

Chapter 16 Essential Question:

Was the Supreme Court ruling in Plessy v. Ferguson justifiable considering the time period the decision was reached?

- With your partner you need to come up with two answers for this question, one answering in the affirmative, one answering in the negative. The answers need to be in complete sentences.
- You need to support each answer with at least two reasons/pieces of evidence. You can find the information to answer this question anywhere (The textbook or any internet source).
- This time you also need to list your sources where you found your information. Even if you find the information in the textbook you need to list that as a source. You need to make sure Also, you will need to write a short paragraph assessing the sources that you use. In the paragraph please explain whether or not the source is credible and why it was useful.
