individual and household finance strategies, regarding saving and spending.

	SS.5.4.1	Define bills, credit cards (interest), debit cards, savings accounts, checking accounts.
	SS.5.4.2	Identify money management methods regarding saving and spending.
	SS.5.4.3	Critique a budget showing income and expenses regarding savings and spending.	