

Human Geography Study Guide

Final Exam

*DON'T JUST MEMORIZE DEFINITIONS! Make sure you understand them and can answer critical thinking questions about them.

Kenyan Industry

Globalization

What is Human geography cultural and natural landscape spatial approach to Human Geography sense of place

relative location

absolute location

scale

Village of 100-percent of people located in cultural/geographic regions

TFR/Replacement Rate/Global TFR Trends

Concerns and solutions to countries facing aging population and limited birth rates

Most populated countries in the world now and in the future

Major population centers

China population policies

India population policies

Demographic transition

Population policies and eugenics

All forms of disease

Population growth through the ages

Effect of reaching "Peak Child"

Heating and cooling of the earth

Glaciations and interglaciations

Renewable and non-renewable resources

Renewable energy for replacing oil

Renewable energy for replacing coal

World distribution of precipitation

Plate tectonics/ring of fire/effect of Water/hydro cycle

Global issues related to water shortages

Political ecology

Kuwait case study

Kyoto protocol

Causes of climate change

Problems related to climate change

Solutions for climate change

Reasons to switch to alternative energy

Networks of Globalization

Backbone of Globalization

Characteristics of Globalization

Groups associated with Globalization

China-Purchase power parity

US/China GDP and Trade

Disney Corporation

Horizontal Integration

Vertical Integration

Global Chains